Editor's Notes

Slated as the best "small" HHH event in 2016, Indochina Mekong Hash will be held 4-6 November in Siem Reap, Cambodia. This event is limited to 350 participants, a number that is purposely kept small enough for everyone to see old friends who return each year.

Indochina Mekong Hash rotates among the countries along the mighty Mekong River. Last year the event was held in Myanmar (Burma), and IMH 2017 will be in Vientiane, Laos.

If you are in Cha-Am (near Hua Hin, Thailand), you might want to light up the night at the Guy Fawkes Day Hash on the 5th of November. Be sure to check with the organizers to see if the event will be held, as many events in the Land of Smiles have been cancelled or postponed due to the recent passing of the King.

More details come to light on the tragic death of a hasher at the International Hash Challenge last month. Could the death have been prevented, and what implications does this loss have for future events?

The Aloha Hash House Harriers celebrated their 25th Anniversary with a 7-day cruise to four Hawaiian islands in a trip that will be long remembered by hashers who came from across the USA, and as far away as India, Malaysia, Thailand, Japan, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom to join the cruise. Read all about this amazing journey from Hazukashii, the founder of the Aloha H3.

The first week of December may be the excuse you have been looking for to visit the Philippines. The Angeles City H3 celebrates its 2000th run 1-4 December AND the first Angeles City Craft Beer Festival will take place 2-4 December. Coincidence or just good timing for both events?

Coming up in January, Harrier Magazine's annual Best HHH

Events of the Year edition will be unveiled. 2017 looks to be a banner year for HHH events with Eurohash, Pan Asia Hash, InterAmerica's Hash, and Pan Africa Hash. Nash Hashes are coming up in Australia, New Zealand, Belgium, Borneo, Ireland, Thailand, the Philippines, and the United Kingdom. The Bali Hash 2 will celebrate 25 years of hashing on The Island of the Gods in January 2017.

I look forward to seeing you on trail soon.

And Sometimes Hashing.

by Jimmy Wilkins

If you have never been to Siem Reap, this is a good time to go. The rains have mostly stopped, and it is not too hot. Expect temperatures of about 28-32 Celsius in the daytime.

The Indochina Mekong Hash will be here November 4-6, 2016. Big Boss Hanno has promised a great event with plenty of beer and exciting trails.

Siem Reap, a resort town in northwestern Cambodia, is the gateway to the ruins of Angkor, the seat of the Khmer kingdom from the 9th–15th centuries. Angkor's vast complex of intricate stone buildings includes preserved Angkor Wat, the main temple, which is pictured on Cambodia's flag. Giant, mysterious faces are carved into the Bayon Temple at Angkor Thom.

The following is some basic information about Siem Reap.

The City:

I'd call this a large town, rather than a city. There are no hi-rises, the traffic ain't that bad. But the traffic definitely plays by different rules than most are used to. There is a bit of smog and dust when travelling the main roads, so many wear dust masks. The town is mostly centralized, and most shopping and restaurants are within walking distance.

Indochina Mekong Hash FAQ

Q Should I worry about landmines?

A Nope, we will send hordes of school children along the trail to ensure those are taken care of.

Q Are there any health risks I should be aware of?

A Apart from excessive alcohol abuse you mean? No. There is no Malaria in Siem Reap and Dengue fever season will be past. It probably will be pretty sunny so if you are a Brit, bring sun screen.

Q Can I bring my kid/dog/water buffalo?

A Sprogs are OK but no animals please; there are shit loads of dogs in the villages.

Q Where is the "action" [wink, wink]?

A Please visit www.pantysniffers.com.

Q I object to obscene language and am a defender of everything political correctness. Will I fit in?

A No

Q I am a vegan/lactose intolerant/need gluten free food; will you cater for me?

A See answer above.

Q How long will the walk/run/ball breaker be?

A Depends very much on how hung-over the Hares will be but count on a 3K stroll, a 10K run and a 20K+ adventure.

Q What is the official Hash Hotel?

A It is the Borei Angkor Resort & Spa. Here is a direct booking link: <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfCaNu0YVA4F-Y03aeifcCtTqbOZZT2Fxrvt8XzNxy-0j6vA/viewform>

Q How much should I pay for airport transfers or temple tours?

A If you need transport to and from the airport or want to visit the temples, please contact Mr. Proeun at proeun@adventure.com.kh. Fares are as follows:

* City Sedan: airport-pickup cost: 11$/way, transfer to airport cost: 11$/way.

* City Sedan: temple tour ( Grand tour/mini tour ) cost: 35$/day

@ Remok ( Tuktuk ) airport-pickup cost: 7$/way, transfer to airport cost: 7$/way.

@ Remok ( Tuktuk ) temple tour ( Grand/Mini tour ) cost: 20$/day.

& Minivan: airport-pickup- cost: 15$/way, transfer to airport cost: 15$/way.

& Minivan: temple tour ( Grand tour/mini tour ) cost: 40$/day.

Q What currencies are used in Cambodia and should/can I exchange my money?

A As the date for the IMH draws near, some advice on money:

US Dollars are the currency of choice in Cambodia and accepted everywhere with the exception of 2 USD bills. Whilst not as anal as Myanmar, try and have bills that are not too damaged or soiled as businesses may refuse them.

Other major currencies are easily exchanged in Temple Town; do NOT change into local currency (Riel), no matter what they tell you at the border or airport and I suggest that you do not change into USD at the airport either.

Getting around:

Tuk Tuk:

Visitors usually get around by hiring a tuk-tuk, which is basically a motorbike with a carriage. 1 way trips around town are about $2 US. You can do daily hires (5-8 hours or so) for about $15. This is a great way to travel when exploring the Angkor Wat complex. They will drive you around, to the different spots and then wait for you as you go exploring.

Motobike:

You can rent 100cc motorbikes for about $10 per day. This is a great option if you already have experience with driving motorbikes in SE Asia. The randomness of traffic requires you to be 100% alert in all directions. Other motorbikes will pop out of no-where, drive the wrong way, with no lights at night...ALL THE TIME You can also rent these new electric "green" motorbikes, but I have not seen too many of them in use around town yet.

Bicycle:

Rent a bike for $2 a day. It's easy to get around because there are no hills. The traffic may be very disorganized and random, but at least people usually do not drive fast. You will be sharing the road with many fellow bicyclists, along with all the other motorbikes, Tuk-Tuks, cars, etc. It's easy to ease into the chaotic flow, and soon you will be riding just as incomprehensible as everyone else. Many roads just outside of town center do not have any street lights, so that's something to keep in mind.

Electric Green Bikes for rent

Hotels:

Hotels and Guesthouses are pretty darn cheap here, especially considering the world heritage attractions. $15-$25 for 2-3 star places, and you can get 4 star accommodation for as low as $100.

By Ed “Hazukashii” Howell

When the Aloha H3 was founded back in 1991, none of us ever thought about how long it would last. But here we are, 25 years later, and wondering how we lasted 2 weeks of celebration. We started out with a few days of hashes on the island of Oahu with some prelube events, beginning with a Tuesday evening trail from the oldest, and original hash club in Hawaii . . .

