Editor's Notes

December ends a banner year of hashing which included such outstanding events as Eurohash in Krakow, InterAmericas Hash in Portland, and Pan Asia Hash in Pondicherry.

For a change of scene this edition of Harrier Magazine heads to the Arabian Peninsula for Qatar's 2,500th Run. Sand dunes and fun awaited those hardy souls who braved the desert sun in search of something to quench their thirst.

Do the cold winter nights have you dreaming of an idyllic summer hashing in Europe? You could start off on the banks of the Rhine, in Dusseldorf at German Nash Hash. From Deutschland cross the channel to the Isle of Wight for a Medieval Weekend. Follow all that fun with Swiss Nash Hash and Danish Nash Hash if you were lucky enough to register early.

Hazukashii brings us a brief History of Hashing in the Hawaiian Islands, dubbed by Mark Twain as "The loveliest fleet of islands that lies anchored in any ocean". In honor of 25 years of Hashing, the Aloha Hash House Harriers are celebrating with a 7-day interisland Hash cruise to Maui, The Big Island, and Kauai. If you've been looking for a reason to visit Hawaii this could be it.

Since you are halfway across the Pacific you might as well journey on to Vung Tau, Vietnam for some serious hashing with an Asian twist.

Enjoy more irreverent Hash Humor with John Denny's Stockholm Absolut Hash Trash, and Nut & Honey's Adventures of Hash Boy.

With scores of great events coming up in the months ahead, I hope to see you on trail soon.

On On,

HASHING IN THE PERSIAN GULF

A MILESTONE IN QATAR
THE 2500TH RUN
by Dave 'The Rev' Stanton

H3 approached their 2,500th with a typical Hash mismanagement philosophy:

We should celebrate it – (two years ago)

We really ought to mark the occasion – (one year ago)

Bloody Hell, it's three months away – (let's form a sub-committee)

The sub-committee was, in fact, the committee, and jobs were handed out to "willing volunteers" to get it sorted.

QH3 has had, over the years, matured into one of the longest established mobs in the Middle East, nay the World. This scribe remembers coming with an away-team from Abu Dhabi MH3 to the 1,000th run, circa 1992.

CONTENTS

Qatar is small island although I suppose, technically, it's an isthmus to Saudi Arabia; uniquely barren and wealthy all at the same time. Never have so many people habituated an unlovely chunk of real estate.

Some of the more risqué hash passions are rarely seen on a Hash whose average member won't see fifty again – unless it's for the second time around. But, here's the thing, these ancient denizens remember what it was like to have a good time, dance with a partner, walk a girl home, smoke substances and, above all, party. Real drinkers with a running problem.

There is a rolling membership of well over a hundred with about fifty regulars producing a weekly attendance of around 25. But, for our 2,500th we attracted 69 souls, an appropriate Hashy number !!

For the record:

Hares : Too Many Cox, Hand Job and Brown Side Down

HM : Fifty Shades of Grey

RA: The Well-Hung Monkey

BBQ Meister : Bad Company

Muckers-in : Brown Side Down, Plonker, Camel Pimp, One Hump or Two, Badgers Bollocks, Canary Dwarf and the Reverend Leroy

And this is how it all went down on the day.

Badgers Bollocks (Hash Beers) called this scribe two hours before the run asking where the signs were, (we need those to get us to the right spot in the desert). I was just out of the shower, loading-up the car for a one hour drive to the CP. BB was a tad “competitive” for me.

By the time 14.30 arrived, we pretty much had a full assemblage and, after a few words from 50 Shades of Grey (HM), it was On-On over the first hill. (A hill, in Qatar, being anything over 5 metres).

About half the pack were running and the rest were not doing anything in the slightest bit energetic.

Almost all were wearing their “Not the 2,500th Run” T shirts – the official items of said clothing having been detained at the Saudi border as being suspicious.!! This on the day before the run – but, we are Hashers; we don’t let Governments get in the way. T shirts were “procured”.

The first check was reached after the third “hill” and the pack favoured a route to the left to seek out the trail. They were right, and headed-off in their own dust storm towards the mangrove shoreline; where they found the second check. It took a long time for the new trail to be found – a typical comment by now was “I can’t bloody run any more”, to which an overheard response was, “Might have to do with the five beers you consumed before the On”.

Not since the headwaters of the Brahmaputra were found, has so much joy been expressed as there was on the third check; where a 4WD had been secreted, behind a “hill”, loaded with beverages of the most excellent sort.

After thirty minutes of convivial intercourse, a group photo was taken followed by cries of On-On from Dildo Dan. The elder statesmen, various women, children and dogs trotted, (poetic licence), on-in to the CP.

Whilst preparations for the circle ensued, raffle tickets were sold and hashers nibbled nibbles.

On-On to the raffle and Bad Company's excellent BBQ, ably and wonderfully topped-up with all manner of complimentary condiments from a myriad of volunteers. This against the backdrop of a setting sun in, for a change, dust free clear skies. Beautiful, almost glorious.

Then, as the skies quickly darkened and the stars appeared, as if diamonds on black velvet, it was craic time until, as usual, the least experienced desert drivers decided to leave the CP alone and embed their cars in the dunes where they waited, inebriate, for other similarly affected hashers to dig them out.

Oh what fun we had !!

And don't forget:

Arabian InterGulf 2016- 3,4 & 5th November 2016
-Venue Muscat, OMAN

A great circle from the HM followed by the mystery RA; who turned out to be the hash legend in his own lifetime, The Well Hung Monkey. People got wet and messy with the final recipient being doused in some brown mess of potage whilst, under his shirt, was placed the rotten fish that the harriettes had just been made to kiss. (You had to be there !!)

