JIM EDENS

Hello Hashers,

June is International Shiggy Month as evidenced by the muddy trio gracing this month's cover. If you are inspired by the heavenly heights of Mount Fuji, the Tokyo Ladies have some enticing treats in store for you at Japan Nash Hash. The refreshing waters of Lake Saiko may be just what the doctor ordered when these Geisha Girls get you out of the hot spring and leave you feeling batty.

InterAmericas 2015 Portland regos sold out like hotcakes on a cold winter day, but whether you were one of the the lucky ones or not you can still hash in the City of the Roses almost every day of the week. Our Portland sleuth, SI*t Machine, gives us her whimsical words on the best way to spend $5 with Portland's 10 HHH kennels.

Grab your bra, and pant for your beer on trails that separate the men from the boys, and the women from preschool girls. This unique HHH chapter always seems to end up in a local brewery. Not a bad way to start, and an exemplary way to spend a day traipsing through the countryside in your lingerie.

While the Hash House Harriers started in 1938 as an all male organization, and most Asian capitals carry on this tradition to this day, what would the Hash be without Harriettes? Hazukashii researched the history (herstory?) of the Harriettes and gives us his perspectives on how the fairer sex has worked her womanly ways into the world of hashing.

From Saigon to Snooky and Chiang Rai to Chennai, we cover the world in each monthly edition of Harrier Magazine. Enjoy and let us know what you think about this edition.

See you soon in Portland

by Slut Machine

Whether you are visiting the City of Roses for Interam 2015, or breezing through for business.....Portland, OR is a hash friendly town! We have nearly 10 kennels to choose from and hash almost every day of the week.

Here is a breakdown and brief description:

CONTENTS

Kahuna H3: Monday nights/$5 hash cash

The Kahuna is a great way to get rid of your weekend hangover. Religion couldn't be any shorter: hares, virgins, and swing low. Sometimes there is a possible naming that the founders agree upon. Light snacks and beer.

Beaver H3: Every other Tuesday night/$5 hash cash

Expect a small pack, and a Cajun trail. Meaning, every mark is a check or every mark is true trail....either way works. As a visitor, you will "Get on your knees, bitch!". The Beaver is known for its Anal Xmas Caroling Hash.... imagine Bad Santa hashing.

AMERICAS

PH4 PIRATE WENCHES

Portland Humpin' H3: Wednesday nights/$5 hash cash

PH4 is notorious for its debauchery, booze, and disorderly religion. Themes that bring in the masses like the Pirate Hash, Zombie Hash, and XXXmas in July, its a shit show worth seeing. Despite its reputation, the Hump has a huge following and takes care of their patrons with give-aways for milestones and larger events.

Stumptown H3: Thursday nights/$10 hash cash/RSVP required

I know, I know RSVP required, but this is the “Country Club Hash”. With your RSVP you get a choice of beverage, an ambler/dasher trail, and a full meal at the end. No paper plates or Solo cups here. Stumpers take their hash very serious and you will walk away impressed. Once a year they hold the “Shiggy Awards” where the pack gets all dolled up and presents awards for the previous years trails. (Email anyone in Portland to reserve your spot).

No Name H3: Thursday nights/$5 hash cash

No bells and whistles here, hence the name. Trail + beer + religion = hash. No RSVP required! Recently the NNH3 has adopted the Matzoh Ball Hash, a long standing tradition in Portland Hash history. Some might say there is a rivalry between the No Name and Stumptown. But, occasionally they will bury the hatchet and combine trails for special events.

CONTENTS

STUMPTOWN SHIGGY

A TYPICAL SHIGGYLICIOUS SATURDAY

THE PENTASHALON; 5 HASHES IN 5 QUADRANTS OF PORTLAND IN ONE DAY!

Oregon H3: Every 2nd and 4th Saturday of the month and Full Moon/$5 hash cash/potluck

The mother of all Oregon hashes, this is a traditional and rooted hash.

The trail is set with shigg in mind. Anticipate drinking from the sacred vessel, meeting veteran hashers and ideally there is a bonfire to swing low to. OH3 is also responsible for larger events like the Snowshoe Hash in February, Toga Hash in late May/early June, and the Red Dress in August.

OBYN (Oregon Bash Grab Your Nuts): Sundays; once a month October--March, twice a month April--September/$5 hash cash/bike required. Hash plus bike equals Bash. Get it? Don't have a bike? No problem! Portland hashers have extras laying around for you to borrow..... even if it is their daughters' pink Huffy.

Dead Whores H3: 3rd or 4th Sunday once a month/Bimbos only/$5 hash cash. Created for Bimbos to stitch and bitch without those pesky wankers around. Light trail, champagne, or girly drinks, a Beaver check, Pony check and songs drawing attention to wankers dick size or lack of.

BRAS WASH

by Oral Sex GM & Martin Simms aka Mr Beaky

SCOTLAND

CONTENTS

The B.R.A.S. & Pants H3 (Brewery Runs Around Scotland and Pants as your panting for your beer) started 12 years ago. Founders Audrey Oral sex Docherty and Carolyn St Michael Mcarthur.

The hash has always had an infinity with beer so while savouring a good pint the concept of the bras was conceived and a new kennel was born. The first was at the Atlas brewery which was in Kinlochleven. We were never that clever that to think about running in our bras and pants but, after breakfast the hash turned up adorned with smiles on their faces in their underwear. Don't men in the hash love getting into women's underwear lol and don't you hate it when some look better in it than you.

