Editor's Notes

Greetings to our long time Harrier Magazine subscribers, and a special welcome to our newer readers, including those I met at Eurohash in July.

Speaking of Eurohash, see what our favorite HHH event critic, John "CIA" Walsh has to say about the biggest event in Europe since Brussels 2014. Knights in shining armor, damsels in distress, and a sea of red dresses braving urban rednecks on the streets of Krakow. An unforgettable time was had by all in a part of Poland better known for Nazi atrocities than Eurohash revelry.

Fast forward from a 1940's earthly purgatory to Hash Heaven some 60 years later...the once sleepy fishing village of Pattaya Beach might ring a bell with many traveling hashers. The sparkling sea, the balmy tropical breezes, the shiggy trails, cold beer, bars, and.....well, there's even a rumor that there might be some nightlife in Pattaya as well. If you're going to Mekong Indochina Hash in Yangon you might want to spend a post lube week in Pattaya 11-15 November. If you're not going to Myanmar, you just might want to come to Pattaya anyway.

While you're daydreaming of tropical beaches, why not check out the newest HHH club in the old Sandwich Islands? Home to a dozen hashes statewide, the Kona Coast Hash House Harriers on the Big Island of Hawaii now has a sister club, in Hilo, Hawaii the wettest city in the USA. Another reason to keep Hawaii on your radar is the still unsubstantiated rumor that Hawaii might bid for InterAmericas Hash 2017. Grab your running shoes and get ready for some hashing fun with sun, surf, and plenty of frosty suds.

The biggest midnight running party in Bangkok is coming up soon. Read all about this year's Amari Watergate Midnight Charity Run, our featured running event.

Special thanks to John "Malibog" Denny for another irreverant edition of the Stockholm Absolut Hash Trash. Thanks again to all contributors who send content from all over the planet.

I hope to see you on trail soon.

On On,

Kracking time in Krakow!

EuroHash 2015 in Review

by CIA

Kraków is reputed to be the number one city in the world for the cheapest beer. So this town was an excellent choice for Eurohash 2015. I believe there were around 824 hashers in attendance. There would have been more but the organizers capped it. The main reason was the registration fee included two nights in a hostel on a college campus. The hash pretty much took over the whole building plus some additional rooms in nearby buildings. The site worked out well. Although not in the center of Kraków, it was about a 20 minute walk to the town center or you could take a tram nearby. In fact, the tram is what we used for the red dress run on Thursday.

BALLBREAKER 2015

EUROHASH BALLBREAKER RUN

Registration for the event went smoothly, ably ran by 'Beaky's Bitches and was held at the hostel. However, check in at the hostel was a different story. It went very slowly. I arrived on Wednesday so it wasn't an issue for me. But the lines were quite long for those on Thursday arriving just before the red dress run.

Goody bag included a nice tech tshirt which I really like. We also got a small camelback type bag which you could wear on a run. Other stuff was a pin, a plastic mug similar to what Brussels handed out last year and a patch. We also got a bottle of vodka, some thought it was beer a quick 'gulp'! Shock, horror '.

As already mentioned, accommodation was included in the registration fee which is not normally the case at these type events. The rooms were basically college dorm rooms although they had a bathroom attached. My room had two bunk beds. No air con. I suspect that is rarely needed but it would have come in handy for eurohash weekend as it was quite warm.

Anyway, it worked for me. Some people were complaining about internet access. I brought an internet cable and a portable wireless router with me, so I had wifi access the entire time, but for those who didn't, access was sporadic. The organizers also arranged with the hostel for additional days at a very reduced rate. A lot of people stayed Thursday and Sunday nights.

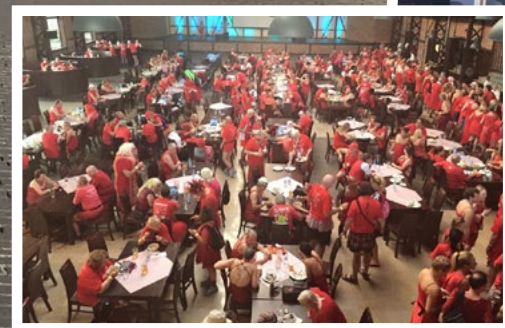

CONTENTS

The red dress run was held on Thursday and was an optional event not included in the registration. It was basically a stroll through the main sites in the city center. The run started and ended at a large microbrewery called stara zajezdnia. It used to be a train station. It was plenty large for the red dress run and we took over the whole place. They had plenty of beer. Food line was pretty long and I think they ran out as some people said they didn't get any. However, like lots of red dress runs I've attended at these large events, the food wasn't that great so those who missed out didn't miss much...

I'm not sure when we left but it was late. When we got back to the campus, a lot of us went to the so called 'old farts' bar which is a student bar on the campus, and where the Worlds troubles were put to right!. There was a pretty good mix of students and hashers and the beer was cheap! I also recall they had really good LARGE pizza.

CONTENTS

THE BASH

Friday had nothing scheduled until the welcome party that evening so a lot of people arranged tours of different attractions. The salt mines was very popular as was Auschwitz. There was a BASH, bike hash organized too and I saw over seventy five hashers taking off to do that.

