Vote for IH 2018 Wild Wild West Borneo Kuching

Interhash 2018 Borneo

6 – 8 July, 2018

Since 1988

Sarawak, a Malaysian state on Borneo, stretches along the island's northwest coast, including many beaches on the South China Sea. It's known for the rugged, dense rainforest of its interior, much of it protected parkland, home to diverse indigenous tribes (including the Iban) and endemic flora and fauna. The capital, Kuching, is a bustling, diverse city set on the Sarawak River.

Kuching is the perfect place for a big Hash event. No traffic jams, no smog nor terrorists, only late night Hashers. It is blessed with great easily accessible Hash country in almost every direction. It is a hasher's paradise with rivers, waterfalls, rainforests and highlands.

Don't worry about money. Everything is cheap in Kuching: hotels, souvenirs, dining of eastern and western cuisine, souvenirs, shopping, a can of beer at US$1.00 and a breakfast for US$1.50!

Our experiences in organizing Pan Asia Hash garnered 2,000 participants and a recent 25th Anniversary celebration of the club had 1,000 hashers attended and those who attended are still talking about it and clamoring for more

The MINISTRY OF TOURISM SARAWAK will be supporting our bid for INTERHASH 2018 to make this a real McCoy hashing experience. You will be wholesomely satisfied. <http://www.mot.sarawak.gov.my/>

Editor's Notes

The mega event of the 2016 Hash calendar takes place this month on Bali, the Indonesian "Island of the Gods". This marks the 20th biennial World Interhash, which had its humble beginnings in Hong Kong in 1978.

With many hashers choosing smaller HHH events over the larger ones, it will be interesting to see the direction Interhash takes when IH 2016 participants vote for Fiji, Kuching or Medan for 2018.

BALI INTERHASH 2016: 5000 hashers from 75 countries will invade Sanur, once a sleepy fishing village. IH Bali will feature scenic runs for which Bali is known, great entertainment, Hash Acts, Down Down Competition, a Full Moon Graveyard Run honoring those hashers we have lost, an Old Farts Walk for those who refuse to throw in the towel, as well as a Bali Red Dress Run carrying on the legacy of the unforgettable Lady in Red.

A sea of Bintang Beer will keep hashers well lubed with their favorite beverage, while the Interhash Bazaar will offer bargains galore including Harrier-the World Hash Magazine. Please stop by to say hello and for some great gifts available while they last.

Go Green or Go Home at the Portland Green Dress Run. What are these tree-huggers up to, and is it the result of drinking too much organic wheat grass juice or smoking it?

It takes more than bombs to keep Belgians down. Belgium Nash Hash a month after the Brussels bombings hashers gathered as planned in Antwerp undeterred from celebrating life, love and the pursuit of beer. World Peace thru Beer was celebrated unabated.

For those looking for an excuse to go to Vietnam, Hanoi will celebrate 25 years of hashing. This has all the elements of a great HHH event in a country with unmatched beauty and a proud cultural heritage.

Our Africa correspondent, Head Mistress, joined 350 hashers in Uganda for a 90 km relay from Kampala to Jinja, in the fabled Nile river delta. Why, you may ask? Read the article and find out all about this amazing trek that hashers have embraced for the last 10 years.

And for our readers who dream of visiting a World Heritage town and running to support a worthwhile children's charity, the Luang Prabang Half Marathon welcomes you to Laos this October.

Sir Malibog strikes again with the offbeat humor of the Absolut Hash Trash, along with other regular Harrier Magazine columns Adventures of Hash Boy and On the Ice.

Hanoi H3

25th Anniversary

The Hanoi HHH in Vietnam are celebrating their 25th anniversary with a weekend in the city and runs in the surrounding hill country. The weekend extravaganza will be from 28 until 30 October with optionally a pussy run on 31 October organized by the Harriettes.

Runs can be expected to be in the scenic rice paddy fields, hills and forests of Hoa Lac and Soc Son, passing historic and cultural sites such as shrines and pagodas.

Ample time will be left to explore the old "backpackers" quarter in Hanoi, where most of the hashers will be staying in affordable hotels.

Participants of the Inter-Mekong 2016 hash in Siem Reap, the following week, can fly cheaply from Hanoi or take the scenic route by train or bus via Ho Chi Minh city.

Portland Goes GREEN

by Slut Machine
some photos by Tim LeMaster

A long time ago, in a hash far, far away.....two hashers from the Ben Franklin Mob H3 transplanted to Portland, Oregon. With them they brought the tradition of the Green Dress Hash Weekend which is celebrated as close to St Patrick's Day as possible. Since then it has been passed down to others to carry on the burden of organizing and trying to stay sober through the festivities. Even though some original traditions have changed it still brings in hashers along the West coast. This year marked the 5 year anniversary with the slogan: "Why drink all day, when you can drink all weekend?"