PANTING FOR KRAKOW

The Atlas brewery looks over the hills and is set in the West Highland way, it is glass fronted and a little magical. To view the magnitude of the great mountains while savouring a pint is totally breath taking. Sadly they went into receivership and were bought over by Sinclairs brewery and now River Leven ales.

The brewer at River Leven ales was part of the original brewery team at the Atlas and the beer there is still wonderful. We paid a visit there a couple of years back and had a phone call asking if they could leave the keys for the brewery for us as they would be away at a funeral !!!!! A hashers dream to be in charge of a brewery. After the brewery I had to pull hashers down that were dancing on the window sills in the hostel it was like Amsterdam but so much fun. Then at night we went on to the ice factory, which is one of the biggest indoor climbing walls in Europe that has a real ale pub. Walked in we thought we were in a gay bar all these you hot guys, worked out it was the commandos and the marines training camp weekend happy days. After a few drinks they tried to danced us under the table. The next minute we got one of the guys tops off, next half were in there underwear dancing about, seems appropriate for a bras and pants weekend. Not to be out done the Hamilton hash boys joined in, at that point we thought we should go home.

HASH CHRISTENING OF VIRGIN AMERICANS' ATLAS BREWERY

WET LINDIES THEY ARE BAD BOYS'

We have been to numerous breweries, most are award winning like Loch Fyne ales at Cairndow near Inveraray which has won many awards especially for Jarl, wonderful nectar of the gods. Stewart's brewery, Arran, Bridge of Allen, Cairngorm, Inveralmond, Straven to name a few

'Hoggie ' and 'Monsoon Drain' have always been a great patrons, of the bras and with the bid for Scottish Nash Hash Perth it only seemed natural to include a Bras trail. It was from Inveralmond Brewery which has great beers like Ossian, Lial Fail and Inkie Pinkie. We had a Moto for the bra bus, no bra no bus and with 'Martini' on guard duty you

LOOK OUT FOR THAT FISH HOOK TOP OF THE HILL

UNDER WHERE THE AUS AND KIWI'S GET THEIR KIT OFF SILLY BREWERY BRUSSELS

DIGGER DIGS HIS UNDIES

had no chance. I was swing low sweet chariot lost my bra to a great Hasher 'what de ya say' who thought it was great fun to be in my underwear. We were overwhelmed how popular it was and wanted to try and make it permanent fixture. With the help of 'Mr Beaky' taking over the next Nash hash we were on our way to our first away bras trail at Ringwood brewery. The bus was mobbed so many hashers in their underwear crazy, 12 great RA's a keg of beer for the circle. It took all my time to kick them into the brewery as they were enjoying themselves so much. Probably the best circle ever or one of the best. I think the fun side of running in undies leads to some great stories. We also started an underwear check which is where you have to swap an item of underwear and introduced the ding a ling bra which is huge and covered in bells and bows and delegated to hashers for misdemeanours.

MR NUISANCE SUNDAY BEST

Then Brussels loomed and after a few beers with 'Higgins' next minute 'Emu' and myself were off to Brussels for a reckie at the Silly brewery. 'Higgins' reckied a wonderful brewery and a great running area. While on the Eurostar I nearly got stopped at customs with a slab of sawdust, a bottle of gin and a box of wine. Luckily my wine was safe, Guernsey came to my rescue and they got all their drink confiscated instead, must have looked like hoodlums in matching hash t shirts. Brussels committee asked us to sell our trail before the event and we and were not even in the magazine. With 2000 hashers only one brewery bus it would have been bedlam.

TINKS BE CAREFUL YOU HAVE A MEGASAURARSE AND SHE'S BEHIND YOU!

So imagine when all our bus load turned up at the bus park in their undies everyone wondered what was going on and thought we had high jacked a bus. The Silly brewery was wonderful and the beer was again amazing.

Now on on to Kraków. Went to into our first reckie meeting and was told the brewery would come to us! clever 'Mr Beaky' he knows how the hash mind works. We were in the meeting 5 mins no actual brewery next minute one sourced email sent thank you 'Megasaurase'. We are now all set up for the Tyskie brewery which is over 400 years old draped in history but also has a virtual side which is whacky and the hash will love. The only problem I have is our group hares email it like the waltons it's night 'Stretch' night 'Spare Rib' night 'Rustler' night 'Nose job' night 'Megasaurase' night me. Ninety five percent playing and banter, have to troll for anything important business through hundreds of messages, but they are happy hares and I am a happy bunny.

The BRAS has done black arm band runs for the Aran brewery that went into receivership documented in the Arran Press and for Johnny the brewer from Loch Fyne ales who sadly passed away and loved the bras concept. Our picture still hangs proudly outside their toilet at the brewery. We now get a lot of positive media attention for the hash, bras and real ale. The press seem to like the hash ethos and the fun element of the bras and the breweries love the publicity and it has got me a lot of free or reduced priced beer. The Bras was based on a back to basic hash mentality. Our weekends are usually hostels that are sourced, we do a lot of our own cooking get an all in deal with the brewery's and put on a low cost event.

Can I just say a special thank you to 'Cuprice' and 'Fuzzy Wuzzy' for all their admin and web help all hares, RA's and song Masters and all the breweries that have helped make the bras what it is.

The hash is a team and evolves by itself as the bras has. We all have roughly the same goals to have fun drink beer and live life to the fullest. We all may be very different but it works. I have hashing now over 20 years it is my rock and I love it.

