Editor's Notes

The hills are alive with the sound of hashers
The call of On On, is it far, is it near?
My heart fills with joy when I find some paper
We'll find our way home, then we'll drink our beer!

Can our modern day Von trapped hashers escape the watchful eyes of the Schaffhausen guards and their invincible Commandant Ludwig VonMoosediver? Will they make it out of the castle or be locked in the dungeon? Will they drown in the Rhine river or drink all the bubbles? Read all about it in this feature where our cover girl nearly went over the edge. So pack your Swiss Army knife and tap your Swiss bank account. It's time to party!

Sin City will be awash in red when a sea of virgin transvestites invades the famed Las Vegas Strip. How many will wake up on Monday morning to witness a weekend showgirl shaving her three-day beard? What happens in Vegas stays in Vegas, and at $69 how can it go anything but right?

Pan Africa Hash heads to Lagos, Nigeria next, but wait, there's more. The 4th National Nigerian Nash Hash takes place next month in Warri. If you haven't hashed with the Warri Hash House Harriers now is your chance to move and groove to their happy hip-hop beat.

Mekong Indochina Hash sold out in 12 days, but don't say we didn't warn you. There's a new twist to runs thru the ruins this time. The revitalized Thinking Drinking Hash will emerge from the ashes. Who are these people and where did they come from? Read all about how the TDH3 began and why the rash reports of its demise may be premature.

On the Ice offers unique insights on the finer points of imbibing. Have a drink before trying any of the advice given herein. Ajarn Kee Mau is not a medical doctor so take what he says with a grain of salt, or more if it lines your margarita glass.

A plethora of HHH events will be coming to a hash near you in the coming months. Our Running & Racing Calendar is the best compilation of these in the Asia Pacific region.

I hope to see you on trail soon.

Sailors & Sea Wenches

by Moose Diver
some photos by Nuredin Avdyli

CONTENTS

This year on the weekend of July the 29th a very select group of lucky hashers will get to spend a whole weekend in a castle situated high above Europe's largest waterfall, and as it's also the Swiss National Holiday on Aug 1st there will be fireworks in every sense of the word.

The castle is quite new, being first established in the year 858 A.D., and it's still called Schloss Laufen after the original residents, the family of the Barons of Laufen, and it's a perfect place for hashers because the German word Laufen means running. It's rumored that the next family was the von Beer family, but some suggest it was actually the von Wine family, but more likely given its location it was the von Bubbly family. In any case we will celebrate all of these family's liquid histories, and who knows, maybe some new families might get started over this weekend.

The Rheinfall waterfall was formed 17,000 years ago around the same time that hashing got started in Kuala Lumpur, being 150 meters wide and 23 meters high, with 700,000 liters of water cascading over the rocks every second. To put that in perspective, it's about the same volume as the liters of beer we will drink over the SNH weekend. It's Switzerland's number one destination for day trips and very popular with romantic couples, so expect to feel intoxicated by the atmosphere and also the famous Schaffhausen H3 beermeisters topping up your drinking vessels with your favorite tipple.

Don't worry, you won't be stuck in a castle all weekend unless you get chained up in the Dungeon by one of the Wenches, which is always a possibility, assuming of course that you have survived the Friday night ramble in the woods and hills around the castle where we may stumble across a large variety of drinking options and a few surprises along the way.

On Saturday you will be joining the Sailors after the trails on a cruise to the circle locations on the banks of the Rhine. After the enjoyable circle, where your chances of being down downed by one of our many experienced RAs is quite high, there will be some relaxing time back at the castle before the Sailors and Wenches party gets started. For your planning we know what time the party will start, but no idea when it will finish.

On Sunday there will be a gentle hangover trail and a closing circle at 2pm, however, if you don't need to rush off it's worth staying over on Sunday night to party with about 25,000 visitors to the Waterfall to watch the spectacular fireworks over the Rheinflall, where the drinking of Bubbly is highly recommended. It's an amazing spectacle and worth staying around another night to experience. The fireworks last for over an hour and the Swiss sure know how to do things in a spectacular way.

