Editor's Notes

We start and end this edition of Harrier Magazine in the capital of Sweden. There is no better time to visit Stockholm than this August when the Stockholm Absolut H3 celebrates 30 years of running, walking and crawling through this scenic city. Regular contributor Sir Malibog unveils the workings of a sick mind in another zany edition of the Stockholm Absolut Hash Trash.

For an exotic adventure of the tropical sort head out to the Indonesian island of Sumatra for the Horas Hash. Lake Toba is the largest and deepest lake in Southeast Asia and the volcanic peaks around the lake offer some of the most spectacular hashing terrain to be found anywhere. Meet the native Batak people who now prefer to greet, rather than eat, their guests.

Africa correspondent Head Mistress reports on the largest gathering of the hash tribes in East Africa-the Naivasha Relay. If you've been looking for a reason to visit the Dark Continent this could be it.

HashSh*t Across America? Many of us have been honored recipients of a Hash Shit award at one time or another. But who has helped bring the HashShit from kennel to kennel from sea to shining sea while raising funds for charity?

HARRIER MAGAZINE
PUBLISHER JIM EDENS

Charity begins at home for the Calgary Hash House Harriers bi-annual Red Dress Run. Break out your best crimson rags and join Canada's oldest kennel in Cow Town.

Howard "Dances with Dogs" Mckay brings forth some intriguing tidbits about legends of the hash movement before they are lost forever. Whatever happened to the original "G" pewter mug that G's son left for safekeeping with John Duncan? This search for the relics of our past continues.

I look forward to seeing you on trail again soon,

Stockholm Absolut H3 30th Anniversary

CONTENTS

by Stockholm Absolute H3

The Stockholm Absolut H3 will be celebrating our 30th anniversary 26-28 August – and we would like you to celebrate with us! The theme is Astrid Lindgren and her world, so expect to hash with Pippi Longstocking and monkeying around with Mr Nelson, or maybe flying with Karlsson-on-the-Roof, or...

We do hope that the weather will not be quite as snowy as on the ski hash – as a matter of fact, we often have nice weather in August and if you offer the RA a beer or two, so maybe...

The celebration starts with a trail crawl in central Stockholm on Friday night. Saturday means various runners' and walkers' trails to choose from, and of course there is a party in the evening! And in case you party a little bit too much... don't worry, we offer a hangover run / walk on Sunday before the final circle. We dare say you will get to see a lot of our beautiful capital and surroundings! And our recommended lodging is a boat in central Stockholm with a view of Old Town...

So what are you waiting for? Check it out! The website for info and entry is <http://www.hash.st/ockholm/sections/2/pages/56> But don't leave it too late... we only have room for 80 hashers!

We hope to see you in Stockholm in late August over a beer or two or three!

The first christian missionaries who tried to bring the word of God to the Batak peoples of North Sumatra did not get a very Christian welcome. They ended up in the cooking pots of their would be converts.

Thankfully times have changed and now Lake Toba is Indonesia's second most popular tourist destination and visitors can be sure that they will get a much nicer welcome than those earlier unfortunate men of God. Not only will they find that the natives are now extremely friendly and the scenery exceptionally spectacular. They will also find themselves able to join one of the best boutique hashing events on the calendar - The Horas Hash.

Locals welcome the Horas Hashers

THE HORAS HASH

HASHING WITH THE CANNIBALS!

The area around Lake Toba is characterised by volcanic peaks and pine forests and is cooler and less humid than the lower areas of North Sumatra. Thus it is an ideal area for hashing. The lake itself is at 900 metres elevation and the volcanic caldera that surround the lake is some 300 metres higher. The lake was formed by a massive volcanic eruption back in the mists of time which resulted in the extinction of the first dinosaurs and the evolution of the a second species of the same - hashers!