Welcome party was held on the college campus at a disco warehouse type place called the Klub studio. It was primarily outside as they had a barbecue arranged. Food line was extremely slow and a lot of people didn't get their choices. This was really the only negative about the entire event: food lines.. Come on organizers, this isn't your first rodeo. I think you guys were at Brussels. When you have 800 people, you really need multiple food stations (probably 4 for this crowd).. I think I waited in line nearly 40 minutes Friday night. Saturday night I happened to be there when they started serving food, so not much of wait for me then. I know several people who gave up on Friday night and I think a lot of people just did their own thing Saturday night instead of waiting in line.

One other point about the food stations. They were outside and the barbeque was being cooked as the food was being served. It didn't rain on Friday and there were a few drops on Saturday night but I was wondering if there was a plan b in case of inclement weather. You could have moved the food lines inside but what about the barbeque itself? Would they have just kept on cooking in the rain? Not sure there was a plan B but it turned out that it didn't matter. The hash gods smiled on us for nearly the entire weekend.

There were lots of beer stations however, so no queues for getting alcohol. That was a good thing!

Our registration also included breakfast on Saturday and Sunday mornings. It was also served at the Klub studio. I got up too late to have it myself, but everyone I talked to said it was good...so there must have been a plan B!

Saturday was the big run day.. There were quite a few choices ranging from the ballbreaker to the old farts run. All the runs involved buses. As usual, at these type of events, lots of people didn't get on the run they wanted because the run or bus was full, etc. Those of you who have done these big events know the drill: Get their early so you can get on the bus you want.. I opted for trail 3 which was organized by the BRAS. So this meant it was a bra and panties run (similar to what was done in Brussels).. We had to pay extra to go on this run as we ended up on a brewery tour at the Tyskie brewery which is one of the largest in the world. Bus ride was quite a distance; nearly 90 minutes. The run was in this forest/nature preserve and it was flat.. Worked for me.. I think it was about 3 miles tops. After that, we had lunch, a short circle, and then it was off to the brewery.. Lunch was a sandwich but apparently they didn't pack enough back at the start so some people didn't get anything. We had lots of chips/crisps though. Also plenty of beer, but no ice. So everyone was drinking warm beer. As a result, not too much beer consumption after the run. I heard at least one other run had the same problems: not enough sandwiches and no ice..It was all on the Ballbreaker bus!

TYSKIE BREWERY

The Tyskie brewery was great. They kept the tour itself to a merciful 20 minutes. Normally, it's well over an hour. Then it was on to beer tasting! We also got a souvenir bottle to take back on the bus. Plus a nice bottle opener. I drank my bottle on the long bus ride back to Krakow.

As already mentioned, Saturday night dinner was a repeat of Friday night. Food lines might have been a bit shorter.

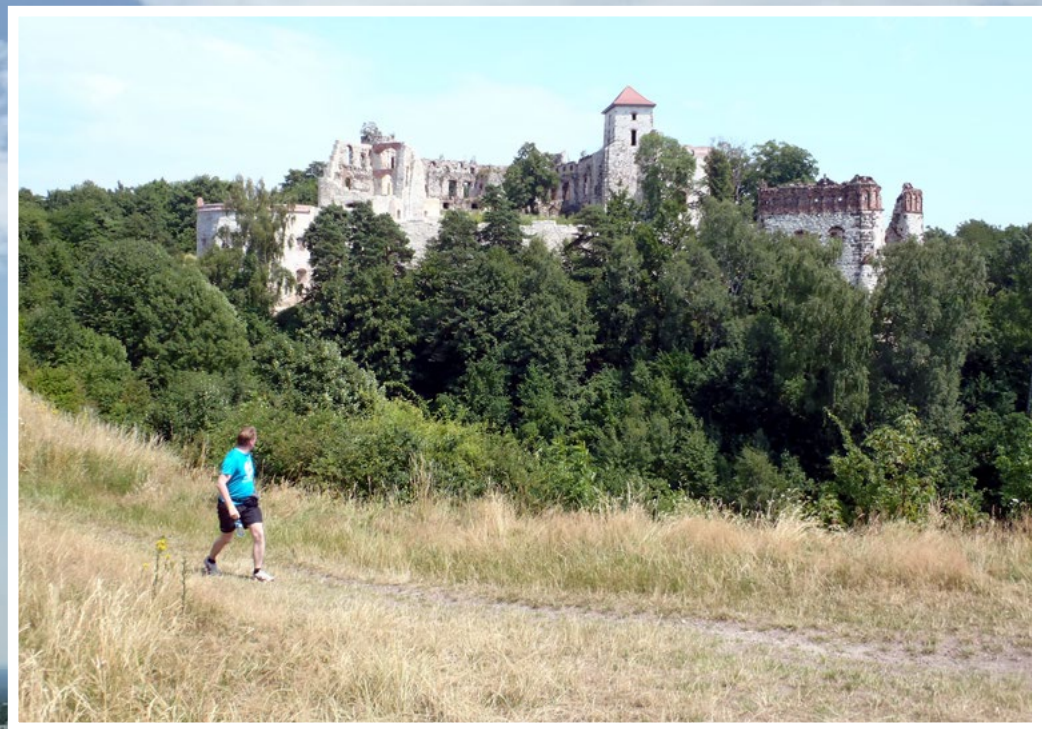

After the food, it was inside Klub Studio for skits, music, etc. The theme for Saturday night was Medieval dragons, knights, and damsels. Think Renaissance festival. A lot of people went all out for this. Some pretty innovative costumes. The Hardy hashers started the proceedings with a great 'Dragon' chase around the venue.