That's something to take into consideration especially if you are one of "those people" that have an early Monday morning meeting. This year Portland managed to pull in about 200 hashers that had one common goal: Go Green, or go home! This was a three day event. Unfortunately St.

Paddys fell on a Thursday, so early birds had the No Name or Stumptown to choose from to hash with.

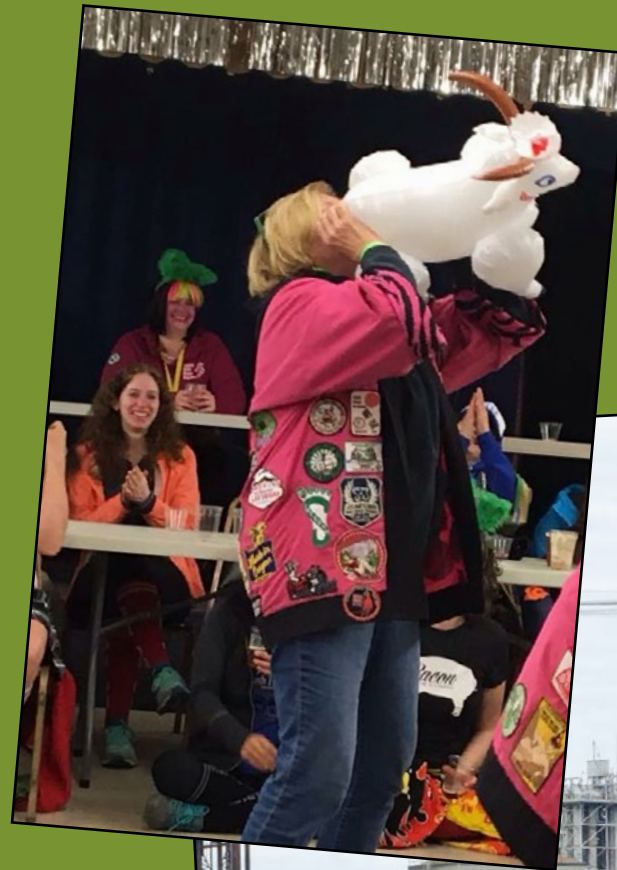

Friday night was the usually meet and greet that was themed the "Prelube Kilt Hash" with beer, cider and light snacks. Toes tags were slung around necks and the mingling began. It was held at the Fraternal Order of Eagles in SE Portland and I felt extremely sorry for the one bartender on staff. He soon figured out that we were a different breed and help was sent to aid the poor guy. The hash itself was a romp up Mt. Tabor and back, just a warm up for what lied ahead. The giveaways were a pair of green sunglasses and a Portland Green Dress koozie. A bit chintzy for Green Dress standards, but nonetheless a giveaway. Apparently patches were ordered and not delivered on time, GM's nightmare. After circle, people started dropping off like flies and headed home for the main event.

Saturday came way too soon. Luckily the weather cooperated and it was a sunny, balmy day in downtown Portland. Those of us that had been up all night were in no mood for coffee and donuts, we wanted strong drink. We were, after all, the absolute cream of hashers. We started and ended at Embers, a long time staple for the gay community. After introductions, chalk talk and warm up the green mob split into a turkey/eagle split with muggles in awe. This was followed by two bridge crossings, two beer checks, a green jell-o check and lots of photo opportunities.

The hash finished with circle, food, beer, wine and a full bar if you paid the cash. What the Green Dress lacked in giveaways, it made up for with a hash photo booth with a live photographer. Embers' is also the premier bar to watch Drag shows. The performers are oblivious to the hash culture and fit right in. Dancing, drinking, and nudity went on into the evening and groups entered the night to their own On-After's.

Sunday, a day of rest. People dragged themselves to the Hangover Hash with the typical grub to soak up any residue alcohol from the night before and the hair of the dog. A walking trail was provided to make sure your heart was still pumping and a box of lost and found to sift through.

A good time was had by all.

Belgium Nash Hash 2016

by Julie Burgess

Hashing in Brussels & the Belgian Nash Hash a month after the Bombings

Belgium is a country whose citizens are relaxed and welcoming. They are always up for a celebration. This coupled with the extensive expatriate community, produces an atmosphere in Brussels which is ripe for hashing. We were pleased to welcome 2700 hashers to Brussels in 2014 for the Beer Odyssey. The party culture in Brussels was one of the reasons the event was a great success. On 22 March, all this was interrupted with three bombs, two at the airport and one at the Maelbeek Metro station. Many of the participants of the Beer Odyssey stayed at hotels near the Maelbeek station and remember it well.

CONTENTS

The Brussels Manneke Piss Hash (BMPH3) comes from all walks of life; however, a large percentage of the group works for the EU institutions and/or travels extensively for their work. Most of the kennel have a story of how they just missed the bombing on the Metro or at the airport. One hasher was on the Metro which ran two minutes prior to the one that exploded. By the end of the day, all of the BMPH3 was safe and accounted for.