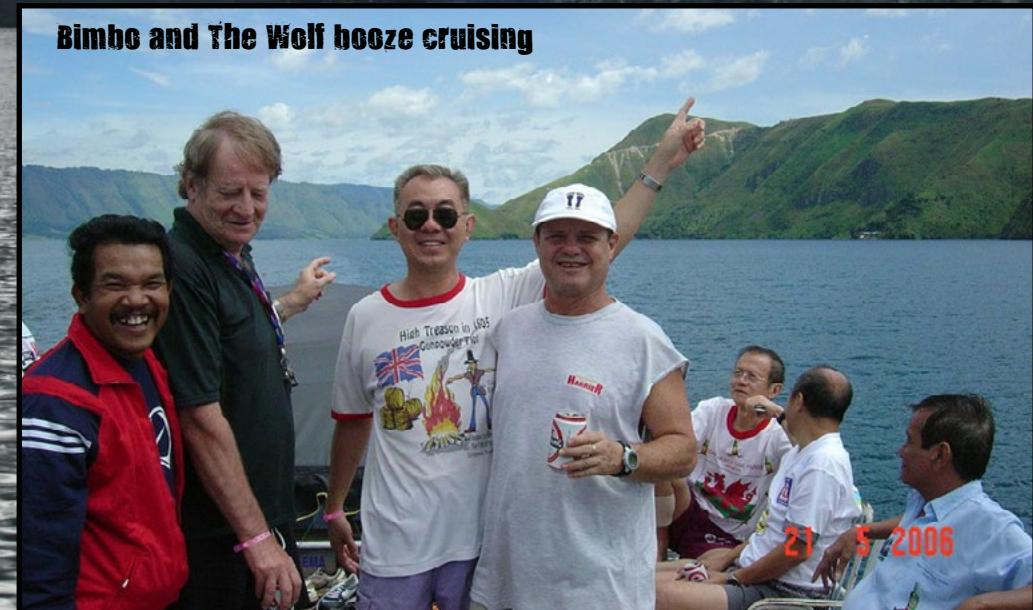

The Horas Hash first ran in 2005 and was specifically set up to give Medan hashers the opportunity to run in and around Lake Toba on a regular basis. Toba had been the location for special runs in the past but it was decided that the area was such a good out of town location that a regular schedule of runs was warranted. Initially runs were on a yearly basis but are they now two yearly.

The founders of the Hash were Rudy "Lagger" Lie and myself Dave "Stainless" Steel. It was Lagger's idea but I was more than willing to give him my full support. We decided that the event would be held over four days, Friday to Monday, and that cruising on Lake Toba would be one off the features of the event.

Stainless
Lagger

Bimbo and The Wolf booze cruising

The Lake is the largest and deepest in South East Asia and the awesome alpine like scenery makes for a memorable experience. But much as hashers appreciate the beauty of their surroundings we were also very aware that the other key hashing ingredients had to be part of the mix.

Hence good trails and ample beer were a must. Traditionally we have had three runs over the weekend. A TGIF opener to allow our finely tuned hashing athletes to acclimatise to the altitude, as the area around the Lake is at over 2000 metres. The main run on the Saturday, which would involve a cruise on the lake, and a “Hare of the dog” run on the Sunday. We also decided that we would maintain the Medan tradition for special events of “free flow beer.” This latter requirement has meant that the Saturday run features a “booze cruise” with all that that may result in. Fortunately we have not to date had any “man overboard” incidents but there is photographic evidence of a serious incident of mass moonings by notable hashing luminaries at one of the early events. No names, no pack drill!

Hash clubs like to have their own logo just like branded goods suppliers and the Horas Hash is no different in that respect. We chose the Gecko as our logo because it plays a part in the local culture. The gecko, is considered to be a lucky reptile by the Batak people, and we thought we could do with all the luck we could get. When you visit North Sumatra keep a look out for the gecko on the carvings around the eaves of houses, both on the inside and outside. You will also see the real thing on walls and ceilings cleaning up the mosquito population - great little fellas!

Before I forget I should explain why we are the HORAS Hash. Horas is the word the Batak people of Lake Toba use to greet each other. It's their hello, howdy, ciao, bonjour, gruss gott, or whatever. Although "Horas" actually means "Lord protect you", I like to think of it as "welcome", because that makes Horas Hash the Welcome Hash, which is exactly what we want it to be. Mind you, we all know that a bit of protection can always be handy when it's needed.

Although the Horas Hash was initially aimed at Medan Hashers we very soon found that other Asian hashers were keen to join in the fun. So much so that visiting hashers now generally outnumber our local hashers. We like to limit the number of hashers to around 200 as that gives everyone the opportunity to meet everyone else and it makes for more interactive "down down" circles.

