Editor's Notes

Hello Hashers,
The month of May is full of celebrations around the world. From Lei Day in Hawaii to Golden Week in Japan, people are ready to dance and prance around the Maypole, or kick back with a frosty Corona or five on Cinco de Mayo. Socialist drinking is definitely okay in May for the united workers of the world. Lesser known May events include Tourette Syndrome Awareness Month and National Masturbation Day...I don't make this stuff up.

If you are in Europe it's time to change your snow shoes for runners, and head out to Dutch Nash Hash in Austerlitz, or Berlin for German Nash Hash. There's Killer Hill Weekend in Norway as a warm up for InterScandi in Galway. Ireland the first week of June. Read all about InterScandi 2015 in Yark Sucker's expose' on Viking indulgence run amuck.

Cambodia Nash Hash is coming up this month, including a Pre-Lube in Sihanoukville, the Kingdom's premier beach resort town. Check out the Snooky feature in this edition. If Tokyo is on your bucket list, Hazukashii's coverage of hashing in the world's largest city is a must read.

If you weren't in the Philippines in March you can still read all about PI Nash Hash 2015 Revisited as well as a report on the recent Aussie Nash Hash.

SAN DIEGO RED DRESS

THE MAGICAL MYSTERY TOUR

by Shoeless Ho

These days almost every city with a moderately sized population of hashers has an annual Red Dress Run. It's one of our most visible annual events and it all started here in San Diego in 1988. We're gearing up again for another one in June. The theme this year, is Magical Mystery Tour and the magic happens June 13th.

Although the main event is Saturday, San Diego Area hashes have created a long weekend around the event. Festivities kick off Wednesdays with a Red Dress Run in the wine country of Temecula. Thursday is the Blackshirt Hash, with a heavy metal theme to the trail and a concert at the on-in. Friday is the incredibly popular Pretty in Pink hash, and then Saturday is RDR. Sunday brings a choice of two hangover runs, one in Tijuana with the TJ hash and one in San Diego with the Humpin Hash.

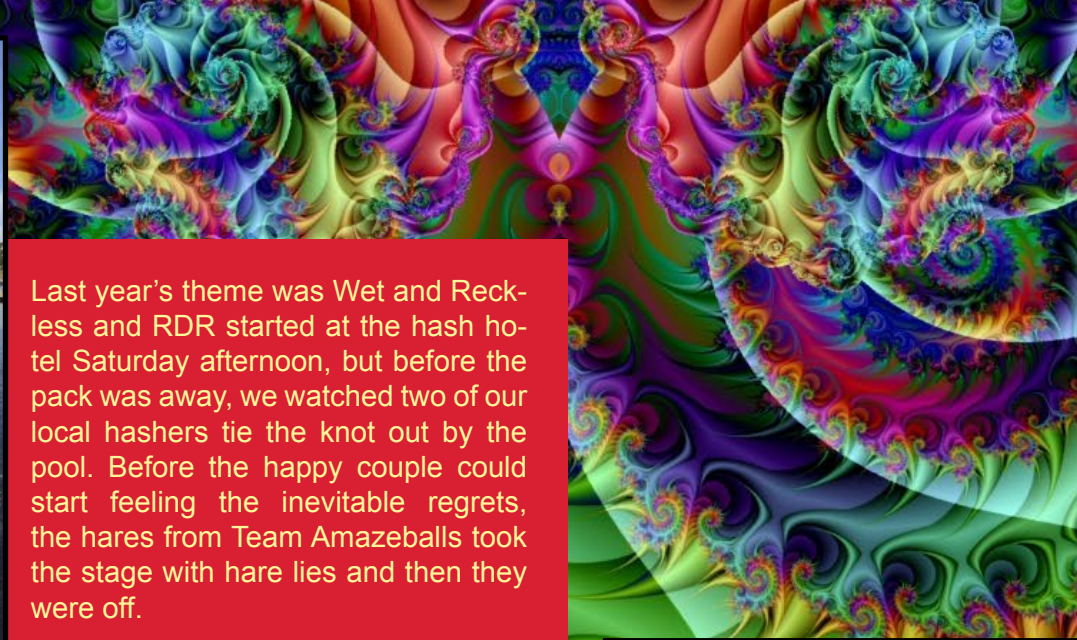

Last year's theme was Wet and Reckless and RDR started at the hash hotel Saturday afternoon, but before the pack was away, we watched two of our local hashers tie the knot out by the pool. Before the happy couple could start feeling the inevitable regrets, the hares from Team Amazeballs took the stage with hare lies and then they were off.

The A-B trail featured four drink checks. The first featured a keg of Green Flash beer and an inflatable slide. The second was on a bridge over a harbor inlet, and surprisingly only one person was dumb enough to jump off it into the water below....but we didn't get caught so everything was cool (oh and he was fine too). The third check was a fireball shot along the harbor near a playground. The fourth check was the "Reno 911" check, where our helpers were dressed up as cops with short shorts administering sobriety checks to the pack and handing out Capri-Sun packets which had been injected with an ounce of vodka.

Because of the inconspicuous nature of the last drink check, people were encouraged to take it with them on the last part of trail, which included a new water park. Naturally, people made great use of the water park features and many pictures were taken. Many children had a lot questions for their parents that day I'm sure.

From there, it was just a block to the Trolley Station, where Oh Shit, What's That? was handing out trolley tickets and instructions. Fortunately, nobody missed their stop and they all made it to the on in safely, with the Blackshirts being the most 'safe' of all. The hash band played, people danced, and delicious food and drink was consumed. Afterward, the pack was whisked away in party busses back to the hash hotel for the on-after.

A good testament to how much fun people had was that only about 30 people showed up for the hangover trail. The rest couldn't get out of bed and moving the next morning. That's how the hares know they did a good job.

Summer in San Diego can't be beat, and the RDR team has some crazy fun in store for the weekend, so rego now to get the best deals. Hashers can get their Red Dress Run Regos for $70 and Pretty in Pink for $20 until May 16th. After that the prices go up to $80 for RDR and $25 for PiP.

KISS ME SHAMROCK IN GALWAY IRELAND

JUNE 5th – 7th 2015

For more details &
Registration: www.interscandi.org

by Ditch Bitch & Yark Sucker

Top of the Mornin' Hashers! Did you know that Dublin, the capital and largest city of Ireland, started as a Viking settlement! For hashers, that is not for what Ireland is known. Instead, Ireland is infamous for March 17, the yearly drinking orgy known as "St Paddy's", and on that day in Dublin and elsewhere in the world, many rejoice in hash events, wearing green gear and drinking volumes of greenish coloured beer with for the sole aim of ending the night in some form of Irish Yoga!