Since 22 March, the citizens of Brussels have endured closed metros, the resulting traffic blockage and a disabled airport. The airport normally serves 23.5 million passengers per year. Business travelers and tourists have been cancelling trips to Belgium and the economy is suffering for it. However, Brusselonians, local Belgians and Expats alike, have shown a strong resolve through the crisis and stand even more firmly against terrorism. One could see it at the Place de la Bourse. The world came together to pay homage to the victims and simply hug each other. On the night after the attack, Higgins, as a long-time Brussels resident, Belgian citizen and simply a human being, reacted to this. He planned a social drink at a nearby pub, Little Delirium, to celebrate life and promote World Peace Though Beer. Many of us had a toast to the hash. Hashing was uninterrupted in Brussels. That week, BMPH3 wore the colours of the Belgian flag as a statement of defiance to the terrorists.

Now that life was starting to get back to normal, on 22 April, exactly one month after the bombing, it was time to welcome 150 hashers to the nearby city of Antwerp, Belgium. 22 different nationalities from hashing kennels in 20 different countries descended on Belgium. Many of them flew into Brussels National Airport, some came by train and some drove all the way from Sweden. Some hashers wondered if we would cancel the event. That was never a thought that occurred to the BMPH3 Mismanagement. As of 22 April, the metros were operating until 22:00 (10 pm) and the Maelbeek Metro station was still closed. It took a little longer, yet hashers found their way around Brussels for the Pre-Rambles or to Antwerp. For some who arrived on Friday after 14:00 (2 pm), the train station at the airport reopened, just in time.

On Friday night, the celebration began with a pub crawl to view Antwerp at night and sample some local Antwerp Beers. On Saturday, there was a run through the countryside of nearby Lichtaart and then a party with a live band where hashers could show off their diamonds and BLING. Gangstars and Diva's alike sparkled along the alleys of Antwerp on the way to the Saturday venue. On Sunday, after some BuxFiz, the hares laid a hash through some of the more obscure delights of Antwerp to give the group a daytime perspective. The hearty hashers continued to the Zythos Beer Festival for the World's best selection of Belgian Beer.

The trick for some was returning home after the event. There is security for all road traffic entering the airport. Once one reaches the temporary airport entrance, there is still a 1.5 hour queue to pass the first security check. This is the reason that the airport officials are still recommending arriving THREE hours before a local flight, 2 hours more than before the attacks.

CONTENTS

However, on Monday Morning, the Maelbeek Metro reopened with a ceremony for the victims. All metros are now running on a normal schedule. The Belgian law enforcement agencies are becoming more organized and sharing intelligence. People are now reporting that the airport security is moving faster, and the airport has announced that it will increase capacity again on 2 May. They are in the final phase of the departure lounge repair work and should reopen sometime in May. Things are looking up. The takeaway from this experience is that the resolve of the Belgians is strong and terror will not win. ONON to World Peace Through Belgian Beer!

Kampala Hash House Harriers The Kampala to Jinja Relay Hash

African correspondent Julia 'Head Mistress' Stanton asked Kampala's, RA, Alex 'Queenie' Roman about the upcoming Jinja Relay Hash, the first weekend of July 2016 and why the Kampala Hash House Harriers is worth a visit.

What is the annual Kampala to Jinja Relay Hash all about?

"The Kampala to Jinja Relay Hash is a copy and paste Hash event from Nairobi's Hash House Harriers, Naivasha annual Relay Hash in Kenya. In 2004 Kampala Hash sent a full team to run it and decide to start a homebased relay hash and the first Kampala to Jinja Relay Hash was organised in 2005 covering 87km of nice dirt trail."

ALEX 'QUEENIE' ROMAN

CONTENTS

It's now one of the biggest events in East Africa in terms of attendance as it brings over 360 Hashers mainly from Rwanda, Kenya and Uganda. The hash is very scenic taking in great landscapes of the Ugandan countryside, going through villages, the biggest forest in Uganda and crossing the River Nile using a foot bridge.

I must warn you that it's a competitive Hash-Run in the Hashy sense and each team must have at least 9 people/hashers on a team of which at least 3 must be opposite sex, must have at least a walker and there must be a Hasher with at least 25 runs with the Hash (Your hash handle/ name is added advantage!)

Please note, in traditional hash fashion each team must be ready to drink beer and run in turn from 6:30am to about 7pm as it takes that long to cover the distance!! And after arriving to Jinja (Source of the Nile), there is a circle, dinner and a party till you drop with beer and entertainment.

SCENES FROM PREVIOUS
KAMPALA - JINJA RELAYS

Teams usually coordinate their logistics to do with lunches, water, extra beer since KH3 will only give you 1- 2 cases (25 or 50 beers), driver for your cars and accommodation for your team members.