This year's Horas Hash will be the 8th and will run from the 19th to the 21st of August. The full itinerary can be found on the Horas Hash website but a few of the important aspects are as follows. The opening party on Friday night will be held at the OH5 hash cafe in Permatang Siantar. It will follow the street party format which was so successful at the last Horas Hash in 2014. OH5 are one of the Permatang Siantar Hash chapters and have proved to be outstanding hosts of visiting hashers. We will stay at the Prapat Inn on the shore of Lake Toba on Saturday and Sunday and cruise from there to the run site for the Saturday run. The Sunday "Hare of the dog" run will be pleasant stroll around Prapat itself. Finally, the beer kegs will open on Friday and not close until Monday.

Hashing in Kenya

By Julia Stanton

The Naivasha Relay – 1st October 2016

This month African correspondent, Julia Stanton aka Head Mistress writes about Kenya's biggest yearly hashing event, the Naivasha Relay with the help of Nairobi hasher, Timothy Githugu aka Muguu (photos by Timothy Githugu aka Muguu)

CONTENTS

The annual Naivasha Relay, organised by the Nairobi Hash House Harriers is one of the biggest yearly hash events in Kenya with other hash teams from other countries also joining in and is claimed to be one of the best hashing adventures in East Africa.

It involves teams of 9 runners taking it in turns to run a relay route starting at Dagoretti in Nairobi away from the busy highway and off to a dirt-road track through the Rift Valley escarpment passing through the through the the foot of Mt. Suswa and ending at the gate of Hell's Gate National Park in Naivasha, a trail of approximately 83 kilometres. Each team member is seeded with regards to their running ability or lack of it from seed 1 to 9. Each team member runs a certain distance of the trail at a given time with some running two or more stages of the relay. The trail is very picturesque full of hills some with crater rimmed tops. The relay is an all-day event starting early in the morning and finishing with a circle for victory or losers dances and Downs Downs before a shower at the hotel or campsite before partying all night.

The first Naivasha Relay was run in 1982 which was very successful but too long finishing well after dark. After this all sorts of reccies were done to shorten it both in 4-wheel drives and in an aircraft belonging to an engineering consultancy. The final route devised is very similar to the one run these days.

CONTENTS

The trail is very picturesque, traversing several hills some with crater tops gracefully lining the horizon, but also through flat dusty savannah terrain and , if it rains through tough muddy conditions. In some years, it is possible to go through a chilly early morning weather, blazing mid-day heat, rain in the hills and dusky sunset through the park. Runners have the privilege of running in an environment that know little if any interference and those looking for adventure should make it part of their annual hashing calendars.

This year, the Naivasha Relay will be held on the 1st October. I asked Timothy Githugu aka Muguu from Nairobi Hash House Harriers for more information on the event.

How do the teams work?

Like noted above, 9 people per team, at least 2 must be ladies. Seed 1s run 3 legs totalling about 2km whilst Seed 9s run 1 leg of about 4km, with the rest running 2 legs with distances varying in between 16 and 4.

How does a team register?

Send an email to nhhh3scribe@gmail.com

What about an individual or a few individual who want to join?

If there are not enough people to form a complete team, we can team up individuals with already established teams.

Any details of this year's event yet?

Not yet but the date is Saturday 1st October 2016. Hopefully information will be on the NH3 Facebook page by the beginning of August.

What about regular hashes in Kenya? How many chapters are there, when do they run ?

There are four regular hashes in Kenya, these being Nairobi H3 and Original H3 (both run on Monday evenings), Sunday H3 (runs on Sunday evenings) and the Coast H3 based in Mombassa/Dianii (run on Saturdays).

If you are still not convinced about hashing in Kenya, I will leave you with the words of the legendary African hasher Bwanda who said during Mombasa's bid for Interhash 2012.

'Can a hasher claim he is fully evolved until he has scaped elephant dung off his shoes on a bush trail or sipped an Ice Cold Tusker*?'

*A brand of Kenyan beer – George Hurst, the company's founder was killed in an elephant hunting accident and in his memory, his brother Charles decided to name the first beer brewed "Tusker".