There weren't many skits but they were all quality acts. The one I really remember was the woman, 'Fire Flaps' with the fire batons. That got a standing ovation. Also, the dueling 'Wessex' banjos skit was funny..

Vienna made a presentation for Eurohash 2017. It was pretty much a lock. Paris made a half assed bid but they were relieved Vienna got it. We voted right then and there.. If you wanted Vienna you went to the left side of the stage and if you wanted Paris, you went to the right. It was close to unanimous. No drama, no counting ballots.. It was democracy in action. Perhaps this is how we should handle all these bids in the future.

After skits, etc. were over, a live band came out and they played a pretty good mix of music. The female lead singer was quite good. Their rendition of "somebody to love" by Jefferson Airplane was excellent.

Party went on late... It was well after midnight when the band stopped. Party continued at the so called "old farts student bar".

BBQ SATURDAY NIGHT

Sunday featured a hangover run which started from the hostel. No buses for this one.. A lot of people were leaving early or went sightseeing in Krakow. But the run was basically a stroll through the gardens near the university. There was a longer run up the nearby 'mound' which a few 'die hards' did. More food(lunch), Down Downs and drinks afterwards..

Overall, I would rate this event an A.

The event went pretty smoothly and not many hiccups. It was well organized and communication was excellent. I have commented on this point before. Communication is paramount at these large events and we received lots of newsletters (email blasts) which were also posted on the website.. So nobody can complain they didn't know what was happening. Well done, Polly, Mr. Beaky, and the rest of the organizing committee and Mr Beaky's 'Slaves'! You guys did a bang up job! It was a Kracking event in Krakow.

On On to Eurohash in Vienna in 2017!!!

HAWAII'S NEWEST HASH

By Julie (Trojan F*ck Horse) and Tim (Take It In The Aft) Zimmerman

Trojan F*ck Horse (TFH) and Take it in the Aft (Aft) moved to the Big Island of Hawaii in early 2014. It was a move made for completely selfish reasons. Although the island of Oahu had been home for almost a decade, it was too busy, traffic was terrible, and the concrete jungle was just too hot. TFH and Aft had traveled to Hilo on previous occasions and had found that it felt like home. So they ditched their loved ones and their mother hash, the Aloha H3, to start a new life in the rainiest city in the United States.

HILO GETS ME WET
HASH HOUSE HARRIERS (HGMWH3)

The Big Island held wondrous new adventures and multiple adjustments for the pair. The most daunting predicament to face them upon arrival was learning to slow down. "Island Time" had never so blatantly controlled day to day activities as it did in sleepy Hilo. The next thing that taunted Aft was both the abundance of wilderness and the lack of a local Hash House. While driving the nearly two hours to the Kona Coast Hash House Harriers helped their hash fix, something was still missing. Thus, the Hilo Gets Me Wet Hash House Harriers (HGMWH3) was born.

The Island of Hawaii is the creation of five volcanoes, one of which has been erupting since 1983. Two of the volcanoes stretch almost fourteen thousand feet towards the stars and create a barrier that results in ecological diverse climates found in few places on Earth.

A simple drive around the perimeter of the island presents a wide variety of climates and sub-climates.

Hilo's rainy weather can prove a challenge for hashing logistics. Hash marks get washed away and circle often happens in the rain, but drinking beer in the rain never killed anyone. All the rain; however, makes for beautiful scenery, rushing waterfalls, green landscapes, and the HGMWH3 strives to explore the lush landscape the Hilo area has to offer. Although still in its infancy, the HGMWH3 has already welcomed visitors from across the United States, held a successful Red Dress Run, and is continuing to establish its own hash traditions. November 2015 will mark the one year anniversary for the HGMWH3 and its founders look forward to what adventures lay ahead.

You can now hash at least twice a month on the Big Island. HGMWH3 usually runs the first or second Saturday of the month.

ABOUT THE GOLD COAST
 Located one hour's drive south of Brisbane, Queensland on Australia's east coast the Gold Coast is recognized as a premium holiday destination mainly for its beautiful surf beaches, theme parks, nightlife and magnificent rainforest and mountains backdrop.
 Coolangatta (OOL) is the local International airport which hosts a number of Budget Airlines.

Our History

The Gold Coast Hash House Harriers is the original Gold Coast club formed in May, 1978 by Terry Morrow (aka the Illusive Illusion) who had spent considerable time Hashing in South East Asia. After settling back on the Gold Coast, Terry and a few of his local mates decided the Gold Coast was ripe for Introducing some Hash culture. They put a hierarchy in place, found a suitable inaugural run site at the then Surfers Paradise Raceway, set a date and a run and bought some beer. After staggering through the local shiggy for a couple of hours with 40 other like-minded fools, then celebrating accordingly, a new Hash club was born.