Why should people register?

“Because there is a lot of beer drinking, great hashing and you get to visit the Source of the Nile, the Longest River in Africa if not the world! “

How do you register and when will registration open?

“Registration usually opens in April/May and closes the last week in June. Team captains do the registration fees and they act as liaisons to Kampala Hash Mismanagement. “

What else could visitors do in Kampala and Uganda besides hashing?

“You can do a lot in Uganda besides drinking and Hashing in Uganda such as rafting, safari trips, mountain biking, Hiking, visit the gorillas, etc There are so many travel agents and if you are very keen, you might consider consulting with Queenie to point you in the right direction!! “

What is a normal weekly hash run in Kampala like? When and where do you meet?

“Kampala Hash House Harriers is a drinking club with a running problem :) We run/walk for about an hour, with stops followed by some beer drinking, both traditional and contemporary - silliness and then dinner. Whatever happens after that it is your own business. We won't judge!!! “

Kampala Hash meet every Monday evening in a different pub or night club and once a month (first weekend) of the month we go out of town meeting at the National Theatre. Kampala Hash house Harriers is one of the biggest Hash Chapters in world with an average of 200 hashers every Monday rain or shine!”

KOREA

- A REFRESHING HASHING EXPERIENCE

Hanyang Hash House Harriers & Harriettes (H5) of Korea is proud to offer itself as host of Pan Asia Hash 2017. The fact that there has never been any large scale hashing event in Korea means that, for most of the prospective participants, this Pan Asia will be a very refreshing hashing experience indeed.

We specifically chose Sokcho City as the event venue: on the fringe of this city is the world-renowned Seorak Mountain National Park which, for many Korean soap opera aficionados, has often been the surreal backdrop. The proposed dates are similarly selected, for late October ushers in the most spectacular autumnal colours, best highlighted by the rainbow hues of the maples.

Participants will get to savour the K-food phenomenon that has been taking the gastronomic world literally by storm. Be enamored by the extensive spread of Korean delights - the quintessential Ginseng Chicken Soup; the omnipresent mouth-watering beef, lamb, and pork barbecues; the huge varieties of fresh – and often live - seafood eaten either raw/sashimi-style, or prepared in dozens of off-secret recipes unbeknownst to other parts of the world. All these, and more, washed down with world famous brands of beers, or with the uniquely Korean soju and makgoeli.

The time is ripe for a refreshing change of scenery, of style, of food and beverage, and of a completely new hashing experience. We are a new troupe of organizers, backed by the provincial government, and supported by experience from the Motherland of hashing.

Give your affirmation for a refreshing change!

KOREA - THE VENUE OF CHOICE

- ACCESSIBLE – round trip as low as USD200-250 from most SE Asian cities
- AFFORDABLE – conveniently located rooms could be had for as little as USD35-40
- ASTHETIC – be enchanted by autumn at its full fall colours
- VIRGINAL – hash in assuredly hitherto never-before-hashed territory
- GOVERNMENT-BACKED – the provincial government is enthusiastically supportive
- GASTRONOMIC – pamper your sensory glands with inimitable K-flavours
- INTOXICATING – infuse yourself with the full range of uniquely Korean beverages
- COMFORTABLE – experience hashing in low-humidity at temperatures in the mid-teens
- ENTERTAINING - revel in live K-pop performances and cultural shows
- PERFECTION – enjoy the Koreans' relentless strive for perfection!

DELI HASH MEDAN FOR INTERHASH 2018 IN MEDAN!

VOTE US!

FOR 2018

We have been hashing in Medan since 1973, over 40 years. We have hosted the Pan Indonesia and Pan Asia Hash events. There are more than 10 active hash chapters in Medan.

We have the experience, the manpower and the enthusiasm to host Interhash in 2018.

While we may be able to host the event, why should you want to come to Medan?

The countryside around Medan will enable us to give you outstanding hash trails. From flatter running in palm oil and rubber plantations and lowland forests, to hillier running in the foothills and peaks of the Bukit Barisan mountain range. Numerous clean rivers and streams mean that there will be ample opportunity for cooling off during your run and the generally wooded areas will provide shade while you are running.

No hash event is complete without beer, and we have Indonesian beers which are as good as any in the world. Anker, Bintang and Bali Hai are the beers that the various hash chapters drink but international brands such as Heineken and Carlsberg are readily available.

Medan is known as the "food capital" of Indonesia. It rivals Penang in Malaysia in that area. Indonesia, Indian, Chinese, Thai, etc., etc. You name it and you will be able to get it in Medan. If you're a steak or fish and chips man don't worry, they are also on the menu in Medan.

Interhash means party, party, party! But you do have to sleep sometime. When you do you can do that in accommodation to suit your budget, from 5 star International Hotels down to simply but clean budget hotels. Medan has them all and at prices that will leave you with more than enough rupiah to party, party, party!