HASHSHIT* ACROSS AMERICA

by Crotch Thumper & Donkey Fluffer

CONTENTS

If you're a hashing in the USA, you likely know Donkey Fluffer from the Fort Eustis H3, the longest continuous hash in the U.S. (1971). He's been hashing since his virgin trail in Baghdad Iraq in 2004, where the incoming rocket fire seemed like the ultimate shiggy. He won't tell you how he got his name, but he did say he really needed the money. He was the creator of the online hashing sensation of Lunar H3 which claims there's a hash on the Moon in 2030 and proclaiming, "We're going to the f*cking moon!" He inspired and led this group of half-minds, raising some $20,000, before passing the torch in October 2015 to focus on another hash community driven project: Hashshit Across America. Both of these groups raised money for Make-A-Wish Foundation of America while connecting hashers and their kennels.

The idea for this extended hasher relay event first started in May of 2015, when he'd noticed a thread on the Lunar H3 Facebook page discussing how hashers have brought a lot of dissimilar people together. A DC hasher, The Empire Strikes Black, from the Over the Hump H3 mentioned how it would be great if we could do even more as an entire hashing community, like maybe even running a hashshit across the country. Donkey Fluffer immediately proposed that we do exactly that and formed a committee of geniuses, well, as genius as one could find within the ranks of hashers. Despite plenty of naysaying, the Hashshit Across America Project launched with the Key West H3 in late October 2015. Donkey and his half-minded crew decided that just crossing the enough wasn't good enough, because it didn't involve enough hashers to truly make it a unified effort of all American kennels. It was decided that ANY kennel that wished to participate would be allowed to take part. To date, approximately 200 kennels have signed up.

Many were stepping forward for their area wanting to be representatives for their kennel and already connecting with neighboring kennels whenever it approaches them. The Hashshit is not to be carried by motor vehicle, but rather by human-hasher power. In the first state of Florida, it has traveled by foot, bicycle, kayak, unicycle, stilts, paddleboard, swimming and recently went rappelling. The Hashshit has also motor-boated many harriettes as it turns out he's quite the ladies' man. He's attended Fantasy Fest, Tampa Naked, and many other hash events, and had been known to sport a little black tutu when he's in party mode. There's a transponder attached to it so the exact location is known, that's if the hasher remembers to turn it on and has remembered to charge it the evening before.

As of mid-June 2016, the Hashshit has journeyed to every kennel wanting to participate in Florida and now entered Georgia so far raising over $17,000. The project has no timeline and is dependent on hashers using their imagination from getting it to each location while suggesting donations. There's no minimum donation and every hasher and kennel who wants to be a part of this connective event will be included for the continental USA. There's even a collectible patch available for those participants!

The Calgary Hash House Harriers are welcoming visitors to check out Canada's longest running hash this September for the local group's bi-annual Red Dress Run.

Record attendance is expected in Calgary as hashers and harriettes don cherry, wine, sangria, and other shades of red. The trail ventures through the heart of the city, exploring some of the most historic sights in the downtown near the Bow River.

THE TRAIL INCLUDES BOTH URBAN ENVIRONMENTS AND NATURAL LANDSCAPES.

CONTENTS

CH3 has held red dress runs in the past to raise money for causes near and dear to those in the group such as prostate cancer, mental health and diabetes research. This year, all money raised will go towards the Calgary-based Alberta Animal Rescue Crew Society (AARCS).

“We’ve always done it on a personal basis for the hash,” said organizer Dr. Phil. “This year we’re doing it for AARCS because many people in the hash deal with AARCS on a regular basis either volunteering or adopting animals.”

Hashers will venture out on trail in the afternoon, before gathering in Calgary's oldest neighbourhood for a dinner and dance. Chefs will serve up a full chicken and ribs barbecue, while a live DJ will provide the entertainment.

Be sure to 'check' your calendars and 'shiggy' your way to Cowtown this September for the CHS Red Dress Run.

KOREA

- A REFRESHING HASHING EXPERIENCE

Hanyang Hash House Harriers & Harriettes (H5) of Korea is proud to offer itself as host of Pan Asia Hash 2017. The fact that there has never been any large scale hashing event in Korea means that, for most of the prospective participants, this Pan Asia will be a very refreshing hashing experience indeed.