The Honolulu Hawaii Hash House Harriers, also known as the H5, was founded on 16 March 1978, and started from the Hee Hing Chop Suey shop in Kapahulu. The H5 traces its roots back to the Bangkok H3 in Thailand where Castel Myers had been working, and found the hash to be great fun. So, once he moved to Hawaii, all it took was to gather up some friends (Russ Hoylman, Hutch Hutchinson, Dave Benson, and Dick Hoyer) and a new era was born.

Re-Hashing
the 25th Anniversary of the Aloha H3

On Wednesday, we all gathered at our usual watering hole (Gordon Biersch Brewery) for an evening of beer appreciation and revelry. Thursday found us the windward side of the island for trail with the Oahu Pick Up H3. Then on Friday evening, we enjoyed the 300th running of the Hawaii Full Moon H3 in down town Honolulu, which was adorned with a beer check on the beach and 15 minutes of fireworks.

By the time Saturday morning rolled around, almost all of our guest had arrived to participate in our sendoff hash trail by the Aloha H3 (trail #1334) which included jungle shiggy and waterfalls.

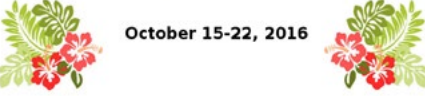

Next, it was on to the main event. Departing from Honolulu Harbor on Saturday evening (15 Oct), an eclectic rabble of 75 hashers boarded Norwegian Cruise Lines for a seven-day adventure of the Hawaiian Islands. First stop was Maui for Aloha H3 (trail #1335) which ended behind, you guessed it, the Maui Brewing company, where one (or maybe three, no . . . several) delicious local brews. Maui was an overnight stay, so we once again entertained the pack with a Volcano H3 trail that started from the pier and ended on the beach. Which allowed for some up close and personal sightings of our local sea turtles.

Waving goodbye to Maui, next we were off to "The Big Island" for a visit with the Hilo Gets Me Wet H3, where local hashers "Takes It In The Aft" & "Trojan" provided us with an unusually dry trail ending on lovely Coconut Island.

Leaving Hilo, we sailed around the southern tip of Hawaii headed for Kona, and the much-anticipated night viewing of the lava flowing into the ocean. An amazing sight.

Arriving in Kona, we were once again entertained by the local Kona Koast H3 for awesome trail. Former Aloha hashers “EZ Lipps” and “Saintly Suds” starting near the pier and ending on the beach.

After stopping at the Kona Brewing company on the way back to the ship, we were once again underway to our next island adventure . . . on Kauai. Like Maui, there is currently no active hash club running on Kauai, so it was the perfect opportunity for another Aloha H3 (trail #1336) event. This would be the most energetic and scenic trail of the cruise, as we climbed up and over “The Sleeping Giant”.

With all of our hash trails complete, we set sail for the last time, headed back home to Oahu. Speaking of sailing, we did have many fond nights of sailing, and dining, and hot tubbing. Every night seemed to be a contest of how many hashers could we pack in.

And fittingly, we also had an ugliest Aloha Shirt contest at dinner, with our winners being “Rearendee” from the Edmonton H3, and “Stinkfinger” from the Oregon H3. Pretty ugly!

Arriving back on Oahu, we quickly departed the ship to drop off our luggage and get ready for the Aloha H3 (trail #1337) day’s events up on Tantalus, which is basically the highest point you can drive to on the island. The somewhat rainy, and pretty well muddy and slippery trail, was the sendoff for most of our visitors. A few lucky ones joined us on Sunday for the 100th trail of the Harriettes of Oahu H3 (or HO Hash) where everyone wears pink.

Overall, we had hashers join us from Canada, Malaysia, Thailand, India, Japan, Korea, New Zealand, Australia, and the United Kingdom. We here at the Aloha H3 would like to extend our warm aloha to each and every one of our guests, and hope we get many more guests to visit us in the future, in our little grass shack, in the middle of the Pacific Ocean.

There is a lot still for us to do, and we would love to have your support for the fun stuff. We are extending an invitation for all of those who enjoy the exploratory, foraging and investigative side of finding and setting trails. Yes, we are looking for Hares.

We also want to tap into the creative juices of your pack, through our very own singing competition, which could net your kennel a KEG OF BEER. Something to warm any heart and larynx.

Cum, whet your whistle

We want to celebrate the creativity and musical diversity of our favourite pastime (after drinking and other forms of physical recreation, of course), by launching the EuroHash Song Contest.

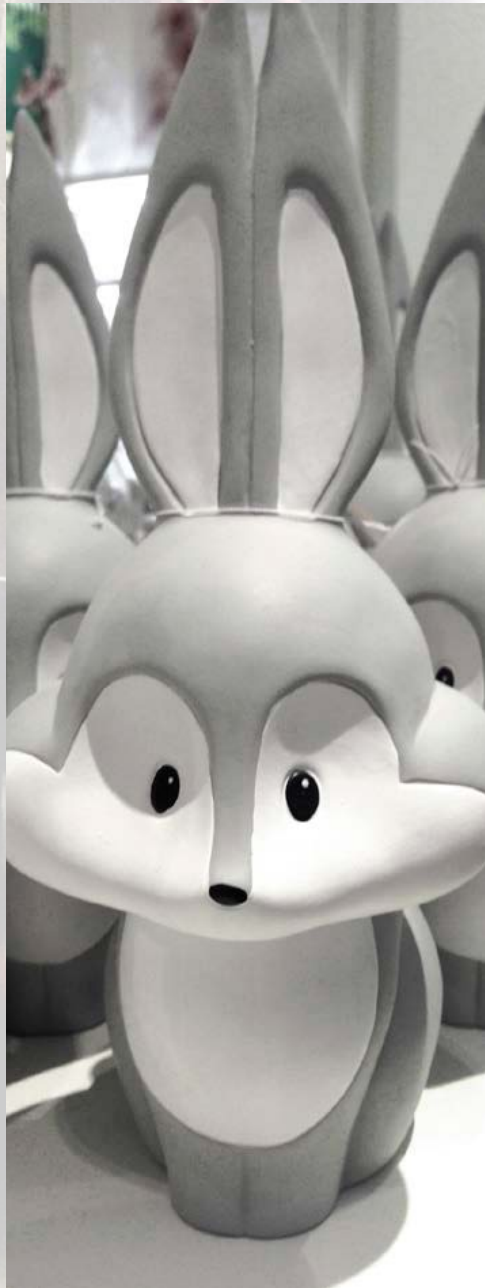

We are requesting all participating kennels to put together a film performing your favourite song. these can then be posted in the EuroHash community for all to see, compare and inspire.

Celebrating 25 Years of Hashing In Paradise

by Serial Offender

It's going to be an AMAZING celebratory weekend in Bali Indonesia over the weekend of 27, 28 and 29 of January 2017.

Check it out ...