GCH3 has gone from strength to strength and still hosts 30 to 40 runners and walkers each Monday evening with the emphasis being on a gourmet meal prepared by the hare, the traditional circle and a few beers and red wines to replace lost fluids. A GCH3 "Splinter Lunch" is held on the last Friday of every month for more gourmet food, beer and wine tasting and often attracts more attendees than the Monday night runs.

ANOTHER FUN NIGHT ON THE GOLD COAST. BOTCHO THE HALLOWEEN HARE GETTING A DOWN DOWN FROM GRAND MASTER KITCHEN BITCH

GCH3 BIKE HASH "THE WOBBLYS"

GCH3 biking has also become a popular pastime. There is an ongoing Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning ride with the traditional coffee and breakfast stop after.

Forward to the future and GCH3 is coming up for its 2000th Run. Traditionally the milestones have incorporated a weekend away in the country with a warm welcome to all Hashers nationally or internationally who would like to join us in celebrating this prestigious event.

This time the Committee has formulated a celebratory week of Pre-lubes, taking in the Gold Coast area itself, a bike ride to the 2000th Run venue in Boonah, a Splinter Dinner and the 2000th run itself. Attendees have the option of doing all or some of the events on offer. More details here on web site! www.2000th-run.goldcoasthash.org

Boonah is an historic Queensland country town, situated within the “Scenic Rim” 215km from the Gold Coast via the bike trail route. It is also the venue for the GCH3 2000th Run celebrations which follow on from the bike ride.

2000th Run Celebrations

Friday 29th April—Sunday 1st May. 2016

Bar opens for “Splinter Dinner” at 4:30pm. The GCH3 meet on the last Friday of every month for what is termed a “Splinter Lunch” (too long-winded to explain why), to enjoy fine food and wine and a bit of eye candy.

There is much frivolity and some legendary stories that have evolved over the years. Gentlemen and Ladies are invited to attend this inaugural and special Splinter Dinner (in place of the traditional men’s lunch).

The celebrations continue on Saturday. Eating, running, walking, drinking and more eating and drinking will be the order of the day. Saturday night dress up in your best seventies gear for a fun night of laughter, dancing and Hash acts. After a Gourmet breakfast on Sunday morning it will be ON ON home time.

PI HAGGIS BASH

by Edgar 'Laces' O'Neill

The Philippines hosts a number of hash anniversaries this coming October and La Union's 32nd Anniversary run takes place on Saturday 24th October. On Friday, the day before, there will be a special hike to San Gabriel (Northeast of San Fernando) where you can cool off at the famous Tangaden waterfalls nearby.

La Union's premier annual hash event – the Haggis Bash – takes place later on Saturday 5th December. It's a unique event, incorporating a hash run, followed by the 'Highland Games' – a great collection of events with the emphasis on fun more than might. Volunteers and those 'volunteered' partake in games such as the sack race, egg and spoon race, tug of war, the plank walk, tossing the caber, and wanging the wellie. Scotch eggs are laid on for the spectators, and lots of beverages. The final event – the pie eating contest – involves eating not only pies, but eggs and scotch eggs, washed down with San Miguel and whisky. It really is great fun –with the hashers normally supporting their participants. A regular winner, Nancy Boy from Angeles, has an unfair advantage as he evidently has a liking for egg shells as well as what is inside – everything just seems to go straight down this gullet.

The games take place in quiet rustic surroundings, close to Ask My Wife's Tropical Gardens, one of our hash routes. This year after the games we head back to JDs Beach Bar where the fun continues – the circle takes place followed by an excellent meal – and needless to say beer is flowing throughout.

Honey Dew, the incorrigible Scot and ex GM of La Union Hash, has been the main driving force behind organizing the Haggis Bash. Despite producing tonnes – literally – of mangoes yearly on his Pangasinan farm – he still finds time to ensure this event continues to be a success. Thanks to his consummate persuasive skills enough sponsorship money pours in each year to allow hashers to register for the Haggis Bash at a bargain basement price. And he has a good many hashers, including myself, locked in to sponsoring the event, at least for this lifetime.

ARRHA WINNING THE EGG AND SPOON RACE

CONTENTS

The hash shirts provided for this event always have a peculiar Scottish theme and invariably are a good quality – I noticed quite a few hashers wearing them when hashing in Cambodia this year.

The Haggis Bash always attracts many visitors. The rainy season has ended and temperatures are down – ideal time of year for hashing. Driving time to La Union from Angeles and Manila continues to get shorter as the new expressway makes it way further north.

Come along and take part in the fun of the Haggis Bash. It starts early at 2pm to allow enough time for a hash run – usually not very long – before the highland games at 4.30pm. This year there will be prizes for the winners. Try your luck in some of the events - you may even get a chance to join in the pie-eating contest.

Pan Asia Hash

Pondicherry, India
25th - 27th Sept 2015

Well it looks like the Chennai Hash 3 is on every hashers mind at the moment and its no wonder why....because for the first time in Hashing history, the Pan Asia Hash will be hosted in India by us!!