CONTENTS

The Hash House Harriers (a.k.a. HHH or H3) were founded in 1938, as a variant of the old English Harrier clubs that date back to the early 19th century. The history of the HHH has been fairly well documented (e.g. <http://gototheshash.net/history/hhhhistory.html>), with the first 10 clubs being formed between 1938 and 1965 in Malaya (now Malaysia) and the near region to include Singapore and Borneo (see <http://gototheshash.net/history/hhhfirst10.html>), as MEN ONLY organizations. What we have not heard is a discussion on the origins of the Harriettes. There are references of women running with harrier clubs in the 1800s, but early clubs are rumored to not have allowed women to be the hares, only running and not allowing them to set the trail. I have no specific reference, but during my research on hashing, I recall a reference to a regular harrier club in Kuala Lumpur being active for a short time in the early 1930s, as a mixed club for both men and women.

The first recorded women's version of HHH is the Brunei Hens which were founded on 21 Nov 1966, by Robert Tiepel (no mention whether he ran with them or not). The Ipoh Harriettes were next and were founded on 29 Aug 1968, by Loke Kai Heng. Nearly 50 years later, there are numerous variations of mixed and Harriette only HHH clubs all over the world. Examples (from my own experience) include the Mission Harriettes in California, USA where men were required to remain behind two women at all times on trail. Another example is the Tokyo Ladies HHH, where only women were allowed to hold committee positions. The Harriettes of Oahu (HO Hash) do not allow men at all, and when they do, they must wear pink. Without a doubt, the rainbow (red, blue, green, white, black, etc) of dress runs give plenty of opportunity for the closet cross dressers to don their favorite ball gown or miniskirts and take to the streets for the fun of hash.

The first 10 recorded Women's Hash clubs are:

Brunei Hens . . . . .	21 Nov 1966
Ipoh Harriettes . . . . .	29 Aug 1968
Kota Kinabalu Harriettes . . . . .	10 May 1970
Ladies of Hong Kong H3 . . . . .	15 Jun 1971
Kuching Harriettes . . . . .	20 Jun 1972
Penang Harriettes . . . . .	21 Nov 1972
Singapore Harriettes . . . . .	17 Oct 1973
Kuala Lumpur Harriettes . . . . .	18 Jun 1974
Port Moresby Harriettes . . . . .	30 Sep 1974
Medan Harriettes . . . . .	13 Nov 1975

There are potentially some mixed clubs that were formed during the 60s and 70s, but the records are unclear as to when they transitioned from Men Only to Mixed. There are also isolated incidents of some women being allowed to run with Men Only clubs during this period, to include one Judy Prosser (an Aussie consulate member) that was a regular on the Jakarta Men's Hash in the early 70s.

Saigon Hashing... the secret is in the setting.

by Charles Jennings, (Katoyboy), Assistant GM Saigon Hash, GM Binh Duong Hash

CONTENTS

Hashing glorious hashing, it draws in many characters for different reasons. Some say it keeps them sane living in 'nam, others like a good walk or run in the country, maybe it's a chance to get out your swearing before a week at work, or to have a chin wag with your mates before the circle perhaps and for a few it is just a chance to squeeze in a final drinking session of the weekend.

Whatever your reason for dragging yourself out of bed at the crack of midday on a Sunday is the Saigon hash has it all, a bus ride out to a scenic location, a great trail - 4k's for the walkers or 7 to 10k's of good running - followed by a lively and often rather blue circle. We are finish up with free flow beer from Saigon Hash sponsors San Miguel from the end of the run through the often also lively bus ride back to the city.

FOR GREAT TRAILS WHEN IT IS NOT BLISTERING SUNSHINE!

For everyone though the key thing is getting out to the country and getting back to the circle together with a good thirst built up. The people who make this happen, and those who are most important to our hash other than the long suffering bus crew, are the hares.

Black, white, full of shite and covered in fairy lights they are the ones who take time on many Saturdays to create the runs and get everyone sweaty, hot and bothered and ready for a cold ale on Sunday afternoon. Today three of Saigon's finest Paddy Fag, with over 100 hare sets, General Erection, with 50, and protege Katoyboy spill the beans and let you know how to create a great run.

“First of all you need to know the terrain,” notes junior harrier Katoyboy “whats really interesting about this area is that to the south, west and east it is mostly a river delta while to the north it is also arable land on flood plains around rivers as well.” In short he notes “it is flatter than witches tit.”

“Next you need to think about the atmospheric conditions, by that I mean it is hot - either fucking hot, or fucking hot and fucking wet. Even the most hardy of hashers does tend to melt in 30+ degree sunshine so finding shade in the dry season is vital.” Katoyboy also goes on to explain, at very swearsy length, that the afternoon tends to be hotter at around 3pm when the bus arrives on site than at the end of the run. The Saigon hash leaves at 2pm sharp for the run and which begins no later than 3.30pm. “This Tends to mean that circles from 5-6pm are nice and cool with some beautiful sunsets on show.” he notes.

Senior hasher General Erection chirps that “You’ve gotta keep the pack together, that’s vital, after all nobody wants to be bush bashing while everyone else is having a cold beer. The key thing there is to do something to deal with the Front Running Bastards (FRB’s)”. What’s the answer we question him “plenty of checks and false trails, and shiggy to break up the run” he says.

ALL ABOARD! THE SH3 SHORT CUTS WITH A FERRY.