We specifically chose Sokcho City as the event venue: on the fringe of this city is the world-renowned Seorak Mountain National Park which, for many Korean soap opera aficionados, has often been the surreal backdrop. The proposed dates are similarly selected, for late October ushers in the most spectacular autumnal colours, best highlighted by the rainbow hues of the maples.

Participants will get to savour the K-food phenomenon that has been taking the gastronomic world literally by storm. Be enamored by the extensive spread of Korean delights - the quintessential Ginseng Chicken Soup; the omnipresent mouth-watering beef, lamb, and pork barbecues; the huge varieties of fresh – and often live - seafood eaten either raw/sashimi-style, or prepared in dozens of off-secret recipes unbeknownst to other parts of the world. All these, and more, washed down with world famous brands of beers, or with the uniquely Korean soju and makgoeli.

The time is ripe for a refreshing change of scenery, of style, of food and beverage, and of a completely new hashing experience. We are a new troupe of organizers, backed by the provincial government, and supported by experience from the Motherland of hashing.

Give your affirmation for a refreshing change!

KOREA - THE VENUE OF CHOICE

- ACCESSIBLE – round trip as low as USD200-250 from most SE Asian cities
- AFFORDABLE – conveniently located rooms could be had for as little as USD35-40
- ASTHETIC – be enchanted by autumn at its full fall colours
- VIRGINAL – hash in assuredly hitherto never-before-hashed territory
- GOVERNMENT-BACKED – the provincial government is enthusiastically supportive
- GASTRONOMIC – pamper your sensory glands with inimitable K-flavours
- INTOXICATING – infuse yourself with the full range of uniquely Korean beverages
- COMFORTABLE – experience hashing in low-humidity at temperatures in the mid-teens
- ENTERTAINING - revel in live K-pop performances and cultural shows
- PERFECTION – enjoy the Koreans' relentless strive for perfection!

THE REAL DEAL

are MADE BY HAND

Frontera's Sizzling Fajitas

It was 1973 in Houston, Texas on Navigation street where a young tejanita named Ninfa first popularized the famous Tex-Mex dish now known as "fajitas".

We pay homage to Mama Ninfa everyday by making our fajitas the traditional way. Marinated overnight in Frontera's proprietary blend of authentic Tex-Mex spices and served sizzling hot with a stack of fresh house-made tortillas.

Real Tex-Mex only at Frontera.

Letters

by Howard Mckay

I am sorry to be a bit slow catching up with your editorial and article by the late Digit in the June issue. Firstly, as you will realize, I do not dance with Wolves, but with Dogs. I was bitten on a hash run about the time the movie Dances with Wolves came out, hence the name. The long time T shirt designer of Wanchai Hash, Bruce "Shirley Temple" Fletcher, did a humorous cartoon rendition of the incident for the 1989 Hash magazine as indicated.

On the article by Digit, whilst I might appear to be a boring anorak, I feel it is right to correct some things. Errors can become 'gospel' in the long term and can be repeated to the end of time.

The late Tim "Magic" Hughes had nothing to do with getting Simon Gispert to Interhash in Phuket in 1992. Simon's airfare and other costs were paid by me and my business partner (and great hasher), the late Rowland Hastings. Tim Hughes did indeed meet Simon in Phuket and I attach a photograph of the three of us at that 1992 event. The Expat hotel in Phuket provided accommodation for Simon.

Tim Hughes, as some may know, published an earlier hash magazine called International Harrier and I alerted him to the discovery of the Gispert family. At the time, Tim was about to publish a book on hash history and he was able to include the story before he went to print. As a result, at the front of the book there are four pictures, one of G, one of Simon G, one of Charles G and one of me, my only claim to Warhole type hash fame. Simon also designed the front cover for the book as per the attached.

Around the time of the G discovery, a film maker who drank in my bar The Wanch, set out to make a documentary on the hash, an edited version of which was sold to Cathay Pacific for inflight entertainment. An unexpurgated version was also made and it can be found on Youtube under "The history of the Hash House Harriers". In it, Simon Gispert is interviewed in The Wanch. The producers also located Cecil Lee in the UK and interviewed him. Possibly the rarest of all is some footage of Horse Thomson taken at the 1986 Interhash in Pattaya. I met Horse a couple of times in Hong Kong and shared a few beers with him. For those that don't know, Horse and Cecil were office bearers on the first committee of the Hash.