For early arrivals on Thursday the 28th there will be a special excursion from Schaffhausen train station to nearby Zurich to join the legendary Thursday ZH3 which has one of the biggest regular pack sizes in Europe and is always a lot of fun. We will naturally have a party on the train coming back, and the plan is to do a late night pub and club crawl to Schaffhausen's hidden secret places, discovered and frequented by SH3 over the last 10 years.

Also it's a good idea to bring your passport on trail because as Schaffhausen is located on the German border it's possible and likely that you may end up in Germany. You may even get the chance to visit the only German enclave in Switzerland. That's right, a little piece of Germany located inside Switzerland.

While you are in the area and if you have some time, there are many great places to visit and see, like the flower Island of Mainau on the Lake of Constance, all year skiing on the Zugspitze, Day trip cruises to Germany and Austria or the Constance 20 breweries in a Day tour. Staying in Switzerland is also a good option with the Glacier express taking you up the Swiss Alps, visit Bern or Geneva or simply hang out in Zurich and wander around the interesting streets and maybe take a Day cruise on Lake Zurich.

Schaffhausen H3 - Hosts of SNH 2016

Schaffhausen H3 was founded in September 2006 by Moose Diver and Serbian Bomber. SH3 is a daughter hash to Munich H3, with a lot of encouragement from Lickmm who has been a regular visitor over the years. The first SH3 hashes were held on Thursday nights and were regularly frequented by Zurich H3 and BITCH H3 hashers as well as visitors from Basel and Bern hashes, and from the nearest German neighbors Stuttgart H3 and DST H3 Stuttgart.

Serbian Bomber moved to Hong Kong in 2007 shortly after the SH3 Inaugural Hash, which was invaded by Higgins and company from Brussels, as well as many other legendary hashers. This gave SH3 an appetite for organizing hash events and the following events were organized by SH3: Swiss Nash Hash 2008, German Nash Hash 2010, Interscandic H3 2015, Sri Lanka IH Bali prelude in 2016 and this year we are once again hosting the Swiss Nash Hash.

Original GM Moose Diver was succeeded by the legendary Swans who is now GM of Frankfurt H3, the lovely Easily Satisfied who now hashes in Shanghai, and the current GM Eye of the Tiger who is the hash master for the SNH 2016.

There are some rumors that SH3 may do a joint Euro hash 2017 prelude with the famous B.J. in Sandhofen, Germany, which may feature the hiring of a hash airplane to fly the hashers to Vienna. It's just a rumor, however, what is certain is the Schaffhausen H3 will once again host a party bar in Holland for the Neptunus special anniversary weekend in April 2017.

Hashing in Nigeria

Last month at Interhash in Bali, Harrier Magazine's African correspondent Julia Stanton (aka Head Mistress) met up with hashers from Nigeria to find out more about hashing in Nigeria and more about this year's Nash Hash and next year's Pan Africa event. Thank you Slippery Comer for putting the information together.

Pan Africa Hash – May 26th – 28th May 2017

With a population of around 175 million, Nigeria is the most populous country in Africa and also home to 14 hash chapters. The Pan Africa Hash, next May 26 -28th, 2017 will take place in Lagos, the coastal, business capital of Nigeria which has the 6th largest African economy and one of the highest standards of living in Nigeria and in Africa.

Current RA of Lagos Hash, Slippery Comer, told me the following: "Hashers in Nigeria have come of age and we feel we are now

4th National Nigerian Nash Hash – Warri, 19 – 21st August 2016

Run, Beer, Adventure, Fun, Music, Dancing... The best mix hashing can offer you!

“This year, the 4th (National) Nash Hash will take place in Warri a city with two very active Hash Chapters. Warri is a city in the oil rich, southern delta area of Nigeria. Warri hashers enjoy wet, shiggy, bushy runs and drink the most beer of any chapter in Nigeria !