HASHING IN EUROPE

At the 2015 German Nash Hash in Berlin, the C.R.A.P. H3 was the lone candidate (maybe there was another, but my memory is a bit foggy about the details) to sponsor the 2016 German Nash Hash. After a little prodding, Noble Locks stumbled into the circle, mumbled a bit about the C.R.A.P. H3 feeling up to the task, but I reckon his mentioning 250+ pubs being in the Düsseldorf Altstadt and that we would run in the “Neandertal” evoked some positive hash-like images and did a lot to clinch it.

So, just who are the C.R.A.P. H3? Well ... "In the very beginning there was Bonn H3. They split up into Bonn H3, Cologne H3 and Düsseldorf H3. Finally they merged to become the Combined Rhine Area Pack = C. R. A. P. – that's the short version".

The 2016 German Nash Hash event will be held Friday-Sunday, 17-19 June 2016, in Düsseldorf. The venue is the modern Düsseldorf Youth Hostel, which has plenty of capacity to lodge a couple hundred hashers and is located directly on the west bank of the Rhine River. By the way, in a little over two months we already have well over 100 registrations. We'll have a Düsseldorfer Altbier and a Pilsner Bier on tap, a Red Dress Run, plus plenty of food, entertainment and excellent running areas for long, medium and short runs, plus a ball breaker run. Hawaii Hashing

A Brief History

by Hazukashii

There were various unorganized hash runs in Hawaii back in mid the 1970s, but it was not until 1978 when the first organized hash club formed when Castel Myers moved to the islands from Bangkok, where he first experienced hashing with the newly founded Bangkok Men's H3 (The BH3 started in 1977).

Looking around the lush green hills that were lined with plenty of trails, Castel thought Hawaii would be a great place to hash. So he put the word out and soon had his friends Russ Hoylman, Hutch Hutchinson, Dave Benson, and Dick Hoyer to join him. On 16 March 1978, the Honolulu Hawaii Hash House Harriers (H5) conducted the first hash trail, running every other Tuesday evening in the early days. The packs were small and there were no circles conducted after the run, but there was a lot of horseplay with beer chugging being a common event, with winners collecting various prizes. On one occasion the prize was a live chicken, which ended up as a menu item at the Chop Suey shop they frequented after their runs. The H5 runs every Tuesday evening with a pack of 15-30 hashers.

During the 1980s, the popularity increased and the H5 began running every Tuesday evening. There were rumors of other hash clubs forming and folding on Oahu, which is the home of Pearl Harbor, but it was not until the 1990s when the next major hash was born.

The Aloha H3 was founded on 22 Sep 1991. Based on the island of Oahu, this hash and was founded by Ed “Hazukashii” Howell, Scott “Anal Farmer” Sheldon, and Kip “DOT” Carpenter. Hazukashii and Anal Farmer met on a Tuesday evening while running a trail with the Honolulu hash in July of 1991. Although they enjoyed the easy laid back atmosphere, they reminisced about Asia where they started hashing (Haz on Okinawa in 1984, and Anal Farmer in Seoul in 1989). During the 90s, the Aloha Hash had away weekends on many of the other Hawaiian Islands, but now other hash clubs have formed on Maui and the Big Island, so a travel hash, the Volcano H3, sponsors most of the off island hash trips. The AH3 runs Saturday afternoons with a pack of 40-60 hashers.

The Hawaii Full Moon H3 in 11 Mar 1992 by Scott “Anal Farmer” Sheldon and Paul “Flying Booger” Woodford. Each hasher is required to sing a song or tell a joke, while first receiving a cherished down down while sitting on a block of ice. The HFM3 runs monthly, on a day close to the full moon. Pack size varies from 10-20 hashers.

The Oahu Pickup H3 was founded 15 Jan 1997 by Brad “Knocked Up” Davis and Pete “Wet Meat” Whitby. In standard pickup fashion, anyone who arrives at the start could be selected to hare an impromptu trail. Heading out with a 5 minute head start, the object is to snare the hare, and thus take the bag of flour and chalk and continue setting the trail from that point in succession, until around an hour when trail should be returned to the original starting point. The OPH3 runs on the first Thursday of the month, but pack size is small, usually less than 10.

CONTENTS

The Life's a Beach (LAB) H3 was founded on 8 Apr 2001 at Tracks Beach on the west side of Oahu by "Shut The Fuck Up Over There" and "Early Withdrawal" and runs monthly on a Sunday afternoon. Originally, it started as the Life's a Beach H3. They created A Slippa flag, collected a lousy buck, and started officially with a set time schedule of dates. They met 35 times before actually setting a trail for the pack on 17 Nov 2002 at Nimitz Beach...with 5 Hashers in pursuit. As they started meeting on a regular basis, Jack the Ripper coined the name, "LABIA H3" as in Life's A Beach Its Awesome H3. It's been all a beach since then.

The Kukini Nui (Big Runner) H3 was founded in October of 2005 by Michael "mom" Matsumoto, and runs on the standard pickup hash format. The KNH3 runs on the third Thursday of the month, but pack size is small, usually less than 10.

The Harriettes of Oahu H3 was founded on 14 Jul 2008 by Colleen "Liquor Up" Vanrisseghem as a hash organized for the ladies (but they let the lads join in on occasion). The HO Hash runs once a month on Sunday afternoon, with a pack of 15-30 hashers.

On the other islands, the Maui H3 was founded by Jacob "Bombs In Bed" Fewx on 6 Oct 2002. Hashes are sporadic, so plan ahead if you want to get in on the action.