All good things must come to an end but when Interhash is over there will still be plenty to do and see using Medan as your starting point. Lake Toba is a five hour drive from Medan and this huge volcanic lake is Sumatra's tourist jewel. At an elevation of 900 metres the climate is pleasantly warm and the lake itself rivals the beauty of the Swiss alpine lakes.

The Leuser National park is the largest area of virgin rain forest in Asia and a two hour drive from Medan will take you to Bukit Lawang, a tourist resort on the edge of the forest. Here you can trek in the jungle and more often than not see the Orang Utan which have been released back into the wild in this area. Go a little further north to Tangkahan and you can do your trekking on the back of an elephant.

Further afield Pulau Weh off the North Coast of Aceh is a divers paradise and Bukit Tinggi and Padang in West Sumatra are both popular tourist destinations.

Kuala Namu is Medan's new international airport. There are direct flights to Bangkok, Jakarta, Kuala Lumpur and Singapore, all international hub airports. Both major carriers and budget airlines fly into Kuala Namu. A dedicated rail link will get you into Medan in 40 minutes. Buses and taxis take about an hour at present but the toll road scheduled for completion in 2017 will cut the journey time to 30 minutes.

So vote for Interhash 2018 Medan, the home to the best hashing country in the world. There will be hilly runs, flat runs, runs across rivers, and runs through the jungle. We will give you ball breaker runs, easy runs, in fact whatever type of run you want, we will have it!!

And of course we will have beer, beer and more beer and it will be party, party, party then more party!

Luang Prabang Half Marathon

23 October

Registration is now open for the 4th annual Luang Prabang Half Marathon on October 23rd, 2016. This unique, charity-focused race features a scenic loop course which participants can enter as a 7km, 14km, or 21km (half marathon) race through the town's historic UNESCO heritage area, passing golden temples while winding along the Mekong river. Early-bird registration is available through GoToRace until the 31st of May, with discounts of up to 20% on entry fees:

<http://www.gotorace.com/event/luang-prabang-half-marathon-2016/>

The race was originally conceived with the local community in mind – as runners, spectators, volunteers, and most importantly, beneficiaries of the race. In 2013, the first ever Luang Prabang Half Marathon—nicknamed “La Procession” after the procession of monks to receive alms at dawn each morning—helped generate more than USD $125,000 for non-profit Friends-International to open a new vocational training restaurant in Luang Prabang. The following two years of the race helped raise an additional $140,000 for three different local charities focusing on children’s causes.

In its 4th year, management of the race has been transferred to the Lao Friends Hospital for Children, one of the previous charity beneficiaries. Funds from the race in 2014 and 2015 helped sponsor construction costs and nearly a year's worth of medications and staffing for the hospital's pharmacy

Working with regional sports event management companies on course logistics and timing, the hospital will receive all revenue generated from this year's race, helping them continue to provide free pediatric medical care to children in Luang Prabang and surrounding areas. "After serving on the half marathon committee the past two years, we are excited to take on the event and help raise funding and awareness for our work in Laos" said the hospital's Deputy Director, Jennifer Brown. "We are collaborating with the same event partners as previous years to ensure the 'local flavor' of the race remains while refining some of the logistics. We have reduced entry fees to less than half the cost of last year and will refund the entry fee for any runner than independently raises USD $250 for the hospital through our Crowdfunding site."

With increased international flight access to Luang Prabang, the organizers are hoping that 2016's race will host 1,000 runners, approximately a 50/50 split of local and international participants. Race information and regular updates can be found by liking the Facebook page: facebook.com/luangprabanghalfmarathon. Detailed event info is on the website, luangprabanghalfmarathon.com

WEAPONS OF MASS DISTRACTION

MARKS & Spencer's bras are sparking terror alerts at airports as the underwiring keeps setting off security scanners.

A special metal which the high street giant's rivals do not use is said to be causing the panic. The chain, which sells 23 million bras a year, is trying to fix the problem.

But trippers who faced awkward searches after triggering alarms are warning others to avoid them when travelling.

One moaned: "You just want to get on with your journey." And women on Twitter and Facebook are warning fellow tourists they face a frisking if they wear the bras.

Ann Marchant, 46, got a "right old search" at Manchester airport before flying to La Palma in the Canary Islands after the scanner went off.

The IT worker, from Wrexham, said: "The security worker leaned over and whispered, 'M&S?'"

"I must have had a really confused look as I didn't know what she meant. "Then she said, 'No, the bra, it's always M&S bras that set it off.'"

Ann, who said she gets nervous at airports anyway, only had the store's bras with her so she got the same treatment coming back. She decided to tweet M&S to find out the problem, and they replied: "We're not sure, but we're on a mission to get this fixed!"