Hashing was introduced to Warri on the 31st January 1988. Since then we have enjoyed a steady increase in numbers up to the present group of about 140 active participants of all ages and sexes. We regularly have about 70 runners on a hash, which is quite a good turnout.

THE WARRI HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

Since 1988 when the Warri Hash House Harriers began, they have been known for a number of spectacular deeds and adventurous dares. The first thing to take note of is the WH3 logo. “The Crocodile” hence the tag name which we have gotten accustomed to and frequently called “The Crocodile Hashers. Also the Warri terrain of vast bushes, swampy land mass, several streams and rivers gives us multiple hashing spots where we continually push ourselves to the limits of enjoyment and adventure.

The Warri Hash House Harriers is a very social group with no ethnic or race barriers, 90% of active Hashers are predominantly youths. We run every Sunday afternoon at about 1:30pm, running and walking trails in bush, swamp, plantations and street run, in the beautiful island of Warri city. When you join the WH3, for the first time you might be alarmed and even shocked and swear never to come back but when you reminisce on what you have dared, the mouth gaping excitement, that moment your heart almost leaped out of your chest and the cheers and encouragement from everyone around you... You are sure to come back again and again and again, soon you find yourself cheering up the next newbie in the midst.

The hash is a drinking club with a running problem and the WarriH3 sure embodies this statement of fact and after the hash every Sunday, we must proceed to a pub/beer parlour where more drinking and dancing continues late into the night. One other notably thing also is how well the tradition and culture of the region rubs off on the WH3 hashers and this quite unique especially in the use of language-dialects, slangs and stylish tone of speaking pidgin English.

With over 70 frequent hashers bashing every sunday, the fun keeps growing and taking new turns and angles. If you love music, be sure Warri is the right place where you can enjoy all genres of music both local, Nigerian hip hop, Afro beat and class acts and performance.

Join us soon and experience the best of hashing in Nigeria and don't forget to bring your dancing shoes along. The Nash Hash Entertainment committee has ensured that there is a lot of activities planned to ensure that visiting hashers are kept busy and they have promised to surprise us all. Just get yourself ready to be entertained!

You might be lucky to find a baby crocodile to take back home as a pet.

We have had a lot of support from people volunteering to help setting up what promises to be a momentous event.

The program is slowly shaping up including the TDH3 having their run on Friday and the Full Moon Hash on Monday. The band has been signed up for the gala dinner on Saturday (no, it is not Taylor Swift, I am afraid) and the party starts in 145 days, 22 hours, 38 minutes and about 412 Angkor Beers.

Heads to Siem Reap!

Announcement:

Just when you thought the TDH3 had quaffed its last beer . . .

There is time for one more shigg-a-tastic event!

4 Nov 2016 in Siem Reap, Cambodia. The run will be a mid-morning prelube run prior to the start of the Mekong Indochina Hash that evening. Details will be announced by August for registration. Watch for them at <http://tdh3.gotothefash.net/> Be prepared for the official TDH3 T Shirt ceremony after the run – ladies – choose your undergarments carefully!

So how did it all begin?

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

by Tinker

Back in the good old days, before AIDS, and while the Harriettes still had natural hair color, on occasion we used to go to Hua Hin during the Queen's Birthday Holiday. This was three days more or less around the twelfth of August. Every year we'd get a group of about 30 - 40 pulled together from "The" Bangkok Monday Hash and the Wednesday Harriettes, sometimes augmented by members from the now-defunct Bangkok Hash House Horrors. We'd usually take the train, as the highway ride was a long, hot, and sometimes dangerous trip. We may have called it an outstation run, although I'm not sure that either the Monday or Wednesday Hashes listed it as an official outstation. Clannish as ever, the BH3 stuck to Bangkok on Saturdays and thought they were having a good time.

While we had good connections with Pak, she'd talk her granny into letting us borrow her huge Victorian-era gingerbread beach house. Then she married Big Dick and may have decided that family came before hash. Whatever, we lost beach house privileges. But in a happy moment, Thitiya remembered that the Bangkok nurses had a large bungalow (two buildings actually) near Hua Hin, and with their permission, we transferred the Hash HQ there the next year.