On the Big Island, the Kona Coast H3 was founded on 23 Oct 2004 by Kevin "Babble-On" Kavanagh and Jennifer "Quickie" Watt. The KCH3 runs monthly. Also on the Big Island, the Hilo Gets Me Wet H3 was founded by Tim "Takes It Up The Aft" Zimmerman and Trojan F*ck Horse in Nov 2014.

So hashing is alive and well in this remote island chain in the middle of the Pacific Ocean.

Vung Tau City is tucked away on a peninsula at the mouth of the Saigon River in southern Vietnam, nestled between two distinctive landmarks known as Big and Small Mountain. It's a resort town with the notable distinction of hosting most of the country's offshore oil & gas industry.

The city of three hundred thousand or so is not on the main north-south tourist trail, but it's only one hour by hydrofoil ferry or two hours by bus from Ho Chi Minh, which makes it very popular for Saigoneses on the weekends – as well as savvy tourists – many of whom can be found on Back Beach, which stretches as far north as the eye can see!

The local Hash chapter is widely known as VTH3. It was founded in 1992 and currently lists nearly 250 members, including a vibrant mix of itinerant oil & gas workers from around the world, a solid band of locals, a growing number of expat English teachers and businesspeople, and the ubiquitous retirees! They run, walk or crawl(!) every Sunday, with average attendance between 30 and 40 – actual numbers fluctuating week by week according to shift rosters.

“Crawl”? Yes, VTH3 is a fiercely proud family Hash and the youngest member will shortly celebrate his 3rd birthday!

A big attraction for running with VTH3 is an appreciation of the local countryside and culture “up close and personal” – being regularly exposed to sites (and sights) that the average tourist could never hope to see!

CONTENTS

COOLING OFF TIME FOR THE WATER BUFFALOES.

FRIENDLY LOCALS TYPIFY THE CULTURE IN VUNG TAU.

Small Mountain, on the eastern point of the peninsula, is home to the iconic, 32 metre tall statue of “Jesus with outstretched arms”. Tourists are able to climb the 600+ steps to the statue and then another 100+ inside to reach the outstretched arms, which provide “balconies” for visitors and their cameras to look across the city on one side and the East Sea (aka South China Sea) on the other.

An alternative route to the statue, and one that’s very popular with VTH3, is to follow a trail on the back of the mountain and through a local village full of happy children who flock around the Hashers to joyfully practise their English at every opportunity!

A site that's arguably just as popular is the lighthouse on the other peak of Small Mountain. Tourists reach the top by sealed road, but Hashers have several trails they love to follow through the bush – again, meeting local “mountain people” on the way!

Big Mountain is the “jewel in VTH3’s crown”. It extends about 6 km and has four main peaks, all of which offer several trails for intrepid Hashers. One of VTH3’s Russian contingent earned the Hashtag “Mountain Goat” because of her in-depth knowledge of trails on Big Mountain. She and her faithful K9 “Hashputin” must have covered every inch of Big Mountain over the years – probably several times over!

There are many fishing villages dotted along the Vung Tau coastline, which extends more than 20 kilometres north of the city without coming even close to anywhere more populous than the occasional general store.

And then there's beautiful, serene Long Son Island on the western side of the peninsula, reached via the Go Gang Island bridges – which are themselves home to an abundance of Hash trails through the local prawn and oyster farms (and where VTH3 will hold its 2015 Red Dress charity run early December).

HASHERS ENJOY SPECTACULAR VIEWS FROM ON HIGH.

LOCALS ARE USED TO SEEING HASHERS HEAD FOR THE MOUNTAINS.

ON TOP OF THE WORLD!

A bit further north, to the west of the provincial capital, Ba Ria, is Dinh Mountain (aka Nui Dinh) – arguably the chapter’s favourite “away destination” because of the swimming pool café halfway to the top! And on the eastern side is a range of mountains known collectively as “the Long Hais”, which are very popular with trekking groups – and of course the Hash!

As far as possible, VTH3 alternates its runs, with a “local” run one week (Big Mountain, Jesus Hill, Lighthouse Hill or the beach and fishing villages); and an “away” run the next: Go Gang and Long Son islands, Nui Dinh, or Long Hai and the Minh Dam Base area. They’re all within about 40 minutes by bus, which is just long enough for a lusty sing-song on the way back into town to “On On” with a game of petanque and refreshments at Café Bi Săt, which “coincidentally” happens to be owned by a couple of Hashers!

VTH3 mismanagement team is proud of its city and family-oriented Hash – and cordially invites everyone to browse the website for a better understanding of how they will enjoy a visit to Vung Tau.

VUNG TAU HASH RED DRESS RUN 2015

SUNDAY, 6 DECEMBER

Join us for a day of fun, frivolity and “feel good” as we go to nearby Go Gang Island for this year’s Red Dress Run, ending at the Elementary School where we’ll meet locals including the inevitable mob of smiling children and distribute rice and other gifts to the needy.

Meet from 2 pm for 2.30 pm start: Café Bi Sắt, 12 Hung Vuong, Vung Tau City (near Le Loi hospital – see website for details).

Prior registration not required and normal run fees apply: Adult males 120k VND, adult females and students 80k, children 5-16 50k.

Plus any voluntary donation you might care to make!

Prize for the best “red dress” on the day!

Happiness guaranteed!

On On!

KOREA

- A REFRESHING HASHING EXPERIENCE

Hanyang Hash House Harriers & Harriettes (H5) of Korea is proud to offer itself as host of Pan Asia Hash 2017. The fact that there has never been any large scale hashing event in Korea means that, for most of the prospective participants, this Pan Asia will be a very refreshing hashing experience indeed.