CIRCLE UP! ASSISTANT GM KAYOYBOY ATTEMPTS TO EDUCATE THE VIRGINS ABOUT THE SAIGON HASH.

Master hare Paddy Fag had some notes on laying checks “You’ve got to have paper every 50ish meters or the stupid Hounds will get their heads down and just get lost”. “If you are not on paper you are not on”. “Plenty of checks will give the FRB’s opportunities to do some running whilst others catch up”. “Try and keep all of the Hounds together so no long straight stretches”. “Have paper at intersections (natural checks) to make the Hounds think (A very difficult task for Saigon Hashers) about where to go”. Of course getting the FRB’s lost can also be a tactic in slowing the run down. Finally, “Back Checks are great to keep those stupid competitive FRB’s on a mental leash”.

“Nobody is usually as slow or hungover as I am,” notes Katoyboy, “marathon runners who turn up and do training for some stupid endeavor need to be kept with the pack of more modest regular hashers.” Paddy Fag and General Erection both agreed that you need to have checks that pepper the trail at intervals of about 1k and have plenty of other hindrances to get everyone bunched up for most of the run.

WELCOME TO THE JUNGLE! GM

“I’ve met dogs and cats smarter than most hashers,” Katoboy complains “but that does give hares an advantage - they are predictable”. He explained that “Harriers tend to get their head down, run, wear themselves out and then be aching for for a beer after not too long.”

“This means setting a trail is about getting shade, plenty of shiggy and maybe some nice hash views at the start, ideally a beer stop, and then some good running at the end.” Furthermore “setting a shitty trail is the fastest way to get iced in the Saigon Hash circle and no hare wants that.”

So in conclusion our senior, master and junior hares agreed - keep the pack together, get plenty of shade, shiggy and checks at the start, have a booze stop if you can and then get everyone a decent sweat on for the beer at the circle. Last and most importantly of all get them all there at the same time!

Thinkin' & Drinkin' in Chiang Rai

by SLAP
photos by Lord Lucan

Our heads were still spinning as we climbed on the hash bus at 0930 after a morning that started in Bangkok, we flew to Chiang Rai where we met up with 3 other hashers on the same early morning flight and were chauffeured to the hotel to drop our bags (all coordinated by the fantastic TDH3 organizers).

Before we knew it the pack was away and the hares led us *unning diagonally across fields of trees, checking just long enough for the walkers/wankers to pass the FRBs then the distant call of On On led us off again to a beautiful lake with some shiggy loops and BTs up steams and elephant trails. As we progressed around the lake the trail became part of the lake in short places, then in longer places, and by the time we came to the shortcut which involved swimming across the lake we were wet enough that it wouldn't really have mattered but we stayed on paper until we found one of the hares at a beer stop where we enjoyed the nectar of the gods and were given bananas to feed the zebras and giraffes. Yes I said zebras and giraffes, yes this is the Thinking Drinking Hash, yes we are in Thailand, and yes there is a cold beer in my hand; sanity check complete, it seems the hares had found a zoo/animal park for the pack to enjoy at the beer stop.

Trail to finish led us through terraced fields of small tea trees, down farmer's paths between beautiful rice fields of nothing but green to a small lake with a traditional Thai house and a finely manicured lawn for us to enjoy. Circle included the traditional antics of welcoming the virgins, honoring long time Thinking Drinking Veterans, and Noriega's demonstration of fine Chinese/Japanese speaking abilities.

CONTENTS

At the On After we found all we could eat traditional Thai foods and all we could drink beer at a beautiful outdoor restaurant located on 300 green acres of research land owned by Singha, Thailand's biggest brewery. The bus delivered us back in time for check in, a shower, a nap, and frosty cold beverage before the Mekong Indochina welcome party began!!!

On On to the hares and organizers for a fabulous Thinking Drinking experience.

Run Walk or Crawl in Chennai City

Chennai City H3 Inaugural Run

BY C2H3 Mismanagement

Chennai City Hash House Harriers – A brand New Hash Kennel in Chennai

Origin of C2H3

The idea of starting a new Saturday Hash Kennel in Chennai was conceived several weeks ago on a Saturday evening at John “Fucktronics” Tipton’s flat, by Daylight Wanker, Fucktronics, Happy Virgin Porn Star and Sugar Daddy, after they had consumed several pints of Kingfisher and other alcoholic concoctions.

One of them came up with this brilliant idea of a hash on a Saturday evening. The reasoning was that hashers could get pissed on the Saturday hash and then go to a designated “On In” bar and drink more piss and party afterward, because no one will have to worry about going to work the next day.

DGM DAYLIGHT WANKER AND THE HARES ANNOUNCING THE TRAIL.

It was also decided that this hash is for “Can Do and Will Do” Hashers only”. Meaning that it is expected of everyone to do the trails - either run, walk or crawl. And also volunteer to hare or contribute to the hash in any positive way for the enjoyment of fellow hashers. No horrors (under 18 years) to be allowed on this hash.

So, it was decided to have the inaugural run on 18 April.

Sponsors

Venue: The Management of Kohinoor Asiana Hotel (picture at top right hand corner of this page), which is a 5 star hotel in Chennai, offered their venue and also agreed to sponsor the dinner for the inaugural run.

Beer: United Breweries, manufactures of Kingfisher Beer offered to be our beer sponsor.