Join Interscandi-2015 for the Vikings Raid of Galway, a city on the Atlantic Coast of Ireland! It will be a lucky charm, for this is Interscandi No. 13. Galway is located far from Dublin. Therefore, be prepared for exploring the real Ireland, superb scenery with rugged mountains. Imagine the possibility of beautiful trails filled with swamp-like shiggy. Shiggy socks are a must on one's packing list. Take a tour through the historic medieval town of Galway, the capital of the Western Ireland. Experience the vibrant pub culture, walk the charming cobble stoned streets, breathe in the intoxicating ocean air and relax on the green grass of Eyre Square.

This biannual celebration by hashers of Scandinavia dates back to 1991 when the Norwegian Viking Hashers of Oslo H3 hosted the first Interscandi under the helm of The Wolf. The Copenhagen Viking Wankers of Denmark recently hosted their second Interscandi in 2013 under the helm of Calapso on the beautiful and magical island of Bornholm, Denmark. Rumours have it that there Irish-born Moosediver, the founder of Schaffhausen H3 in Switzerland, whilst intoxicated on beers from the Svaneke Brewery of Bornholm, decided to bid for the Interscandi-2015. Well, he won! His choice of hosting Interscandi-2015 at Galway is to remind the Vikings what real Irish beer is all about! This is the very Irish Beer Vikings plundered from Irish Monasteries in past raids. And yes, there is more to Irish beer than Guinness!

The venue for Interscandi-2015 is the Kinley Backpacker Hotel, located at Eyre square, right in the heart of the city of Galway. It is highly recommended to extend ones stay in order to experience what Galway has to offer. Galway may have had a modest start as a fishing village, yet now it is a hotspot for all kind of celebrations. There is a festival almost every weekend. Visit the famous Galway Farmers Market in Church Lane for great Irish delicacies and enjoy the wonderful atmosphere. Fly into Dublin or Shannon Airports, yet remember to stop by the Duty Free Shop for liquor or wine for your party bus ride! The airport buses are direct to Galway and they stop almost in front of the venue at Eyre Square.

Galway's economy dates back to the middle age with trades between France, Spain and North Africa, even before the people of Galway traded with Dublin! This brings a distinctive flare and flavour to the streets of Galway. A true cosmopolitan city with one of the oldest universities in Ireland, there is a mixture of a transient young population from all over the world, immigrants as well as locals who have been there for generations. Taaffes, one of Galway City's best-known bars near Eyre square, has been in business for 150 years. In this establishment, famously known for traditional Irish music, the Gaelic language is spoken, thus evoking a real feeling of being in Ireland.

Ireland claims its share of natural redheads, more than almost any country in the world. However in Galway, they are a little superstitious, and they believe that it is bad luck to take redheads on a boat. To make up for it, the local restaurateurs satisfy the redheads with a double portion of fish and chips! So harriettes, before you go into McDonagh's fish and chip restaurant nearby Eyre Square, you might consider picking up some henna. That is, of course, if you've got your eye on the portions and you are not lucky enough to possess natural amber locks. And these are the kind you can't get enough of, meaning big hand-cut chips with your choice of cod, salmon, haddock, hake or catfish, all freshly battered and fried. Be sure to try it!

If this abundance and exuberance of activities within Galway does not convince you to join Interscandi-2015, remember that Galway has a strong maritime heritage, and the sea and the river will make you fall in love with this city. The energy of this water flowing into the city gives Galway some of its madness. Often it is referred to as a liquid city due to the amount of drinks being consumed in the pubs. Galway is water. Torrent and bursting is the river Corrib, gushing into the beautiful Galway bay. You may breathe all of this water and then act in a funny way. That would explain the bohemian feeling of this city with street theatre being widely present. It is very tempting to go out every night in Galway and to have a wonderful time. It is up to you to mind your liver! As in this vibrant pub culture of Galway, nobody frowns upon you for drinking most nights of the week. So fear not of being overwhelmed by adding extra days to the Interscandi-2015 weekend in Galway. The local Galway Bay H3 hashers are willing to give their Viking invaders options for sight-seeing circuits in order to generate a good thirst for a local beer in a one of the many pubs of Galway.

It will be a memorable weekend for Veteran Viking Hashers as well as Interscandi Virgins. Lo and behold for the Vikings of Scandinavia, notoriously known as skilful seamen and dreaded warriors, explored beyond their shores and conducted raids over villages, especially those along the coast of the British Isles. With the bounty accumulated over plundering raids, Vikings celebrated like gods! The Vikings found much bounty in the Irish monasteries. This time, amongst the plunder, the horde of Hashing Invaders will be in search of the glorious “liquid bread”!

Now you have it! “Liquid bread”, the chosen beverage of Irish monks during lent, is the bounty. Since Viking Hashers have no regards for local customs, join the pillage of what Ireland has to offer. Yes me fellow half-minds, despite Ireland’s gift to the world of brewing Irish dry stouts such as Guinness, the Irish craft beer movement is now very strong with the revival of ale and porter. Do not miss out on savouring the beer at Galway’s microbrewery, Galway Bay Brewery, offering a fine choice of crafted beers! There will be much rejoicing over the beer section at Interscandi-2015!

In ye old days, Irish beer was reddish in colour and was produced in small, local cottage breweries by women who were known as "alewives". The beer was consumed in alehouses, a room in a private house set aside for drinking ale. The Hares at Interscandi 2015 will set trails through the superb scenery and rugged mountains. By a ruined castle on hash trail, hashers may have a glimpse of the elusive alewives.

Once you have visited Galway Ireland, it is certainly true that a part of you will never leave.

A big thank you to each and every one of the 240 hashers that attended the Pan Philippines Nash Hash in Angeles City last month. Among you were Americans, Brits, Aussies, Europeans and Asians, many of whom had travelled very long distances to be with us. Despite the high temperatures you managed to scale the heights of nearby Mount Arayat and many of you managed to follow that up by completing a pretty tough ball-buster trail the next day.