We specifically chose Sokcho City as the event venue: on the fringe of this city is the world-renowned Seorak Mountain National Park which, for many Korean soap opera aficionados, has often been the surreal backdrop. The proposed dates are similarly selected, for late October ushers in the most spectacular autumnal colours, best highlighted by the rainbow hues of the maples.

Participants will get to savour the K-food phenomenon that has been taking the gastronomic world literally by storm. Be enamored by the extensive spread of Korean delights - the quintessential Ginseng Chicken Soup; the omnipresent mouth-watering beef, lamb, and pork barbecues; the huge varieties of fresh – and often live - seafood eaten either raw/sashimi-style, or prepared in dozens of off-secret recipes unbeknownst to other parts of the world. All these, and more, washed down with world famous brands of beers, or with the uniquely Korean soju and makgoeli.

The time is ripe for a refreshing change of scenery, of style, of food and beverage, and of a completely new hashing experience. We are a new troupe of organizers, backed by the provincial government, and supported by experience from the Motherland of hashing.

Give your affirmation for a refreshing change!

KOREA - THE VENUE OF CHOICE

- ACCESSIBLE – round trip as low as USD200-250 from most SE Asian cities
- AFFORDABLE – conveniently located rooms could be had for as little as USD35-40
- ASTHETIC – be enchanted by autumn at its full fall colours
- VIRGINAL – hash in assuredly hitherto never-before-hashed territory
- GOVERNMENT-BACKED – the provincial government is enthusiastically supportive
- GASTRONOMIC – pamper your sensory glands with inimitable K-flavours
- INTOXICATING – infuse yourself with the full range of uniquely Korean beverages
- COMFORTABLE – experience hashing in low-humidity at temperatures in the mid-teens
- ENTERTAINING - revel in live K-pop performances and cultural shows
- PERFECTION – enjoy the Koreans' relentless strive for perfection!

Come and hash with Hamlet at the 5th Danish Nash Hash!

Copenhagen Viking Wankers are taking over a hostel in the town of Helsingør (Elsinore) on 8th, 9th and 10th July, 2016. Easy to get to from Copenhagen we are a stone's throw from Hamlet's Castle (Kronborg Slot) and a short ferry ride across the Øresund to Sweden. We can promise great local beer (not Carlsberg), great countryside, great runs, great food and great fun. What more do you need? Full details, information and registration form are available at www.nashhash.dk

The Copenhagen Viking Wankers (www.ch3.dk) have been hashing in and around Denmark for over 35 years, our runs vary from town, to country, to seaside all within easy reach of the capital. We run every week of the year,

(c) Copenhagen H3, 2012

Monday evenings in the Summer and Saturday afternoons in the winter. Sun, rain or snow you will always find us on trail somewhere.

Known for putting on a great party weekend we are proud of the fact that your registration includes everything, accommodation, food, goody bag, runs, circle, music dancing and all the beer/wine/softies that you can drink. Just one note, keep the noise down in the circle or we will have to send our famous nurses to administer a shot of Gammel Danske!

Cambodia Nash Hash 2016 Sihanouville, March 25, 26, 27

Come join us down on the coast for a great weekend of Hashing in Cambodia's premier beach town, Sihanouville.

Located on a peninsula ringed with sandy beaches, jutting into the warm waters of the Gulf of Thailand, Sihanouville offers everything from a laid back chair under a shady tree with a thatched roof beach shack to 24 hour bars and an endless party vibe. A number of tropical unspoilt islands just offshore offer endless opportunities for snorkelling, swimming, bush walking, running or lazing about under a tree with a beer from one of the rustic bars.

Q: Where can I view my current subscription term so that I know when my subscription ends?
A: To view your current subscription term and renewal subscriptions sign on at www.harriermagazine.com/subscriptions/ and click on the "My Subscriptions" link. All subscriptions will be displayed.
Q: I moved a while ago and asked the postal service to have my mail forwarded to my new address yet I still have not received any magazines. When can I expect to receive my copies?
A: If your mailing address has changed please take a minute to email your new address to customerservice@harriermagazine.com. This will ensure that you receive your next issue in a timely manner or at all. A magazine is in a mail classification that is not always forwarded to the new address by the postal service. Unforwardable mail is usually either returned to the sender or discarded.

Hash Boy & Foamy

Hash the Public Trough

NO. 282
Give me your muddled hashers yearning to drink free!

A downturn in HB's economy
I won't be attending your On-On-On.
We'll try to have 'em without you...
HASH SPECIAL
NORMAL BOTTLES $100
BOTTLES $150
That waiter's smug!
I luv laka food!

That night, he writes his Senator
Dear Senator McGroin
I'm writing to ask for any government money to help subsidize my research on the effect of drinking and running, and it's effect (if any) on the environment.
Please see what you can do as my situation is most dire.
yer loyal constituent,
Hash Boy

A few days later in Hashington
Miss Melones take dictation.

A few weeks later
Wahoo!
Dear Mash Boy!
Congratulations! Your request for funds has been approved. Your first book-let of Hash Vouchers will be on it's way.
Your ancillary supplies- flour, chalk, beer & trail grade toilet tissue will be shipped to you before the end of the fiscal year.

Some strings attached
Hmmm, this is less encouraging.
The following limitations apply: You are to use only Government Surplus Stock
* Guatamalan Flour, in lots of 2 tons
* Korean Beer: 5,000 Bottles
* Kenyan Chalk: 1 mil. sticks
* Afghan Toilet Tissue: 20,000 rolls- partially used
Please address questions to the Dept. of No One Gives A Rat's Ass.
yours, Senator McGroin

Soon the provisions began arriving
A YEARS WORTH OF HASHING VOUCHERS!!
Flour house is a very, very nice house!