Detectors are designed to pick up large metal objects such as knives but ignore smaller items.

M&S, which sells 23 million bras a year, said: "There's 26 different components that go into creating the bras, including the metal underwire.

It's uplifting to hear that scanners are detecting this."

NOOSA HASH - BLI BLI BY THE RIVER RUN
Apr 4 2016 Run No. 1887 Hares: Kondom & Wet Check

The sky looked ominous.

As 6 o'clock as we approached Bli Bli the clouds got darker and the rain heavier. We turned off at Mullers Park as the rain just got heavier.

As we crawled along, not being able to see anything we eventually spotted some tail lights in the park - aah, that must be the on on.

Well, it had been raining on and off earlier in the day with some quite heavy downpours, so the hexperts (that's Hash experts) were predicting a possible washed out run. Lecherous was quick to point out that chalk plonking was not the best for setting trail in the wet....

Eventually we find the start. And the rain just got heavier and heavier. as out we get and head off down the track into the rain.

Rumours were rife that Sticky Fingers had turned up but left b4 the run with the parting comment, 'too cold to run'

69er seemed to quite pleased with himself. I suppose you would be, being a member of the 'ARSE'...and on a serious run after Hinterland Homie's Hash. I luv you guys, nothing personal Homie's.

Maneater was dreading the Run with the pissability of rain

Damn shame the obstacle course at the start was ignored by the hashers....The Hashers (runners) took off so fast they caused the path to buckle....

The run started with promise, with calming reflections across the river from the Bli Bli town centre...as Hashers, at a blistering pace, flashed past the shopping centre... Pusher was pushing the pace along...Walkers chatting along....somewhere in 'La La Land'.... Well we had been travelling along the same road for quite a while, and came across the Yandina sign.....Must be going to be a long run?

When we hit the Bli Bli forest down came the rain. We were seriously getting drenched along this most treacherous part of the trail.

Wetcheck was trying to provide verbal direction. but I think panic was setting in, as hashers fled in all directions to get back to the On-In.

Some of us found the drink stop, so in the pouring rain we stood there pretending to enjoy ourselves until we realized the rest of the pack had lost trail so we headed down a dark forbidding trail which eventually led us back to the bridge. Was there a sign of things to come?

Over the bridge, along the path to salvation, lit up in the distance On arrival it was a sight to behold...NAFA laying prone and absolutely knackered.

Fears were mulling around in the onlooker's heads, of possibly having to administer mouth to mouth...

Visitors on board....Sir MaliBog explained that at Stockholm Hash, they Knight or Dame their brother or sister hoods on reaching 70, and introduced the lovely Pink Pony his daughter.

Whilst, MaliBog, the brother, from Sunshine Coast H3, was happy to have a 'double play', then a 'side pocket', and get away with it, without permission from the RA for sex in the circle.

Meanwhile, Pooj the RA, was keen to charge Kondom for poor cartography skills, in that it was his fault that the map got wet....

Woof Woof finally comes clean with 'Breathless' 100 run mug...congrats!.

Well done Breathless for hosting the Circle for the evening too....drink it down!

Well done Kondom & Wet Check for a great run in trying conditions....when it rains in Queensland,,, it rains.

So it's goodnight from Bli Bli, and it's goodnight from me....

HASH RELATED NEWS FROM AROUND THE GLOBE

The Times of Israel reports that Rabbi Chaim Kanievsky, a widely respected authority on what is and isn't kosher for Orthodox Jews to consume at various times, ruled that it's okay to ingest marijuana during this happy spring holiday, either by smoking or eating it. He gave this ruling in response to a query from pro-weed group Siach that apparently involved bringing him some marijuana to smell.

The Times of Israel explains that weed is normally considered kitniot, a group of foods like legumes and pulses that have been banned by Ashkenazi authorities since the 1200s because they were sometimes mixed with wheat. (Leavened flour products being a no no on this holiday.) However, being a leaf, there's nothing technically un-kosher about the plant, besides maybe its ability to make you less neurotic.

Chaim Kanievsky the distinguished Rabbi took a good look at the stuff, then leaned in for a whiff of those dank buds. "After smelling the leaves of a cannabis plant," the Times notes, "Rabbi Kanievsky and Rabbi Yitzchak Zilberstein, another leading Orthodox authority, decided that the plant had a "healing smell" and made the blessing for fragrant leaves." Mazel tov!

Of course, there's also the question of whether observant Jews are even allowed to do recreational drugs, which makes me wonder if anyone told the rabbi what weed is used for. (Some rabbis say that medical marijuana, at least, is okay.) But for all you Abbis and Illanas out there who like to choose which rules to follow and which to blatantly ignore, this news should come as a blessing.

A woman goes to the doctor, and says, "Doctor, I've got a bit of a problem. I'll have to take my clothes off to show you."

The doctor tells her to go behind the screen and disrobe.

