Editor's Notes

Greetings Hashers,

The two largest HHH events of 2015 are coming up soon at InterAmericas Hash in Portland, Oregon and EuroHash in Krakow, Poland. Portland boasts the best brews on the west coast, while eastern Europe has an excellent selection of great beers for a fraction of the cost of a microbrew in the Rose City. Besides the beer, what more lies in store in Portland and Krakow this summer?

A BLOG is born: Trails 'n Tales features journeys to HHH kennels in exotic locations around the globe. Where better to start than One Night in Bangkok with a kennel that's been slogging its way through shiggy trails and on-afters at Soi Cowboy since 1977?

Shhhhh....rumor has it that Hawaii will bid for InterAmericas Hash 2017. Blessed by a year round tropical climate, Mark Twain called Hawaii "the loveliest fleet of islands that lies anchored in any ocean". Read all about hashing in this Polynesian paradise, smack dab in the middle of the Pacific Ocean between the North American continent and Asia. If those white sand beaches and those lush mountain ridges are calling you, it may be high time to be Hawaii bound.

Many consider the Garden Island their favorite of the Hawaiian island chain. How about running 13 or 26 miles along Kaua'i's south shore this September? There are certainly worse places to run your first, or even your next half or full marathon.

We thank our longtime contributors, Whack & Nut N Honey for another amazing adventure of Hash Boy, and "Ajarn Keemao" Slater for On the Ice.

I hope to see you on trail soon.

On On,

Jim Edens, Editor-in-Chief

PAN AFRICA HASH 2015 MOVED TO MALINDI, KENYA

HHHi All,

The Pan Africa Hash 2015 event was postponed from Sierra Leone due to unavoidable circumstances and after going back to the bids presented in Ghana, Kenya was awarded the chance to host the event.

Subsequently, Nairobi was planning to celebrate its 2000th Anniversary run at the end of July. It was then deemed appropriate to combine the two events. The Mismanagement assisted by previous NH3 event organizers and GM's started putting up this event together since January. We now have our website up and running www.panafrica-hash2015.co.ke and urge everyone to register for the event online.

The most suitable venue agreed upon for the Pan Africa Hash 2015 event will be in a small town at the Kenyan Coast known as “Malindi” which lies at the centre of a strip of idyllic tropical beaches offering the visitor a range of world class resorts and quiet relaxing hideaways. Further south, the sleepy village of Watamu is fronted by wide white beaches and activities for divers and snorkelers alike.

Northwest of Malindi is the spectacular Marafa Depression, locally known as Nyari and popularly known as Hell’s Kitchen. An extensive series of sandstone gorges and sheer gullies, this unique and other worldly landscape has become part of local folklore where some of our beautiful planned trails will be during the Pan Africa Hash 2015. The thick jungles of the Arabuko Sokoke Forest reserve hide a world of wonders. In the cool of the forest winding paths will take you in search of rare endemic birds and mammals, and visiting herds of Elephant and again some enticing running trails have been established there.

We plan to have our charity “Red Dress” run right in the historical town of Malindi which is one of few towns in Kenya with a rich historical past dating back to the 14th Century, thanks to its role for many centuries as an important trading post on the East African coast .

The Red Dress Run starting at the Coral Keys Hotel will showcase this heritage, starting with the iconic Vasco Da Gamma Pillar built in 1499 at the height of Portuguese influence on the town. Another landmark to watch out for on the trail is the Portuguese Church built in the 16th century believed to be the first Christian Church in East Africa.

Along the way will be the Malindi Museum, built in the 19th Century. An interesting place we’ll be filling past is Malindi old Town with ancient Swahili and Arabic houses and the unique fishing Pier where local fishermen boast and display their catch of the day.

On the question of security, the Kenyan Government has assured its citizens and visitors that all efforts are being made to keep everyone safe. Nairobi HHH has also taken the best measures to ensure that we shall have a safe event with ample security.

To make this a truly Pan African event, we urge you to assist us in marketing at your Kennel and on your website, Facebook page and verbally at your Hash gatherings. All details about the event are on our website. Kindly ask wankers to come support this event and best of all, join us in celebrating our 2000th Anniversary run.

Trails 'n Tales Bangkok

by Jim Edens

Dateline: Bangkok, Thailand

“One night in Bangkok makes a hard man humble”...or so says the song, and running with the Bangkok Hash House Harriers run can be both hard and somewhat humbling as well. Tropical temperatures in the high 90s takes a toll on locals and visitors coming out of more moderate climates. With nearly 100% humidity, you start sweating from the moment you step outside or your abode. And if you're not sweating, you might be in trouble from heat stroke or dehydration.

I'd not run with Thailand's oldest hash for over a year, so it felt good to be back with the old boys at Bangkok's oldest hash. Founded in 1977, the average age of the Bangkok hashers must be approaching middle sixties, so I felt right at home.

The Bangkok Hash is similar to other all-male kennels, which can be found in capital cities throughout Asia. These were the first HHH clubs, spawned from “Mother Hash” when hashing started to spread outward from Kuala Lumpur where the Hash was founded in 1938. Mixed clubs, Harriettes and childrens' clubs followed the male HHH clubs, many which are still active today. While male HHH clubs are common in Asia, they are a rarity in other parts of the world.

The hare had selected a meeting place off the expressway 10 km out of town at a Gai Yang (BBQ Chicken) Restaurant. After plunking down a 300 baht run fee, I headed down the road with the pack of 30 runners and walkers, and into the rice paddies. We ran thru the paddies, along klongs and through herds of goats and cattle for about 10 Km before arriving back at the parking lot where we were met with bottles of ice-cold beer, and some tasty snacks before the circle.

The circle lasted about 40 minutes with usual welcome backs, interrogating of visitors, commentaries about the trail, and singing the only song the Bangkok hash ever sings..."Here's to the (hare, returner, visitor, etc.) he's so blue, he's a hasher true and true, he's a piss pot so they say, tried to go to heaven, but he went the other way, followed by a chorus of “Why was he born so beautiful?” One visitor when called upon to sing mistakenly offered a different song and was duly chastised for exhibiting behavior typical of other lesser hashes, but certainly not acceptable at the Bangkok Hash.

While the Bangkok Hash is an all male kennel, there is one notable female who shows up every week. She is Kuhn Daeng, who provides ice cold beer and snacks for the thirsty hounds when they return from the trail. Outstation “open” runs are another opportunity for females to join the Bangkok Hash in a neighboring province or country. A recent outstation in Laos attracted 40 Bangkok hashers with their wives, children, or girlfriends.