Fooley: This beer tastes like Formaldehyde, and it's got FLOATIES!
The flour is a nesting ground of WEEVILS.
yah, it's PISSwater.

The expiration date on this chalk is 1987!
The T.P. is like Sandpaper & it's irritating MY ROIDS!
I've seen finer bird grit.

A plead for help
Hi Phil:
If you irritate a bad situation, it will get worse. Somebody semi-famous said that, and I do believe that it applies here.
As of now, my landlord is threatening eviction, the Hash Cash wants my nuts on a plate- in six hashes, and Foamy can't sit right.
HELP! - Situation all fucked up,
H.B.

A couple of weeks later
I'll have my voice heard at the Dept. of Hash Affairs. I'll VISIT THE TOMB OF THE UN-NAMED HASHER!
Dear Koy
I'm sympathetic to your plight. And, indeed feel slightly responsible for it. Why don't you & your little doggie be my guest in Hashington, all expenses paid.
I'm certain that we can straighten this out.
Senator McGroin

At the Airport
wait'll they see the crap I'm gonna hit them with... I'VE GOT AN AGENDA THAT WILL CAST A SHADOW!!
This is fuckin' humiliatin!!

A SHORT ACCOUNT OF THE STOCKHOLM UNDERGROUND RUN # 1105

It was in Sumpán, it was dark, it was chilly, it was a trifle wet. The trail was set in some slightly disappearing chalk but with an added ingredient of some see-able sawdust. The run reminded me of the nursery rhyme "round and round the garden like a teddy bear" etc. We ran under, over, through, around, and alongside a canal. We had view stops x 2, DN, DVN, HOLD, DN, DVN, and DS. We had with us a returnee, a Harriette from Beijing with the name of Stiff Lip or was it Stiff Lips. She was quite concerned about a friend of hers, Maria, whom had missed her train but was on her way. On further investigation the person in question was our own Wet One. , well, I observed this Stiff Lip along the trail (well she is a nice looking Harriette) marking the trail in chalk to enable Wet One to catch us up. Eventually we came to the drink Stop and was rewarded with some tasty cider , some non-alcoholic beverage and crisps of different sorts. Hare Sprintosaurus then kindly advised us that we would receive real beer at the circle. Finally we all arrived at the On Inn whereupon a circle was formed and DD's administered. Real beer (Mariestad was in abundance) We even had some non-alcoholic drink for the car drivers and teetotalers of the day. We then retired to the Three Brothers to eat drink and be merry. Some statistics;- According to my calculations we were 19 Hashers. 7 Harriettes and 12 Harriers. We had one virgin "Just Niklas" introduced by Siliconfect. We also met an old friend and hasher namely, Sugar Kane. He was ensconced in the corner of the pub enjoying a gigantic burger. Whilst eating and drinking we unfortunately saw Malmo thrashed by PSG with Zlatan scoring one goal.....SirClever Dick

IF THE POPPY AND REMEMBRANCE DAY UPSETS YOU IN ANY WAY

JE SUIS AUSTRALIEN

During November there was a day that defined us as Australians. Where a slip of a girl stood astride the world stage and told those who think only a man can have an affiliation with a horse to, 'get stuffed'.

Bearded billionaire owners in white robes and bereft of womenfolk were not present but could be heard squirming as they watched from a distance.

Her main concern was for her Down syndrome brother as she cuddled and kissed him on her return. Everything else could bloody-well wait.

Stuff the $6.2 million... little Stevie's ten bucks on his sister had been the most important result.

Time stood still for a moment as Parramatta mosque and dishonest politicians took a back seat to a magical display of who we really are as Aussies.

Her family of 12 had lost their mother 30 years earlier leaving their trainer dad to raise a family of horses and horse lovers on the smell of an oily rag. Her sister lost her life in a race fall in 2007 but even that did not deter Michelle Payne's dream of a Melbourne Cup. Her silky smooth riding style allowed her mount to relax in running until, with 300 metres to go, the heavens opened and they both ignited as one and forged past the best the world could offer.

Michelle certainly has attitude but it's a good Aussie attitude we must never ever lose..... Way to go

EMIGRATION COMPLETELY OUT OF CONTROL

Emigration is completely out of control in this country, and I'm sick of it.

I'm not staying quiet any more. You can't walk down a street in Jamaica or Hong Kong or India without hearing someone speaking English, and in Canada and Australia we have even introduced our own legal system, decimated local communities and installed our own head of state! DISGUSTING!

"English has now been imposed as the official language of 57 sovereign countries! FIFTY SEVEN!!! What the hell? Who do we think we are?!"

And the government is doing nothing: any British person can just pack their bags and go and live anywhere in the world at ANY TIME and nobody in the British government will do anything to stop them.

"If I wanted to, I could just get on a plane to Germany tomorrow, get a job in their booming economy and live there for the rest of my life!

My parents could up and retire to Spain or Portugal at a moment's notice! Why should we have that right?

It's political correctness gone mad! (And it's also probably, somehow, part of the war on Christmas, and health and safety and women thinking it's ok to wear comfortable, unsexy clothing.)

The figures speak for themselves: 1,300,000 Britons live in Australia; 761,000 in Spain; 678,000 in the USA; 603,000 in Canada; 291,000 in Ireland (11,200 of whom are drawing unemployment benefit from the Irish state), and even 8,500 in Mexico and 7,100 in Kuwait!