Two further days of relentless trails and long bouts of drinking followed before many of us were finally able to unwind and

AUSSIE NASH HASH 2015 recap

The Aussie Nash Hash was held in Busselton, Western Australia which is southwest of Perth about 3 hours by vehicle. It is quite near Margaret River which is famous for its wines. The weather was perfect during the three day event, sunny with a nice breeze off the Indian Ocean. It did get chilly enough at night to require a jacket unless you were one of the many who danced from 8:30 to midnight to the sound of Darren Reid and The Soul City Groove and the second night to Eu4ia. The bar with 6 stations with 4 taps each plus copious bottles of wine opened at 6 p.m. and closed at midnight helping to keep things hopping. Dinner was fantastic with choices to please everyone's taste and was available from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Plus pizza at 10 p.m. The area around Busselton is flat for Kilometres so the trails were flat which was a different experience for one used to the jungle trails around Puerto Galera, Philippines. I was a bit disappointed that there was only one day of real runs plus the recovery run although there were 7 different trails so there were lots of options. The organization was superb even the buses to the different trails had signs for the ball breaker, long run, medium run, medium and short run, medium walk, and short walk so no mistake could be made. There was a bus provided from the Perth Airport March 4-6 and back again March 9 with beer provided for little more than the cost on Southwest Coach lines. What I really appreciated was the provision of a bus leaving the venue every 1/2 hour from 10 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. to the front door of your accommodation. The cost was much higher than is common for events in Southeast Asia, but it was well worth it. Every one enjoyed their time and many are looking forward to the next Nash Hash in Oz. Overall I would rate it a fantastic experience.

1st March 1977, and the first Saturday Hash in Kuala Lumpur (KL), Malaysia, was formed, except 1st March 1977 was a Tuesday, but for the sake of the article we will assume it was a Saturday. Fast forward to 11th July 2015 and Petaling Hash House Harriers (PH3) will be celebrating its 2000th run.

Founded by Sri Tharan Assisted by: Simon Siaw, Chew Yewe Fook, Ray Quinn, Louis Barbon, PH3 is the 9th direct daughter of Mother Hash, and at that time the 88th hash in the world. PH3 was a novelty at the time being a mixed hash, in a world of single sex, and mainly men hashes. The pack in the first year rarely numbered more than 20, and in March 1978 there was a run with only 8 members and serious discussion was had on whether to fold the chapter.

A few years later and the membership had grown to 80 people with about 75% of those being Malaysian and the remainder Mat Saleh. In the mid nineties when the membership got to 160 the committee decided this was enough and capped the membership numbers. This did not really work as those on the waiting list just attended as guests for months and months until they were allowed to join. However it was good for the club's finances. Sense eventually prevailed and the club has stabilised at about 200 – 220 members with an even split between Malaysians and Mat Saleh and a turnover of 20 – 25% per year.

In the early eighties the club adopted the running tree man as its logo. Although the club takes its name from Petaling Jaya, a city just outside KL, petaling is actually a species of tree and hence the running tree man logo.

In the early days the runs were confined to an area defined by Rawang to the north and Kajang to the south of Kuala Lumpur. However now most of those run sites are part of the great concrete jungle that covers the Klang Valley. Whereas a run site would be within 30 minutes drive of the centre of KL it is now normal to drive for an hour from a toll booth on the outskirts of KL.

By the mid eighties it was decided that the runs were too short, too long, too many hills, too flat, too much shiggy, not enough shiggy and therefore a system of run judging would be introduced. This covered all aspects of the hash from how good the run directions are, car parking, length of run, variety of terrain and quality of check. The best hares get awarded a t-shirt for their efforts to be presented at the ON ON. Below this you can get an ON-Down, Toilet Seat or a 10 Weeker. 10 Weekers rarely appear, if the run is that bad does anyone want the same hare in 10 week's time. Your chances of getting a t-shirt seem to be enhanced if you are female and well endowed. The run judging still goes on to this day and yes, the general consensus is that the runs are too short, too long, too; many hills, too flat, too much shiggy, not enough shiggy.

RUN FOR HOME, KEMANSAH

PH3 will run any terrain - rubber and oil plantation, dusan (orchards) and secondary jungle - there is no primary jungle near KL left. The runs are not judged by their length but by taking between 1 hr 15 and 1hr 30 long for the front runner, and bringing the majority of the pack back in another 30 minutes. Quite regularly the hare will set an longer loop for the super FROPS.

PH3 has not been afraid to be different and in 1983 introduced the torchlight run, where the run starts at 7:30pm, instead of the regular 4:30pm start, and much to the amazement of some hashers a torch is advisable to run in the dark. This will be followed by makan, hash acts (all home produced no imports for PH3) and a disco going on late into the night in some part of the jungle or plantation.

In 2000 PH3 introduced the Hash Challenge, which is not really a hash, but an endurance trek. For teams of four [4] this takes the form of a 42km A – B trail (marathon distance) basically all off road and going to places that are not normally visited by hash. Divided in to 4 sectors where refreshments are provided and teams can pull out if not able to continue. The super fit teams arrive promising to cover this in under 6 hours. So far the hares have always won with the first teams to finish taking more than 9 hours.

In 2002 and for our 1300th run celebration we had the first red dress run in KL even though cross dressing is not allowed in Malaysia.

The wide range of nationalities, nearly 20, allows the club to have quite a few celebration runs each year and has / had included through the years as different groups get larger or smaller, Australia Day, Waitangi Day, Chinese New Year, St David's Day, St Georges Day, Dutch Connection, Bastille Day, Swiss, Oktoberfest, Coalition Day, Deepavali, St. Andrew's Christmas, New Year. And every two years we will go and do an outstation run allowing two days of partying and drinking instead of just Saturday Night.

ON THE RUN, SENDAT WATERFALL, ULU TAMU

Onwards to 11 July 2015 and our 2000th run. The celebrations will start the night before with a themed evening at a well known bar somewhere in KL. Saturday we will be using the abandoned Elmvile Golf Course and clubhouse, south of KL. Three runs long , medium and short starting at 4:00pm. Followed by ON ON onsite, Hash Acts brought to you by Paul (Beano) Kirkman and company and disco until late. Sunday lunch will be at a venue in KL.

Spotlight on Hashing:

HASHING IN JAPAN

The World Atlas lists Tokyo as the largest city in the world at over 37 million people. In a city of this size, it is not hard to imagine a robust hashing community, with an amazing countryside with extensive trails to make any hasher happy. There are currently 5 weekly hash clubs (Monday = Tokyo Men's Hash; Wednesday = Tokyo Ladies H3; Friday = Finally Friday Fukov H3; Saturday = Samurai H3; Sunday = Sumo H3) running in and around Tokyo. The Tokyo H3 is the oldest hash in Japan, and was founded on 14 June 1976 by Patrick 'Dunafew' Donoghue, who brought the sport over from Hong Kong. While still bearing the name, the Tokyo Men's H3 is now a mixed club and runs on Monday evenings, and is celebrating their 2000th Hash with a weeklong hashstravaganza between 1-6 May 2015.