Inaugural Run

And so, the inaugural run took place on 18 April at Kohinoor Asiana Hotel.. Hashers and harriettes totaling 80 in all, registered for the run. T-shirts, which were sponsored by Joint Master Fucktronics, were distributed to all the hashers as they registered for the run. The hares for the run were Web Master, Zzzz (an ex GM of Madras H3 and founder of Chennai H3), Joint Master "Flesh Trader" (an ex GM of both Madras H3 and Chennai H3), Deputy Grand Master, Daylight Wanker, Joint Master Fucktronics (an ex GM of Chennai H3 and Sugar Daddy (an ex GM of Lagos H3 and ex GM of Chennai H3). It was a fabulous trail laid by these experienced wankers.

The circle after the run saw visitor TNT (ex GM of Hyderabad H3 and ex GM of Goa H3) introduce the Mismanagement of this new hash kennel to the circle. The Mismanagement team were put on ice and given down downs. The Joint Masters Fucktronics and Flesh Trader then took over the circle and kept it going for about an hour. The circle ended with the RA, Sugar Daddy doing the hash hymn.

Dinner sponsored by Kohinoor Asiana hotel followed after the circle.

It was indeed a memorable occasion for one and all.

INDIA

Pan Asia Hash

Pondicherry, India
25th - 27th Sept 2015

Well it looks like the Chennai Hash 3 is on every hashers mind at the moment and its no wonder why....because for the first time in Hashing history, the Pan Asia Hash will be hosted in India by us!!

The PAHP 2015 is without question the biggest international hashing event in 2015 hashing calendar and all will happen in Pondicherry in September 2015. All of you must be wondering WTF is Pondicherry, well Pondicherry (Pondy) better know as, is about 190 kms from Chennai (Madras), India. Pondicherry first became famous when the French took an interest in this city. Although many wars took place between the English and the French, the French managed to retain power in Pondicherry. Around the 18th century, the town grew considerably.

With an anticipated 2500-3000 hashers (500 have already registered) from around the world attending, approximately 20 runs per day, glorious beach facing 5 start venues for Hash dinner & dance and of course an abundance golden nectar, this is the one hashing event you do not want too miss. In fact you won't want your hashing friends to miss out either so spread the word and join in the fun.

The 30 plus working committee has too many years of hashing experience for us to admit in public, hey there's transparency and there's just plain been being nosey, but we do need more hashers to support the event and show the best of the Indian Hashing.

The great news is:- Payment gateway has been finalized & its should be up for a few trails runs & then the registration will be open.

POLAR CIRCLE MARATHON

The Polar Circle Marathon - often referred to as “the coolest marathon on earth” takes place in Kangerlussuaq, Greenland. The endless ice and arctic tundra of this vast country make up the backdrop of this unusual race, in which runners pass glacier tongues, moraine landscapes and the soundless, arctic desert. This is a rare opportunity to visit one of the most remote corners of the world combined with a challenging running event.

A part of the route takes place on the ice cap itself, but the main part of the course is run on the gravel road (often snow covered) that connects the inland ice with the small township of Kangerlussuaq, just north of the Polar Circle.

In The Long Run

With the Colonel by Stu "The Colonel" Lloyd

Who is the longest r*nnng Hasher in the world? Well, that depends on how you measure it (he said, duck and weaving like a seasoned politician coming up for re-election). That is, who, among the living, Hashed the earliest, or Hashed the most continually, or is still actively Hashing at a ripe old age. Or all three.

Up until his passing in 2001, the honors would have gone to Arthur "Belukar" Broome. Belukar was a public works department engineer who came out to Kuala Lumpur around 1952. He was on the infamous r*n when the pack ran through a bandit camp and the hares claimed a reward from the government. He retired back to the UK in his late sixties and Hashed well into his eighties back in Devon. He was running off and on until late 2000. "So he had Hashing connection for forty-eight years," says David Scourse, a fellow Mother Hasher, "but not continuously."

Scourse remembers his own first r*n as being "August/September 1957. I left KL in 1994, with around 38 years of Hashing." He estimates doing around 2500 r*ns during that period. "He effectively dropped out, appeared very infrequently during his latter years here," says John Duncan of the Mother Hash. Scourse then ran with Tamar Valley H3 for a year after retirement. "In '96 I joined Stanary Hash (Tavistock), and ran for a year or so until medical problems (knees, followed by heart) curtailed my r*nnng says Scourse. Is he still hashing at all?

"I still r*n once a year with Aigas Hash. We meet annually at the invitation of KC Chai who has invested in a large estate in north Scotland. This is a group of ex-KL Hashers and we stay in the shooting lodge at the estate. On this basis can I still be considered to be Hashing and retain my title of Longest Hasher? I think not. Personally I don't think it's very important who is the longest/oldest r*nnr. It's certainly not in the original Hash spirit. It's more important what you have put into the Hash and the enjoyment you have had in being a member."

Certainly few have put more into Hashing than "Tumbling Bill" Panton, who had his first r*n in KL in 1954. However, he gave up after just one r*n and was not seen around the beer wagon again until August 1958. He has been r*nnng, mainly in KL and Washington DC (which, along with Bangkok H3, he founded), ever since, clocking up an estimated 3,000 r*ns. He still Hashes three times a week – quite often front-r*nnng – with a pacemaker just in case.

On regularity of r*nnng, I certainly r*n but I'm slowing down with the years," says the 74-year-old Hashtorian. "I wouldn't like to claim that at all," he says, deflecting the credit elsewhere.