On occasion, a gentlemen or two from the all-male Hong Kong South Side Hash would also join us. (In an act of British defiance before the sun set on Hong Kong in 1997, they renamed it the “Royal South Side Hash”, but that’s another story.) The South Side Hash and the Harriettes had somehow become brother-sister hashes. We’d fly to Hong Kong for runs on the island, or in Macau, or the New Territories, or even cruise up the Pearl River to Guanzhou (Canton) for a run with the Guanzhou Hash. They’d join us for special runs in Thailand. (It was on the slow boat to China where early one groggy morning Blobbs added the phrase “Mai Chow!!” to the Thai language. But I digress again.)

On the Hua Hin Outstation I’m thinking of, some of the South Side had become such regulars that they were known as the “Toy Boys”. Hymen Hacker was one of them. On the particular night I’m thinking of, Hymen was feeling mellow with satisfaction from a good run, the on-on-on, and plenty of cheap piss (and mighty pleased with himself because he’d also got Blobbs into trouble with the bottle police). He decided to watch the stars on the balcony of the Nurses Bungalow before he wandered off to someone’s bed. I joined him on the balcony.

It was a lovely night. The surf washed gently on the beach, night birds sang their distant songs, jasmine and frangipani scented the tropical air, the breeze was warm and the beer was cold. We talked and watched the moon slowly making it’s silvery way through the silhouetted fronds of the coconut palms. It was a night for drinking beer and making great plans.

“I have ..... a plan,” said Hymen.

CONTENTS

"This is a good time for a plan. It's about 4 in the morning. How about a plan for sleep?"

"No, listen to me. I like this sitting, and thinking, and drinking," Hymen mused to the stars. "It's almost as good as shagging 12-year olds. We should do this more often. Without the running."

"With the shagging?"

"Of course. We usually come to these outstations on the train, right?"

"Uh-huh. On a Friday night..."

"So, next time, we hold a Friday pre-outstation 'run' on the train, T-shirts, beer, circle, On-On-On, everything but the running bit. We book an entire second-class sleeper, so we have it all to ourselves. And it's the 'Bangkok Friday Thinking Drinking Hash'. The only requirement is that you either must be capable of thinking, or drinking. If you can think while you drink, it's a bonus."

"Great idea. You got any more beer?"

That must have been January, 1991. Somehow, the drinking that night didn't wipe out all the thinking. The 20% remaining of the thought was enough for Wichanee and Blobbs to see the genius in the idea, seize the moment, and organize the first TDH3 on the train to Chumporn on March 8th, 1991.

- A REFRESHING HASHING EXPERIENCE

Hanyang Hash House Harriers & Harriettes (H5) of Korea is proud to offer itself as host of Pan Asia Hash 2017. The fact that there has never been any large scale hashing event in Korea means that, for most of the prospective participants, this Pan Asia will be a very refreshing hashing experience indeed.

We specifically chose Sokcho City as the event venue: on the fringe of this city is the world-renowned Seorak Mountain National Park which, for many Korean soap opera aficionados, has often been the surreal backdrop. The proposed dates are similarly selected, for late October ushers in the most spectacular autumnal colours, best highlighted by the rainbow hues of the maples.

Participants will get to savour the K-food phenomenon that has been taking the gastronomic world literally by storm. Be enamored by the extensive spread of Korean delights - the quintessential Ginseng Chicken Soup; the omnipresent mouth-watering beef, lamb, and pork barbecues; the huge varieties of fresh – and often live - seafood eaten either raw/sashimi-style, or prepared in dozens of off-secret recipes unbeknownst to other parts of the world. All these, and more, washed down with world famous brands of beers, or with the uniquely Korean soju and makgoeli.

The time is ripe for a refreshing change of scenery, of style, of food and beverage, and of a completely new hashing experience. We are a new troupe of organizers, backed by the provincial government, and supported by experience from the Motherland of hashing.

