Editor's Notes

The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step. ~Lao Tzu

This may be one of the best years ever for hashing around the world. The major regional events, namely Eurohash, InterAmericas Hash, Pan Asia Hash and Pan Africa Hash are all held on odd numbered years. What events have been nominated as this year's best? Read all about the Best HHH Events of 2017 in this edition of Harrier Magazine.

Europe: The best of Europe in 2017 may well be Eurohash in Vienna this July. A Pre Lube on the Danube could set the heart of any romantic aglow. Belgium boasts the world's best beers so why not join them at Belgium Nash Hash in March? Dutch Nash Hash will take place in the Castle de Berckt as Neptunus celebrates 25 years of hashing this April. The Brighton H3 celebrates 2000 runs in March. Not to be outdone, the Cambridge H3 celebrates 2017 runs in May. The Oslo H3 celebrates 1500 weeks of pillage and plunder this June.

North America: Start the year off right at Tex-Mex Hash in El Paso, Texas with the El Paso and Border Jumper hashes this January. Portland, Oregon the home of InterAmericas Hash two years ago, hosts a Green Dress Run each March. The Bay to Blackout takes place in the City by the Bay each May. New in February. A Pre-Amble will take place in Kenya before Pan Africa Hash in Lagos this May, The Great Rift Birthday Run will be in Kenya this July, and the Kampala Relay takes place this July in Uganda.

Orleans hosts one of the best Red Dress Runs anywhere each August. And InterAmericas Hash heads to Phoenix, Arizona in October.

Asia: You can't call yourself a well-traveled hashman until you've trekked the trails of Asia, where hashing began. China will host not one, but two Nash Hashes in 2017. Chengdu will be the site of All China Nash Hash in March. and the Beijing H3 will host a second All China Nash Hash in September. Vietnam Nash and the Nha Trang H3 4th Anniversary will take place this March. April will see Borneo Nash Hash in Kuching. Thai Nash Hash returns to Pattaya this June. The Cebu H3 will host Philippine Nash Hash in May. The first Pan Asia Hash in Korea will take place this October. And Indochina Mekong Hash will return to Vientiane, Laos in November.

Africa: On the African continent, the Harare H3 celebrates 2000 runs

Editor's Note: If we missed any of your favorite HHH events this year, please send in your nominations for next year's Best HHH Events of 2018.

Another hilarious escapade lies in store as Hash Boy lays a trail not meant for the faint of heart. Our Philosopher of Inebriation Ajarn Keemau ponders the meaning of life through the accomplishments of Nobel Prize winner Bob Dylan, and less memorable literary beginnings in On the Ice this month.

With scores of great events coming up in 2017 I hope to see you on trail at some of them.

On On,

BEST EVENTS OF 2017

EUROPE

by Julie Burgess

(with contributions from Eurohash, Cambridge and Brighton)

The most important hash in Europe on the odd years is EuroHash, and Vienna Vindabona H3 is planning a stellar event for 2017. Speaking of EuroHash, Neptunus is hosting an anniversary event in the same Castle as EuroHash 2011. As always, the Belgians will be offering a Nash Hash with an outstanding selection of Belgian Beer in the charming West Flanders village of Kortrijk. The United Kingdom is boasting two excellent anniversary runs, which are looking even better than UK Nash Hash. Don't miss the Oslo the 1500th, brought to you by the organizers of the fabulous Interscandic from North of the Arctic Circle, where the only complaint was the weird way the eggs were sliced!

Vienna Calling! Euro Hash is Going all the Way! 7-9 July

Vienna, Austria's Capital, has an artistic and intellectual legacy, with residents like Mozart and Freud, both of whom would probably be hashers. The architecture ranges from gorgeous imperial palaces and museums to the quiriness of the house of Hundertwasser. In this amazing setting, the Vienna Vindobona H3 welcome Hashers from Europe and around the world, and they promise a party which brings alive all your dreams and desires. Vienna is consistently voted as the most livable cities in the world, and for a weekend in July, it will also be the most hashable. There will be a number of creative and beautiful trails in and around this beautiful city, spiced up with an impressive array of Pre and Post Lubes to slide you in and out of the weekend. They have just launched the EUROHASH SONG CONTEST, which could win a lucky kennel a keg of beer!