Next contender is the venerable (or is it 'venereal'?) Harry 'God Knows' Howell who arrived in KL early in 1958. He ran with Mother Hash in June of that year, moved to Singapore for a few years later without missing a r*n, founded the Kuching H3, then moved to Sydney. He just had his 69th birthday and believes he probably has two thousand r*ns behind him.

While Howell lived in KL, a young bespectacled gent called John Duncan was billeted from his home in 1958, so he got Duncan on train in December. Scourse remembers a lot of the good and hard work Duncan put into the club in those early years. Duncan was one of the 41 hounds lost out in the jungle overnight in 1969. Duncan has now wracked up nigh-on 44 years straight with Mother Hash. "I would think that John Duncan must be the longest r*nnr with the club, keeping in mind that Tumbling Bill went to the USA for about 20 years," says Scourse.

DON'T THEY HAVE BETTER TO DO?

A farmer on an Australian outback farm has been criticised by PETA because one of his employees swore at his sheep.

The Times says that People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals lodged a complaint against Ken Turner after an employee was filmed by an "undercover operative" using bad language in front of his sheep.

Mr Turner said: "The allegation was that bad language was used by an employee on the property in front of the sheep and that they could have been offended by the use of bad language."

PETA submitted the complaint to Australia's RSPCA, who confirmed they had investigated. The case collapsed, however, after it became clear the footage would not be legally admissible.

The farmer said he did not know if the sheep had their feelings hurt by the incident: "I still haven't had a sheep come to me [to complain]. They didn't even look offended to me after they were shorn."

Yesterday, Breitbart London reported how PETA also wanted Britain's oldest pub, Ye Olde Fighting Cocks, to change its name as it was offensive to chickens. Mimi Bekhechi, the organisation's director said that changing the name to Ye Olde Clever Cocks would "reflect today's rejection of needless violence and help celebrate chickens as the intelligent, sensitive and social animals they are."

However, locals branded the move "bonkers".

EQUALITY - WE LOVE IT

We older Hashers start seeing more of the medical world, which nowadays includes an increasing number of women as our physicians and therapists, and in my case, a new female urologist. I saw her yesterday, and she's absolutely drop-dead gorgeous as well as unbelievably sexy. She told me that I must stop masturbating. I asked her why. She said, "Because I'm trying to examine you..."

CONTENTS

An American soldier, serving in World War II, had just returned from several weeks of intense action on the German front lines. He had finally been granted R&R and was on a train bound for London.

The train was very crowded, so the soldier walked the length of the train looking for an empty seat. The only unoccupied seat was directly adjacent to a well dressed middle aged lady and was being used by her little dog. The war-weary soldier asked, "Please, ma'am, may I sit in that seat?"

The English woman looked down her nose at the soldier, sniffed and said, "You Americans! You are such a rude class of people. Can't you see my Little Fifi is using that seat?"

The soldier walked away, determined to find a place to rest but, after another trip down to the end of the train, found himself again facing the woman with the dog.

Again he asked, "Please, lady, may I sit there? I'm very tired."

The English woman wrinkled her nose and snorted, "You Americans! Not only are you rude, you are also arrogant. Imagine!"

The soldier didn't say anything else; he leaned over, picked up the little dog, tossed it out the window of the train and sat down in the empty seat.

The woman shrieked and railed, and demanded that someone defend her and chastise the soldier.

An English gentleman sitting across the aisle spoke up. "You know, sir, you Americans do seem to have a penchant for doing the wrong thing: you eat holding the fork in the wrong hand, you drive your 'automobiles' on the wrong side of the road and now, sir, you've thrown the wrong bitch out the window."

ARE WE ON THE BLINK OF WW3??

PYONGYANG, As North Korea inches closer to the nuclear brink, one woman has stepped forward with a stunningly selfless offer that might be the world's last best hope for keeping tensions on the Korean Peninsula from coming to a head.

"I was really hoping this day would never come," said Ri Sol-ju, wife of Dear Leader Kim Jong-un. "But it occurs to me that the power to put all of this foolishness down really rests in my hands. Or mouth, as the case may be."

Indeed, Ri, a role model for all women in the Hermit Kingdom, announced publicly on Thursday that, if her "nutjob husband will stop stroking his ego with these moronic threats," she is prepared, for the first time in their marriage, to place his [redacted] in her mouth and [redacted].

"Wait, Kim Jong-un has a wife?" the international community cried all at once, after puking into a bag. "That has sex with him?!"

A quick Google search by a UN staffer verified the existence of a woman who occasionally appears in public with Kim, but information regarding their sex life—or confirming that Kim even knows what sex is—was not forthcoming.

"Oh, SNAP, is that fat fuck a virgin?!" US Secretary of State John Kerry said with a laugh. "I shouldn't act surprised. That would totally make sense."

Kerry and his State Department have been working around the clock these past few weeks to massage the situation in North Korea, but their efforts to keep the groping strictly metaphorical have so far been to no avail.

"Still, Ri, don't do it, babe," Kerry added. "I'm as keen to avoid the end of the world as anybody, but if our only shot is you having to slob that gnarly knob, is it really a world worth saving? Seriously, barf."

According to top North Korean officials, the lack of attention paid to Kim's Dear Little Friend has been Pyongyang's worst kept secret since the unsexed maniac took office in 2011.

"I tend to give Ri a pass," said one DPRK military commander. "But would it have killed her to throw a handy Kim's way once in a while? A few months back, he was in my office bitching unintelligibly for hours—something about a disagreement over the Atari controller and invading the South...