Simon Gispert is a graphic artist by profession and as noted he designed the cover for Tim Hughe's book, also for some T shirts for the Wanchai and other hashes. A group of Aussie hashers also sponsored him to travel to Australia the following year.

PS

Neither Simon nor Charles Gispert followed in "G's" athletic footsteps but they were both drinkers of prodigious quantity. Whilst in Phuket at the Interhash I met Simon at a bar one day, drinking an early morning beer. He told me that he had gone to cash some travellers cheques but had come back for a few beers so that he could steady his hand to sign them.

A couple of years later I went to visit Simon in Dorset and we went out to the pub. I was a pretty good drinker in those days but I struggled to keep up with Simon who sank pints of Guinness like they were 'shots'. I stayed overnight at his house and he surprised me at breakfast by asking if I wanted a beer. I guess he presumed that all those who worked in the tropics were beer soaked wowzers. I politely declined and he said, "Well, I will have one".

CONTENTS

Finally, I was a bit surprised by Digit's article when he said he had been unable to get in touch with me in recent times. I had seen him at least twice in the year preceding his death but I have to say he didn't seem to recognize me. He certainly did not look his old self in those final months. RIP to a great hasher.

I attach the dog cartoon, picture of me with Tim Hughes and Simon Gispert and a copy of the front of Tim's book.

Cheers

Howard aka Dances with Dogs

Looking again at the scan of the front page of Tim's book at Simon designed, I am reminded of another story.

Through correspondence with Simon (I still have some of his hand written letters) he told me that he had donated his Dad's pewter mug to the Hash House in Kuala Lumpur, aka Selengor Chambers.

At this point, let me make mention of John Duncan and Bill Panton. John D is now sadly dead but he was a hasher from the days of yore. He famously appears in the hash video I mentioned, firstly being interviewed, secondly setting a trail and finally singing "The Lobster" song at the on home. Bill Panton started the first hash (arguably) in the USA, the Washington DC hash. I was amused some years ago when he was interviewed in a hash blog when asked what he didn't like about the hash these days. He replied, "I don't like the way that it has developed in many places to interminable circles run by foul mouthed men who like the sound of their own voice". Amen to that.

Anyway, moving on, I had a beery lunch with John and Bill in the Selengor Chambers about ten years ago. I asked John where was the "G" pewter mug that Simon had donated. John smiled and said, "You don't think I would trust that with them here, do you?" That suggests that John took it into his own safe keeping. Now that he is sadly dead, I wonder what happened to that mug? Perhaps if you publish this little piece, one of the KL hashers might be able to tell us.

Cheers

Howard

HASHERS IN THE NEWS

London Hasher we know had just finished reading a new book entitled "You Can Be The Man in Your House". He stormed out to his wife in the kitchen and announced, "From now on I'm running this show, and my word will be law. You'll prepare me a gourmet meal tonight, and when I'm done eating it, you'll serve me a scrumptious dessert. After dinner you're going upstairs with me, and we'll have any kind of sex that I choose! Afterwards, you're going to run me a relaxing bath. You'll wash my back, towel me dry, and bring me my robe. Then, you'll massage my feet and hands. Then tomorrow, guess who's going to dress me and comb my hair?" The wife replied, "The fucking undertaker would be my first guess!"

---anon---

As Hashers age, they start seeing more of the medical world, which nowadays seems to include an increasing number of women as our physicians and therapists, and in Hashers case, a new urologist. His family doctor recently referred him to a just-out-of-medical-school female urologist. He saw her recently, and she's absolutely drop-dead gorgeous as well as unbelievably sexy. She told him that he must stop masturbating. He asked her why.....She said, "Because I'm trying to examine you..."

DON'T MESS WITH A LADY HASHER

CONTENTS A nice, calm and respectable lady hasher from Dallas went into the pharmacy, walked up to the pharmacist, looked straight into his eyes, and said, "I would like to buy some cyanide."

The pharmacist asked, "Why in the world do you need cyanide?"

The lady Hasher replied, "I need it to poison my husband."

The pharmacist's eyes got big and he explained, "Lord have mercy! I can't give you cyanide to kill your husband, that's against the law? I'll lose my license! They'll throw both of us in jail! All kinds of bad things will happen. Absolutely not! You CANNOT have any cyanide!"