Bangkok is home to seven HHH kennels, and 30-40 HHH clubs can be found in Thailand. Renown for its exotic culture, world class cuisine, beautiful beaches, and notorious nightlife, it is no wonder Thailand is called the Land of Smiles. 🐾

Hidden Paradise

On Trail with the Aloha H3

by Darrin "Tummy Sticks" Gabriel

CONTENTS

For tourists, Hawaii is synonymous with "Paradise" and deservedly so. The islands are blessed with a consistently warm, tropical climate all year long. For Hashers, the word "Paradise" can equally be applied to Hawaii, not for its nice weather (though a definite plus) but for its diverse landscapes and topography. Oahu encompasses 600 square miles, or roughly half the same land mass as Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas. But if one goes hashing in the Dallas area, odds are hard pressed to find anything but dry, flat scrub land or city sidewalk. By contrast, hashers on Oahu traverse a variety of terrain and trail options week to week.

Contrary to popular belief, Oahu is not just lush, tropical rainforest. Shiggy takes on many forms as hashers run through eight distinct climate zones. Starting low at sea level, wankers may traverse rocky or sandy coastline and then trudge through wet, primeval jungle or thick groves of palm and bamboo. Along the central plane and river valleys, ten foot tall elephant and razor grass give new meaning to the word pain. In the more temperate regions, one finds deciduous strawberry guava, ironwood, koa and rainbow eucalyptus trees. Along the North Shore, hashers tread through alpine-like coniferous woods and pad along softened trails blanketed by pine needles. And within the arid rain shadow of the leeward side, shiggy socks are a must as it's not uncommon to be stuck by patches of thorny cactus and jagged lava rock.

*OVER EASY AND SEALED HATCH ABOVE
"LIKEY LIKEY WET HOLES"*

CONTENTS

One thing that all Oahu trails do have in common is they all inevitably go up. Two towering mountain ranges, the Waianae and Ko'olau, rise 3,100 feet and sport literally hundreds of ridge, gulch and steep contour trails to get your heart pounding from both exertion and fear! Dormant volcanic calderas and craters, bitten and carved by thousands of years of rain and wind, make hiking the Leeward and Windward chains an incredible visual treat and physical test. It's not a coincidence Hollywood chose Hawaii to film "Jurassic Park" and "Lost" because at times you feel you're in another world.

Speaking of mountains and rain, nowhere will you find more waterfalls and natural swimming holes than on Oahu. Each valley has its own mountain stream and depending on the time of year, it's not a matter of "if" but "how many" pools, cascades and waterfalls hashers will encounter. Beer checks and waterfalls are synonymous and hares must often shoo the pack back on trail because no one wants to leave their beer check.

Another reason why Hawaii hashing is akin to paradise is there are no deadly animals to worry about when scouting trail. Hawaii is devoid of snakes and there are no hungry carnivores to maul or eat you. Places like Alaska certainly must have some beautiful trails but in Hawaii no one prepares or thinks to run into a polar bear or pack of wolves. Wild pigs are the only critters to look out for and because of Hawaii's thriving and delicious kalua pig industry, they are more afraid of us than we of them.

Oahu is also speckled with the relics of the past. Both its military and agricultural history give trails added flavor and fun. WWII era pill boxes and lookout towers strategically perched high on mountain tops make for excellent beer checks and visual delights. Abandoned irrigation and farming structures like tunnels, pipes, dams and reservoirs are exciting features to discover, explore and lead the pack through.

Many Aloha trails are not tech-friendly though hashers must routinely cross, wade or swim through streams, rivers and canals. Super Eagles were once asked to swim to neighboring islets and one trail had off-shore underwater beer checks manned by scuba divers. Inflatable flotation devices are often required and due to Hawaii's unpredictable and sudden downpours, flash flooding is always a possibility. But no one can neglect the fact that Oahu has 220 miles of coastline that make Beach circles a fantastic religious experience. Hashers share the beach with monk seals and sea turtles as they dip in the ocean to clean off their mud, sweat and tears.

Convinced yet? Oahu boasts the Aloha H3, Honolulu, Full Moon, Pick Up and the HO Hash kennels (and we can't forget our friends on the Big Island- Kona and Hilo groups) all who offer trails that take visitors and locals alike to the secret gems of this diverse island paradise.

BEER NEAR

in Portland, OR

by Slut Machine & Barely Manbelow

Welcome to the Hash Gods chosen country, Oregon. Did you know Oregon is the Microbrew Capital of the World? And Portland specifically is referred to as "Beervana"? Is your mouth watering yet?

So there I was on a sluggish, rainy June day in Portland. Oh, what to do, what to do. Wait! Someone needs to sample, taste, judge, and make sure the Pacific NW beer sponsors of Interam 2015 are up to hash standards. Mmmmmm, going to need some fellow hashers for this. How about: me - Slut Machine, OH3 Tyrant/PH4 King - Stinkfinger, DWH3 Czarina - Wet Spots, my bestie Bimbo - Buttgirl, visitor - Toe Jam.

TOE JAM ON LSD

We started at the 5th Quadrant Lompoc Brewery. Lompoc has been a staple in Portland since 1996. They have five friendly neighborhood pubs located throughout Portland. Lompoc is our sweetheart for the Interam, they have created a beer just for us! How fucking exciting is that? Introducing Beer Near Ale, its a golden ale, dry hopped for extra hop aroma, 5% ABV. Unfortunately, we were unable to taste Beer Near, but fortunate enough to meet owner Just Jerry. He stated he's very excited to be working with half-minds and gave us a sneak preview of the label. We tasted 6 beers, mostly ales with similar grapefruit undertones, a red, and an peculiar strong ale called LSD (Lompoc Special Draft) 6.9% ABV. We were feeling a bit hazing after that, so we inhaled some pub grub on Just Jerrys tab and off we went.

Shiggy...

From Portland, Oregon you can hash the coast, the forest, the mountains, the Columbia Gorge or stay urban and pub-crawl through booze-heaven. You might even catch a glimpse of the elusive Sasquatch.

and Beer...

We have more microbrews per capita than any other city in the world. We're also pretty sure we swill more PBR per capita between fancy brews than any other city in the world. Add to that our booming wine industry and micro-distilleries and we've got something for every half-mind! Even Sasquatch.

We whisked away on Trimets MAX, Portland's light rail system that took us over to NW Portland. (15 minutes max)

Bridgeport Brewery, proud papa of the IPA and 1st Microbrewery in Oregon. Nestled within the Pearl District, their doors opened in 1984 and they have never moved. Bridgeport has no intentions to open satellite locations, so for all you Euro hashers, you need to cum to Portland to taste their nectar.....and I haven't visited a bar in Portland that doesn't serve Bridgeport IPA. By chance, we were introduced to Cellar Master Just "Odd" Todd. OK, circle up and listen. This guy has a huge hard on for hashers..... or me, not sure, either way this dude has hash blood running through him. We tasted our 8 samples and he gave us a tour of the brewery. Stinky even got to sit in with the "pros" that sample every beer, every day before it's bottled or put in kegs. Awful job, but someone's has to do it, right? The group was feeling wobbly, so a complementary German pretzel, and we're off again. **Note** Free tours on Saturdays; 1pm, 3pm, and 5pm.

A hop, skip and a jump on the Portland Streetcar.