And quite a few in Sweden but goodness knows why? We're literally EVERYWHERE!

I bet there's at least one branch of Greggs in the Falklands. We need to close our borders immediately before the situation gets even worse for everyone else.

We are sleepwalking into a nightmare...!!

---onon---

Someone told me we had to take our clocks back a few weeks ago. I'm stuffed, as I've lost the receipts and can't remember where I bought them.

WHOOPS There goes another American dream

WE ARE ALL DOOMED

There's no end to stupidity of some United States elected officials.

Just when you think you have heard all of the stupid things that are going on in the US — this comes along...

Now it's Black hurricanes....

Well, it appears our African-American friends have found yet something else to be pissed about.

A black congresswoman (this would be Sheila Jackson Lee, of Houston), reportedly complained that the names of hurricanes are all Caucasian sounding names.

She would prefer some names that reflect African-American culture such as Chamiqua, Tanisha, Weoisha, Shaquille, and Jamal. We are NOT making this up!

She would also like the weather reports to be broadcast in 'language' that street people can understand because one of the problems that happened in New Orleans was, that black people couldn't understand the seriousness of the situation, due to the racially biased language of the weather report.

I guess if the weather person says that the winds are going to blow at 140 MPH, that's too hard to understand.

I can hear it now: A weatherman in New Orleans says...

"Wazzup, mutha-fukkas! Hehr-i-cane Chamiqua be headin' fo' yo ass like Leroy on a rocket! Bitch be a category fo'! So, turn off dem chitlins, grab yo' chiren, leave yo crib, and head fo' de nearest FEMA office fo yo FREE shit."

---onon---

Meanwhile a woman was enjoying a good game of golf with her girlfriends.

"Oh, no!" she suddenly exclaimed.

"Look at the time! I have to rush home and fix dinner for my husband.

He'll be so annoyed if it's not ready on time."

When she got home, she discovered all she had in the fridge was a wilted lettuce leaf, an egg and a can of cat food.

With no time to go to the supermarket, she opened the can of cat food,

Stirred in the egg and garnished it with the lettuce leaf.

She greeted her husband warmly when he came home, and then watched in horror as he sat down to his dinner.

To her surprise, he seemed to be enjoying it.

"Darling, this is the best dinner you've made me in 40 years of marriage! You can make this for me any day."

Needless to say, every golf day from then on, the woman made her husband the same dish.

She told her golf partners about it and they were all horrified. "You're Going to kill him!" they exclaimed.

Two months later, her husband died. The women were sitting around the clubhouse, and one of them said, "You killed him! We told you that feeding him cat food every week would do him in! How can you just sit there so calmly knowing you murdered your husband?"

The wife stoically replied, "I didn't kill him. He fell off the window sill while he was licking his arse!"

FACTS ABOUT YOUR FARTS

Farting is the act of passing intestinal gases through the anus. These can sometimes be odourless and sometimes deathly. But do you know why you pass gas? Do you know why your farts are sometimes as loud as a blow horn or as quiet as a mouse? The facts below will tell you a thing or two about something everyone does multiple times a day

The average person will fart 14 times a day and produce half a litre of fart gas per day

Farts are indeed FLAMMABLE

Farts can come blazing out of your ass at 10 kph

37 C and are 37 C at the time of creation

You cannot suffocate in a chamber full of your own farts..!

TOP 10 FARTERS

1. Termites
2. Camels
3. Zebras
4. Sheep
5. Lows
6. Elephants
7. Labrador/Retriever/s
8. Vegetarian Humans
9. No-Vegetarian Humans
10. Gerbils

CH4

Termites produce more methane than cows and even all man-made polluting machinery. (but don't release any other harmful chemicals)

H2S

Hydrogen sulfide is the compound in farts that make them stink

POF

Bacteria fermentation and digestion processes can produce various pungent gases in other farts. The bubbles from these farts tend to be small and smelly and do not produce much sound.

Silent but Deadly

The nerve endings in your rectal area help distinguish the difference between farts and poo. But sometimes these nerves can get confused when your poop is more fluit than usual and results in things such as mud butt and sharting

FARTY FOODS

Beans, peppers, cabbage, onions, beer, bread, garlic, corn milk, brussels, potatoes & Turnips

MUD BUTT

Beans do in fact make you fart more. The human body cannot digest stachyose and raffinose. The molecules in these carbs are too big for your small intestine to absorb during the digestion process. That means they get to move on to the large intestine where the flatulence magic happens.....carry on farting

A LONG WEEKEND ON THE SUSSEX DOWNS

CRAFT H3 #85 WETHERSPOONS CRAWL

Coming from an idea by Malibog to visit as many 'Spoons' as possible during their annual beer festival, the first issue was managing to nail a date. Prior commitments and the imminence of the Beachy Head marathon left just 2 realistic possibilities – either on Sunday 25th, or Saturday 31st. The latter being Halloween was ultimately rejected as KIU and Wildbush weren't available, and Bouncer had a hangover booked already, but on hindsight may have been the better option.

THE BEACHY HEAD MARATHON.

Jump one day ahead. The original intention was for Bouncer, Wiggy & MaliBog to join the Beachy Head Marathon at Alfriston to run 10k to cheer along the various Brighton, London & Worchester Hashers competing. From Alfriston it was a real steep climb to the Boo Peep drink stop followed by a sort of leisurely decline to Littlington.

Arriving at the pub in Littlington Bouncer & Wiggy wisely jumped into the 'The Plough & Harrow' knowing full well what was ahead having done the course before.