- 25th Anniversary of Bali Hash 2
- The start of Victor "Nightjar" Mason's 80th Year
- First day of Chinese New Year

The Origins of Hash in Bali

In May 1977 Victor "Nightjar" Mason and several accomplices decided to get together once each Friday afternoon at the Beggars Bush in Ubud. There they would sit drinking beer while the Beggars Bush minions would trek out into the jungle with a bag of shredded paper and proceed to litter the countryside, laying a trail which our founding heroes would later follow; on foot and eventually hands and knees, becoming wet and muddy.

Then returning to the comfort of the pub, where Nightjar, acting as some self-styled Religious Adviser, would shrieve everyone in turn for such offences as getting lost in the jungle or daring to speak out of turn, by the forced drinking of huge mugs of Beer (punishment indeed for these heinous crimes).

This tradition thrived and continues to this day. Excellent procreation skills meant the original accomplices multiplied and became so numerous that some went on to spawn other groups.

CONTENTS

These days there are as many as seven Hash groups in Bali.

So when you combine the Birthday of the “Father of Hash in Bali” with the Birthday of Bali Hash House Harriers 2 great things happen. But when that day also happens to fall on the first day of Chinese New Year, the day when you welcome of the deities of the heavens and earth; and it just so-happens to be start of “Red Fire Chicken Year”, this is the stuff that LEGENDS are made of.

So many reasons can be cited for venturing to the idyllic island of Bali... the most common is the seductive nature of a magical culture that permeates local life and the sensual beauty and grace of Balinese women.... But the camaraderie one finds with the Bali Hash 2 brings people back year after year where every Saturday, a diverse and congenial group slogs through visually-stunning landscapes before collapsing into a collective laugh during one of the most unique Hash Circles in the Hashing world ....