We arrive at Deschutes Brewery, established in 1988. Head Quarters are located in the high desert town of Bend, OR. As of 2012, it was the fifth largest craft brewery and the twelfth largest overall brewery in the US. Kudos to you Deschutes!

This watering hole has an impressive layout and a great selection of micro beers you will recognize from your local grocery store. Black Butte Porter or Mirror Pond Pale Ale are two of my personal go-to 6 packs, but off a tap is much more gratifying.

Bummer, the other sponsors for Interam were out of our public transport system reach. I had to rely on the inter-web and several drunk dials to Eugene H3.

Ninkasi Brewing Co.

Ninkasi flat out loves hashers and is the proud sponsor of Eugene H3. Lucky f*ckers. Ninkasi is named for the ancient Sumerian Goddess of fermentation. They made a name for themselves with high hopped ales like Total Domination, but lately have a claim to fame for their reds, and sponsor the Eugene H3.

Hop Valley Brewing

Based out of Springfield, the brewery was built on land where hops were grown back in the oldy times, like 1880's. They are known for their and blond and pale ales. They do a damn good job showcasing the Willamette Valley hops.

HASHING IN EUROPE

EuroHash 2015 17-19 July

by Polly (EuroHash Chairman, aka Richard Hadfield) & DeathMarch (Treasurer, aka Hugh Crouch)

CONTENTS

The Trail Master, Mr. Beaky, and his band of gladiators have done a reconnaissance through the countryside outside Krakow, which is dotted with ancient castles, monasteries and forests to set some devious, cunning trials along leafy lanes, and up mountainous terrain, through rivers; and they even found a Polish desert where the German Africa Korps trained before being sent out to face Monty...We are Ready! Are you? Read On On for more information on the spectacular trails that await you at Eurohash 2015.

We are in Krakow, a stunningly beautiful Medieval city with a castle and a Thirteenth Century university close to the vast central square. There are gleaming white horse drawn carriages to convey visiting tourists. One might be charged a frightening £1.50 or 2.2€ (yup, it is true, no typo) for a pint of beer as you sit, relax and people watch. With only a short time to go before the EuroHash 2015, the trails have been recce'd and plans are coming together to give a great welcome to the 820 registered hashers when they arrive for the weekend of 17th–19th July. The weather may be well be over 30°C with occasional thunderstorms. So bring sunscreen and drink loads of water, or loads of beer!

THE HILLS ARE ALIGHT...

GATES & FURSTY FERRET 'TUCK IN' TO A POLISH MEAT FEAST.

There are fifteen trails on Saturday. They all include fields, woods, rivers, castles and damsels in distress. The trails are all fairly close to Krakow with the average bus journey of no more than an hour. Most of the trails are located in the fairytale setting known as the 'Castles Trail,' a long valley full of woods and old forts and castles running Northwest from Krakow to Katowice. After Genghis Khan's visit, many were, of course, rebuilt in stone rather than wood.

WESSEX HHH: The Hills Are Alight with the Sound of 'On On': A R*n through upper Jurassic limestone and there are numerous rocks, called outliers towering like castles over the trail. The trails meander through thick forest and meandering shady river valleys. Plenty of wildlife, including the hash, can be seen enjoying this natural habitat. There is even an 'icecream' stop where the two trails split.

WARSAW and ROYAL KRAKOW HHH: The trail is set in a beautiful National Park, with castles, caves, rocky outcrops, gorges and all about are pine forests. There is plenty of shiggy for the serious hashers and gentler terrain for the not-so-serious hashers.

CONTENTS

THE VENU: THE OLIMP

ON CHECK. WHERE'S MR BEAKY?

OSLO HHH: A-A running trail in the forests and "downtown", meaning the village Podzamcze. There are going to be caves and castles, mountains and trees, drink stops and checks, streets and cars, adrenaline and fun. The hares may even provide shortcuts. No ball-busting will take place here!!!

BALLBREAKER: 'International BB All Stars' - It's My Desert! - The Bledow Desert is known as 'the Polish Sahara' and a world class attraction. It was a training ground for the German Africa Korps before being deployed to Africa and the landscape is one to be remembered! We have a tower, beautiful woods, natural rock structures, 'our desert', a swamp, sand and lots more!

(The poetic) HARDY HHH:

A Hardy trail around Krakow Zoo....
An enchanting trail to entertain you!
Lots of things for you to explore...
You'll even hear the lions roar!
Elephants, lions, Hashers too...
Which one belongs in Krakow Zoo?
Should you survive this fearsome trail.. for you awaits our finest ale!
A Challenging or gentle pace...
It's up to you, it's not a race!!
Short cuts we will provide...
If you want them, you decide!
Hardys' giant you must catch...
As beer is always where he's at...
A circle to finish, we hear you cheer...
Just don't drink all the Hardys' F*ing Beer!

BRAS AND PANTS HHH: KRACOFF yer BRAS at the TYSKIE BREWERY - A run with a difference You will adorn your Pants & Bras (compulsory) for an adventurous picturesque forest trail and leafy lanes. Follow the flour to a watery food beer stop and hook yourself a beer. Then on to the Tyskie brewery, an amazing brewery founded over 400 hundred years ago that has virtual and live beer!! Lots of history and more beer!!! Take some money for more beer!! Once sampled never forgotten, more beer, more beer, more beer!!!

HURSLEY HHH: THE POLISH JEWELS
14th Century Tenczynek Castle at Rudno, belonging to the Descendants of the Knights of Malopolska, was ransacked 360 years ago in the hunt for the Polish crown jewels. Hashers, eh! Run is A to B. Terrain is mainly flat with two optional hills at each end of the trail.

ZIMMER FRAMES:
A Ramble with the 'wow' factor takes you through the woods north of Zamek and ends up at Gorze Birow Fort, a mediaeval wooden palisaded castle from which you take in the scenic views around the countryside with a fabulous sight of the Ogradzieniec Castle, which is the most impressive of the Eagles Nest Castles in the Jura Highlands. We guarantee that you will go, 'Wow,' when we come over the hill and find that the castle awaits us.

RED DRESS R*N: Thursday 16 July

This trail will be a saunter through the city of Krakow, giving tourists many opportunities to see that the correct colour dress code for Poland is in accordance with their flag. Plenty of opportunities to short cut, have a beer, pose for photos and exchange pleasantries with the local police. The Red Dress R*n will put Krakow in your pocket ... so you can put your hands round a cold beer. The Lady In Red who started the RDR family came from Krakow, so on this is one occasion, we will be taking the event 'home'.

KRAKOW BASH: Friday Morning, 17 July

A Bash is a hash on a bike! The long trail is 26km. Dr. Flatus will lead you into the forest to the "Nazi Hotel" for a beer stop, along the river to Tyniec Monastery for a second beer stop and then back toward town along river to Kazimierz. There are shortcuts available for the Turkeys. There is 'Bike Hire' available at a very reasonable rate.