The lady Hasher reached into her purse and pulled out a picture of her husband in bed with the pharmacist's wife.

The pharmacist looked at the picture and replied, "You didn't tell me you had a prescription."

LAST MINUTE REQUEST

John was on his deathbed and gasped pitifully, "Give me one last request, dear," he said.

"Of course, John," his wife said softly. "Six months after I die," he said, "I want you to marry Bob." "But I thought you hated Bob," she said. With his last breath John said, "I do!"

SO MUCH FOR MODERN ART?

91-year-old woman fills in crossword at museum - only to discover it was a £60,000 artwork

A 91-year-old woman has been questioned by police in Germany — after she filled in the blanks in a piece of modern art based on a crossword puzzle.

The pensioner, who has not been named under German privacy law, was questioned under caution after she filled in the work valued at €80,000 (£67,000) with a biro.

"Reading-work-piece", a 1977 work by Arthur Köpcke of the Fluxus movement, essentially looks like an empty crossword puzzle.

Next to the work is a sign which reads: "Insert words".

The hapless pensioner explained to police that she was simply following the instructions.

"The lady told us she had taken the notes as an invitation to complete the crossword," a police spokesman said.

The elderly lady was part of a group visit to Nuremberg's Neues Museum, where the work is displayed.

If the Museum didn't want people to follow the artist's instructions, they should put up a sign to make that clear, she told police.

Eva Kraus, the museum director said the damage was not permanent and would probably be relatively easy to repair. "We do realize that the old lady didn't mean any harm," she said. "Nevertheless, as a state museum couldn't avoid making a criminal complaint. Also for insurance reasons we had to report the incident to the police."

The private collector who presented the work to the Museum took the incident in good humour, she said.

Restoring the work is expected to cost a few hundred euros and the Museum will bear the expense, she said.

The work was presented to the Museum by a private collector.

"We will let the lady know that the collector took the damage to the work in good humour, so she doesn't have a sleepless night," Ms Kraus said.

The Museum said that in future it would alter the label for the work to make it clear visitors were not permitted to fill in the blanks.

Reminds us of an incident at the Stockholm Museum of Modern Art where some wanker placed a toilet bowl as an exhibit of modern art and yes the fuckwit got paid an enormous sum out of our tax monies. Well some young lad dying to go, left his doings in the bowl thinking quite rightly it was the genuine article.....Load of bollocks if you ask us.

THE 9th BYO BBQ JAZZ IN JUNE RUN ALSO KNOW AS THE GREAT ESCAPE RUN

Another fine effort from the MaliBog, with an excellent Arun starting from the Maison Cheval Rouge in the most reassuring of neighbourhoods.

I don't know what's wrong with the Underground, but on each and every run someone has some difficulties getting to the Hash, or cums far too late. They must've been desperate! 'Old n Stiff', who actually came so late that we were about to start without him, forgot to change from his sparkling new shorts.

Trail was otherwise in the 'MaliBog does a 'assault course manner' where you zig-zag your way in a star-shaped path with the Karolinska Institute the centre. Cunningly enough that would have allowed the walkers to keep up with the runners unless of course you manage to get lost.

On the other hand, all our credits go to a very well laid trail from visibility point of view on a sunny evening with very little difficulties at all to see the well-marked trail!

So after the chalk-talk we set off on a trail that led us between houses and through yards until we were almost back at the start again which had the pack confused until we picked up the trail again up on the railway bridge which led us under the motorway bridge where a sharp right let the scrambling pack up the rocks to find the arrows on the narrow verge between the motorway and a high fence. A sharp left up a high overgrown hill and we found ourselves on top of the Russian Wall, so named after the Russian Prisoners been forced to build it in 1810 to keep them occupied.

Leading out the trail now skirted a row of houses only to delve back into running alongside the wall over large lumps of rock and stones that had fallen from the wall over the last two centuries. Gratefully leaving this rocky trace we once again ran alongside the motorway and now encountered thesecond serious hurdle.

Asmall stony and dusty gap under the fence which we had to crawl through each gaining numerous cuts and grazes. Our late comer, 'Old n Stiff' was seen to remove his new shorts and manage to slink through without.