THE INTERNATIONAL HASH CHALLENGE: A PARTICIPANT'S PERSPECTIVE

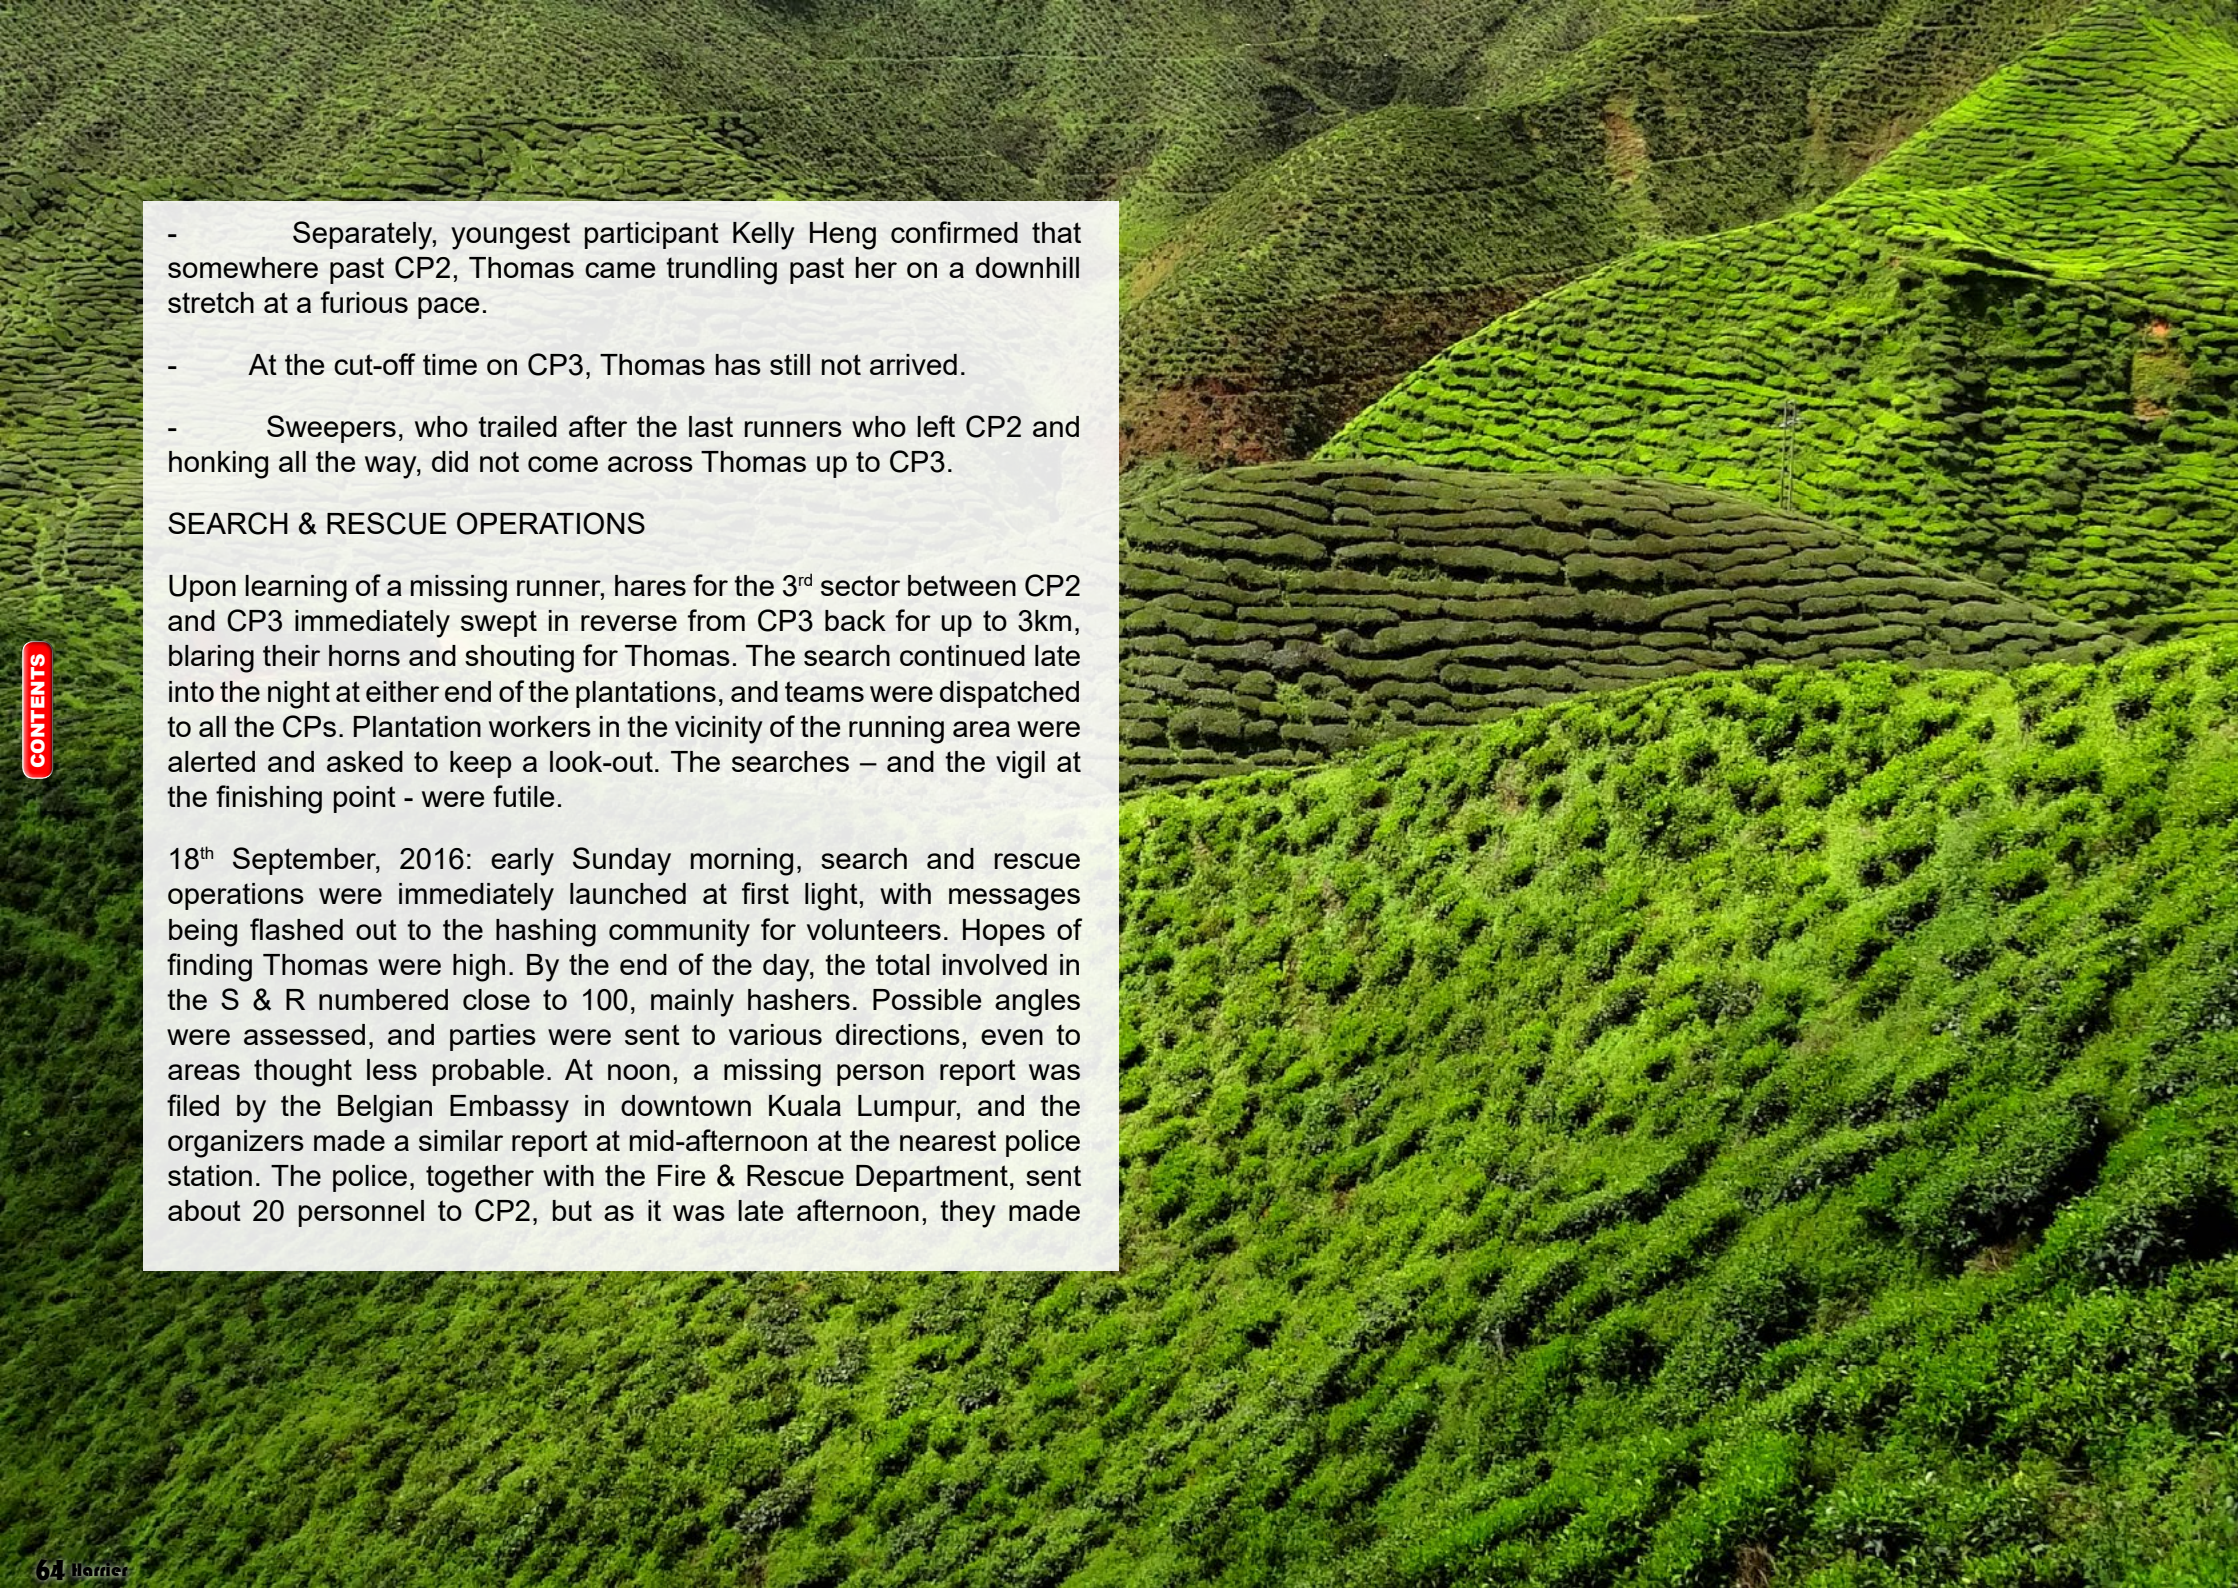

By Opera Cheong

THE 9TH IHC AND LOSS OF A PARTICIPANT

Much has been said and written about the tragedy of Thomas J.F. Cools who, at 34 years-old, was one of the younger participants of the 9th IHC on September 17, 2016. However, some pertinent facts were misrepresented by the media. Here are the facts:

- All the runners have no problems continuing after the layover at CP1, but at CP2, basically the half-way stage, 15 dropped out or were disqualified. Thomas and his team managed to scrap through by a whisker (5 min).
- Some 700m into the sector, Thomas stopped to attend to blisters developing on his legs, and told his team-mates to continue on, and that he will catch up with them later. A separate team – Rapid Cripples, the most senior team and last to depart from CP2, overtook Thomas at this point and enquired about his situation, and he assured them he was alright.
- Approximately between 2-3km from CP2, a resurgent Thomas overtook Team Rapid Cripples.