However MaliBog seeing it was such a nice day, thought it would be a good idea to continue. Little did he know there were 2 more steep hills, two lots of steep steps and after going steeply down to sea level at the Cuckmere River estuary the seven steep hills of the Seven Sisters were left to run up and up and down and up again.

Arriving at Birling Gap and having completed a half marathon Bouncer & Wiggy convinced him to go for a beer and not finish the 6 km remaining over the second highest point of Beachy Head. (Not for nothing know as a jumping off place) Not having done much hill training Malibog was convinced a direct visit to the beer was advisable and to meet up with the other hashers.

So Sunday 25th it was but plans for a CRAFTH3 lunchtime start were then scuppered by the Henfield Hash coming out of a semi-retirement, induced by Bollocks summer of nest-building in France, as Wiggy announced a trail from the Swan at Falmer.

A severe bout of something nasty whacked Wildbush, and Keeps It Up was jaded from the Beachy Head, so in the end they bailed out of Sunday completely, but elsewhere, taking the H4 as the start of the CRAFT and over to Bollocks:

THE HENFIELD RUN # 143.

An excellent run today in Stanmer in warm autumnal sunshine. Wiggy and Belcher hared a 9.5 Km trail through the woods and fields and being again on 'The South Downs', plenty of hills to contend with giving us fine views of the new Seagulls Stadium, the University and the English Channel in the far distance.

At one point some fascist farmer had laid barbed wire across a public path which they had to cross minding not to let their manhoods and womanhoods catch on the barbs.

I had been a close long run so far with everyone keeping close to the well marked trail but on entering the University complex the Hares decided to run out of markings and it was left to every man and woman to themselves to find the pub, which we eventually did.

Finally arriving back at the pub they were treated to a several sips from 2 bottles of Bison Grass Vodka (complements of EuroHash), caviar and salmon. Well posh and definitely upping the game for sip provision. In attendance were: Bouncer, Angel, Bogeyman, Roaming Pussy, Cystpit, Radiosoap, Vinny, Bollocks, Splitpin, Butler The Bastard, Misses Box, Tosser, Thumper, Batman, Dave the dog (GM), Cardinal Hugh, Max the dog, Anyone seen Mike, Belcher, Wiggy, Malibog, Come Again, Kingfisher, Queenfisher, Bushsquatter, Cliffbanger and Pirate with his plastic fantastic Red Car and given a down down for coming on the Hash with a skip while MaliBog suggested he should be re-named Del Boy with an extra wheel.

After a couple of lovely Olds in #1 the Swan, Malibog and Bouncer were dropped off at the top of George Street Hove for the first of the Wetherspoons, #2 the 'Cliftonville'. Just too late Malibog realised his bus pass was in Angels car but his run down the road wasn't fast enough to get it back, although it did help the thirst as they settled down to watch the first half of the Rugby final.

Making light work of the nachos, the first course on their progressive supper as the tour progressed, and with no more joining us at this stage, their struck gold at half-time perfectly hitting the bus to Churchill Square to catch the 2nd half in #3 the 'Bright Helm' in West Street.

'Spoons number 3 and pub #4 the 'Post & Telegraph' was absolutely heaving but they managed to secure a table, and eventually some chairs, for their 2nd course of veggie burgers and chips. They ended up sharing, and having a good laugh, with a lovely couple from London who were well into the idea of hashing!

As they strolled towards the 'Hand-in-Hand' they found ourselves at a bus stop just as the Whitehawk bus pulled up so it was bugged the bus pass and on they leapt to meet up with Cyst Pit and pals at #5 the Bush.

Whilst Malibog caught up with some zzzz's they discussed the lack of handpumps with the bar maid and watched Lewis take the Formula One World Championship, musing on Bogeymans reasons for skipping the afternoon so he could watch the sport!

A thirst was developing for real beer, as well potentially, as pudding was calling so the group now of 5 headed on to the 4th 'Spoons of the day at pub #6 the 'West Quay'.

Somehow the pudding got overlooked in all the excitement and silliness of Mike's mad mate meeting more, but we did further damage to the beer festival menu before calling a cab home and thus another great CRAFT hash was wrapped up! Well mostly, as it's worth also mentioning Malibogs original proposal which included starting in Dolphin and Anchor Chichester, hit the George in Littlehampton (which we did the Thursday before), stop off in Worthing for the Three Fishes and Timothy Shelley (which Malibog did solo). Like the rest of this insane plan, 'The Hatters' in Bognor also fell by the wayside, but Bouncer had additional festival success with the 'Carron Works' in Falkirk and the 'Moon Under Water' in Leicester Square. Marvellous stuff!

BRIGHTON HASH # 1949

At 'THE STAR' Steyning. 'Anybody' had been complaining on the Henfield hash on Sunday that his pub had been stolen, but his recent runs have mostly been from the Chequers, a change of management prompting a return to the Star by Hares Gotlost and Auntie. Tonight's route took the pack through the cricket field and round the horseshoe, teasing regularly with the climb, Steyning being in a valley of the Sussex Downs there was little else to do but go up until inevitably the trail arrived to continue our jaunt on Round Hill just falling short of the South Downs Way. Fortunately none took the wrong turning and ended up in Eastbourne. There was a severe lack of whitewash, a luxury reserved for the Round Hill Romp, making the roots hazardous, but soon enough they were on the downhill return picking up the out-trail back through the playing fields for a rare and lovely short hash. Which had then hidden advantage of more drinking time.