The PAHP 2015 is without question the biggest international hashing event in 2015 hashing calendar and all will happen in Pondicherry in September 2015. All of you must be wondering WTF is Pondicherry, well Pondicherry (Pondy) better know as, is about 190 kms from Chennai (Madras), India. Pondicherry first became famous when the French took an interest in this city. Although many wars took place between the English and the French, the French managed to retain power in Pondicherry. Around the 18th century, the town grew considerably.

With an anticipated 2500-3000 hashers (500 have already registered) from around the world attending, approximately 20 runs per day, glorious beach facing 5 start venues for Hash dinner & dance and of course an abundance golden nectar, this is the one hashing event you do not want too miss. In fact you won't want your hashing friends to miss out either so spread the word and join in the fun.

The 30 plus working committee has too many years of hashing experience for us to admit in public, hey there's transparency and there's just plain been being nosey, but we do need more hashers to support the event and show the best of the Indian Hashing.

The great news is:- Payment gateway has been finalized & its should be up for a few trails runs & then the registration will be open.

Please visit our website-www.panasiapondy.com for more info or mail us -pahp2015@gmail.com. Please forward this mail to your fellow hasher & chapter you know.

South Indian Super Hash

Aug 6 - 9, 2015 at Kodaikanal

It was in the year 1990.

Three Hashes were born in India. Independent of each other. The first was Bangalore around April. Then Hyderabad. Finally Madras Hash in Sept.

They have been the most vibrant of the Hashes in India. The best Mismanaged too. Run by a large number of dedicated hashers who work hard to give hashers a good time and good value.

To celebrate the 25th Anniversary of Hashing in their respective cities, Bangalore Hash, Hyderabad Hash and Madras Hash come together to give you a great hashing weekend.

One entire day and evening put together by one of the Hashes, ensuring a great weekend. 4 day – 3 night weekend put together by the three main Hashes of South India to celebrate their 25th Anniversary of Hashing.

For More Information Visit www.madrashash.com/silver-jubilee-of-hash

Rego is all inclusive – including stay in the best & fully booked resort in the area, and all the beer you want available right through the 4 days. The weekend is our way of saying "We love the hash", and we hope you will get a sense of that when you spend a weekend with us. On On...

Cambodia Nash Hash 2016 Sihanoukville, March 25,26,27

Come join us down on the coast for a great weekend of Hashing in Cambodia's premier beach town, Sihanoukville.

Located on a peninsula ringed with sandy beaches, jutting into the warm waters of the Gulf of Thailand, Sihanoukville offers everything from a laid back chair under a shady tree with a thatched roof beach shack to 24 hour bars and an endless party vibe. A number of tropical unspoilt islands just offshore offer endless opportunities for snorkelling, swimming, bush walking, running or lazing about under a tree with a beer from one of the rustic bars.

THE COOLEST MARATHON ON EARTH

POLAR CIRCLE MARATHON

The Polar Circle Marathon - often referred to as "the coolest marathon on earth" takes place in Kangerlussuaq, Greenland. The endless ice and arctic tundra of this vast country make up the backdrop of this unusual race, in which runners pass glacier tongues, moraine landscapes and the soundless, arctic desert. This is a rare opportunity to visit one of the most remote corners of the world combined with a challenging running event.

A part of the route takes place on the ice cap itself, but the main part of the course is run on the gravel road (often snow covered) that connects the inland ice with the small township of Kangerlussuaq, just north of the Polar Circle.

A mari Watergate Bangkok in conjunction with BMW Thailand will hold the 18th Amari Watergate Bangkok & BMW Thailand Charity Midnight Run on Thursday, 17 October 2015. This is the only race in Bangkok to be held at midnight, offering runners a unique experience of running under the fabulous atmosphere of Bangkok at night.

Each year, the race brings together people from across the globe, with last year's run raising an incredible 4 million THB. This year, the race proceeds will go to three major charities, the Chalerm Prakit HRH Princess Sirindhorn School in Lampoon province, which supports the education of children who have lost their parents to AIDS; the Baan Gerda Children's Project, which supports HIV-infected orphans in Nongmuang, Lopburi province; and Baht for a Better Life, an Amari CSR project dedicated to offering educational opportunities for underprivileged children in Bangkok and rural areas.

The race gives competitors a choice of two distances: 6k and a half marathon length of 12k, taking place on Phetchaburi Road in the heart of the city. PYONGYANG — The government of North Korea recently announced it had executed former NBA basketball star Dennis Rodman.

In an unusually strongly-worded release by North Korean standards, the reclusive state accused Rodman of being “despicable human scum” and “worse than a dog,” which is notable since dogs are generally treated better than people in North Korea.

The downfall for the flamboyant Rodman was stunning, given his friendship with Kim Jong Un, the chubby, pre-pubescent leader of North Korea. Rodman was accused of “hideous crimes such as attempting to overthrow the state by all sorts of intrigues and despicable methods with a wild ambition to grab the supreme power of our party and our state.”