- Separately, youngest participant Kelly Heng confirmed that somewhere past CP2, Thomas came trundling past her on a downhill stretch at a furious pace.

- At the cut-off time on CP3, Thomas has still not arrived.

- Sweepers, who trailed after the last runners who left CP2 and honking all the way, did not come across Thomas up to CP3.

SEARCH & RESCUE OPERATIONS

Upon learning of a missing runner, hares for the 3rd sector between CP2 and CP3 immediately swept in reverse from CP3 back for up to 3km, blaring their horns and shouting for Thomas. The search continued late into the night at either end of the plantations, and teams were dispatched to all the CPs. Plantation workers in the vicinity of the running area were alerted and asked to keep a look-out. The searches – and the vigil at the finishing point - were futile.

18th September, 2016: early Sunday morning, search and rescue operations were immediately launched at first light, with messages being flashed out to the hashing community for volunteers. Hopes of finding Thomas were high. By the end of the day, the total involved in the S & R numbered close to 100, mainly hashers. Possible angles were assessed, and parties were sent to various directions, even to areas thought less probable. At noon, a missing person report was filed by the Belgian Embassy in downtown Kuala Lumpur, and the organizers made a similar report at mid-afternoon at the nearest police station. The police, together with the Fire & Rescue Department, sent about 20 personnel to CP2, but as it was late afternoon, they made an expeditionary foray towards where Thomas was last seen. With the night settling in, the search operations by both the authorities and hashers were adjourned.

19th September 2016: Hashers again set off very early combing from different vantages out of CP2 and CP3 independently of the authorities. The authorities' search efforts were to be concentrated from and around CP2, and 3 dozen personnel, together with 2 K-9 units, were marshalled. Just as the briefings were coming to an end and the various teams were about to be allocated search sectors, at a little before 10am, a message came through that a S & R team which set off from CP3 has found Thomas. There was a collective sigh of relief, with many whooping cries of joy at the happy news. However, the initial relief and euphoria was short-lived, for the missing runner has succumbed to injuries. The initial report of having 'found' the victim has been misinterpreted; tragically, the rescue has become a recovery effort to retrieve Thomas' body.

Thomas was found just over 2km short of CP3, and about 200m off the paper trail, at the foot of a slope. The post-mortem was to list the cause as 'blunt injuries secondary to fall'.

THE CONCEPT:

The International Hash Challenge (IHC) was conceived to give hashers an opportunity to experience the rigours of participating in a full marathon, albeit hash-style, in a Malaysian jungle and plantation environment. The idea, as conceptualized by the hosting hash, Petaling H3 based out of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, are:

- It is a team event comprising 4 members, of whom one must be of the opposite sex
- each team must finish together
- there are 3 interim Check-points (CPs), where teams must check out together before proceeding. At each of these CPs, there are water supply, ORS, light refreshments, and First Aid plus ambulance. Trucks are on standby to evacuate dropped out, exhausted, or lightly injured participants
- cut-off times are pre-set at each CP, and beyond these times, participants are barred from continuing

Although termed as a challenge, the event, like true-blue hash events, is a non-competitive one in the real sense of the word, for there are NO prizes to be won, except self-fulfillment, bragging rights and self-esteem. It is fundamentally a challenge to participants to persevere through the arduous and punishing trails, and to their team spirit in helping and coaxing their teammates on to the finishing point.

By setting up CPs at approximate intervals of roughly 10km apart (the positioning of the CPs are of course determined by accessibility and location), the Challenge trails are basically segmented into 4 quadrants, each approximating a regular Petaling H3's run. In hashing (at least Petaling H3's) terms, the Hash Challenge can therefore be considered simply as a combination of 4 hash runs, with the exception that it is fully-supported at each CP, augmented by the hares of each sector sweeping for, and assisting, stragglers.

THE EXPERIENCE

Like many runners, I have always harboured hopes of running a full marathon, having completed a few half-marathons within respectable times. However, a head-on car collision in 1991 put paid to my hopes and, although I made a near-complete recovery, the allure of the marathon dims out of fear that injuries sustained on road running might jeopardize my hashing career. So, when in 2000 Petaling H3 first announced the hosting of the Challenge, I immediately signed up, and have remained an ardent participant since, except for one occasion when I took up the mantle of event organizer to ensure continuity rather than seeing the event get terminated prematurely for want of an organizer; it tickles me to tell others that the only time I didn't run the Challenge as a participant, I ran the event!

What's so special about the Challenge? Because being a team event, it encourages teamwork and imbues in each a kindred spirit unique unto itself. The shared sense of camaraderie between team members is unequalled, and the euphoria of finishing together is absolutely incomparable. That the event is a Challenge, and yet not a competitive one, is best exemplified by the rapturous cheers that greet each participant as he/she reaches the finishing line, not just coming from the observers, regular hashers, and volunteers, but particularly so from other participating teams who finished earlier. The voluminous outpouring of mass jubilation is so hearteningly palpable, it stays and lingers in our psyche...

THE PARTICIPANTS & SOME STATS

Contrary to what many might expect, the participants of the Challenge were not the usual young and gung ho type, nor were they the fit-as-a-fiddle distance runners; in fact, the majority were simply the average hash Joes and Janes, who simply relishes the premise of the Challenge. For example, at the recent 9th edition – the lowest turn-out thus far due to many prospective teams lacking a female team member - the average age of participants was a very mature 46 years, the youngest at 17, and the oldest at 65; 40% of them were 50 years or older, and around half were veterans of past Challenges. Of the 88 individuals who started, 69 managed to complete the full distance within the stipulated time, representing 78% finishers. These include the oldest, and 2 of the 3 teens. (Lamentably, I wasn't one of the conquerors, having pulled out at the half-way stage (CP2) due to the debilitating effects of a persistent injury, exacerbated by a silly omission to hydrate sufficiently).

WHITHER, THE INTERNATIONAL HASH CHALLENGE?

Like most sports, hashing carry with it inherent risks. These risks are not necessarily any more, or less, dangerous than other sports. The susceptibility to injuries in hashing is just different, and all hashers should be fully aware of this fact.

In terms of diligence of care, the organizers and the hares have done everything according to the book in setting the run, and ensuring that all CPs were properly staffed and attended to. True to hash traditions, each of the 4 sectors contained 2 checks in order to restrain the faster runners and allow slower ones to catch up. The refreshment stations at the CPs were well-stocked and well-manned, and so were the First Aid stations. The sweepers went right after the last teams set off, and blared the horns loud and clear all along the way. Those who don't make it on time within the cut-off threshold were not allowed to continue on.

Could the disappearance and ultimate demise of Thomas be averted? I don't think anybody could answer this with any degree of conviction and certainty. It was likely a case of Murphy's Law at play, when a slight misstep off the trail snowballed to a frantic effort to retrace or intercept the trail. The case of Thomas was best adjudged a misadventure contributed by his haste to catch up with his team mates, which unfortunately ended up tragically.