Give your affirmation for a refreshing change!

KOREA - THE VENUE OF CHOICE

- ACCESSIBLE – round trip as low as USD200-250 from most SE Asian cities
- AFFORDABLE – conveniently located rooms could be had for as little as USD35-40
- ASTHETIC – be enchanted by autumn at its full fall colours
- VIRGINAL – hash in assuredly hitherto never-before-hashed territory
- GOVERNMENT-BACKED – the provincial government is enthusiastically supportive
- GASTRONOMIC – pamper your sensory glands with inimitable K-flavours
- INTOXICATING – infuse yourself with the full range of uniquely Korean beverages
- COMFORTABLE – experience hashing in low-humidity at temperatures in the mid-teens
- ENTERTAINING – revel in live K-pop performances and cultural shows
- PERFECTION – enjoy the Koreans' relentless strive for perfection!

The Hash Darwin Awards

Old Chaz, the chap on the right, in one of his sober moments, put forward the notion of “survival of the fittest”, a concept that implies that the removal from the gene pool (usually by death) of its weaker members, thereby strengthens the survival chances of the remainder. However, here at OTI, we do not encourage the extermination of the less able, the feeble, or the intellectually challenged. Rather, we encourage them to become hashers! Further, this column aims to be a forum where the moronic misdeeds of hashers might be chronicled in pursuit of that noblest of pastimes, namely, having cheap laughs at other people’s expense. With that in mind, I offer the following:

DOWN DOWN DOWN

Charles Darwin

Well he went down, down, down
And the devil said “Where you been?”
He went down, down, down
He went screamin’ down around the bend
Down, down, down
This boy went solid down, yeah he went down.
-Tom Waits

While I think Tom Waits, who certainly liked a drink – any man who writes a song called “The Piano Has Been Drinking” can’t be all bad – was probably referring to some existential descent into hell in the song lyrics quoted above, the phrase (indeed the command) “Down! Down! Down!” should be familiar to any hasher worth the salt on the rim of his Margarita glass. Indeed while hash traditions, trail markings, and hash etiquette may differ across chapters and kennels, one constant is probably the administering of down-downs (see how the word morphs into a noun here?) in the form of a glass of beer to be chugged, skulled, or got “down your fat neck” as fast as possible as punishment for some sin, real or imagined.

Indeed, the ability to down one’s beer rapidly is badge of honor both in the hashing world and beyond. One Hash club to which I belong (discretion prevents my naming it, since, like Fight Club, one doesn’t talk about this hash populated exclusively by gentlemen) demands the downing, without vomiting, of a large steel vessel filled with approximately 2 large bottles of beer as a membership requirement. Meticulous records are kept and the current record is somewhere around the 12-second mark. This is something I can only envy for, like in running – arguably the only other constant among different hash clubs – some drinkers are built for speed and others for endurance. I fall into the latter category. My own record, which I believe still stands, for downing said steel vessel is a lazy 22 minutes. There are mitigating circumstances, which I won't go into, but you can see I am hardly the Usain Bolt of the drinking world.

This is a little shameful for someone born in Australia, where the former Prime Minister Bob Hawke once held the world record for downing the yard of ale (about 1.4 liters for the moderns) in 11 seconds while an undergraduate at Oxford in 1955. Still, I like to think I can hold my own in the endurance stakes. Slow and steady doesn't always win the race, but it does often leave you around at the end of the evening when nubile visiting harriettes may be in need of company.

Speaking of racing, an action strictly forbidden on most hashes I know, my general slowness in the beer consumption stakes would rule me out for competing in the Beer Mile, and event with which I feel many hashers would have an affinity.

For the uninitiated, the beer mile is a race combining running and speed drinking. Typically, the race takes place on a standard 400 meter running track. It begins with the consumption of a standard (355ml) can of beer, followed by a full lap around the track. The second lap continues in a similar manner; another beer being consumed before commencing the running of the second lap. This process is repeated for the next two laps. Following the completion of the fourth running lap (and four beers), a competitor has finished the race.