The Great Dane's 1000th Hash

CONTENTS

On Sunday, May 24th, the Chengdu Panda Hash House Harriers celebrated the 1000th Hash of it's oldest member, the Great Dane (Sven Burmester). This is a very rare feat for any Hasher to achieve in his/her lifetime and the Great Dane, who has been hashing all over the world since 1973, made it look easy as he led the setting of the trail himself.

The trail was in one of his favorite places, the sleepy little hamlet of Dayidong, which is a farming community about 80 km from downtown Chengdu, China. It is home to the Xiantaishan Monastery, which his trail went right through to insure Hashing enlightenment for the whole kennel.

The Great Dane is a lush life hasher of the 'old school' variety who, when not Hashing, tries to pass himself off as a Danish writer and social commentator. The rest of the CPHx3 frankly could care less what he does during his free time, what we appreciate is that at the spry age of 75 he is still busting his hump on the trail and breaking balls in the Circle after the run/walk.

... HE'S A HASHER THROUGH AND THROUGH...

He has Hashed all over the world during his forty year campaign in exotic places like Alexandria (Egypt), Bangkok, Berlin, Brunei, Cairo, Copenhagen, Edinburgh, Jakarta, Jogjakarta, Khartoum, Kuala Lumpur, Medan, Mogadishu, Taipei, and of course with our very own Chengdu Panda Hash House Harriers! It's likely he has Hashed in a few other places as well, but since he has forgotten more about Hashing than most of us will ever know, we may never learn the whole truth.

Though the Great Dane is NOT a front running bastard (anymore), he is already looking forward to run #1001 and we will all continue to improve as Hashers for having spent time on the trail with him. 🐾

Pan Asia Hash

Pondicherry, India
25th - 27th Sept 2015

Well it looks like the Chennai Hash 3 is on every hashers mind at the moment and its no wonder why....because for the first time in Hashing history, the Pan Asia Hash will be hosted in India by us!!

The PAHP 2015 is without question the biggest international hashing event in 2015 hashing calendar and all will happen in Pondicherry in September 2015. All of you must be wondering WTF is Pondicherry, well Pondicherry (Pondy) better know as, is about 190 kms from Chennai (Madras), India. Pondicherry first became famous when the French took an interest in this city. Although many wars took place between the English and the French, the French managed to retain power in Pondicherry. Around the 18th century, the town grew considerably.

With an anticipated 2500-3000 hashers (500 have already registered) from around the world attending, approximately 20 runs per day, glorious beach facing 5 start venues for Hash dinner & dance and of course an abundance golden nectar, this is the one hashing event you do not want too miss. In fact you won't want your hashing friends to miss out either so spread the word and join in the fun.

The 30 plus working committee has too many years of hashing experience for us to admit in public, hey there's transparency and there's just plain been being nosey, but we do need more hashers to support the event and show the best of the Indian Hashing.

The great news is:- Payment gateway has been finalized & its should be up for a few trails runs & then the registration will be open.

Please visit our website-www.panasiapondy.com for more info or mail us -pahp2015@gmail.com. Please forward this mail to your fellow hasher & chapter you know.

South Indian Super Hash

Aug 6 - 9, 2015 at Kodaikanal

25th Anniversary

It was in the year 1990.

Three Hashes were born in India. Independent of each other. The first was Bangalore around April. Then Hyderabad. Finally Madras Hash in Sept.

They have been the most vibrant of the Hashes in India. The best Mismanaged too. Run by a large number of dedicated hashers who work hard to give hashers a good time and good value.

To celebrate the 25th Anniversary of Hashing in their respective cities, Bangalore Hash, Hyderabad Hash and Madras Hash come together to give you a great hashing weekend.

One entire day and evening put together by one of the Hashes, ensuring a great weekend. 4 day – 3 night weekend put together by the three main Hashes of South India to celebrate their 25th Anniversary of Hashing.

For More Information Visit

www.madrashash.com/silver-jubilee-of-hash

Rego is all inclusive – including stay in the best & fully booked resort in the area, and all the beer you want available right through the 4 days. The weekend is our way of saying "We love the hash", and we hope you will get a sense of that when you spend a weekend with us. On On...

POLAR CIRCLE MARATHON

The Polar Circle Marathon - often referred to as "the coolest marathon on earth" takes place in Kangerlussuaq, Greenland. The endless ice and arctic tundra of this vast country make up the backdrop of this unusual race, in which runners pass glacier tongues, moraine landscapes and the soundless, arctic desert. This is a rare opportunity to visit one of the most remote corners of the world combined with a challenging running event.

A part of the route takes place on the ice cap itself, but the main part of the course is run on the gravel road (often snow covered) that connects the inland ice with the small township of Kangerlussuaq, just north of the Polar Circle.

The Kauai Marathon & Half Marathon

Jeff Sacchini's Vision Evolves Into A World-Class Event

By Robin Jumper

The Kauai Marathon and Half Marathon's race founder, Jeff Sacchini, long had a vision of bringing an elite marathon to the island of Kauai. He knew that with great leadership and Kauai's generous support, the island's aloha spirit would be shared with visitors from around the world.

Seven years later, The Kauai Marathon and Half Marathon is now a signature event for the island scheduled yearly over the Labor Day weekend. This year, the main event takes place on Sunday, September 6th, however the days leading up are equally as exciting with great experiences for the entire family.

OVER 1800 MARATHON AND HALF MARATHON RUNNERS MAKE THEIR WAY UP KAUMUALII HIGHWAY ON THEIR WAY TO THE NEIGHBORHOODS OF OMAO, LAWAI AND KALAHEO.

The headquarters hotel is the luxurious Grand Hyatt Kauai Resort & Spa located in sunny Poipu. They host a number of events including the Sports and Fitness Expo where logoed marathon merchandise, as well as several other active lifestyle vendors are on hand to share their products and services. On Saturday, September 5th there is the 6th Annual Fun Run, a 3-mile “shake out” run that is lead by marathon Host Bart Yasso. This is followed by the Third Annual Keiki Run, which is held oceanfront on the grounds of the Grand Hyatt. Races are available for keiki (children) ages 2-12 and the best part is they get to chase a 6’2” chicken along the course!

However if you carve out some time for relaxation, the resort boasts the best waterslide in the islands, along with a plethora of pools and lagoons. Or, there is always a relaxing treatment at Anara Spa to get you ready for the big day.

Of course Sunday is the main event with the full and half marathon beginning at 6am. New to the 2015 event will be a 5k that begins at 6:30am. This is a great option for runners that like a little less distance in their race experience.

Now for the course...after extensive research on marathon courses, Sacchini finalized the Kauai race course to run through the neighborhoods of Poipu, Omao, Lawai and Kalaheo. The marathon and half-marathon start on Poipu Road in front of the Poipu Shopping Village at 6am, and the first 11 miles are run together. The courses travel up through the 100 year old Tree Tunnel, which offers spectacular views of Kauai’s breathtaking mountains. After runners make their way down Highway

50 and Omao Road, the half marathon course enters Kukui'ula Resort where spectacular ocean views highlight the last few miles.