Tokyo

Not satisfied with just a Men's Hash in Tokyo, Marion Gosshalk founded the Tokyo Ladies Hash in November 1983. Also now a mixed club, the TLH3 runs on Wednesday evenings in the central Tokyo area and has completed well over 1600 hash trails. The largest hash in the greater Tokyo area is the Samurai H3, founded by Milt 'Uncle Milty' Halloran on 5 May 1984. Due to an amazingly efficient train system, the Samurai H3 can boast what is probably the largest area that a weekly hash can reasonably be expected to occur. Realistically, within 90 minutes you can find the Samurai H3 at any one of the 2000 plus train stations throughout a 5,000 square kilometer area in and around the Kanto Plain. Running weekly on Saturday, a once a month family trail and various other events, the Samurai H3 will be celebrating their 2000th trail towards the end of 2015.

During the 80s and 90s, various hash clubs came and went throughout Tokyo, and the next weekly hash club still running is the Sumo H3. Founded by Ed "Hazukashii" Howell on 6 Jan 2002, the Sumo H3 runs on Sunday afternoons and also takes advantage of the vast train system and can be found setting trail over a significant portion of the Kanto Plain, and will be enjoying their 500th hash later in 2015.

It is common for all the Tokyo based hash clubs to start at or near a train station, and host an on-on-on at a local restaurant. The Men's and Ladies hash clubs often actually hold the circle inside the restaurant, which surprisingly is well received by the other patrons. As you might expect, Tokyo has a fairly expensive cost of living, and normal hash can cost about US$10, with dinner/circle costing around US$30. For those that run multiple hash trails a week, this could get expensive, and spawned the Finally Friday Fukov H3 founded by John "Old Sock" Antweiler on 9 July 2004 that skipped the formality of dinner, with a quick circle after the trail and the hashers heading off for further activities on their own.

Tokyo also hosts two significant monthly hash clubs, the Rising Moon H3 founded in 1992 by Francis "Dirty Dingus" Turner . . . and the Kanto Katch the Hare H3 founded by Toshiyuki "Bancock" Ichimura on 22 Jan 1995. There are also a few other hash clubs running at various intervals in the greater Tokyo area, and the details can be found at <http://gotothefhash.net/japan/h3injpn.html> as well as hashing through Japan.

Sihanoukville is Cambodia's premier beach town, located in the south of Cambodia, a peninsula ringed by sandy beaches, jutting into the warm waters of the Gulf of Thailand. It has several different beaches offering umbrellas, lounge chairs and thatched roof eateries and bars. The nearby tropical islands are a comparatively new destination, with remote beaches, rustic accommodation and excellent coral reefs for diving. Sihanoukville also serves as a travel hub for the rest of coastal Cambodia, including Kampot, Kep, Koh Kong and the islands.

The Sihanoukville H3 is up and running, after a few false starts and misadventures. A new and very small club, runs are held on Saturdays starting at 3pm. Being small, visitors can be assured of a very warm welcome and you will get to see parts of coastal Cambodia that most people miss. So come on down to the seaside for the salt air, a run or walk, plenty of fun and of course plenty of cold beer. See you in Sihanoukville, by the sea.

Getting to Sihanoukville from Phnom Penh

Mini Bus approx $10 – Giant Ibis, CTT, Mekong etc.

Taxi $50 one way.

Koh Kong (Thai Border) Taxi $60 one way.

As we go to press, the weather is still warm and humid in the build up to the wet season. Mornings are generally fine and sunny followed by a short afternoon or night time thunderstorm. But regardless of the weather, the beer is cold and cheap.

Kuntfoo Reports Philippines

by Kuntfoo

On 25th October 2014, 'Kuntfoo' willingly returned to La Union H3, to celebrate, "The Double 60th Birthday Bash" of the founders of the La Union H3.

The Veteran founders were, Jake 'Honey Dew' Gordon, avocado grower of the up county, Ilocos Region and Robbie 'Bangka Blower' Chambers', accountant, now of Pattaya, Thailand.

On a previous visit to La Union on 17 October 2008, 'Kuntfoo' participated at the successful 25th Anniversary of the La Union H3.

La Union Town is a sleepy little village in the province of La Union in the Philippines located in the Ilocos Region in the island of Luzon. The provincial capital being San Fernando City.

The usual suspects included more than one hundred dedicated international travelling hashers, local hashers and past friends. They had all specially made the journey to participate in "The Double 60th Birthday Bash", with four days of hashing frolics and hash fellowship. Big kudos were due to Armando 'Bushy Tex-Ass' Campos. To attend he had actually returned twice from USA to become a participant!

Warm tropical heat greeted the celebration event. The second day, the weather included some particularly fierce tropical heat of over 42 C! This ferocious heat forced the unassuming but enlightened, Leslie 'Sooeey' Martin (Subic Bay and ex-Texas) with the sage veteran 'Kuntfoo' (South Australia) to in remain all day, under the fanned shade of the open air restaurant alongside of the 'Tropical Gardens' bar, sipping cool drinks and eating tasty snacks.

Babysitting, supervising and umpiring the antics of young children in a swimming pool is 'not for the faint hearted nor all beer and skittles'! This task was as arduous as the tomfoolery and the fearlessness of the dedicated hashers charging about on the short, medium and long trails under the vehemently hot noon day tropical sun!

The traditional 'Double Birthday Cake' making ceremony was a highlight of this day.

On all three days food fun and cool beverages were copiously consumed by all in attendance.

Following this event, on their return to Subic Bay, 'Sooeey' Martin, Ken 'Hughie Blaaagh' Barrowman (Glasgow) and 'Kuntfoo' spent two days exploring the delightful tourist areas of the '100 Hundred Islands'.

The nearby holiday area is seldom visited by hashers. The '100 Hundred Islands' is a Philipinnes Hash Holiday location for perfectly winding down, which they all recommend to adventurous hashers.

Pan Asia Hash

Pondicherry, India
25th - 27th Sept 2015

Well it looks like the Chennai Hash 3 is on every hashers mind at the moment and its no wonder why....because for the first time in Hashing history, the Pan Asia Hash will be hosted in India by us!!

The PAHP 2015 is without question the biggest international hashing event in 2015 hashing calendar and all will happen in Pondicherry in September 2015. All of you must be wondering WTF is Pondicherry, well Pondicherry (Pondy) better know as, is about 190 kms from Chennai (Madras), India. Pondicherry first became famous when the French took an interest in this city. Although many wars took place between the English and the French, the French managed to retain power in Pondicherry. Around the 18th century, the town grew considerably.

With an anticipated 2500-3000 hashers (500 have already registered) from around the world attending, approximately 20 runs per day, glorious beach facing 5 start venues for Hash dinner & dance and of course an abundance golden nectar, this is the one hashing event you do not want too miss. In fact you won't want your hashing friends to miss out either so spread the word and join in the fun.

The 30 plus working committee has too many years of hashing experience for us to admit in public, hey there's transparency and there's just plain been being nosey, but we do need more hashers to support the event and show the best of the Indian Hashing.