I really hope that Petaling H3, and their very dedicated cadres of organizers and hares will not let this calamity preclude them from organizing future Challenges. Perhaps some things could be improved further, particularly the safety aspect, but the basic ingredients have always been right. I am certain its 200+ strong membership will continue to support the event in every which capacity, including their generous financial contributions that have always lessened the burden on participants. They should all be mightily proud of the fact that Petaling H3 is creator and custodian of the greatest Challenge there is in all of hashdom; a Challenge, but a surmountable one.

HOT DOGS TEAM AT THE FINISH LINE

HASHING IN KENYA

WITH THE NAIROBI HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

by Julia Stanton

Nairobi, capital city of Kenya is home to several active hash groups with some hashers who are quite active on the international circuit. Last month Head Mistress flew down from Addis Ababa and joined them for one of the major yearly hashing events in East Africa, the Naivasha Relay and a regular Monday Hash. The Naivasha Relay involves a relay run from Nairobi to Naivasha on unsealed roads in teams of 9 with members seeded according to their running ability with the higher seeds running longer distances several times throughout the day and the lower seeds maybe doing a short run once. Different hashes from Kenya and international hashers particularly from Kampala, Uganda come together to make up teams and some teams have more than one group. Each team is distinctive by its individual t-shirts sporting its team names and teams travel in several vehicles or one big vehicle when not running. The relay is made up of a series of legs of different lengths for different seeds so around 30 runners run at one time.

SUNDAY TEAM PERFORMANCE

Highlights of the Naivasha Relay

- The carb-loading session at a bar the night before with plenty of Tusker Beer, BBQ goat and beef ribs and a chance for teams to get together to make final arrangements – some hashers only left the bar to go to the start point.

- Meeting at 5.45am in the chilly morning air on the dirt track road up a steep hill from the highway - a training ground for Kenya's serious runners [their peace must have been shattered with the arrival of 250 hashers in a whole variety of vehicles from pick up trucks to huge overland safari vehicles)

- 15 different teams, some with up to 3 groups of 9 who were seeded in order of their running ability or lack of it with names such as Bad Boys, Team Mix, Smoothies, Hot Dogs

- 89 kms of mainly dusty unsealed, bumpy and often rocky roads filled with local villagers cheering everyone on – event provides annual entertainment to them.

- Lots and lots of Kenyan beer such as Tusker, White Cap and Summit

- Leg after leg of different distances with team members competing to be first and being welcomed at the finishing line by a carnival other team members and GM Tuzo tits and her team of strict judges busy shouting orders and recording the finishers and time of each hasher

- Losing one team member but luckily finding him again through mobile phone and getting him rescued.

- Range of temperatures from an early chilly morning to a baking hot afternoon and then to rain and cold again as night fell.
- The extra route provided this year that led to hashers getting wet in the rain but running past herds of zebra and impala
- Food and party all night until the resort switched the electricity off at 4am (only way it seems to get the Kenyan hashers to go to bed)
- Team games on the lawn the next day reminiscent of a British school sports day with games such as egg and spoon and the three legged race.
- Compulsory impromptu team performances from each team with the best act from Mombasa Hash House Harriers putting on their beach clothes and bringing out their coconuts.
- Performances hit by heavy rain showers but GM Tuzo Tits carried on indoors with an all afternoon circle of many charges and gift giving of team t-shirts until the hashers finally staggered out to drive the 2 hour sealed road back to Nairobi.

Nairobi Hash House Harriers

Runs every Monday from various bars around the suburbs of Nairobi starting at 6pm - best to contact Muguu - tjithugu@yahoo.com for next location

Highlights of run on 10th October 2016

- Beer stop after 1km into the run (evidently this is not the norm)
- Trail carried on up the road going against all the arrows (were we running the trail the wrong way round?) to meet the hares who made everyone run with their knees up

MOMBASA H3 TEAM AT THE FINISH LINE

- Strange markings on the trail which deviate away from the usual international markings (evidently hare Finger of God normally pays someone to set her trails so she's not sure herself).

- Exercise class after the run (again not normal but because the run was rather short the hares decided that they would give the hashers a bit more exercise before they moved onto the Tusker beer).

- Circle with lots of Tusker and White Cap beer where virgins had to graduate to join the hash.

- Second On On bar for those who still wanted to carry on.

REGISTRATIONS ABOUT TO OPEN

Cebu Hash is close to 20 years old and is based in and around Cebu City (approximately half way up or down on the east coast of Cebu Island).

Cebu is a longish, thin island with a narrow coastal plain along each coast with a multitude of steep-sided hills running south to north along its central spine. For Hashers, this means that much of the flat land is built up or fenced in. This leaves the hilly interior for most of our Runs. Browse our website at <http://cebuhash.org/index.php> to see the sort of places we regularly Hash.

Unfortunately, some of these places are a tad off the beaten track – they might not require a 4 wheel drive vehicle to get there but definitely need something with a high ground clearance (SUV, pickup, etc). Normally, we use our own vehicles to get to the start of our Runs. This can be problematical when we have a shit load of visitors to transport.

Cebu City itself has many upmarket (expensive) hotels and a wide variety of lower cost (but OK) places to stay at. There are also a handful of large (expensive) beach resorts scattered around the island. Unfortunately, the more economical resorts are not very large. We do not recommend staying on Mactan Island (Lapu Lapu) over a Hash weekend. By the way, there is not a large red-light bar district as such in Cebu.

The 2017 Philippine Nash Hash over May 19TH to 21ST

BASIC OUTLINE PROGRAM – (more to be added)

Friday 19TH there will be an afternoon arduous hills hike trail just outside the city proper.

For evening fun, a bar crawl run is being arranged.

Saturday 20TH is the main run day and après cycle party at Genesis Valley Resort (current plan) just over the Cebu City / Consolacion border. A short walkers trail, a slightly longer one, and a 12km minimum ball buster. Open air circles leading on to gallons of beer with grub and entertainment. (Small swimming pool available at extra cost).

Sunday 21ST will see a late morning set of recovery runs (one short + one long). We hope this will be in sight of the sea and we can find a field in which to party away the afternoon.

FEES

We are working on the host of logistics matters regarding accommodation, transport, grub, beer, etc, but to keep you all satisfied with beer and grub quantities plus transporting you to the venues we have set the fee at Phil Peso 4,500 per head.

This is based on a limit of +/- 150 Hashers and will need to be paid (IN PHILIPPINE PESO) by 28TH February 2017 latest. Higher priced rego's may still be available up to final cut-off date of 20TH April 2017. For those able to pay in cash in Cebu there will be a discount. Otherwise, payments are to be made in Peso through PayPal.

Details will be on a special Cebu Nash Hash 2017 website currently under construction but available soon.

KOREA

- A REFRESHING HASHING EXPERIENCE

Hanyang Hash House Harriers & Harriettes (H5) of Korea is proud to offer itself as host of Pan Asia Hash 2017. The fact that there has never been any large scale hashing event in Korea means that, for most of the prospective participants, this Pan Asia will be a very refreshing hashing experience indeed.