The full marathon heads out to the neighborhoods of Lawai and Kalaheo before heading down a gradual decent back into Poipu. Fortunately, the full and half marathon courses share the same ocean front finish line at the Sheraton Kauai Resort.

Upon completion of the race, all finishers are lei greeted with a commemorative medallion as they exit the chute that opens up to a finisher's party and awards ceremony located on the ocean front lawn at the Sheraton Kauai Resort. Race participants as well as supporters enjoy live local entertainment, ice-cold beer, and plenty of food until the early afternoon. Participants also have the opportunity to receive a complimentary healing massage by one of the event's outstanding massage therapists.

The seventh annual Kauai Marathon is scheduled for Sunday, September 6th. The registration numbers are on pace to exceed the number of runners from last year. Additionally, several well-known runners have confirmed their participation including 2010 winner Michael Wardian, inaugural winner JT Service, and several elite runners from around the world.

TAIKO DRUMMERS ALONG WITH HULA DANCERS, CHANTERS AND MUSICIANS ARE PLACED AT 16 LOCATIONS THROUGHOUT THE COURSE. MARATHON RUNNER DEAN KARANAZES ENJOYS THE LOCAL ENTERTAINMENT AS HE MAKES HIS WAY THROUGH KALAHEO ON THE FULL MARATHON COURSE.

The Hash Darwin Awards

Old Chaz, the chap on the right, in one of his sober moments, put forward the notion of “survival of the fittest”, a concept that implies that the removal from the gene pool (usually by death) of its weaker members, thereby strengthens the survival chances of the remainder. However, here at OTI, we do not encourage the extermination of the less able, the feeble, or the intellectually challenged. Rather, we encourage them to become hashers! Further, this column aims to be a forum where the moronic misdeeds of hashers might be chronicled in pursuit of that noblest of pastimes, namely, having cheap laughs at other people’s expense. With that in mind, I offer the following:

PORKY PIES

Charles Darwin

Lying: while the ostensibly judgmental types (thankfully, not too prevalent on most hashes) like to claim that they don’t do it (such types are often likely to issue similar denials about wanking), I’ve always found lying, or to calibrate my reference to hashing more precisely, “bullshitting”, to be a vital part of the banter that surrounds any hash event. Indeed, stretching the truth a bit is perhaps as vital a hash lubricant as cold beer.

Lying in itself has a long pedigree, stretching back long before Bill Clinton’s memorable address to the US and the world stating clearly and unequivocally, and accompanied by much wagging of a slightly phallic index finger, that, “I did not have sexual relations with that woman”. Indeed, if we go back to the Bible, when Jonah arrived home after three days away and told his wife that he’d been swallowed by a whale and regurgitated unharmed, we can only applaud his creativity with the truth and ponder how gullible a woman she was.

Indeed, lying is the very stuff of life. US research into how much people lie, conducted by asking people to keep a diary and record how often and to whom they lied, showed both men and women lie in approximately a fifth of their social exchanges lasting 10 or more minutes, and over the course of a week they deceive about 30 percent of those with whom they interact one-on-one. And when it comes to the thorny issue of interaction between the sexes, the results are as you might expect. Eighty-five percent of the couples interviewed in a US study of college students reported that one or both partners had lied about past relationships or recent indiscretions and found that dating couples lie to each other in about a third of their interactions—perhaps even more often than they deceive other people. As an aside here, one researcher looked into specifically the lies men tell women and calculated the top 100. Surprisingly, No. 1 was, “I’ll call you”. Now, I would have bet money on the fact that the No. 1 lie would have involved a promise not to allow certain emissions to end up in someone's mouth. If you thought the same, then you are probably a hashman of some world experience and knowledge, or at least as twisted as I am.

But it is "bullshitting" that, if not essential to life, certainly adds some piquancy to it, both in spouting it and in the possibly even more pleasurable act of catching others doing it. I've seen it all on various hashes over the years: people paying for and engraving their own 100-run mugs, having done about 20 runs; people arriving in a country sporting hash names they claim to have been awarded in other countries which turn out to be, after a little research, entirely self-bestowed, etc.

It is perhaps in the reminiscing of past and probably dubious non-hash sporting achievements during the general banter after a hash run that the fan of good bullshitting is apt to find many examples. Even in my own case, when occasionally the talk moves to the game of cricket, I can usually manage to work into the conversation my years playing district cricket in Sydney. "What grade?" my interlocutor usually asks. "A Grade", I modestly reply, taking a sip of my beer. The fact that the district in which I played could field only one grade is not a fact I offer up readily.

As I noted, however, it often the catching out of others that provides a more exquisite frisson of pleasure. Some years ago at a Bangkok hash, I happened to be chatting with a visiting hasher from Sydney. As our conversation progressed he offered up the fact that he had attended Sydney University, my own alma mater, in the mid-1980's, around the time when I was there. Moreover, he claimed to have played Rugby for the storied University Club whilst there. Something in his demeanor led me to smell bullshit. I casually replied, "Oh? What grade?" He responded that he had played for 5th Grade Colts (a lowly-ranked "development" team for young players). "Oh really?" I enquired, sensing I had my man. "You must have known Maurice Cunningham, then." He replied in the negative, saying he couldn't recall the name and that many people had passed through the team in the time he was there.

MENTAL DISORDER ICES SINNERS AT CAMBODIAN NASH HASH

“What position did he play?” he asked.
 “He was the coach”, I answered.

Thus our conversation was terminated by his abrupt need to walk over to the beer truck and refill his mug. He attended the on-on-on dinner after the run but strangely decide not to sit next to me.

Perhaps it is fitting, though, that Rugby provided the source material for our friend’s slightly embellished story, for old rugby players, like old hashers, are wont succumb to the adage, “the older I get, the better I was” and it is well to be skeptical. Consider the wonderful short story, “The Outing”, by Dylan Thomas (no mean bullshitter himself) describing a coach-trip to Porthcawl in South Wales, which, inevitably, the increasingly inebriated travelers never reached:

‘They stopped at the Hermit’s Nest for a rum to keep out the cold.
 “I played for Aberavon in 1898,” said a stranger to Enoch Davies.
 “Liar,” said Enoch Davies.
 “I can show you photos,” said the stranger.
 “Forged,” said Enoch Davies.
 “And I’ll show you my cap at home.”
 “Stolen.”
 “I got friends to prove it,” the stranger said in a fury.
 “Bribed,” said Enoch Davies.’

So, like Enoch Davies, be on the watch for the bullshit on your next hash. Enjoy the art of catching out others in the act but don’t be churlish if you get caught out yourself and suffer a seat on the ice for your troubles. It’s only fair.
 On On to the next issue,

STILL GOING STRONG SINCE 1920

Years ago when Clever Dick still had his boat he went into a bar with the boat's wheel stuffed into the front of his pants. The bartender says, "Hey, you've got a ship's wheel in your pants." Clever Dick replies, "Aye mate and it's driving me nuts!"