There are a few other rules, like low-alcohol beers not being allowed, no shotgunning of the can (look it up if you honestly don't know what it means), and competitors being forced to run an extra lap if they vomit while running, but the concept is pretty straightforward. For a long time, the holy grail was to break the five minute beer mile barrier, which, I have to say, is pretty good going, when you think that for a long time, a five-minute mile (without the beers) was the stuff of high level athletes (the four-minute mile being the psychological barrier).

The first man to break the five-minute barrier was James Neilson in 2014 (4:57.0 seconds) and since then, as is often the way with such obstacles that are as much mental as physical, it has been broken a few more times. Now the troubling thing to me here is that if one checks out the records, meticulously kept at beermile.com, one finds that Mr. Nielson is an American and that his beer of choice for the event was Budweiser. "Shome mishtake, shurely"!

In fact, the two men who now seem to be breaking each other's records for the World's fastest Beer Mile are both Canadian (a step in the right direction) but the current champion Lewis Kent (4:47.0) drinks something called Amsterdam Blonde and his consistent challenger and current Number 2, Corey Gallagher (4:48.0) prefers "Bud Light Platinum". Perhaps more disturbingly from my point of view, the only Australian in the top 10 fastest times is Josh Harris (4:56.2) who at least drinks a real beer in his Coopers 62.

As the hash is a highly international body with a diverse taste in beers, perhaps it is time for a few hashers to stand up and have a crack at these records. (I note that the female record is around the six-minute mark, something for keen harriettes to challenge as well). The aspirants would be those who combine fleetness of foot with openness of gullet. As noted, I fall by the wayside in the latter, and while I used to do OK in the former, my endurance skills in the consumption area seem to be corresponding with a certain heaviness in the legs and a slide of the upper torso towards the "mezzanine level" such that my speed on the trail is not what it was.

Still there must be some intrepid hashers out there willing to give it a go. If you are, please point it out to your respective clubs so they can ensure you get the adequate amount of training in the form of multiple down-downs. And, don't forget, modern sports science is very big on "ice therapy", which is one thing I can assist you with in the form of a cooling seat in the circle if you make it to the Vientiane Bush Hash some time during your training regimen.

On On to the next issue.

Brighton Hasher was staring sadly into his pint and sighed heavily.
"What's up fella?" asked the bartender. It's not like you to be so down in the mouth."
"It's my four year old son..." The Hasher replied.
"Don't tell me, he's in trouble for fighting in school? - my lad's just the same - forget about it; it happens to boys that age" said the bartender, sympathetically.
"I only wish it was that" continued our sad hasher "but it's far worse than that. The little bastard has gotten our gorgeous 18 year old next door neighbour pregnant."
"Get away, that's impossible!" gasped the bartender!
"It's not" said he. "The little bastard stuck a pin in all my condoms."

There's nothing sweeter than hearing a man say those three little words... "You were right."

OH DEAR OH DEAR

Man kills a deer and takes it home to cook for dinner. With he and his wife decide that they won't tell the kids at kind of meat it is, but will give them a clue and let them guess. The kids were eager to know what the meat was on their plates, so they begged their dad for the clue. Well, he said, 'It's what mummy calls me sometimes'. The little girl whispers to her brother, 'Don't eat it.....it's an arsehole!'

---onon---

THE HOSPITAL TOUR

A woman dignitary was being shown around the hospital. During her tour she passed a room where a male patient was masturbating furiously. "Oh my GOD!" screamed the woman. "That's disgraceful! ..... Why is he doing that?" The doctor who was leading the tour calmly explained, "I'm very sorry that you were exposed to that, but this man has a serious condition where his testicles rapidly fill with semen, and if he doesn't do that at least five times a day, he'll be in extreme pain and his testicles could easily rupture." "Oh well... In that case, I guess it's okay" said the woman... As they passed by the very next room, they saw a male patient lying in bed while a nurse performed oral sex on him. Again, the woman screamed, "Oh my GOD! Now tell me how that can be justified?" The doctor spoke very calmly, "Same illness, but he's with BUPA!"