The great news is:- Payment gateway has been finalized & its should be up for a few trails runs & then the registration will be open.

Please visit our website-www.panasiapondy.com for more info or mail us -pahp2015@gmail.com. Please forward this mail to your fellow hasher & chapter you know.

South Indian Super Hash

Aug 6 - 9, 2015 at Kodaikanal

It was in the year 1990.

Three Hashes were born in India. Independent of each other. The first was Bangalore around April. Then Hyderabad. Finally Madras Hash in Sept.

They have been the most vibrant of the Hashes in India. The best Mismanaged too. Run by a large number of dedicated hashers who work hard to give hashers a good time and good value.

To celebrate the 25th Anniversary of Hashing in their respective cities, Bangalore Hash, Hyderabad Hash and Madras Hash come together to give you a great hashing weekend.

One entire day and evening put together by one of the Hashes, ensuring a great weekend. 4 day – 3 night weekend put together by the three main Hashes of South India to celebrate their 25th Anniversary of Hashing.

For More Information Visit

 Ostrava - Krakow (POLAND)

DEPARTURE 12. July 2015

approx. 8:00am Frankfurt City

We start in Frankfurt and going down south direction Munich. Beside sightseeing, Bavarian Beer we always try to meet the local Hasher and doing a Hash Run, Pub Crawl or meeting up for a Gathering at least. Overnight Stay in Munich – The next day we continue to Vienna. In Vienna same procedure as Munich and so on... ;-) After sightseeing and Party Night in Vienna we start Monday with two other European Countries. For Lunch we will be in Bratislava (Slovakia) and we will have time for some sightseeing before we continue to Budapest, the capitol of Hungary. Enjoy this beautiful capitol city of the East, either in Hash style on a r*n, pub crawl or on your own private sightseeing tour. Overnight stay in Budapest. The next day we have another two European Countries on our list... We continue via Ostrava (Czech Republic) to Katowice (Poland). Our last and final night we will spend in Katowice where we will have a couple last relaxed Beer and Farewell Dinner. Thursday after Breakfast our trip comes to it's end, our final destination Krakow. Planned arrival time will be Thursday high noon - So plenty of time to check in for EuroHash2015 and find your room and get your beds ready!

THE COOLEST MARATHON ON EARTH

24 & 25 Oct 2015

22/10 | 5 days | from EUR 1,598

POLAR CIRCLE MARATHON

The Polar Circle Marathon - often referred to as "the coolest marathon on earth" takes place in Kangerlussuaq, Greenland. The endless ice and arctic tundra of this vast country make up the backdrop of this unusual race, in which runners pass glacier tongues, moraine landscapes and the soundless, arctic desert. This is a rare opportunity to visit one of the most remote corners of the world combined with a challenging running event.

A part of the route takes place on the ice cap itself, but the main part of the course is run on the gravel road (often snow covered) that connects the inland ice with the small township of Kangerlussuaq, just north of the Polar Circle.

The Hash Darwin Awards

Old Chaz, the chap on the right, in one of his sober moments, put forward the notion of “survival of the fittest”, a concept that implies that the removal from the gene pool (usually by death) of its weaker members, thereby strengthens the survival chances of the remainder. However, here at OTI, we do not encourage the extermination of the less able, the feeble, or the intellectually challenged. Rather, we encourage them to become hashers! Further, this column aims to be a forum where the moronic misdeeds of hashers might be chronicled in pursuit of that noblest of pastimes, namely, having cheap laughs at other people’s expense. With that in mind, I offer the following:

Charles Darwin

CONTENTS

Perceptive readers may recognize the picture of Charles Darwin, the great evolutionary biologist and wonder about his relevance to a magazine dedicated to hashing and related hedonistic pursuits. Sadly, despite my best research efforts (i.e. half an hour in the Internet café down the street from my favourite Bangkok bar) I could turn up no evidence of the great man ever having been a hasher. Not the least of his limitations being the fact that he died about thirty-five years before the Mother Hash started running in Kuala Lumpur.

Despite this, there is some evidence that old Charles had at least some hash-like characteristics. He is described, for example, as having “no natural grace of movement”, “a hearty laugh” and a propensity to become “very animated and bright-eyed in conversation”, although whether this was due to his beer intake is tactfully left unsaid by his biographers.

Nor should readers think that this column is concerned with the many delights of that northern Australian town [Darwin], which has been hosting hashes since at least 1974. Rather it takes its inspiration from the Darwin Awards (Check out www.darwinawards.com). These awards are given on an annual basis and celebrate those individuals who contribute to the ongoing improvement of the human gene pool by removing themselves from it in spectacularly stupid ways. For example, in January 2002 in Croatia, a man was killed while trying to open a hand grenade with a chainsaw. He apparently wanted to retrieve the explosive to make firecrackers for the New Years holiday.

MISMANAGEMENT TEAM: CHENNAI, INDIA

In 'On The Ice', we have a similar commitment to celebrating acts of stupidity. (Doesn't every hasher?) However, we retain the firm belief that weaker members of the (Hash) gene pool should not necessarily be removed from it. Rather they should be celebrated and encouraged to screw up again in the future for the general entertainment of their fellow hashers. With that in mind, in each edition of APH, On The Ice will document some examples of Hash related stupidity in the Asia-Pacific region.

To make this column truly representative of Hash goings-on in this area, readers are invited to send stories of stupidity, screw-ups or acts that earned a member of their particular Hash recognition in the form of a down-down or perhaps even a stint seated "on the ice". To get you started, a few examples from my own hashing home base of Bangkok. During my recent tenure as GM of the Bangkok Monday Hash, I recall being recumbent in bed about 11pm one Sunday evening when a harriette, who was meant to be the hare the next day, telephoned. She informed me that as she had a meeting or some such event in the evening, she could not set her run. This was bad enough. However, her proposed solution was worse. Perhaps we could just not have a run that Monday? Naturally I assured her in less-than-gentle terms that whatever else happened there WOULD be a run or her life would be less than agreeable. I reached the run-site the next day with some trepidation but was pleased to see chalk marks indicating the start of the trail, although no hare. The pack started off and followed a well-marked trail which led back to the beer... in 19 minutes.

Discussion amongst the pack confirmed that we had missed no loops. In fact, several hashers ran the trail again in its entirety to confirm this. Then to cap off her day's achievements, the still-absent hare called on a Hasher's mobile DURING the circle to ask whether someone could organize the on-on-on restaurant for her.

Naturally, she was unanimous choice for the BMH3's equivalent of the Darwin Awards, Hash S**t.