---onon---

MEANWHILE DOWN ON THE FARM

One day a farmer's donkey fell down into a well. The animal cried piteously for hours as the farmer tried to figure out what to do. Finally, he decided the animal was old and the well needed to be covered up anyway. It just wasn't worth it to retrieve the donkey.

He invited all his neighbours to come over and help him. They all grabbed a shovel and began to shovel dirt into the well. At first, the donkey realized what was happening and cried horribly. Then, to everyone's amazement he quieted down.

A few shovel loads later, the farmer finally looked down the well. He was astonished at what he saw. With each shovel of dirt that hit his back, the donkey was doing something amazing. He would shake it off and take a step up.

As the farmer's neighbors continued to shovel dirt on top of the animal, he would shake it off and take a step up.

Pretty soon, everyone was amazed as the donkey stepped up over the edge of the well and happily trotted off!

Life is going to shovel dirt on you, all kinds of dirt. The trick to getting out of the well is to shake it off and take a step up. Each of our troubles is a stepping stone. We can get out of the deepest wells just by not stopping, never giving up! Shake it off and take a step up.

Remember the five simple rules to be happy:

- Free your heart from hatred - Forgive.
- Free your mind from worries - Most never happen.
- Live simply and appreciate what you have.
- Give more...Expect less.

NOW .....Enough of that crap...

The donkey later came back, and bit the farmer who had tried to bury him.

The gash from the bite got infected and the farmer eventually died in agony from septic shock.

MORAL FROM TODAY'S LESSON:

When you do something wrong, and try to cover your ass, it always comes back to bite you.

TRAINS AND BOATS AND PLANES

A German lorry driver was in a pub in Newcastle gobbling off about how lazy the British are, as he drives his load from Hamburg, goes through Holland, Belgium, up to Newcastle and back to Hamburg in two days.

This old Geordie man mutters... "Ay! Way back man... I used to pick up my load in Newcastle drop off in Hamburg and be back in Newcastle the same day."

The German trucker snorted and said...

"Oh Yeah.... wat rig were you driving?"

The old fella replied... "A LANCASTER BOMBER!!!"

---onon---

A man boards an airliner, takes his seat, and is surprised to find a large purple parrot in the seat next to him.

As the aircraft takes off, a pretty flight attendant walks down the aisle past the man and his seat mate.

'Hey, bitch', says the parrot, 'bring me a whiskey and soda, and make it snappy!'

The flight attendant looks annoyed, but walks on. A minute later, she walks back up the aisle, and

The parrot pipes up again: 'Damn it, you lazy street walker, where's my whiskey? Hurry it up!'

Visibly flustered, the flight attendant hurries up the aisle and returns quickly with the parrot's drink.

Impressed with the parrot's technique, the man decides to get some quick service for himself.

'Hey, slut,' says the man, 'get me a dry martini and don't drag your sorry ass - I want it right now!'

The flight attendant turns red with anger and runs to the front of the plane. In a moment she returns with the First Officer and two burly male flight attendants.

The crewmen seize the Passenger and the parrot, jerk open the emergency door and hurl them both out of the airplane at 20,000 feet.

As the two hurtle out the door, the parrot says to the man, 'Ya know, for someone who can't fly, you got a lotta balls.'

Two Stockholm Hashers get off a plane in Scotland and head for the nearest bar. Each one orders two whiskeys and immediately downs them. They then order two more whiskeys a piece and quickly throw them back. They then order another two apiece.

One of the Hashers picks up one of his drinks, and, turning to the other Hasher, says, "Skoal!"

The other Hasher turns to the first and says, "Hey, did you come here to talk, or did you come here to drink?"

THE ABSOLUT HASHERS CHECKLIST
ON HOW TO GET TO YOUR HASH RUN IN 21 EASY-TO-FOLLOW STEPS AS PERFECTED BY THE STOCKHOLM H3 OVER THE YEARS.

Hello again Hashers, as a long time hasher I've put together a short checklist to help you get to the Hash in time.

Tick off each point as it happens –

1. Alarm clock rings first time, hit snooze button, fall asleep again.
2. Alarm clock rings second time, hit snooze button again, go back to sleep.
3. Alarm clock rings third time, hit snooze button, rest eyes, just for a minute or two.
4. Alarm clock rings fourth time. Decide it is time to get up either because;
  - spouse is getting horny or angry. It doesn't matter which, discomfort will be the end result.
  - kids are getting hungry, and are thinking of making their own breakfast!
  - dog really needs to go!

NOTE: It has been know that some HasHers fall asleep on the way to the run.

5. Get breakfast, loaf around in sofa watching the noon news.
6. Check bellybutton lint, and weird smelling stuff between toes.
7. By now it is too late for you to get to the Hash on time.

8. Realise that you're now too fucking late, get into a state of panic and gather your Hash gear, kids, dogs and spouses, forgetting half of it (Known as the Half-Mind Dodge or the Short Cutters Manoeuvre depending on how many kids are involved), and rush to whatever station you are leaving from.

NOTE: These directions also apply to busses and trams or whatever transportation you are taking.

9. Get to station just as the train leaves, because you had to go back home to get what you missed in the panic, and then after a few minutes searching realised that you forgot most of it on the run two weeks ago, and will get it back in the circle. While at home you think maybe quicker by bike but then you find tires are flat and no idea where the pump is at.

10. Get out your trusty mobile and call some random Hasher (not the Hare though that would be too easy), to let them know that you're running a tad late.

11. Call another random Hasher of your choice as the first one was either standing about five feet from you, or sitting on the next train.

12. Call another random Hasher of your choice as the second one was also either standing about five feet from you, or sitting on the next train.

13. Call another random Hasher of your choice as the third one also was either standing about five feet from you, or sitting on the next train.

14. At all times avoid calling the RA or Hare Razor, why should those nosy pricks need to know anything anyhow?

15. When train finally arrive get on the wrong one, since you haven't bothered to read the Hares' mails on how to get to the run, or figure that out by yourself.

16. Waste another fifteen minutes waiting for the next train.

17. Miss the station, either by getting off at one before or one after, waste even more time waiting for another train.

18. When finally arriving at correct station, ignore all written instructions, signs or arrows, and start walking in random direction (don't worry it will be the wrong one).

19. When you're totally lost call Hares and ask for directions. But since you don't know where you are, no directions can be given. (Affectionately known as a Hash Fuck Up).

20. Call cab.

21. Moan and whine and whinge when you're getting your well deserved down-downs for being a late coming wanker.

This usually becomes far to exhausting for your normal Hasher and at a moments notice falls back into a sleep thereby provoking another down-down.....from an original by VD Viking

THE SWEDISH EUROVISION SONG CONTEST RUN # 719

This was a A2B run with the start at Trångsund (Tight Sound) railway station where we were well met by a couple of returning Hashers from way yon, Sofa & XXXXX. Bright and sunny it was in the morning so I decided to bike my way to the on-home and made my way to the start with the hares and Laid Bird who actually ran to house. A wee distance of approx. 15 km.