Rodman reportedly beat Kim in a game of H.O.R.S.E. shortly before his execution, Duffel Blog has learned. The human freakshow that was Rodman was accused at his trial of graft, gambling and womanizing, and his autobiography was reportedly admitted into evidence. Rodman’s confession apparently included the fact that Madonna was kind of “a dead lay.”

U. S. officials greeted the news with caution. “If this is true,” said one senior State Department official, “it would be a positive sign for North Korea.” “You just can’t be taken seriously if you’re going to hang out with Dennis Rodman,” the official added. At press time, some wire reports were suggesting the “execution” was an elaborate coverup for Rodman’s abduction, in order to force him to star alongside Kim in a remake of “Double Team.”

Years ago it was suggested that, “An apple a day keeps the doctor away.” But, since all the doctors are now Muslim, I’ve found that a bacon sandwich works great..!!

A YANK IN TOKYO

An American salesman checked into a futuristic hotel in Tokyo Japan ..Realizing he needed a haircut before the next day’s meeting, he called down to the desk clerk to ask if there was a barber on the premises.

‘I’m afraid not, sir,’ the clerk told him apologetically, ‘but down the hall from your room is a vending machine that should serve your purposes.’

Skeptical but intrigued, the salesman located the machine, inserted 15.00 Yen, and stuck his head into the opening, at which time the machine started to buzz and whirl.

Fifteen seconds later the salesman pulled out his head and surveyed his reflection, which reflected the best haircut of his life.

Two feet away was another machine with a sign that read, ‘Manicures, 20.00 Yen’.

‘Why not?’ thought the salesman. He paid the money, inserted his hands into the slot, and the machine started to buzz and whirl. Fifteen seconds later he pulled out his hands and they were perfectly manicured.

The next machine had a sign that read, ‘This Machine Provides a Service Men Need When Away from Their Wives, 1 Yen.’

The salesman looked both ways, put one Yen in the machine, unzipped his fly, and with some anticipation, stuck his manhood into the opening.

When the machine started buzzing, the guy let out a shriek of agony and almost passed out. Fifteen seconds later it shut off..

With trembling hands, the salesman was able to withdraw his tender unit..... which now had a button sewn neatly on the end.

MUSLIM TRIBUTE BAND

Went to see a Muslim tribute band last week at a Mosque in Stockholm. They were called “Bomb Jovi” and I thought they were pretty good.

Songs like “You’re six, you’re beautiful, and you’re mine” “Losing my head over you”, “Rocket Launcher Man” .

Their last song “Living on a Prayer Mat” almost brought the house down !!

Then this Muslim guy started bragging about how he had the entire Koran on DVD.

I was interested so I asked him, “Can you burn me a copy?”

Well that was when the trouble started!!!!

Those guys just don’t have no sense of humor.

Three Hash Runs in Four Days

UNDERGROUND RUN 1084 1st JUL 2015
STUVSTA STATION HARE: TERMITE.

Starting on the Wednesday The Mites organized an Underground Overground run in the wild and woolly suburbs of Stuvsta. Meeting at the infamous car park in the sweltering heat of a Swedish summer, I tell no lie we were in the beginning of a heat wave. Even the trains were late as the trains were overheating so much so that Sir CD and others missed the lies given out by Marmite about the trail. Eventually we were off on trail leading around the streets and tracks of Stuvsta including a somewhat life threatening muddy slide. Not all was lost as after over 40 minutes struggling in the heat we found the long awaited drink stop on top of a local hilltop. Back at the circle the usual crimes, the hares and a newcomer from Pittsburgh were awarded with down-downs after which we adjointed to the local hash pizza/pub. Once again the Mites have shown us how to lay a trail away from the suffocated streets of Stockholm.....MaliBog

FULL MOON HASH 3RD JUL 2015
SICKLA STRAND BY BLIND PEW & DURACELL.

Another sweltering day as we were now in the middle of the heat wave.

Ten Hashers arived including the new Hasher from Pittsburgh who bought along his newly arrived in Sweden girlfriend introducing her as Fresh Meat on the Hash. What a welcome for a new arrival.

Given the appropriate lies we trundled out in a circle doubling back over the walking bridge leading to the Sickla forest where for the next 40 minutes we were, slipping, struggling along small tracks in the primeval forest till we eventually ran past the old Nacka Cemetery leading down by the lake were I remembered following the trail from many months ago of the 1066 run without the snow and the ice.

On and on the trail led until we passed the golf course and found the long awaited beer stop down by the bathing sands. There are time when a beer goes down stupendously well and this was one of them. Après beers we thinks Blind Pew decided to take pity on us a the trail from here was decidedly earlier for the most part along well established gravel paths leading back to base were we collected a beer and made our ways to the Sickla Lake for a well-deserved cooling off dip in the brine.

A quick change and we headed to the roof area to enjoy Duracell’s great cooking and a choice of beers including a batch of Falcon Exports which Blind Pew found in the garbage room as some twit head had apparently thrown out because the expiry date had expired a couple months ago. Say what?? As usual the down downs were given out including for first time Fool Mooners including our friend from Pittsburgh who was awarded a Hash Name.