Brighton H7 2000th Run Celebration 24-26 March

Brighton is an English seaside resort town boasting wide beaches and the famous Brighton Pier. The event will be held at the Southeast Youth Hostel, a refurbished 17th century Sussex farmhouse east of Brighton. It is surrounded by the rolling hills of the South Downs National Park, a favourite running area for the Brighton Hash. The weekend celebration will begin with the CRAFT H3 100th pub crawl, featuring a meal and then dancing with the Brighton Hash's own Mr. Soul, DJ Psychlepath. The Saturday night theme is of course, "Brighton at the Beach", complete with more dancing to Britain's favourite hash band, Main Vein. On a windy 26th of June 1978, six hashers took part on the first hash from Devils Dyke, also in the South Downs National Park. The hash has run every Monday since. The founder, Robbie Salton, of Islamabad H3, won a £5 bet that he couldn't get a hash started in Brighton! Robbie only ran for 1 year, yet two of the original hashers from Run No. 1 still hash with Brighton on a regular basis!

The 20th Belgian Nash Hash in Kortrijk 31 March-02 April

After a wild party in the city of Antwerp in 2016, the 20th Belgian Nash Hash is moving back to nature in the charming green medieval village of Kortrijk for the April Fools weekend. The venue is a new hostel with en suite rooms, high ceilings and lots of light. Check out one of the several UNESCO sites in Kortrijk, walk along the River Leie and taste the local beer and food. On Friday, the hash will frequent the lively bar scene, which could include a bit of bowling. Saturday begins with a trail through the rolling hills of West Flanders and ends with a "Back to Nature" party. On Sunday, the hash tours the medieval city. As usual, Belgian beer, the nectar of the gods, flows à volonté. www.bmph3.com

Cambridge H3 2017th run in 2017! 26-28 May

Since 1209, people have nurtured their brain cells at Cambridge University. Don't miss this chance to be more intelligent and hash in one of the most beautiful, historical and intellectual cities in England! It boasts spectacular architecture in the form of centuries-old colleges, chapels and churches. It is also home to green parks, wide-open spaces and the picturesque River Cam. Enjoy a fun-filled pirate hash on a punt while gliding along the picturesque banks, admiring famous colleges of the University of Cambridge and bridges such as the famous Mathematical Bridge and the Bridge of Sighs. In 1978, an advertisement was placed in the personal ads by Howard Taylor, of Bangkok H3, saying; "Isn't it time there was a Hash in Cambridge?" The first run took place on 1st October 1978 at "The Hoops" in Barton, southwest of Cambridge. A total of 13 runners showed up. The Cambridge Hash has run every Sunday since.

Oslo 1500th 9-11 June

Are you up for some Surf and Turf in the land of the midnight sun? Oslo Hash House Harriers welcomes you to Norway, where they will show some of the many Highlights in and around Oslo. The newly renovated venue offers a panoramic view over the city and is surrounded by forests and lakes. This panorama will be featured during the picturesque Saturday run. As the sun slowly almost sets, one can dance the night away to OH3's favourite band. Sunday will start with Aquavit, the breakfast of champions, and then continue to a hangover tour of central Oslo, featuring the spectacular waterfront, the famous Opera House and many other sites around the city. The Oslo Hash was founded in March 1989 by Ahluette, of Singapore Hash House Harriettes.