The usual lies were given at the start and we runners were directed over the railway foot bridge and soon found us grouping along bushy trails to once again cross the road bridge heading in the general direction of the forest bordering on the large lake. Some well-planned checks in the undergrowth soon had the fast runners going round in circles whilst we of a slower nature were able to grasp the real trails and put ourselves out in front. For a while we seemed to be running round in circles as I remember at some point on the trail it passed very close by the on-home then changing direction once more we headed back into the woods.

However before we venture anymore into this run we believe a few words should be forthcoming as to what and why this is called the Eurovision Song Contest Run and why this has become so a repellent part of European in general Swedish in particular non-culture.

The thing is with the song contest it's where do we begin to tell the story of how crap a thing can be? Whose idea was the song contest? Because if there's one thing we can be absolutely sure about regarding the countries of Europe, it's you don't want to be stirring up national rivalries with that lot.

These are countries who've going to war over the most trivial matters, the shooting of an Archduke, who's got the real Pope, a tiny bit of southern Denmark, so having a contest based on something really important like music is bordering on madness.

In fact the main criterion for joining would appear to be that your nation has recently been involved in a bloody conflict.

So when the Contest started, it was all the people who'd been in the last big war. Then in the 1960s and 70s new acts of violence like Israel and Cyprus got involved. After that the Serbia, Bosnia, Croatia and places like that. One can only surmise that Estonia got in by lying to the selection panel and claiming to be in a war that nobody saw happen.

The Eurovision Song Contest, an annual meeting of the mad, the brave and the hopeless, still manages to cause a bit of panic in Sweden. Back in the early seventies all-conquering ABBA took first place establishing a national institution second only in importance to the stomach churning sentimentality of the Summer Sing-Ins at Skansen. (Not watching these omnipresent phenomena is almost considered an act of subversion in Sweden.)

Waterloo was the record which laid down the ground rules for the Swedish entries for Eurovision for the next 30 years, the 'bing-a-bong' formula. The binginess or bonness of all subsequent Swedish entries could be measured in terms of Waterloo. However it was years before Sweden took first place again as they were considered by the judges to be always a little short of 'bing' or a little lacking of 'bong'. Later a Dutch band took the theory to its logical conclusion by simply changing the 'b' to a 'd' and won hands down with Ding-a Dong. Connoisseurs of bad taste noticed the Swedish Eurovision entries continued to plummet effortlessly reaching an all time low 3 years ago taking first place with a song by Charlotte the Harlot which was so appallingly nauseating it made ABBA look quite raunchy.

Sweden haven't been alone however in producing some awful monumentoes, near neighbour Lithuania's only entry to date, Lopsine Mylima by Ovidijus Vysniauskas, finished with a perfect 'nul' score. It might have been a good song but who could ever understand that. There have also been a number of great hits from other parts of the world unfortunately not eligible for the Euro Song Contest. 'Float On' by the Floaters was a single that occupied the UK No 1 spot, a coveted position previously held by distinguished luminaries as Cilla Black and the St Winifrid's School Choir. This sub-stylistics nonsense from 4 chaps with high fibre diets was a chart topper in the UK and US. This was their first and only hit single to date and the band has now broken up with their third base now living in Stockholm.

HARES: EI SAA PEITTÄÄ, FLUFFER & COCKTAIL

Sadly also not included is the 1967 classic 'Sing Along With Mao', which featured thoughts a live recording of the Chinese leader chanting some of his favourite thoughts,

Not so in Sweden where for several weeks before the finals, four knockout competitions are held every Saturday on prime time which locks about 90% of the viewing population glued in front of the idiot-box watching the most stomach-churning repulsive & nauseating third class acts followed by a second chance comp for those who were just mildly repellent to enter the Grand Finale.

The Swedish Song Contest now looks as if it has come direct from the New York gay club scene and you don't stand a chance in hell if you're not dressed as firemen, cowboys, reindeer herdsman or cluttered up with stereotyped feminine stage gear sprouting banal lyrics and lispng innuendo about sailors plus lively excerpts of discussions with Defence Minister Lin Pao and Premier Chou En-Lai. Apparently it sold over five million copies, a remarkable fact made even more remarkable when you consider that China had less than a million record-players in 1967. In one of the more creative explications of European Geography, Morocco participated in Eurovision in 1980, and finished 18th out of 19 entries, with a little ditty called 'Bitaket Hob'

However, not to be beaten an even more creative interpretations of European Geography occurred this year with Australia participating in Eurovision this year, with a little ditty about kangaroos.

We await in wild anticipation for the next contest, to be held in Sweden when presumably the US will enter with drive-by shootings, a coke covered bimbo from Brazil and Jamaica with some decent reggae.

The whole point of entering Eurovision is to come last, a coveted position held by the crafty Finns who take a somewhat healthier attitude to the contest priding themselves on finishing last on an unequalled nine occasions with songs which sounded as though they were originally designed to frighten elks.

Back in the UK most Britons watch it with the same degree of morbid curiosity that tempts you to slow down when you are driving past a rather grisly road accident.

Most Hashers however do not even bother to slow down, never for one second allowing such bad taste to interfere with the most serious business of either running to work up a thirst or, more important, extinguishing that said thirst.

But the big joke of Eurovision, the thing that made us Brits watch even when it was really really awful was the idea that everyone else was rubbish and even though our entries were also rubbish, they were less rubbish the foreigners stuff.

However nowadays a decision is made at the BBC and someone like Emperdick Humptydumpy (the poor persons Ton Jones) was put forward to come near the bottom of the bucket.

Apart from this most disagreeable behaviour the run was a most pleasant jaunt through' the woods and streets of Trångsund (Tight Sound) on a fine early Spring day with a well-deserved champers stop by the lake celebrating the one year anniversary of the famous wedding last year when the pack had to swim across the lake in order to join the on-home party party.

This was followed by another shortish trail followed by a beer stop at the park playground after which we continued on another loop eventually heading back in another circle passing the site of the first drink stop to the well awaited on-home and chilled beers.

The usual suspects were called into the circle, the hares of course and a number of virgins and the rest of us for virgin on the ridiculous.

After the circle we were all presented with a good BBQ washed down with various beers and home-brews.

As the day came to a close we non-Swedes left the allowing the locals to undisturbed gawk at the idiot box to watch the Grand Eurovision Final only to become semi-conscious of the Swedish entrant taking first place which presumably caused the majority of the Swedish population to attain mass self-ejaculation. Great run tho' ..... OnOnMaliBog

THE SWEDISH NATIONAL DAY RUN

It was that time of the year again when the blues and yellows were paraded through the Streets of Stockholm.

Since the National Day was proclaimed a National Holiday some 10 years ago the Stockholm Hash has been in the forefront celebrating this day

A position several other organisations try to copy but none ever achieve to come remotely approaching.

However we did break with tradition this year and the HQ was moved to the Southern Island of Söder, with our man from Skåna organizing the proceedings.