First choice was Pitt Burger as on Wednesday he was talking about what the US had contributed to the world cuisine, the hamburger. But this being just his third run and a Blind Pew Blinder at that he seemed to have the tenacity of a Pit-bull, he was named Pit-bull Burger, or Pit-bull for short.

The good fortune with this being in the future that if one Pit drinks all Pits drink. Thinking of Big Bad Pit It was suggested by Jingle Balls and John Cleese that Fresh Meat would be the appropriate name for his Lady which was all agreed upon for a later date.....MaliBog

THE ABSOLUT HASH 4TH JULY- ÅHHH INDEPENDENCE RUN. HARES 2 SWEDES & HOST MENAGE À TROIS

For this the Stockholm Hash travelled over the Baltic Sea and back to the circle. Various down downs were given out to the Åland Isles and its capital Mariahamn. The heatwave continued even here as we all met at one corner of the harbour where our two hares, 2 Swedes Kummin' explained the what's and where's of the run after which the runners and knitting circle headed out into the unknown. After some hot slogging we were soon greeted by the first beer and swim stop. Except for yours truly as I somehow decided to try a short cut and missed the stop eventually having to wait for 10 minutes after checking out every trail at a difficult check. Heading to the fish harbour we found a dead end and were forced to back track to find the trail heading over a rocky outcrop to a view stop down by the sea. Back on trail we were after tripping over the densely pack tent wires. Morning saw us waking ourselves with another swim in the brine and a well awaited breakfast but soon it was time to start heading back to Sweden so the little craft again set in motion to ferry across to the mainland and our awaiting transports. Back on board the Big Red Ferry we all bundled ourselves up with duty-free beers, wines and spirits for future consumptions. A great week end and we all look forward to next year's outing. Many thanks to both the hares and Manage.....MaliBog led thro' a housing area eventually leading to the east side of the peninsular changing direction north over long possible tick infected grass in a dog-free bird sanctuary backing back into another housing area and meeting up with the knitting circle to a beer stop at both the hares relatives. Chilled beer and wine was sorely needed and enjoyed and we were soon away for a rather short trail to the third and last swim/beer stop sharing the area with countless water fowl and a number of glorious peacocks. What was left of the trail led us in a winding route thro' the town passing by the world last working windjammer led thro' the town passing by the world last working windjammer

For those few who managed all three runs over four days, Jingle Balls, John Cleese, Tripple Nipple, Little Ingrid, Sprintosaurus & MaliBog could count on approx. 30 km of Hashing in three days out of four. Underground approx. 8 km, Full Moon approx 12 km

TALES FROM THE BAR

A Queenslander is drinking in a West Australian Pub when he gets a call on his mobile phone, and as he listens to the call, he starts grinning from ear to ear. Once he disconnects, he shouts to the barman that he wants to buy everyone in the bar a drink. The barman starts serving the drinks and the people start to crowd around keen to know what they are celebrating. "Well," he announces, "my wife's just produced a typical Queensland baby boy weighing 25 pounds." Nobody can believe that any baby can weigh in at 25 pounds, but the Queenslander just shrugs, "That's about average in Queensland. Like I said, my boy is a typical Queensland boy." Congratulations showered him from all around and many exclamations of "strewth" were heard. One woman even fainted due to sympathy pains. Two weeks later, the Queenslander returns to the bar. The barman says "You're the father of that typical Queensland baby that weighed 25 pounds at birth, aren't you? Everybody's been having bets about how big he'd be in two weeks, we were going to call you. So, how much does he weigh now?" The proud father answers, "17 pounds." The bartender is puzzled and concerned. "What happened? He weighed 25 pounds the day he was born!" The Queensland father takes a long s-l-o-w swig from his XXXX Gold beer, wipes his lips on his shirt sleeve, leans onto the bar and proudly says, "Had him circumcised!"

Newfoundlanders had heard stories of an amazing family tradition. It seems that Len's father, grandfather and great grandfather had all been able to walk on water on their 21st birthday. On that day, they'd walk across the lake to the boat club for their first legal drink. So when Len's 21st birthday came around, he and his pal Cork took a boat out to the middle of the lake. Len stepped out of the boat and nearly drowned! Corky just managed to pull him to safety. Furious and confused, Len went to see his grandmother. 'Grandma, it's my 21st birthday, so why can't I walk across the lake like my father, his father, and his father before him?' Granny looked into Len's eyes and said, 'Because, ya dumb arse, yur faudder, grandfaudder and great grandfaudder wuz bom in January, you wuz bom in July.' (These jokes are for Sir Clever Dick)

THIS ALSO COME IN BEER SIZES

A drunk from Crinkle Cove, Newfoundland walks out of a bar with a key in his hand and he is stumbling back and forth. A cop on the beat sees him and approaches, "Can I help you Sir?" "Yessh! Ssssomebody ssstole my carrn", the Newfie replies. The cop asks, "Where was your car the last time you saw it?" "It wasss on the end of thisssh key", the Newfie replies. About that time the cop looks down and sees the man's willy hanging out of his fly for all the world to see. He asks the man, "Sir are you aware that you are exposing yourself?" Momentarily confused, the drunk Newfie looks down at his crotch and without missing a beat, blurts out.... "Holy shit! Me girlfriend's gone, too!!"