I don't know, I rarely listen anymore. We had to launch a missile over Japan just to shut him up."

"At least something took off that night, though," the official added, chuckling.

Human Rights Watch, which has long had a bone to pick with the atrocities of Kim's regime, reacted with mixed signals to Ri's generous proposal. "Yeah, mass starvation sucks dick and all," a spokesperson for the organization said, "but talk about a human rights violation. Allowing that poor woman to slurp Kim's limp noodle might be one stain on our conscience too many."

While Ri says she has been touched by the outpouring of public concern for her emotional well-being, she claims the UN's impotent diplomatic efforts have left her with no other option.

"This is something I have to do," Ri said, taking a deep breath and wiping tears from her eyes.

WKJU, Pyongyang's only radio station, hailed the arrangement as "glorious," only slightly embellishing the details at hand. "Our magnificent leader will resume peaceful discussions with the running dog lackeys to our South and their hegemonic overlords from across the sea, so that they might know the stupendousness of his mercy. In celebration of his wisdom and goodness, he will allow the Dear Spouse to receive an enormous gift from him." The station cut to a long block of Barry White music immediately following the broadcast.

At press time, the US Geological Survey had detected a 6.5 magnitude seismic event in the vicinity of Pyongyang. A suspected missile launch was soon ruled out, leaving puzzled onlookers scratching their heads. "Wow, sorry I've been such a boner lately," Kim reportedly told South Korean President Park Geun-hye over the phone moments later. "Listen, about those six-party talks. No need. What do you say we meet in Tokyo next weekend to talk this shit out?"

HASHERS GET LOST ON TRAIL

BRIGHTON HASH # 1919 - MARCH 30/2015 - HARES PROF & KNIGHTRIDER:

Smugglers Rest, Telscombe

We pulled up to a sign saying that the Badgers Watch accepted no responsibility for cars blah blah, making it 3 pubs involved in tonight's run after the change from the Flying Fish at Denton, almost a pub crawl!

Just as well we visited this pub now as it has a distinct possibility of falling into the sea in the foreseeable future as the chalk cliff corrosion creeps steadily closer hence

After Malibog got so lost last week we told him, don't go south! Naturally as soon as the on was called trail promptly went south before swerving at the last minute east to avoid the cliff drop.

As it was you could see the foreboding storm rising along the English Channel.

Fortunately this was before the cloud came down so everyone safely negotiated the edge to head on a roady section towards the downs, where they frolicked around invisibly.

To add to the rain it was now dark and an irritating drizzle descended so you couldn't see the person in front, or were they off to the side, or were they in a completely different town?

Naturally that led to 4 or 5 separate hashes as folk wandered back and forth responding to calls from all around as the trail headed up and up to the top of the now wind swept Telscombe Tye, but on average we don't go anywhere and somehow everyone got back to the pub, damp, cold, with the hashers high of "thank Gispert that's over"

Malibog and visitor Swollen Colon kind of did their own thing after finding what they thought was a short cut and ended up by crossing the trail on the Tyr Ridge with the wind gushing the drizzle making it hard to see anything eventually found their way to the coast road about a mile away from the Pub and not knowing in which direction the pub was at, the ignobility of it all, had to ask directions, east or west?

Eventually arriving back at base pub Malibog was more than happy to find two pints of Dun Bar awaiting his pleasure at the Hash Table.

Even the walkers who hit the downs, bickered a lot, then ended up doing a big loop to come back on the same trail they'd gone out on. Rough luck on hares Prof and Knightrider but at least they got a beer!

Other down downs went to Swollen Colon, visitor from Phuket Hash and Angel, but I don't know why. Another great wet and windy hash, um, night! .....OnOnBouncer

AFTER THE WAR WAS OVER

IF WORLD WAR ONE WAS A BAR FIGHT

Germany, Austria and Italy are standing together in the middle of a pub when Serbia bumps into Austria and spills Austria's pint. Austria demands Serbia buy it a complete new suit because there are splashes on its trouser leg. Germany expresses its support for Austria's point of view.

Britain recommends that everyone calm down a bit. Serbia points out that it can't afford a whole suit, but offers to pay for the cleaning of Austria's trousers. Russia and Serbia look at Austria. Austria asks Serbia who it's looking at. Russia suggests that Austria should leave its little brother alone. Austria inquires as to whose army will assist Russia in compelling it to do so.

Germany appeals to Britain that France has been looking at it, and that this is sufficiently out of order that Britain should not intervene. Britain replies that France can look at who it wants to, that Britain is looking at Germany too, and what is Germany going to do about it? Germany tells Russia to stop looking at Austria, or Germany will render Russia incapable of such action.

Britain and France ask Germany whether it's looking at Belgium.

Turkey and Germany go off into a corner and whisper. When they come back, Turkey makes a show of not looking at anyone. Germany rolls up its sleeves, looks at France, and punches Belgium. France and Britain punch Germany.

AL JANNAH (Islamic Heaven) — Making a claim sure to confound many Islamic extremists back in the world of mere mortals, 72 dark-eyed virgins came forward this week to announce they're still impatiently lounging about this divine garden paradise while restlessly waiting to "get the turf tapped" for the very first time.

The virgins — or houri as referred to in the Quran — allege that they have yet to receive even just one sensual and well-endowed martyr to teach them the ways of love, despite what they say have been sporadic promises that date as far back as the Fulani War of the early 1800s, and which have become much more frequent since 9/11.