AN AUSSIE BLONDE GOES TO HEAVEN

An Aussie Blonde was sent on her way to Heaven. Upon arrival, a concerned St Peter met her at the Pearly Gates. 'I'm sorry,' St Peter said, 'But Heaven is suffering from an overload of godly souls and we have been forced to put up an Entrance Exam for new arrivals to ease the burden of Heavenly Arrivals. That's cool,' said the Blonde, 'What does the Entrance Exam consist of?' 'Just three questions,' said St Peter. 'Which are?' asked the Blonde. 'The first,' said St Peter, 'is, which two days of the week start with the letter "T"?' The second is 'How many seconds are there in a year?' The third is 'What was the name of the swagman in Waltzing Matilda?' 'Now,' said St Peter, 'Go away and think about those questions and when I call upon you, I shall expect you to have those answers for me.' So the Blonde went away and gave those three questions some considerable thought (I expect you to do the same). The following morning, St Peter called upon the Blonde and asked if she had considered the questions, to which she replied, 'I have.' 'Well then,' said St Peter, 'Which two days of the week start with the letter T?' The Blonde said, 'Today and Tomorrow.' St Peter pondered this answer for some time, and decided that indeed the answer can be applied to the question. 'Well then, could I have your answer to the second of the three questions?' St Peter went on, 'how many seconds in a year?'

The Blonde replied, 'Twelve!'
'Only twelve?' exclaimed St Peter, 'How did you arrive at that figure?'
'Easy,' said the Blonde, 'there's the second of January, the second of February, right through to the second of December, giving a total of twelve seconds.'
St Peter looked at the Blonde and said, 'I need some time to consider your answer before I can give you a decision.' And he walked away shaking his head.
A short time later, St Peter returned to the Blonde.. 'I'll allow the answer to stand, but you need to get the third and final question absolutely correct to be allowed into Heaven. Now, can you tell me the answer to the name of the swagman in Waltzing Matilda?'
The blonde replied: 'Of the three questions, I found this the easiest to answer.'
'Really!' exclaimed St Peter, 'And what is the answer?'
'It's Andy.'
'Andy??'
'Yes, Andy,' said the Blonde.
This totally floored St Peter, and he paced this way and that, deliberating the answer.
Finally, he could not stand the suspense any longer, and turning to the blonde, asked 'How in God's name did you arrive at THAT answer?'
'Easy' said the Blonde, 'Andy sat, Andy watched, Andy waited till his billy boiled.
And the Blonde entered Heaven..?
..... and now you're singing it, aren't you...?'

LA MARSEIL LAISE

On 25 April 1792, the mayor of Strasbourg requested his guest Rouget de Lisle compose a song "that will rally our soldiers from all over to defend their homeland that is under threat. France still needs this song more than ever."

Following the goat jokes in the Febuary edition of the Trash a number of private messages from Muslims and totally misinformed PC Hashers, we would like to make the following statement:

"Islam is a religion based on peace, love and respect, and this is the central message of the Qur'an. As such we offer a full apology for making the claim that it encourages suicide bombing, violence, wife beating and goat fucking."

OK, there - I said it. Now can you please stop sending me death threats?

As we get closer to the 2016 election year, US citizens must remember that they cannot trust Hillary Clinton to create American jobs. The last time she had a meaningful job, she outsourced it to Monica Lewinsky. ....And Monica blew it.

Saudi Mufti Condemns April Fool's Day

Saudi Arabia's chief cleric, the Grand Mufti Sheikh Abdul Aziz bin Abdullah Al al-Sheikh, issued a fatwa decreeing that April Fool's Day was a form of organized lying practiced by unbelievers, and that Muslims therefore should not participate in the tradition. He made his comments in response to a query from the Saudi daily Al-Riyadh.

Al-Sheikh acknowledged that many younger Muslims were beginning to adopt the custom, but said, "It is prohibited because lying is prohibited at all times and under all conditions." He noted only three exceptions to this rule: when lying brings reconciliation between people, when it occurs during times of war, or when a husband or wife must protect the honour of the spouse.

SEE YOU LATER ALIGATOR

Florida woman stops alligator attack with a small Beretta pistol

This is a story of self-control and marksmanship by a brave, cool-headed woman with a small pistol against a fierce predator. What is the smallest caliber that you would trust to protect yourself? A Beretta Jet fire testimonial....

Here is her story in her own words:

"While out walking along the edge of a pond just outside of The Villages with my soon to be ex-husband discussing property settlement and other divorce issues, we were surprised by a huge 12-ft. alligator which suddenly emerged from the murky water and began charging us with its large jaws wide open. She must have been protecting her nest because she was extremely aggressive. If I had not had my little Beretta Jet fire .25 caliber pistol with me, I would not be here today! Just one shot to my estranged husband's knee cap was all it took...."

The 'gator got him easily and I was able to escape by just walking away at a brisk pace. It's one of the best pistols in my collection! Plus the amount I saved in lawyer's fees was really incredible."

EASTER has passed again for another year but it was good to see someone celebrating the holiday bearing a cross...

A farmer wrote to us that he had been wanking all over Easter and concluded he must be Jesus..... As it took 3 days for his 2nd coming.

Had my first Gig as a stand up comedian at an old people's home on Easter Sunday. They didn't get any of my jokes but they still pissed themselves.

However, whenever I'm in doubt, I ask myself, "What would Jesus do?" Then I remember Jesus got crucified, so his decision making skills obviously weren't brilliant.

URGENT APPEAL

The parents of the three British schoolgirls who have gone to Syria have made an impassioned plea for their return. The mother said: "Girls, please come home immediately. We're losing sixty pounds a week in Child Benefit and Uncle Aziz hasn't had a shag for a fortnight."

THE UPS AND DOWNS OF THE JUMPERS HASH

HISTORY.....Formed in 2014, The idea or inspiration to form The Beachy Head Hash came after a bad nights sleep and the realisation that it's founder members ( Butler the Bastard and Mrs box) did not have a hashing home or a home to call their own. Spotting a gap in the market on the south coast, BH4 was formed to fill the void, approx halfway between Brighton and Hastings, and we have preferred to not look back ever since. Hashing or the Hash House Harriers has been described as a drinking club with a running problem. It would be generous or just plain inaccurate to describe us as runners. We tend to plod, puff, pant and amble, we like to cater for all levels of unfitnes from the walker to the jogger. We follow trails marked (badly) in chalk, sawdust and flour and wear our trademark/ infamous jumpers. We have frequent stops to regroup, hug, snack, sip, scratch and adjust ourselves. We form a circle at the end of the trail in an attempt to make sense of things and we have found that this sometimes helps, to preserve anonymity and the embarrassment from being associated with such a group we use nicknames. We like to promote the more social side of hashing and not take ourselves too seriously. BHHHH has been described as the home of poor hashing, we however like to see it as a work in progress. BH4 Bring a Jumper!