THE FIRST (AND HOPEFULLY NOT LAST) ANNUAL UBBYLANGSJON RUN.

So I bought a summerhouse just north of Stockholm, and have been settling in there. The previous summer I did a few runs with the Absolut - and it seems that summer runs in the country are a good idea. SillyConFeets run in Ljusterö, and BloQueens run in Norttalje. Well I figure I should do the same thing, and have a summer run from the new place. Everything is booked up except for July 18 2015, so I sign up for the date.

A year later and I'm back in Sweden for the summer, and I find out why the particular date was free - it coincides with Eurohash in Krakow, so most everyone will be away. That's OK, I am still happy to put on a hash for even one hashers on several occasions, Malibog and I were the only runners on an Underground trail I had set, and I have even set a trail in the depths of winter with noone turning up.

Anyway, I figure out I will see how many are coming, and can put on a trail and dinner for those who do turn up. It is wonderful running country, lots of forest, forestry roads, trails, bush and shiggy. Plus a number of lakes with good swimming, we can have a long run and a swim in the hot summer, perhaps even swim across the lake. One highlight of SillyConFeets run was swimming half a kilometer to the final drink stop, so I figure I can do the same.

To cater for people coming by bus, I figure we will do an A-B run from Gottrora Kyrka to the house, and then get people home by suitable logistics. So in the weeks up to the run I am scouting out the forestry roads and countryside north of the 77 highway between Rimbo and Uppsala, with a pretty good idea of where the trail will go. However three days before the run, we only have one signed up, SCF, who will be driving there. Logistics dictate it is hardly worth meeting a single runner, and then having to get back to the starting point once we are done with the trail, so I figure that we can run from the house instead. So the trail gets changed, now I will run around the lake, with a possible swim across at the narrowest point. Its a good run, about 10km, and I did the circumnavigation last (dry) summer, so I start rescouting. Now we have had a very wet spring (May was the wettest since the 1960's), and it has continued to rain for the last couple of months, so everything in the country around the lake is boggy and overgrown. Plenty of shiggy, but this is going too far. The morning of the run, it is still raining so I figure another change of trail is going to be needed.

Also in the last couple of days we have had a few more sign up. Sprintosaurus had previously (in a ten page email) indicated he might be coming, depending on weather and the bad weather caused him to cut short his holiday and come back for the run. SCF managed to sign up JB and FB at the Underground, so now we had four, Four is a pack as far as am concerned (a four-pack?). So on the morning I get an email from the Doggys, indicating they will be here, along with hashlings. The trail I had planned was definitely not child friendly (shiggy and wet forest) so a walkers trail would be difficult to arrange. Instead I figured on a shorter shiggy trail, followed all doing a walkers trail ending up to look at some local wildlife.

Trail laid, and all ready to go. SCF turns up with Sprinto, FB and JB, a bit early because meeting the bus at Rimbo. We have a pre run beer - Sprinto has nicely bought some Coopers Stout. (Coopers is the last remaining Australian family owned brewery, and they make pretty good beers, all the rest are sold to Kirin and other multinationals). Come 3.00pm and no sign of the Doggy's, but they call and are just a few minutes away, so we wait, no hurry here, the sun is out and it is a nice afternoon.

We leave Doggy Style and kids (plus visitor) and set off into the wet and wild. We run around the lake for a few checks, then branch back on the southern forestry road. A short run along the main road to Knutby, then off east towards Naturservat. More forestry tracks, then into the forest and off trail for a km or so. SCF finds chantarelle mushrooms. Noted for later visit. Back across the main road, past the phone mast, through some more shiggy, along the power lines and back home. About 6.5km with a few checks.

Now we pick up the family for part II. A short walk along the lake, then another forestry road, ending in a swampy lake with a lot of dead trees. The question is what killed the trees. Answer, beaver, or rather the beaver dam, which I found by looking for the exit of the lake, and where it was blocked. We have a drink stop and then We make our way to the dam for a photo stop, with SCF crossing the dam and photographs us.

Then on in for the circle. A few fines, for the hare, virgin run, visitor, wrong habadashery, Sprinto for his long email. Next, a swim in the lake, the children play in the boat while the rest of us swim out to the deeper water. Lake is quite warm even without much of a summer.

Time to light the grill, which is your generic aussie barbie, constructed from cinder blocks, bits of grill and iron, a pipe duct and other bits and pieces I have scavenged from here and there. Basically you just load it with wood (of which I have vast quantities), allow it to burn down to coals, then grill on radiant heat. I need to plant a few oaks to get some good hardwood, since fir burns too quickly.

Nosh is chicken and entrecote (australian), salads and potatoes, followed by coffee. Washed down with a rough aussie red. The children play around the garden with some stones I dug up. The rain has stopped and the sun is out, and the fire burns down but still provides a bit of heat. Even the mosquitos go away, it is a pretty nice evening. Everyone happy with the first UbbLangshon run. We look forward to next year and hopefully a few more attending..... Ramblin'