Honorable Mention:

Dutch Nash Hash 2017

The Kings Day Weekend on 28-30 April

There are 3 reasons to celebrate on the last weekend of April. It will be the Dutch Nash Hash, the King's Day Celebration and the Neptunus' 25 years of hashing anniversary. This weekend boosts a who's who of European hashing and will be held at the Castle de Berckt in the rolling green hills of Limburg. On the Wednesday and Thursday, one can enjoy 2 days of Hashing in The Hague and then on Friday night, the weekend commences! There is an ominous "Pole Dancers and Horror Tour" in the dungeon of the castle. On Saturday after the various runs through the countryside, one can roast Neptunus and dance the night away with DJ Boghole.

Best Lubes of 2017:

AB's Blue Danube Cruise & Frankfurt Vineyard Hash No. 25 Jubilee

One can prolong the EuroHash experience with Hash Travel, founder of the Vodka Train. The Blue Danube flows through 10 countries and is the longest river in the EU. The Pre Lube Hash Cruise Ship sails from Vienna. The first port of call is Slovakia, where the hash visits the charming Old Town of Bratislava and then tours the Carpathian wine country, featuring a trail around the Cervený Kamen [Red Stone] Castle. The final stop on the cruise is a party in the Eastern European jewel, otherwise known as Budapest. The Post Lube is the 25th Vineyard Hash Jubilee "Hashvaganza" through Slovenia, a panoramic country on the sunny side of the Julian Alps, where the people have great passion and energy. The natural beauty of high mountains, green forests, beautiful meadows, friendly villages, and cultural and historical monuments and will make the Post Lube a memorable experience.

Portland Green Dress Run 2017
March 17-19th

Portland the same city which hosted the awesome 2015 Interhash is once again celebrating St Patrick's day with a weekend long hash event. Friday is the welcome Kilted hash. Saturday is the main event, Green Dress mandatory! The run ends at Embers, a local drag/comedy/dance club. The back dance area is reserved for Hasher's only until 10pm at night for dancing after circle. Dinner provided and beer is ever flowing until 10pm. Portland hash known for their hashpatality welcomes Out of Towners, by not increasing the rego price if you live outside of WA/OR to compensate for travel expenses. Sunday. Website will soon be updated:

Bay to Blackout May 19-21, 2017

While visiting San Francisco, You can visit The Golden Gate bridge, Alcatraz, and China Town, but the best time is to be had at Bay to Breakers, with tortious flying through the air, costumes galore, naked runners, salmon spawn down stream, all this and I have not yet even mentioned what great fun is to be had at the Hash! SFH3 always play a super host to hashers visiting for Bay to Breakers. Watch SFH3 website for fourth coming information on the 2017 Bay to Breaker.

BEST EVENTS OF 2017

ASIA

By Jim Edens

The Hash started in Asia and some say that the best hashing in the world is found here. If you've walked along the Subic seashore, or the hiked the hills of Hanoi you know the essence of hashing in this region. A cornucopia of gems await those who venture to in Asia in 2017.

Two All China Nash Hashes in 2017:

16th All China Nash Hash 1, Chengdu

10-12 March 2017

17th All China Nash Hash 2, Beijing

15-17 September 2017

Two All China Nash Hashes in China in 2017? Yessiree Bob. You heard that right. We all know that China is geographically giant, and that China most populous of any country in the world. China is so huge that it will host not one, but two All China Nash Hashes in 2017. So pack up your travel chopsticks and head to Chengdu in March, and then to Beijing in September if you are so inclined. www.hashchina.yolasite.com

Vietnam Nash Hash 24-27 March 2017

Vietnam Nash Hash returns to the scenic coastal town of Nha Trang at the end of March 2017. Nha Trang is blessed with scores of scenic beaches and verdant mountains rising up from the shoreline. This weekend also marks the 4th Anniversary of the Nha Trang Hash.

There are plenty of flights to Cam Ranh Airport from Saigon and Hanoi, as well as direct international flights with China Airlines and HK Express. Most major airlines connect Saigon to other cities around the region and the world. Domestic flights are cheap and definitely the best way to get to Nha Trang. Train and bus services are also available, but be prepared for some long journeys.