Well in the courtyard of his humble dwelling we were told the usual lies about the trail and hence we were pointed up-hill, down some steep steps eventually to find ourselves roaming around the Slussen area looking for marks criss-crossing every dark tunnel until we entered The Old Town. Up Mårtensgränd, the smallest street in Sweden passing by St George and the Dragon eventually resting for a photo shoot opposite the castle with one happy policeman who broke ranks and joined us for a selfie.

CONTENTS

Long before this we had lost Termite but that has long since become a worrying moment.

Next stop was at the Statue of Charles 12, warrior King of Sweden (The Russian Basher) where various drinks were handed out with the locals curiously looking on. A short ramble through the centre of town back over the bridge to the second drink stop on Basieholmen where a number of insane Vikings went for a swim in the cold Baltic brine.

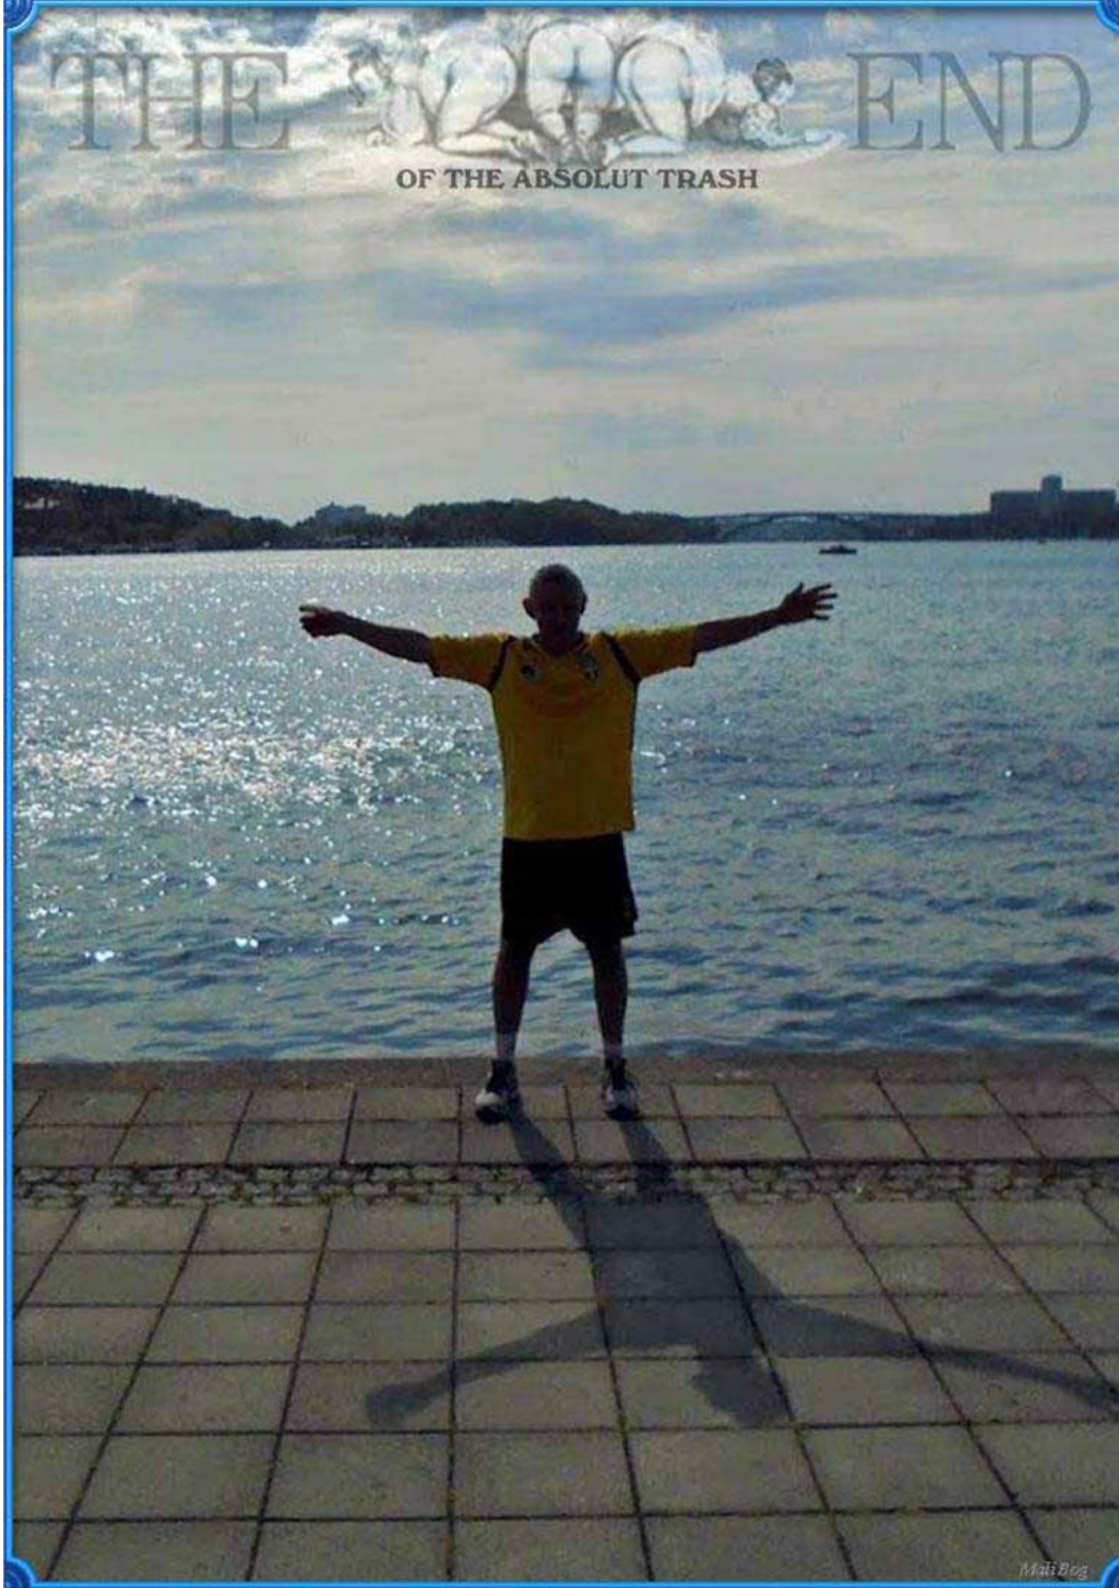

Back to Söder and the third Drink Stop, a tasty concoction made from Vodka and Strawberries.

A short hop, skip and a run to the On-home the circle was called up and your usual suspects were given down-down including our regular visitors from the Philippines, Vender Bender and Au Per with the luvly little Sunshine.

Showers, bastu ( kölna or saunominen). Beers (Lagers and Ales) lots of tasty Hash fodder were next on the agenda which all made up to an excellent Hash with everyone wondering how a Hasher named Blow Quine from areas of Southern Sweden that used to be a part of Denmark could accomplish such a good run & après.....MaliBog