Having recovered the pack pick up a speed and entered the Hospital ground where a well laid check manage to lose Titan Dick & Doggie Dick (when one Dick gets lost all Dicks get lost). The remainder found the trail within the cemetery and the historic lodges eventually crossing Solnavägen and a nasty on back through knee high weed, tumbling under a long balcony, galloping along the stony rim to a rocky ledge with nowhere to go but back. From here the Hare seemed to have taken pity on the pack as found it reasonably easy going crossing the trail heading towards Solna Bridge and the Drink Stop behind Maison Cheval Rouge where cool beers were set out on the table and instead of your usual crisps, Chilli and Horse Radish flavoured picked herrings were served. First to arrive were the two lost Dicks followed shortly by both runners and walkers. The pack having now all encompassed including Fishy

Hooker who managed to do a shortened version of the walkers' trail having her new born twin ladies on their first Hash and Clever Dick roaming up telling stories about how his daughter's dog would not let him leave, we left the hillock for the last remaining leg which was simply around to the front of the building and the awaiting BBQ.

Dead things were heated on the Barbie to the sounds of various beers, the circle was adjoined whereas the Hare and Hostess were rewarded plus several others whose names escape me. Instead of Jazz, a television was installed in the garden and those that wish watched Sweden get knocked out the EuroCup, a fitting end to a good hardy run

A MESSAGE FRAE JAMES VI

Guid day. It's a braw brickt new century the noo!

Weel, that's enough wee talk frae me, methinks, sae lets me introduce maself.

I'm kennt tae folks as James Stuart, mebbe ye've heard tell o' me.

Nae. Nae, his a mummer and player.

I'm James VI o' Scotland, but you can call me James I o' England (an ye wish it)

Which bringeth me tae what this wee form is all about.

Are ye not awfu' tired o' having the wee woman on the throne?

Is the time richt for a change?

Weel ye ken fine that a man who can rule the Scots can well rule anyone!

So I'd fain suggest that I'm yer man. To be mair specific, I pledge:

Nae terrorists or gunpowder plots.

Nae mair pirate Bibles but an authorised wee book o' my ain.

Nae mair concessions tae smokers o' this foul stinkin' pothersom tobacco.

A government warning an a' clay pipes and tae bad an it should break them.

Weel that'll suffice the noo.

Prithee enter yer wee cross here.

Cross o' St. Andrew, cross o' St George, I dinna give a damn.

Dae ye want gude King James or noo?

Och aye Och noo

Dinna forget, a vote for the Stuarts

Is a vote for a century o' uninterrupted monarchy.

We've come a lang lang way since Macbeth!

THE UNDERGROUND HASH INVADES BREDÄNG CAMPING

For Red Horse and Meself it all started when I received the dodgy sounding instructions on how to get to the run, it was decision time on how best to get there. Taking the bus to Hornstull sounded the best way to connect with the Underground but did not take into account the roadworks so we arrived late.

The turn out was very good for this out-of-town location at the Bredäng camping site and surrounding forest and lakes.

And now the run, well being part of the walking wounded I can only relate to the walkers' trail, however as the runners criss-crossed our trail several times it seems my narrative includes theirs.

drink stop with a glorious view over Lake Mälaren. Some very scenic trails (thanks Concrete Erection) took us past a lake, the old bathing huts, an old ruin by the sea shore, plenty of forest, and much more, well as much as you can get in 1.5 hours of non-stop (except for the 15 minutes for the DS). During the run some strange things happened, Häger was spotted in FRB position and Termete didn't get lost.

So few words to sum up a very long and interesting run – but that's Hashing eh?

Oh yeah, I nearly forgot – the drink stop was at the highest point around. Back at base camp the circle was arranged in the evening sun whereas those who deserved and even those that didn't received their rewards whereafter all headlined to the Thai for beers & hot chow.

Television with almost everyone supporting Wales against Portugal. Alas although they played well they lost to the divers and cheaters..... OnOnMaliBog

Definitely the run time now – and it so it was on down the wooded track road searching hard for marks and after a 100M or so the first of 20 or so were found. Having separated we could still hear the runners on the ridge above us eventually catching up by the lake shore. Parting again for a while we met on a high path which eventually led up a steep hill where we were confronted by an awaited