She does so, and the doctor goes round to see her when she is ready.

"Well, what is it?" he asks.

"It's a bit embarrassing," she replies, "These two green circles have appeared on the inside of my thighs."

The doctor examines her and finally admits he has no idea what the cause is.

Then he suddenly asks,

"Have you been having an affair with a gypsy lately?"

The woman blushes and says, "Well, actually I have."

"That's the problem," the doctor says,

"Tell him his earrings aren't made of gold!!!"

Cops burn mountain of weed, get entire supermarket full of shoppers high

On Friday, everyone in the parking lot of the Turangi, New Zealand, supermarket New World got a free contact high thanks to the police. That's pretty convenient since they were all food shopping anyway. Now they can just go home, eat snacks, and take a nap.

Concerned citizen Adam Green caught video of the cops burning the confiscated weed stash and seemed to be getting high himself as he filmed the pot bonfire. Don't believe me? Listen to his giggling commentary. "Man, does it smell like the old ganja over there," said Green, while narrating the video. "Here comes a good cloud wafting past now. I might just stand here for a moment."

Yeah, like you're not already baked, dude.

According to Metro, police apologized for getting the whole neighborhood stoned, which is ironic given that this is probably the one time no apology from the cops was necessary.

"Unfortunately... given the conditions [and] the wind I understand the smoke did drift further than anticipated," said Taupo Area Commander Warwick Morehu. "I apologize on my staff's behalf to the community, and we have already taken measures to change our practice and procedures going forward into the future."

We can't help being reminded of that time a BBC News reporter got completely blasted while broadcasting in front of a mound of burning drugs

An Aussie walks into a pub and takes a seat next to a very attractive woman. He gives her a quick glance then casually looks at his watch for a moment.

Woman notices this and asks, 'Is your date running late?'

'No', he replies, 'I just got this state-of-the-art watch, and I was just testing it.'

The intrigued woman says, 'a state-of-the-art watch?'

What's so special about it?'

The Aussie explains, 'It uses alpha waves to talk to me telepathically.'

The lady says, 'What's it telling you now?'

Well, it says you're not wearing any panties.'

The woman giggles and replies 'Well it must be broken because I am wearing panties!'

The Aussie smiles, taps his watch and says,

'Bloody thing's an hour fast!'

SCH3 Run No. 1877 11th. April 2016 Hare: Darkie Venue Sunjewel Blvd./Snowdrop Ave. Currimundi.

Run directions say corner of Sunjewel Boulevard and Snowdrop Avenue. Look at map and note that this is on the edge of Sunjewel Environmental Park and is surrounded by streets with names like "Snapdragon", "Mimosa", "Acorn" and "Basil".

This conjures up visions of sweet smelling flowers, tinkling streams and pleasant, green vistas---should be pleasant you think. Well, think again!! This is Hash and the Hare is Darkie! For reasons known only to himself (well, Lawyers do have a different mindset from the rest of us) the Dark One had chosen to set his run from a site which promised much but delivered little.

Instead of a clear, tinkling stream we got a stagnant, evil-smelling swamp masquerading as an Environmental Park. The sweet smelling flowers were overpowered by the stench of a sewerage pump outlet and the enticing aroma of unemptied Council rubbish bins containing what smelled like the entire neighbourhood's left over Easter prawns.

The pleasant, green vistas turned out to be the streets of Currimundi. 31 Hashers assembled at the On On to be told that the run was on the usual paper and flour and were given strict instructions to turn left at the tree with 2 pieces of toilet paper on it or risk being shot by a disgruntled landlord. Oh, and there is NO piss stop. On this happy note the runners went one way and the walkers another. Since I was amongst the walkers I don't know where the runners went but it doesn't seem to have been far since we all arrived back at around the same time i.e. early.

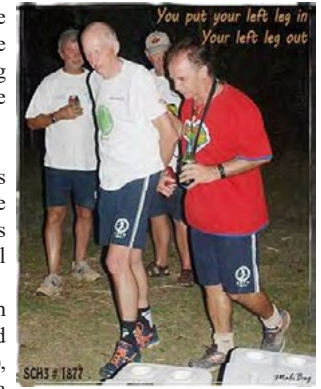

Despite the fact that the Hash BBQ was set up right next to the sewerage pump station the hungry Hashers were eagerly anticipating the usual "Darkie Burgers".

Foiled again!!

Not Darkie Burgers but what the Hare losely described as "International Cuisine" i.e. "Sausages from England (???)", bread from Germany (Aldi), Kimchi from Korea and onions from Australia".

In other words, sausages and bread with no salad or beetroot (I told you Lawyers think differently).

A circle was duly called and was a much more orderly and well-run affair than of late since R.A. Kermit was back to take charge. Down downs for : New runner Tom who arrived with Pink Pony.