---onon---

A Hasher we all know dialled a number and got the following recording: "I am not available right now, but thank you for caring enough to call. I am making some changes in my life. Please leave a message after the Beep. If I do not return your call, You are one of the changes."

Once upon a time there were two brothers. One brother was very mischievous, always getting into trouble. The other brother however, was very good. He was always kind to animals, helped elderly neighbours, and led an exemplary life.

As time went on, the brothers stayed in touch but were never close. The evil brother became a heavy drinker and a womanizer. The other brother was a devoted husband and father and supported many charities.

One day the evil brother died. Then, after a few years, the good brother passed away. He went to heaven and was rewarded with a happy afterlife. One day he went to God and asked, "Where is my brother? He died before me but I have not seen him here in heaven."

God replied, "As you know, your brother led an evil life, so he is not spending eternity here in heaven. He has been sent elsewhere."

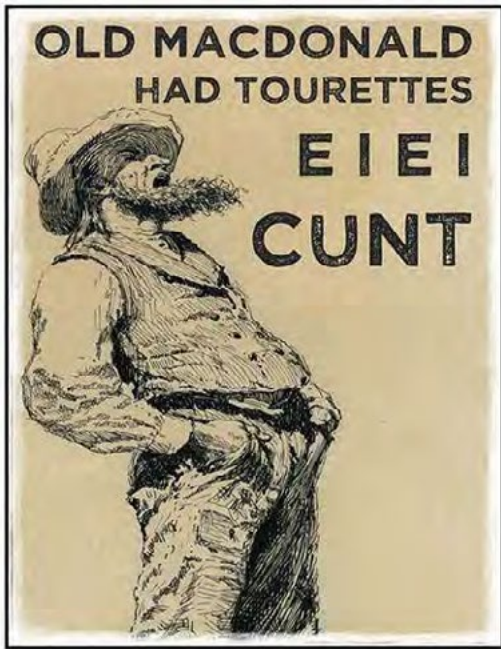

"I'm sorry to hear that," the good brother replied. "But I do miss him and wish I could see him again."

"You can see him if you wish," God said. "I will give you the power to gaze into hell."

So the power was granted and the good brother gazed into hell. Before long he saw his brother sitting on a bench. In one arm he held a keg of beer, and in the other he cradled a gorgeous young blonde.

The good brother turned to God and said, "I can't believe what I'm seeing. I have found my brother, and he has a keg of beer in one arm and a beautiful woman in the other. Surely, hell cannot be that bad."

God sat down and explained. "Things are not always as they seem.....The keg has a hole in it. The blonde doesn't."

some like it hot in flaten

Probably the most celebrated of all actresses, Marilyn Monroe was born Norma Jeane Mortenson on June 1, 1926, in Los Angeles General Hospital. And to celebrate her 90th Birthday Sir Clever Dick & Sir MaliBog laid a beautiful country trail in the Flaten Nature Reserve.

Flatenområdet is a large natural area. The landscape surrounding lake Flaten is varied, with wide outcrops and hollows with herb-rich woodlands and smaller wetlands. The large height differences give the area character and can also be used by climbers. Sir Clever Dick & Sir MaliBog's trail took us around the lake and down towards Drevviken through alternating forest and open and Norma. Gladys, who was extremely attractive and worked for RKO Studios as a filmcutter, suffered from mental illness and was in and out of mental institutions for the rest of her life, and because of that Norma Jeane spent time in foster homes.

From Orhem down to Drevviken and the lake Flaten the trails has been improved, so that they now are accessible to both runners and walkers. There is also a nature trail that tells about the landscape and how it has been shaped by man and the natural conditions through centuries. For years, meadows and pastures that belonged to the older estates including Orhem and Ekudden have been restored. This gives a bright landscapes and increases the diversity of plants and insects. At Ekudden there are many old oak trees to see while running through and on the meadow at Orhem there is Rock-rose and Milkwort in bloom to be seen.