THE MAD MARCH HARE & WOOLLY JUMPERS RUN - 22 MARCH 2015

Have we incurred our first casualty? Somebody called Anybody turned up at just gone 11:00 am and set off hard on the trail wearing a blonde wig in the direction of Beachy Head, possibly confusing us with normal Sunday hashes that start at 11:00 or the Hastings Hash that start at 10:66, No one has seen him since, in the immortal words of the wing commander in the film The Battle of Britain filmed incidentally in the area "We can't carry on losing them like this".

We were honoured with the presence of an overseas visitor Sir Mali Bog, who flew in specially from Stockholm for the express purpose of attending the Beachy Head Hash Mad March Hair and woolly jumpers run, he was somewhat jaded and looked a little hung over to be honest but we put this down to jetlag or the Sussex Ale Festival the day before. Hastings, Brighton and Henfield hash were all superbly represented as well as one or two other floaters.

The walking wounded Bouncer (again) and the athletically challenged set off on the ramblers route. The rest of us (the athletes) set off to combat the ascent, by all accounts it was an excellent wonderfully marked trail full of scenic vistas and stunning views, up it went winding it's way to Beachy Head, as we well know, what goes up must come down and so we all did, it was lovely.

A number of hug stops kept moral up and everyone together, on the way back the special Easter bunny/hare was spotted and it led us to the sip stop (Mrs Box's house). Beer, Hot cross Buns, Egg nog advocate shots and other random items were consumed, the Beach Head brew for the down downs served up from the special shiney tea pot was bit more frothy than usual and on closer inspection an item of lost property was found to be residing inside, never mind.

IT WAS DELICIOUS

Athletic endeavour awarded to Madam Cliffbanger and a mention for the poor excuse of a jumper offered up by Bush squatter a rather nasty looking item held together with duct tape, other down downs for being late, not wearing mad hair and some other stuff ensued.

From the Beer stop we went to the pub via the golf course blending in perfectly in our attire, Cheesey feet were offered along with jelly babies by Roaming Pussy and Bogeyman, some had lunch whilst other drank beer, some both, when it got too cold to stay in the beer garden we all went home. The coastguards have called off the search for Anybody, however if Someone, Anyone in fact knows of his whereabouts, please let us know that he is alive and well, Somebody must have seen or heard from him.

You would think he would have contacted us but then does Anybody really care?..... Butler Lab Astard

ABSOLUT HASHER GET LOST ON TRAIL

BRIGHTON HASH # 1918 - MARCH 23/2015 - HARE: ST BERNARD

St. Bernard promises another short flat dry run. Not sure if his understanding of the terms has improved in the slightest!

As usual we were promised a short dry flat run from St. Bernard though niggling doubts have started to appear with Charlie, but at least we were again promised a sip stop, which Bouncer declared his intent to make bloody sure of having missed last week. On leaving the Plough Inn at Pyecombe the pack having been divided into the runners and the knitting circle, the latter were given instructions on how to short cut.

A short tarmac stretch led the runners to the first of the flat climbs with a nice level ascent to the edge of Wolstonbury. A really steep non-graded section via Welcombe Bottom led to a killer, um, horizontal route to the top of Wolstonbury proper.

Readers will notice how picturesque this hill is, unfortunately it was on a dark almost moonless night so the beauty of it all was not there to the beholding, instead the hills were covered in a thin layer of mud owing the recent rainfall which made for muddy boots and all.

Down the plane past the Chalk Pits trail then headed under the A23 for a calf-challenging even section to the sip. Appropriately enough we were offered Tawny or Amber ports for choice as St. Bernard waxed lyrical about the enormous Beech in front of us, apparently the tallest Ancient Woodland tree in the UK and the surviving one of a pair. From here it was a straightforward flat run in up and over Newtimber Hill to return on the out trail.

Which makes it all the more surprising that Angel managed to break so many parts of her body in one hit falling over a branch that surely must've been there on the way out.

Circling up in The Plough Charlie dispensed with a resounding "yes!" as Pondweed confirmed the ascents and descents had in fact exceeded 1000 feet (see not level at all!). Bouncer did his usual trick persuading the bar staff to part with some of the left over beers and the DD were called.

Malibog received a DD for getting so bloody lost heading up Clayton Hill in the opposite direction where he mistook a travellers (Pikies) encampment near the Jack and Jill windmills on top of Clayton Hill near Pyecombe as hash torches. Once there it's fairly flat except for the steep hill going up and down...

Drinking with him after a quick vote on their respective misfortune was Anybody over Wiggy, the latter feeling miffed having not been informed of the Beachy Head hash, losing a contact lens, then reversing into Julia's car.

Mike on the other hand, had turned up to the Beachy Head Jumpers H3 Mad March hair run the day before and was seen setting off in a wig half an hour early. Thinking he was behind the pack he missed the entire trail, sip and apres. Shouldn't have picked a blonde wig Mike!

His other misfortune easily trumped Wiggy when he had his credit card cloned while on holiday in South Africa, then left a bag with £4k of equipment including the camera with the holiday record on.

Wildbush and Keeps It Up were welcomed back from their brief trip to Aus, which it turned out was nothing to do with a wedding, but Mr. Competitive's enthusiasm at being part of a record-breaking attempt on South Fremantle Beach on the World's largest skinny dip! Brent also got the blame for the 'spocking' of Canadian bank notes in the wake of Leonard Nimoy's passing, and while on the subject of money for putting a A$ 5 cent piece in the mug.

Knightrider had spotted a fake £1 coin for which Hash Gomi got the blame (never let the truth get in the way section), despite his protestations of not being an Australian (wasn't denying it see?), however RA ruled he was a bloody criminal so ought to be! Another great hash!.....Bouncer

BROKEN CROSS? CALL CRUCIFIX

Call me a sinner if you wish, but Christianity is a load of bollocks if you ask me... We have a bloke called Jesus who's suppose to be the son of God, bom on the 25th December which we call Christmas day and celebrate on that date every year. Then dies on Good Friday which is on different dates every year. How the fuck does that work?

Jesus walks in the front door after being out all weekend. "Well well well!" says God "What fucking rock did you just crawl from under" Jesus replies "Funny you should say that....."

A Hasher asked me what I was doing for Easter?" "Following the example of Jesus", I said.

He looked puzzled. "You're going to church then?"

"Hell No", I huffed. "I'm getting hammered and nailed."

Seriously I thought I'll be a good Christian this Good Friday and so I ate fish instead of meat for dinner.

Imagine my disappointment when I found out that dolphins are mammals.

But when it comes down to the nitty gritty, there's just one thing that we all should need to know this about Good Friday thing:

Does pussy count as meat or fish?