Defered from earlier in the year, as it had Gotlost, was Bretts 1000th award of a keepsake engraved hip flask and first glug at the flask of friendship before it was passed around the rest of the hash. Of the 2 pints in the flask tonight Gotlost necked for an impressive length of time leaving very little for the rest of us to share! Down downs mostly came from the Beachy Head marathon with mention made of the participants, notably One Erection's excellent 4.07 as well as KIU, Dave Harris, Bosom Boy, Errol and the Cardinal. Malibog had heard that Cadburys were looking for a new milk tray man, so decided to get some training in leaving Wiggy and Bouncer at the pub, only for the latter pair to find him some miles later at Birling Gap looking dazed, confused and swearing to give up chocolate but not beer.

Peter Pansy had opted out through the device of not booking the day off work even though he'd entered some months earlier and Prof as sweeper (and incidentally but not out tonight, Bushsquatter) recorded the slowest time.

And finally, Suzy was downed for new shoes, along with Anybody getting a consolation beer for letting his lower lip go all quivery. Somehow we all managed to do this and stick to the pubs strict no swearing regime, much to the amusement of our hosts who actually gave us the nod! Another great 1000th hash!

Note: The Beachy Head Marathon is like a hard 42km Hash Run, not for the faint hearted.....onon

ISLE OF WIGHT HHH VISIT THE NORTH ISLAND

Hares: Pancsi, Splasher, Snake Charmer & Dag - extra hash in conjunction with IOW pack

It was a mist and mellow fruitfulness day as 68 Hashers descended on Stansted Forestside village hall causing mayhem in the small parking area much to the consternation of Malibog who was wandering around shouting "don't park it in here, put it in there!". No one was listening to him (so, what's new?).

Most of the Hashers were from the Isle of Wite, or White or Wight or Wyte or however Treefeller spells it, one recognisable face being that of Iggy and his semi human companion Beer Pump.

And the Grand Day Out it was! After months of persistent fund-raising by the gallant Baldrick (and including a last-minute raffle on the car ferry), sufficient funds were accumulated to transport and entertain multiple car-loads of Island Hashers at the Forestside Community Centre, north of Rowlands Castle, with the kind hosting of the Chichester Hash House Harriers, and under the broad direction of familiar faces, Kinky and Thumper.

The 9am boat was sufficient, and got the Wighters to the wooden hall building, just north of the thousand-acre ancient woodland of Stansted Forest, in plenty of time to socialise with the hosts who knowing full well they were going to be less in number to the visitors bought in some ringers from the Brighton, Winchester and Stockholm Hashes

A generous array of five Hares were introduced on hand to attempt an explanation of the flour arrangement - and that was just the long run! And they needed them - first of all to explain the foreign runes.

Also they had placed chocolates at the end of some of the Falsies, which was fine as long as you could recognise a Falsie. A Cross is a check, but may be on, before, or after a junction! A triangle was a false trail - with special treat of hidden chocolates for those going there!

Soon we were on our way and queuing to mount the stile into Stanstead Forest. A bit too much for some, but it was noticed that front-runners Sukkers, Bilbo and Milf were steadily putting on weight as we progressed down through the forest.

And indeed there was plenty of route choice in this delightful woodland that presented an astonishing variety of tree species and other things to fall over.

Initially a longish hack due west left most of the IOWers a little dizzy as they are not used to running for such a long time in the same direction without falling off a cliff.

Then we headed south, further into this featureless expanse of autumn colour, crushing chestnuts with every stride. As we converged with the road opposite the FP into Hare

Warren (sic) a "Back Check" left us wandering round aimlessly (so what's new?) until we noticed the Hares practically ushering us on to the straight and narrow.

Heading west again, we did some zig zagging before a Fish Hook had us counting to more than five.

Competition for chocolate fixes kept us moving along at a good pace despite someone's largish pooch getting in the way at every opportunity.

Having almost reached Rowland's Castle we turned north west and another Fish Hook meant counting to much more than five before reaching the On-In after one hour and fifteen minutes of mellow hashing.

Back at the hall, there was plenty of ale and wine to be had, as Chichester OnSec and HareRaiser, Treefeller, organised the yummy food.

Circling up, with the aroma of hot nosh wafting from the kitchen, apart from lame jokes from Kinky we did all the things that Chi Hash normally does not.

Downdowns, singing, unprompted displays of merriment, etc. were held with Kinky presiding as RA and a few not-too-bad jokes for the visiting Islanders. NumpT was our 'token' splasher - as ever - and then got a second for leading Balders through a fishuke (~yes they had them as well). Twins for the day next, as our Wight Bouncer met Brighton Bouncer, and they both hugged each other, now nice!

NumpT. Fracas and Bouncer up with more DDs for Hashers with dogs and then BitLarge for believing that we needed to acquire plastic knives from Wightlink to supplement a shortage in the hall.

And as we cleared up, Geri decided that rather than do the washing up, she'd buy Treefeller, a drink for the much appreciated food! Oh, and the winning raffle ticket was the one with no name on the back!

Of note the nuisance dog owner who turned out to be a virgin, the Hares of course, someone purloining cutlery from the ferry, the chocolate gatherers, he who cannot spell Wight, a round the head scarf wearer with backpack, and more. Kinky forgot to award the Hash-Sht to anyone, does that mean that he carries it next?

We then consumed the nosh, a few more samples from the cask, and did a lot more nattering into the early afternoon. Much praise and appreciation must go to organisers Baldrick, Thumper, and Kinky, Chefs Tigger and Treefeller, Washer Uppers, Olive Oil and Popeye, Dryers Tigger, Soapbox, BloodyL and others, oh yes! the Hares Snake Charmer, Dag, Pancsi and Splasher, and you! if we forgot to mention you!!.....OnOnHashers