Marylin's mother was a film-cutter at RKO Studios who, widowed and mentally ill, abandoned her to a sequence of foster homes. She was almost smothered to death at two, nearly raped at six. At nine, the LA Orphans' Home paid her a nickel a month for kitchen work while taking back a penny every Sunday for church.

the area also offers good opportunities for swimming, for example, in Flaten beach where the Hares had arranged a beer stop. So some Hashers decided to shed their running clothes, and take a chilly dip.

Parts of the walking path around the lake Flaten is designed as a nature trail so lends itself easily for hashing. It starts from Orhem and extends towards Orhemnsnåset. Along the trail there are lookout points with breathtaking views of the lake. Ekudden at the north end of Lake Flaten, with its old gnarled oak trees, pastures and traces of an old park, was well worth a running through.

When she was nine, Marylin was placed in an orphanage where she was to stay for the next two years. Upon being released from the orphanage, she went to yet another foster home. At sixteen, she worked in an aircraft plant and married a man she called Daddy; he went into the military, she modeled, they divorced in 1946. She owned 200 books (including Tolstoy, Whitman, Milton), listened to Beethoven records, studied acting at the Actors' lab in Hollywood, and took literature courses at UCLA downtown.

Prior to her birth, Marilyn's father bought a motorcycle and headed north to San Francisco, abandoning the family in Los Angeles. Marilyn grew up not knowing for sure who her father really was. Her mother, Gladys, had entered into several relationships, further confusing her daughter as to who it was who fathered her. Afterward, Gladys gave Norma Jeane (Marilyn) the name of Baker, a boyfriend she had before Mortenson. Poverty was a constant companion to Gladys

By this time, Marilyn began to model swimsuits and bleached her hair blonde. And the rest is pure history, there was only one Marilyn and we are somewhat proud to have remembered her on the Stockholm Underground Hash.....OnOn

4th June SAH3 - Muki & The Magic Mushroom Run

Once again we celebrated the 4th of the month this time on The Absolut Hash in Spånga at the Casa Muki plus familia, and as the Hare reminded us, not to be confused with the Stockholm marathon in Stockholm on the same day!

It was a delightful sunny spring day as we all congregated outside to listen to our illustrious hare tell all the lies about the trail, which was a bit different from the last time we were there.

If my memory serves be right this was on the 2nd February 2013 and we were ankle deep in wet slushy snow, cold and damp with a withering wind blowing up your privates.

Having drawn the various marks on the road, which for the most of us seemed like Double Dutch we were ready for the off, but no, late comers arrived, first a family from Peru arrived in their wagon and had to be advised on how to park correctly. Then Clever Dick wanders in and was almost presented with the dreaded late comer award when suddenly a bike arrives in a cloud of dust with an unknown Hasher peddling like mad. Somewhat late our brave Hare finally managed to start everyone heading in two directions, there being both both runners and walkers trails.

Being a member of the walking wounded on account of my botched knee I kept myself with the rest of the walkers and took the station bridge into the shopping centre while the runners delved into some wooded jungle before they also landed close by.

Our trails crossed a couple of times before we eventually reached Lundagårds Park and the first drink stop ahead of the runners. Our mad Dutch Hare had cunningly secreted a rucksack locked to a tree in the undergrowth so we had to wait as we did not realize he had hidden the key in one of the pockets otherwise we would have dug into the drinks long before the runners arrived. Needless to say it was a glorious day so waited atop the hill for the rest of the pack. Having quenched our thirsts we headed over the grass, passed the old railway cutting towards Lunda Park bypassing the Industry district eventually meeting up on the summit of another small peak for the second drink stop. Crossing the long walking railway bridge we came down a steep slope into the allotment area heading passed several picturesque small lakes and playing fields and a hardy climb through the undergrowth to the On Home where abundant beers, wines and good food were to be found, Celebrations continued to late but as the last trains were leaving we said goodbye and thanked our hosts for a memorial Hash.....OnOnMaliBog