The 2 Malibogs and Pink Pony for running with Noosa Pooftahs. (What's going on with these 3, first Sydney Mardi Gras and now Noosa). 50% of Hash for not turning up to last week's run because it was raining. Pink Pony and Sir Malibog as departing Hashers.

Probably more but I can't remember except Eric for something which meant that he was joined by several more under the "One MaliBog Drinks, All Davids MaliBogs" rule.

Raffle was won by someone and also by Biggys; only the Hash Cash knows why there were two winners for this week.

Announcement : All Queensland Hashes now being monitored by Parks and Wildlife.

ST GEORGINA AND THE FLAGON

Stockholm Hashers present their annual 'St George's Day Run'

When: 23rd April, 2016-Where: Kohinoor Indian Restaurant Solna: Hare: Limp

Hello all you Hash lovers, please find a short summary of the St George's Day and the 400 Anniversary of Will Shakespeare's Death

Note: In addition to the above mentioned celebrations Sir Malibog introduced two more, notably, "The Order of the Garter" and "Roy Orbison's" Birthday.

We assembled outside the Restaurant where Limp had already chalked on the pavement the various marks for today's trail. She had written a new one for us "SQ" which meant of course "Shakespeare Quote". The idea was that when we reached this mark we were expected to recite one of the Bards famous quotes.

Some shouts were heard - hash car! Anybody have a hash car? Just then Bad Pitt arrived but alas no hash car today. Suddenly someone espied Silly Con Feet in his car. But he drove straight passed the Restaurant assuming he could not park outside. Luckily we had Malteaser with us who "gave chase" and brought him back to the venue.

Now we were off! Running through the streets of Solna. On our left was previously the former Råsunda Football Stadium now just a building site. We dashed passed Stråket which is the centre of Råsunda. We continued along Lövgatan and past by the now deceased musician "Robban Brobergs" former home.

Us walkers then crossed Grängsgatan entering the neighbour town of Sundbyberg. We saw on our right the runners milling about near Näckrosen - Filmstaden off trail! We managed to attract their attention and put them right!

At this point I don't know where the runners ran but us walkers continued along Vackra Vägen and down towards Lötsjön. We had the sjön on our right and passed Sundbybergs Idrottsplats heading towards Duvbo. At the end of the lake we found the "SQ" mark. We thought we would wait for the runners but as they were nowhere to be seen we decided to start with our Shakesperian quotes. Sir Malibog who had done his homework started with "My Beer, My Beer, My Kingdom for a Beer". From Richard III

This was followed by "Friends Hashers and Noblemen, Lend me your Beers, I come to drink with Caesar not to scorn him". From Julius Caesar Ending with "Once more unto the shiggy my friends, once more" from Henry V.

At this point Limp became a little agitated wondering where the runners were. So she dashed off in reverse to try and find them. In the meantime, us walkers continued around Lötsjön carefully bypassing all the excrement deposited by the numerous Canadian Geese which now inhabit the area. We eventually came to the end of Lötsjön and there we found the "DN" mark which helped increase our happiness. We crossed over Sjövägen which separates the two sjöns and entered the area of Råstasjön. On the other side of the lake we could see Friends Arena and a glimpse of Mall of Scandinavia.

By the edge of the lake we found the "DS" so it was just to be patient and wait for the runners. They arrived fairly soon whereupon we could all enjoy some different liquors and crisps provided generously by Limp. Then it was straight back to the On Inn and circle.

The circle was had on a slight hill which belongs to Charlottenbergsparken and former Gård.

It was a great gathering with most Hashers dressed up as a St George Knight or Noble - or an English flag painted on a cheek - or something out of a Shakespeare Play. I believe I even saw Roy Orbison in the circle. Sir Malibog started doing the honours by first giving our Hare Limp a well deserved DD for an excellent trail etc. Sir Malibog sang Pretty Woman as Limp's DD song and she startled all by saying 'Who's Roy Orbison!!' Goodness every child above the age of 12 knows, but apparently not everyone.

More DD's were administered till finally 2SC took over. Limp had provided some excellent English beers in lieu of our "Patron Saint" and very tasty they were! Finally the circle was closed after announcements and we retired to the Kohinoor Restaurant for some spicy Vindaloo, Madras chicken, Lamb curry to be washed down with the drink of your choice. A great day was had by all. Many thanks to Limp for all her excellent endeavours.

Here is a list of the participants in random order: Rambling Rod, Bad Pitt, Sprintosaurus, Hot Stuff, Nordic Semen, Laid Bird, Concrete Erection, Sir Clever Dick, Eii saa peittä, Fluffer, Four Pack, 2SC, Fresh Meat, Malteaser, Stripteaser, Sir Malibog, Red Horse, Silly Con Feet, Bambi & children, Pippilongcocking. And of course our Hare Limp and a visitor she introduced a Mr. Parkar from India.....OnOn Clever Dick