16th Borneo Nash Hash, Kuching, Sarawak, Malaysia 29-30 Apr 2017

It's back to Borneo in the cat city of Kuching. Known for the best of jungle trails and a long history of hashing, the Kota Padawan Hash House Harriers will host this popular event in 2017. Nearly 1200 hashers have already signed up so don't delay. Make plans to attend Borneo Nash Hash this year. www.borneonashhash2017.com

Philippines Nash Hash, Cebu 19-21 May 2017

Philippines Nash Hash will be held in Cebu in May. The Cebu H3 agreed to host PI Nash Hash 2017 after a successful 1000th Run Celebration in 2015. Cebu is a long, thin island with narrow coastal plains and steep mountain ranges along its central spine. Hashers can expect some challenging trails on the medium, Long and Ball-breaker distances in the Kang Irag Nature Park this year, and even the short walkers will cross some scenic waterfalls. Stick around for the long or short recovery runs on Sunday and bring your swimmers for a splash in the pool.

www.cebuhash.org

Thai Nash Hash, Pattaya 2-4 June 2017

Thai Nash Hash returns to Pattaya, the notorious beach and nightlife mecca located just 130 kilometers south of Bangkok. Pattaya has it all to keep hashers happy with its balmy beaches, plentiful pubs, naughty nightlife and mighty mountains in and around this city by the sea. With these amenities it is no surprise that Pattaya is home to a large community of dedicated hashers who call Pattaya home on a full or part time basis. You can bet your last baht that these guys will put on another event to be remembered, even after a few days of hardcore hashing and hardy party time. After all, these are the same guys who put on a terrific Thai Nash Hash in 2014.

www.thainashhash2017.com

Pan Asia Hash Sokcho Korea 27-29 Oct 2017

Korea is no stranger to hashing thanks in part to the strong US military presence in Korea since the Korean Conflict. Pan Asia Hash in Korea is a first, conceived and coordinated by members of Mother Hash in Kuala Lumpur. For Korean food fanatics this is a chance to taste the real deal. Note that North Korea is one of the only countries in the world with no HHH chapter. Perhaps this is the time for an adventurous hasher to accomplish what 80 years of gun ship diplomacy could not.

www.panasiakorea2017.com

Indochina Mekong Hash, Vientiane, Laos 3-5 Nov 2017

Regarded by many as the best small events in Asia every year, Indochina Mekong Hash (IMH) returns to Laos in November 2017. IMH rotates between Mekong countries of Thailand, Laos, Cambodia and Vietnam and is limited in size to 350 registrants. Vientiane, once a sleepy capital town on the Mekong River has a wide variety of pubs, restaurants and accommodation to fit every travel budget. Lao Airlines flies from major cities in southeast Asia. Early registration is strongly advised as the event has sold out each of the last four years. Beerlao, a sponsor for the event is widely regarded as one of the best brews in the region.

WELCOME TO INTERHASH FIJI

Bula and warm greetings from Fiji.

Interhash 2018, the 21st Anniversary of Interhash is well and truly taking shape.

We faced teething issues with regos and payments on line which is now fully operational and so far more than a thousand registered.

The committee has been working pretty hard with several important subcommittees to look at the entire 4 days event which includes the Red Dress Run.

Our website is regularly updated and will soon include pages dedicated to "who is coming".

BEST EVENTS OF 2017

Africa

by Julia Stanton
some photos by Julia Stanton
& Hamadi Njoroge

African correspondent, Julia Stanton aka Head Mistress looks at what's in store in terms of the top 5 Hashing events in Africa 2017.