We specifically chose Sokcho City as the event venue: on the fringe of this city is the world-renowned Seorak Mountain National Park which, for many Korean soap opera aficionados, has often been the surreal backdrop. The proposed dates are similarly selected, for late October ushers in the most spectacular autumnal colours, best highlighted by the rainbow hues of the maples.

Participants will get to savour the K-food phenomenon that has been taking the gastronomic world literally by storm. Be enamored by the extensive spread of Korean delights - the quintessential Ginseng Chicken Soup; the omnipresent mouth-watering beef, lamb, and pork barbecues; the huge varieties of fresh – and often live - seafood eaten either raw/sashimi-style, or prepared in dozens of off-secret recipes unbeknownst to other parts of the world. All these, and more, washed down with world famous brands of beers, or with the uniquely Korean soju and makgoeli.

The time is ripe for a refreshing change of scenery, of style, of food and beverage, and of a completely new hashing experience. We are a new troupe of organizers, backed by the provincial government, and supported by experience from the Motherland of hashing.

Give your affirmation for a refreshing change!

Frontera's Sizzling Fajitas

It was 1973 in Houston, Texas on Navigation street where a young tejanita named Hina first popularized the famous Tex-Mex dish now known as "fajitas".

We pay homage to Mama Hina everyday by making our fajitas the traditional way. Marinated overnight in Frontera's proprietary blend of authentic Tex-Mex spices and served sizzling hot with a stack of fresh house-made tortillas.

Real Tex-Mex only at Frontera.

THE ANGKOR ULTRA TRAIL

THE TREASURES OF ANGKOR at your fingertips
from January 20 to 21, 2017

Do not only run the world, but also go off the beaten track and enjoy a dream in the heart of the most beautiful sites in the planet. The Angkor Ultra Trail goes all the way out as it reveals all the jewels of Cambodia at your feet!

Escorted by SDPO (Sports Development Performance Organization), the experts in organizing races in Southeast Asia, you will run in the heart of the archaeological site of Siem Reap, the ancient remnants of the Khmer Kingdom and classified as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. More than 300 competitors from across the world participated in this world first class race last year and the second edition offers you, not only a choice to run the Ultra 128 km in solo or in relay, but also the Bayon Trail of 64 km, the Jungle Trail of 32km or the Temple Run of 16km.

A Nordic walking of 16km and for the accompanying joiners, you are welcome to join a humanitarian walk of 5km with the Cambodian children which are also part of the program.

In all cases, the ancient temples lost in the jungle, the sandy tracks crossing through the rice fields and villagers cheering will inspire your race. The trail traverses the hillside descending slightly, so it will not be difficult. But the problem that you may face is a weather that you are not accustomed to, as during the end of January, the average temperatures are between 18°C and 24°C. For the rest, you will be inevitably amazed by so much beauty.

“By participating in one of our scheduled events, the Angkor Ultra Trail which is a socially responsible race, you will combine solidarity by helping the Cambodian children and by supporting in the protection and preservation of the Angkor archaeological site, the ancient remnants of the Khmer Kingdom”.

HASHERS IN THE KNOW

Stockholm Hasher decides to take his son out fishing one fine day on one of the larger lakes in Stockholm. After a couple hours out in the boat, his son suddenly became curious about the world around him.

He asked his father, "How does this boat float?"
The father thought for a moment, then replied, "I don't rightly know, son."
So the son returned to his contemplation, then turned back to his father, "How do fish breath underwater?"
Once again the father replied, "Don't rightly know, son."
A little later the curious son asked again, "Why is the sky blue?"
Again, the father replied. "Don't rightly know, son."
Worried he was going to annoy his father, he says, "Dad, do you mind my asking you all of these questions?"
"Of course not, son. If you don't ask questions ... you'll never learn anything!"

Message from an old Hasher - 'Thirty day sober folks Not consecutively, but here and there over the years. I'm estimating'

A doctor walks into a ward full of worn and damaged Hashers at a mental institution, takes out a pen, and draws a door on the wall. He then tells all the patients that whoever wants to escape should use that door. Immediately they all rush towards it, but of course cannot go through. However, one patient sits still in the back with a smile on his face. He has not moved at all. The doctor thinks he must be cured. He then asks the patient why he did not rush to the door, and the patient whispers, "They don't know that I'm the one who has the key."

A certain Stockholm Hasher visiting Pataya Hash found himself in bed with his new girlfriend.

After having great sex she spent the next hour just rubbing his balls because it was something she just loved to do. As he was enjoying it he turned and asked her. 'Why are you doing that?' 'Because' she replied, 'I really miss mine'

PRIVATES ON PARADE

Two Army boys, Leroy & Jasper, from the hills of Kentucky were promoted right from privates to Sergeants because of their great marksmanship with rifles. Not long after, they're out for a walk and Leroy says, "Hey, Jasper, There's the NCO Club. Let's you and Me stop in." "But we's privates," protests Jasper. "We's sergeants now," says Leroy, pulling him inside. "Now, Jasper, I'm a gonna sit down and have me a drink." "But we's privates," says Jasper. "Are you blind, boy?" asks Leroy, pointing at his stripes. We's sergeants now, so hush your mouth!"

So they have their drinks and pretty soon a 'professional' comes up to Leroy. "You're cute," she says, "and I'd like to date you, but I've got a bad case of gonorrhhea." "Leroy pulls his friend to the side and whispers, "Jasper, go look in the dictionary and see what gonorrhhea means. If it's okay, give me the okay sign."

So Jasper goes to look it up, comes back and gives Leroy the big okay sign. Three weeks later Leroy is laid up in the infirmary with a terrible case of gonorrhhea.

"Jasper," he says, "why did you give me the okay sign?" "Well Leroy, in the dictionary, it says gonorrhhea affects only the privates." He points to his stripes. "But we's sergeants now!"

FROM THE FANTASY KINGDOM

A Fate Worse Than The Eight Ball

North Korea: Kim Jong-un reportedly orders two officials to be executed by pool sticks.

God visited Jane and told her she must give up smoking, drinking and sex if she wants to get into heaven.

Jane, said she would try her best.

God visited Jane, a week later to see how she was getting on.

"Not bad" said Jane,, "I've given up smoking and drinking but then I bent over the lounge suite and Jack caught sight of my long slender legs, he pulled up my skirt, pulled my knickers to one side and made love to me right then and there."

"They don't like that in heaven", said God.....

Jane, replied: "They're not too happy about it in Ikea furniture store either!"

THE MITE'S HAPPY RUN

STRANGER THAN FICTION

A very large, old building was being torn down to make room for a new skyscraper. Due to its proximity to other buildings it could not be imploded and had to be dismantled floor by floor.

While working on the 49th floor, two construction workers found a human skeleton in a small closet behind the elevator shaft. They decided that they should call the police. When the police arrived, the workers led them to the closet and showed them the skeleton. It was fully clothed, covered in cobwebs and dust and sitting in a crouched position.

They all found the sight of this skeleton disturbing and wondered who it could have been and how they wound up in the closet.