"All day long we just lie in bed beneath this pearl, aquamarine, and ruby-decorated dome, longing for our

Austria punches Russia. Germany punches Britain and France with one hand and Russia with the other. Russia throws a punch at Germany, but misses and nearly falls over. Japan calls over from the other side of the room that it's on Britain's side, but stays there.

Italy surprises everyone by punching Austria. Australia punches Turkey, and gets punched back. There are no hard feelings because Britain made Australia do it.

France gets thrown through a plate glass window, but gets back up and carries on fighting.

Russia gets thrown through another one, gets knocked out, suffers brain damage, and wakes up with a complete personality change. Italy throws a punch at Austria and misses, but Austria falls over anyway. Italy raises both fists in the air and runs round the room chanting.

America waits till Germany is about to fall over from sustained punching from Britain and France, then walks over and smashes it with a barstool, then pretends it won the fight all by itself.

By now all the chairs are broken and the big mirror over the bar is shattered. Britain, France and America agree that Germany threw the first punch, so the whole thing is Germany's fault.

While Germany is still unconscious, they go through its pockets, steal its wallet, and buy drinks for all their friends.

jihadi prince to arrive and embrace our modest gaze," said Fareiba, a nymph of lovely eyes and pure being who spoke on behalf of her 71 fellow houri during a press availability with Al Jazeera earlier in the week.

"If only a single Mujahideen warrior who died so nobly in the eyes of Allah while slaughtering the infidels could finally make his journey here and lead us down the path of sensual ecstasy," Fareiba continued, "then maybe me and the girls would be able to turn off these 'Shahs of Sunset' reruns and finally get this 72-on-one, reverse-virgin gang bang started."

"I mean, seriously, what could be taking so long?"

At press time, the houri were reporting that they still hadn't gotten any.

WHAT IS HASHING

Drinking Clubs With A Running Problem' Are Taking Over The World

For most of us, the words "pub" and "crawl" bring back memories of university days gone by that, quite frankly, we'd rather forget. But the Stockholm Hash House Harriers' version of a pub crawl is much, much different. The Stockholm Absolut Hash is one of dozens of hashing clubs nationwide. For those uninitiated, the concept of hashing is simple: like-minded individuals go running together, and stop off at pubs en route. We run anything from 7 km to 10 km and it's not competitive, A hare goes out and pre-sets the trail in chalk, flour, sawdust or anything that the hare tends to think of which is biodegradable or easily removed.

A hare is the person who goes ahead and marks the route. There are a series of false trails, checks, regroupings and the odd drink stop towards the end of the run. We believe in supporting our local pubs and in particular natural beer, but it's up to you what you do on the hash.

At the end of a trail, the group always has what they call 'a circle'. It involves singing a short ditty before downing a free beer. We tell each other jokes or catch up on misdemeanours we've experienced on trail, such as finishing a trail in a police van as I did once,"

Stockholm Hash meet up every other Saturday, whatever the weather, plus hold runs on Wednesday evenings, on the Fool Moon and the occasional Bike 'Bash' Hash. Their "pack size" ranges from 10 to 40 people per run. And they're not the only ones mixing their love of running with their love of good beer.

The hashing movement was started by British Colonial Officers in Malaysia back in 1938.

I have been Hashing in Sweden, Australia, England, Wales, Latvia, Estonia & Finland. My first Hash was in Papua New Guinea in 1980 followed by many years in Angeles City Philippines where we ran the famous Bird of Paradise, the hash home of Ach3

Stockholm Hash began in the mid 70s, and has steadily grown in popularity ever since. These days, it is affectionately known as "the drinking club with a running problem".

Hashing is for those with a sense of fun. Hashers tend to look after other hashers, particularly out on trail, but even afterwards, such as when the odd harrier or harriet might be in need of help. It's a community with shared values and a love of hashing and a great way to de-stress from a tough day at work."

There is far more to hashing than running. The Hash regularly organise additional events, including medieval re-enactments in Visby on Gotland,

A Swedish fermented fish (not to everyone's taste) Hash and perhaps less surprisingly, tasting sessions at breweries.

At your first hash, you can be expected to be introduced to a hasher with a bizarre name such as Sir Clever Dick, Ditch Bitch, Frozen Balls, Red Horse, & Blow Queen. These are hash names.

You can't choose your own hash name. Names are earned, and behind every name there is a story, as the Hash website explains.

Such as a harriet on a London Hash, who on hearing someone exclaim 'there is a couple of guys peeing in a doorway over there' decided to run back to have a look. The pack unanimously agreed that her hash name should be 'Golden Retriever'.

Of course, there are those who question the safety and health benefits of running with alcohol in your system. As pointed out by Runningworld, alcohol dehydrates and causes a person to have slower reaction times than they would normally, so mixing beer and exercise could not only limit your running performance, but actually put you in danger.

However, Hashing doesn't have to be risky. I rarely run with any alcohol in my hand - if you try it you will understand why! Seriously, we believe it's healthier than sitting at home watching TV and a lot more fun than running the same route on your own. There are many hashers who have run marathons, I have run five and about 30 half marathons so it's not just an excuse for a drink. In fact, for me, it's the trails that make it.

To join a hashing group you simply have to visit their website to find out when they're next running, turn up and start talking to someone. Most Hash members wear matching t-shirts, usually ragged, so they're easy to identify. We particularly welcome those new to hashing, Those of us who have it in our hearts look to new people to carry on hashing to ensure its future. Check us up on 'hash.st/ockholm'.....OnOnMaliBog