The African continent offers a number of interesting hash events in West, Southern and East Africa in 2017. It's also the year of Africa's largest International hash event, the bi-annual Pan Africa and this year's destination is Lagos in Nigeria. If you are looking to hash somewhere a bit different from the norm, want to meet some great hashers and are ready for an adventure, have a look at what's on offer in Africa from celebrating 2000th run anniversaries, to participating in hash relay races, to hashing through a golf course and experiencing Lagos through an International hashing event. Remember TIA (This is Africa) so whilst the dates are set, the finer details are not usually ready until nearer the events but don't worry just book your tickets and your pre or post African adventures and everything will fall into place. Events are described in chronological order.

1. Harare Hash House Harriers 2000th Run - 24th-26th February 2017 - Zimbabwe

Harare Hash House Harriers will be holding their 2000th hash run in the majestic mountain ranges of Nyanga in Eastern Zimbabwe from 24th – 26th February 2017. The Rhodes Nyanga hotel situated in the Rhodes National Park will host the event. Harare H4 promise stunning scenery and flowing beer and believe me Zimbabwe has some amazing scenery and wildlife. After stories of elephants disturbing laying of trails and runs and even getting drunker than the hashers on fermented marula fruits at major hash milestone runs, the group have decided to play it safe this time and avoid any large wild animals and naughty elephants. However arrangements can be made for visiting hashers to safely see wildlife travelling to and from the venue, either side of the event, if they so wish. Check out Harare Hash House Harriers 2000th Run Facebook page for further details and updates

2. Pan Africa Hash Preamble Kenya 14th May-21st May 2017

If hashers fancy visiting Kenya on the way to Pan Africa Hash in Lagos, the Kenyan hashers have put together an interesting preamble participating in several Kenyan hashes and visiting some wildlife parks. The first two days in Nairobi involve joining the Sunday Nairobi Hash House Harriers and the Nairobi Hash House Harriers for their regular runs, down downs and a chance to take in some of Nairobi's nightlife. Hashers then travel to one of Africa's Greatest Wildlife Reserves, Masai Mara National Reserve for two days of wildlife viewing and then to Amboseli National Park, famous for its huge herds of elephants and view of Mt Kilimanjaro, the tallest mountain in Africa for one night. Last stop is Mombasa to enjoy the beach, nightlife and join the Mombasa Hash House Harriers on their weekly run. After breakfast on 21st May, you can then start heading for Nigeria. Check out Kenyan Airways for flights to Nigeria via Nairobi. Contact Wet F*ck for further details.

3. Pan Africa Hash 2017 26th-28th May Lagos, Nigeria

Lagos Hash House Harriers advise heading (who said head?) to Lagos for a fun filled weekend and the chance of lubricating your throat for 72 hours. They also promise the best hash event that you have ever attended with loads of beer, fun and beautiful people. The venue is Eko Atlantic Gardens in Victoria Island, a recently developed area. Hashers will get to experience a Red Dress Run and a choice of 2 from 6 runs in 6 different terrains over the weekend. There will also be plenty of entertainment after the run with traditional dances, DJ spin off, Nigerian A-stars with plenty of places nearby hotels to party until you drop. Lagos hashers sing non-stop so prepare to sing a lot. 500 – 750 hashers are expected and registration is currently at 120 USD. Register at www.panafricahash.2017. A number of fantastic post lubes are being planned to keep you entertained and will give you a chance to see more of Nigeria.

4. The 13th Annual Great Rift Birthday Run 14th-16th July, Lake Naivasha, Kenya

If you've ever fancied hashing around a golf course, here's your chance with the annual great rift birthday run held at the Great Rift Valley golf resort in Lake Naivasha. The location is thought to be one of the best golf resorts in Africa located on a hill overlooking the lake and has aptly been described as the most scenic hash in Africa. The main event is the Saturday run with a short of 12km and a long of 16km and occasionally a 7km. There are usually 2 beer stops along the way for beer and water. Dinner follows the circle for down downs with lots of dancing. At midnight, champagne is tossed for the hares and a raffle held where hashers get to win amazing prizes donated by the birthday boys with the main gift being an 8 day luxury cruise to either Bahamas or Caribbean. Contact Wet Fuck for further details. adventure@wildcatssafaris.com