The police forensics team removed the body and demolition of the building was put on hold until the police figured out the identity of the corpse.

Two days went by and the construction workers were becoming impatient. They couldn't stand it anymore. They had to know who they had found.

They called the police and said, We are the two guys who found the skeleton in the closet and we want to know who it was.

The policeman said, somebody kind of important.

Well, who was it? they asked.

The policeman replied, The 1956 National Hide-and-Seek Champion.

Once upon a midnight dreary, while I pondered, weak and weary,

Over many a quaint and curious volume of forgotten lore,
While I nodded, nearly napping, suddenly there came a tapping,

As of some one gently rapping, rapping at my chamber door.
"Tis some visitor," I muttered, "tapping at my chamber door—
Some late visitor entreating entrance at my chamber door;—
This it is, and nothing more."

And the only words there spoken was the whispered words,
"Get the fuck out of bed you lazy sod".....Edgar Allen Poe

Thor, the God of Thunder, and his pal Odin were up in Valhalla, when suddenly Thor said to Odin, "It's been a long time now. I really need to have sex."

Odin stood and pondered for a while, before replying, "Go to Earth, O Thor, and find thyself what they call a 'lady of joy' and treat her to your manly pleasur...es."

And this Thor did. The next day, he came back up to see Odin, and told him of the previous night's events. "My friend," he said, grinning from ear to ear, "It was wonderful. We had passionate sex 37 times.."

"37 times!" exclaimed Odin. "That poor woman! Mere mortals cannot endure such treatment. You must go and apologize this instant!"

So Thor went back down to earth and found the aforementioned prostitute, saying. "I'm sorry about last night, but you see, I'm Thor..."

"You're Thor?" shouted the girl. "You're Thor? What about me? I'm tho thor I can't tpeak and can hardly pith!"

SPRINTOS BRITISH BEER RUN

WHILE NUMEROUS HASHERS WERE GALLIVANTING AROUND EUROPE RUNNING NON-HASH ACTIVITIES. A FEW STURDY STOCKHOLM HASHERS STAYED BEHIND TO ENJOY SPRINTOSAURUS' BRITISH BEER RUN. WELL MET IN THE OUTER SUBURBS OF NASBY PARK WE WERE DELIGHTED TO HAVE ONE OF OUR FOUNDERS IN THE PACK. RUNNERS AND THE WALKING WOUNDED SET OUT ON THIS COLDISH DAY TO FIND THE ALE STOP AT ROSLAGS NASBY STATION WHERE A WARM GARAGE ENTRANCE WAS FOUND. BACK TO THE ON-HOME WE ENTERED THE PUB AND FINISHED A GOOD DAY OUT..... THANKS SPRINTO

The Absolut Hash Sussex BH7 Blast From The Past Reunion Tour

First on the scene, for this warm July evening run at The Crabtree, a pub on the outskirts of Lower Beeding deep in the heart of the West Sussex Weald, were Banker and Malibog who somehow (for the first time in their lives) managed to arrive 30 minix early. The Brightonians started to arrive some 15 minix later and duly evolved into quite a large and varied pack including one dog. Go-days were made all round as the visitors introduced themselves to this pack of rather uncouth and unruly hooligans. A choral moan went up as the hare arrived, he being renowned for laying long hard runs. A few words about the run which nobody really listened to, a few shoe laces tightened, the dog watered and they were ready to leave.

The run started by heading straight out the end of the car park and down the hill, after being told by the Hare "Go straight out of the end of the car park and down the hill." Simple really. So why did two of the local hashers hurtle off in the opposite direction like demented fools? Did they know something the rest of the pack didn't one wonders. The road part did not last long however as a quick left led the pack onto a narrow path overgrown on one side with the jagged leaves covered with stinging hairs of the nettle plant and to the other the evergreen prickly holly shrub, both seemingly competing to sting or tear the legs of the passing hashers.

A couple of so called fairer sex had obviously been here before and had the sense to wear tights, but then what has sense to do with hashing. Even worse was to come but for the moment the pack was to be seen trying to skip hop and jump over the protruding branches and stems of the stinging leaves. With great relief the pack soon headed out into an open meadow inhabited by a large heard of Merinos who gave the hashers a sly look and a wide berth possible trying to see if there where any Kiwis lurking in the back of the pack.

The run consisted of a lot of down hills and a load of fucking up hills with one or two flattish bits thrown in to completely stuff up the pack. Banker spent a large part of his time extolling the delights of the Sussex countryside and in doing so managed to lose himself at least twice during the first half of the run.

Meanwhile MaliBog spent most of his time looking at the ground about three yards in front trying not to trip up on the many tree-roots criss-crossing the trail. Banker and Malibog did however come together in good Stockholm style by finding the trail from a very difficult check (which left the B'ton hashers milling all over the place) with a mark tucked neatly away nestling behind an old brown barn.

SOME OF US TOOK THE ROAD LESS TRAVELED
NOW WE'RE ALL BLOODY LOST

So away they went whistles blowing, on-oning followed by the grateful pack only to miss a mark further down the trail, shooting of to the left (the trail going to the right) and after about 300 yards reaching a complete dead end. Thus undoing any respect the locals might have gained for the two hardy visitors from Stockholm.

The next check in the middle of a dark foreboding wood had the pack running around in ever-larger circles. Fortunately a couple of B'ton hashers, who always seemed to get it more-or-less right and after nearly every check always seemed to be in front of the other runners going in roughly the same direction, found the correct trail although by this time most of the pack were well spread out over large areas of the West Sussex countryside. At one point the main pack were on a narrow lane and the others in a field running parallel, unfortunately they couldn't hook up owing to a 15 foot high 5 foot wide bracken hedge-row and were forced to make a half kilometre detour. At last they came to what they call a main road in Sussex (just enough room for two Land Rovers to pass each other) and were informed by those who pretend to know that they were in the middle of nowhere and miles from Crabtree's amber fluids. Waiting slightly for the lost runners to arrive the pack entered a farm lane minutes after a heard of Jerseys had past along and it was our pleasure to plow through the piles of wet dung left in their wake.... It was hot and it was sticky and the pack was hot and the pack was sticky and the two Stockholm ex-pats asked. "My God what happened to the Beer Stop", nothing happened to it, there just wasn't one they were politely informed.

Well it could only get better they thought as the pack entered a corn field and somehow managed to wake the occupants of a wasp nest, a sting here and a sting there and, hastening the pace, they entered into a rather pleasant wooded common. This last part of the run seemed to be easy which lulled the pack into a false sense of security - you crafty bastard hare - and it was not long before the pack was once again split into three separate groups heading out in three entirely opposite directions. Fortunately the pack found itself again and the last part was made easier by the fact that the last 1/2 mile was downhill and along a nice even concrete road. The pack had probably forgotten all about the rest of the trail by the time they ran into the car park, the only thing on their minds being the pints of ale ready to be ably consumed at the visitors end of Crabtree's public bar.

A Good Run with the hare forgiven and the ales and beers begotten.....OnOnSirMaliBog