My son said, "I'm going to be playing Jesus in our Easter school play."

"That's great news."

"Thanks Dad, I never pay attention to bible stories so have you any advice?"

"Yeah, don't trust the kid who plays Judas, and watch out for the cunt with the hammer and nails."

Christians are nasty people. Earlier today there was a sign outside a church that said: "did you have a good easter? Jesus didn't.

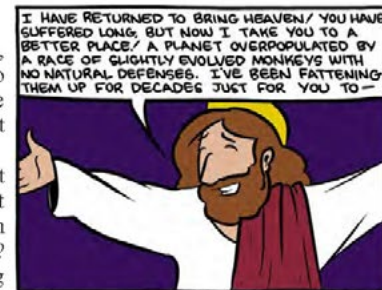

Germany doesn't really do much for Easter either, because if a few started celebrating one innocent Jew's murder, things would soon become a National Party.

Just like Jesus's crucifixion, I think everyone needs to remind themselves what Good Friday is really really about. Lying in the sun and doing fuck all.

In conclusion this is for all you God fearing Christians out there, an astonishing Easter related story.

A prisoner named Jesus Sanchez, on death row in Tijuana penitentiary in Mexico, was executed on Good Friday for a drug cartel related murder, and buried in the prison graveyard.

On Easter Sunday you will never believe what happened Absolutely fucking nothing.

Of course the thing about Easter is, on the one hand Jesus got nailed to the cross. And on the other hand he got nailed to the cross, and his feet also.

So if Christians call the day that Jesus died 'Good' Friday, then just imagine how ecstatic they'll be when they find out that God doesn't exist? This Good Friday I'm really making an effort to empathise with Christ's suffering during the crucifixion, when he bravely died for all our sins, in the only way that the Church of England recognises.

By eating hot cross buns smothered in lashings of warm melted butter.

We celebrate Jesus brutally dying on the cross by getting a giant bunny rabbit and to hide chocolate eggs.

I can't help but feel there is a massive gap in information somewhere.

On the other hand we think it's great that the supermarkets are doing 'Buy One Get One Free' on Easter eggs. It's brilliant, because if you're in a relationship, you can get one each for you and your partner, and if you're a single woman, you can have both and try to eat away the loneliness.

After all nothing says 'Enjoy your chocolate Easter eggs children' like a bleeding, half-naked Jew nailed to a piece of wood.

So what did Jesus actually say to his 12 apostles as he was being nailed to the cross? "Don't touch my fucking Easter eggs, I'll be back on Monday."

On a lighter note, why don't Muslims get Easter eggs? Because Jesus thinks they're bunch of piss arsed wankers.

Then there was the farmer who pulls a prank on Easter Sunday. After the egg hunt, he sneaks into the chicken coop and replaces every white egg with a brightly coloured one. Minutes later, the rooster walks in. He spots the coloured eggs, then storms out and beats up the peacock.

ABSOLUT HASHERS ON TOUR

CHICHESTER HASH # 811 - MARCH 29/2015 - HARES: THE SPIDERS

Cold, wet and very windy. Our recent luck with the weather ran out, leaving decidedly damp Spiderhares to greet us on the windy drizzly shores of Benbow Pond.

We had to interrupt Dr Blood from a session of Goose baiting in order to circle up and welcome a host of visitors, who we have not seen for a while.

There was Emily a spiderbrat, Malibog the well-known raconteur and Phuket's very own Swollen Colon.

The JMs said something about it being the first day of summer, very drole, Sinbad gave us news of our Hon Pres who is now hashing in a care home in Fontwell, and the hares... well who believes what they say? To start, we soon found a check northwest on the flank of the golf course, through endless mole hills, but then it all got a bit confused and messy with several factions claiming good flour, or as Dogwhistle put it 'It's all going to pot.'

Somehow we got it out of the pot around Steward's Pond and then easily up Broomhill to a check by one of the most famous trees in England, The Queen Elizabeth Oak, which was already an impressive tree when visited by Liz while hashing with Canman in 1591.

We had to disturb our wonderment to continue, some like Swollen C, Helen, and Snake Charmer climbing to the top, over crunchy clay pigeons in search of non-existent flour while the rest found flour and a longer flatter way to all arrive at the stile in the north east corner of the field.

Here the path into Heathend Copse is clearly visible as the only way to go, however the hares had naughtily used the edge of the crop field, through pussy willows in order to push north up the long sunken path to Vining Farm. A force five fishhook wiped out the FRBs half way up, namely, Pancsi, Helen, Hairbrush, Bambi and Old Faithful.

We were then treated to a lovely little roller coaster of a path over twisty roots and plunging into little dells flooded with rhododendron and ivy down through Vining Copse, east to School Lane, and south to the gates of Lodsworth House. Only to find ourselves searching in all directions

Lots of chatter here and a bit of messing about around the

Thank You sign before someone spotted the way east down The Croft on to Gills Lane followed by a tough little loop round by the church and back up.

Moving on now at a fair pace the FRBs made short work of the path south round Langham Stables until I think we reached a regroup, before continuing west through Gosdensheath Copse to arrive at a Ladies check.

I will not report the obvious cheap gibes about finding someone to do the checking that were made by some of the pack, and we did have three ladies to do the business, and they did it. So we were soon on our way again via New Barn into a biting wet gale to reach the On-In after one hour and thirty one minutes of wind tunnel hashing.

Here we were delighted to see how the South Downs National Park have successfully re-introduced the Hippopotamus into its protected landscapes.

The large herbivores, known to have lived in the south of England some 110,000 years ago, have been brought back to graze rare chalk grassland. What a joy it is to see our own native hippos once again in the shiggy mud pools of the South Downs.

Being good Hashers we respected the warning notice. 'Do Not Hand Feed Animals.' Something to do with the hippos maintaining a correct diet I suppose.

We thanked the hares for a great hash as usual by shouting Rubbish! and two reprobates were singled out, Old Faithful for taking a long cut and Snake Charmer for JM disrespect in connection with an impromptu regroup.

There followed a feeding frenzy around a load of hot cross buns that Pink Flamingo and Dr Blood (I think) produced before we saddled up and motored round to the White Horse Pub in Easebourne, where some continued feeding and others indulged in a liquid lunch.....On On! Bambi.

On The Cover: MAD "Lemon Jey" Edwards first ran with the Ashbourne Hash in 30 degrees Celsius (and 120 degrees Fahrenheit) and didn't quit until he's 75 years old. He has been a regular Phoenix Hasher, Phoenix Phoenix (aka hasher), and the GM of the PHH Full Moon Hash over the last 8 years. He is often found breaking bridges and soccer goals, providing entertainment to laughing and crying village school houses, and just not through, and singing full volume off key in the circle.