5. The Kampala to Jinja Relay 1st weekend of July, Uganda

Every year, Kampala Hash House Harriers holds the annual relay hash from Kampala to Jinja. This is a 90km trail done in a series of stages by different members of a team taking it in turns to run part of the relay. Teams of 9 seed their members into different stages according to their running or lack of running ability. At each finish line, there is a carnival atmosphere as team members wait for their teammates and cheer them on when they come in. The run ends in Jinja with a circle for down downs and a party. If hashers wish to spend more time in Jinja, which is known as the adventure capital of Uganda they can try all sorts of andreloin pumping activities from white water rafting and bungee jumping. There are also opportunities for spectacular wildlife viewing in some of Uganda's national parks. Look at the Kampala Hash House Harriers FB and contact Hash Scribe for further details

CIA's Event Review: Indochina Mekong Hash 2016

pics from IMH2017 Facebook page by Hanno Stamm, Ian Paroz with Xuan Dieu Trinh, Ha Zel, Scotch Mist Siem Reap, Paul Cruickshank

One of my favorite annual events on the hash circuit (perhaps my favorite) is the indochina Mekong hash event. This is a small regional event that is held in Southeast Asia in one of the countries that borders the Mekong river or has the river running through it. So, this means Vietnam, Laos, Cambodia, Thailand, and Myanmar.. In recent years, they had one of these events in Kunming China but I don't consider that an "indochina" country. The event almost always sells out (I think it's 350 people max) and preference is given to hashers who are members of a hash club in indochina or reside there. It's always held in late October or early November.

CONTENTS

This year, which marked the 18th anniversary of the event, it was Cambodia's turn. It was decided to hold this one at Siem Reap which is the location of the world heritage site: Angkor Wat. Although there is a hash in Siem Reap, it doesn't run that regularly. I think it's once a month. Furthermore, the principal organizer, Short Stump, who used to live in Siem Reap, was traveling a lot. So the logistics were challenging. However, the event went off smoothly which is no small feat as Short Stump pulled this one off nearly singlehanded.

Although the event officially starts Friday evening, there is usually a prelube event on Friday organized by the thinking drinking hash. This is an optional event organized by the Thai harriettes in Bangkok. It's a traveling hash that has been in existence over 25 years. They have held events at Interhash, eurohash, etc. They did not have a TDH3 run at last year's event in Myanmar, so it's been two years since the last one. It's extremely popular and usually sells out. Those who went on this run (run number 73) had an enjoyable day out with an excellent lunch provided.

IMH3 kicked off after we returned from TDH3 with registration at the hash headquarters hotel: Borei Angkor and Spa (a five star resort hotel). Quite a few hashers stayed there but quite a few others opted for cheaper accommodation nearby.

There were a few beers provided by the hotel during registration but that was basically it. Hashers were encouraged to go to the scottish mist bar on pub street that evening. Quite a few did which included a live band. Beers were 50 cents.. that's pretty much the going rate in Cambodia..If you are an alcoholic, this is the country for you!

Saturday featured the main run.. ball buster buses left at the civilized hour of noon or so. The normal run/walk left at 1:30 for the countryside.

It turned out the ball buster trail consisted of two loops. The first loop was the normal run trail. The second loop went off in another direction.

By the time our bus arrived, the ballbuster folks were already doing the second loop. One thing about Siem Reap is that it is flat, so no hills to contend with but shiggy still abounds. It had been raining a lot the previous week so folks were up to their knees or even waists in water.

Circle was held at the a site. This is the only issue I really had with IMH3; circle management. With 300 plus people, it's very difficult to maintain control. A loudspeaker or megaphone is essential, and even then it would be a challenge. So circle fell apart very quickly.

Another thing is that circle should be managed by GMs or RAs from indochina hash clubs. There were lots of people grumbling about this.

Afterwards, we returned to the Borei Angkor hotel for a gala dinner by the pool. This was truly something special. Elegance isn't in most hashers vocabularies, but that is the word that best describes this dinner. Food stations were scattered all around the pool. Beer stations as well. There was no queuing, nor was there a need to. The pool itself had been outfitted with these floating lanterns which cast a nice glow around the site. And for those who were wondering, nobody fell into the pool. Everyone seemed to be on their best behavior, something you normally don't see at hash dinners. This gala dinner was so over the top that I think everyone felt compelled to behave accordingly.

People will be talking about this dinner for years.

When things finally broke up (not sure when) , some folks went down to pub street for more drinking. Most of those staying at the Borei Angkor crashed (like myself).

Sunday featured the hangover run which was a city/street run that started at Borei Angkor hotel and ended at a restaurant (the Asian square) about 2 km away. This was not the original plan. We were supposed to go the countryside to a Cambodian hasher's property. However, there was a death in his family just a few days before, so it was now being used for funeral proceedings. The Asian square restaurant was organized only two days prior to our visit, which is quite impressive on such notice.

Asian square was a great choice. It was large enough to handle 300 or so people. Staff was great and so was the lunch. We also held the circle there. Same issues with the circle as on Saturday; there was no control. A loudspeaker or microphone would have helped immensely.

Attendance was a bit smaller on Sunday as some folks had early flights to catch.

Nothing was officially scheduled for Sunday night.

On Monday, though, was an add on event: the Mekong indochina full moon run. This is not formally part of IMH3 but unofficially it is. In the past, I had not stuck around for this, but I decided to this time. I'm glad I did. Attendance was limited to 150 people and it sold out. Organized by Bobo, this was run number 8 1/2. I'm not sure where the half comes in. It was mentioned in the circle but I don't remember the explanation. Anyway, we took buses out to one of the temple sites. Some shortcuts were provided but the slow folks, like me, still finished in the dark.

We ended at a really nice riverside restaurant where we had the circle out in the parking lot. This circle actually was well managed and Bobo did a great job presiding over it. Having 150 people on it made the difference. This turned out to be my favorite event of the weekend.

So how did the event go? I thought that it went off smoothly with few glitches. Short stump pretty much handled everything from the website to registration to organizing buses, dinners, etc. I believe he also set the run but he might have had some help there. So kudos to Short stump (Hanno) for pulling this off! And he doesn't even live there anymore.

A year ago, there was a bunch of whining about when registration would open up, etc.. I think it was around April or so when it finally was announced. Folks were complaining it was too late. Get a grip people! Lots of hash events only get organized four or five months out.. it seemed to be mostly first timers to IMH3 that were doing most of the whining. It would have been nice if we could have used PayPal instead of dealing with bank transfers but that's life.

Personally, I thought Hanno did a great job. There was plenty of communication on facebook with all the pertinent details provided.

No problems with the buses. They left on time. Runs were good.

Saturday dinner was fabulous!

No shortage of beer or food, no queues

Goody bag had the usual stuff in it. Nice tshirt, patch, mug, drawstring bag, beer condom..

I give the event an A.. well done Short Stump!

The next indochina Mekong hash will be held in Vientiane, Laos. I'm already registered as they were doing early bird registrations at Siem Reap. I'm sure this event will sell out too, so don't dally too long if you are thinking about going.

On on to Laos!

First Hash in Cuba!

Havana

CONTENTS

Following the Cuban Revolution, Fidel Castro set up the Havana baseball team called Los Barbudos (The Bearded Ones) named after the guerrilla fighters led by Camillo Cienfuegos and Che Guevara. Bizarrely he completely neglected to set up the Havana Hash. One can only assume he was distracted by the Bay of Pigs Invasion, Cuban Missile Crisis and 638 CIA assassination attempts, including an exploding cigar.

There is a US forces Hash in Guantanamo Bay but sadly, this is not easily accessible and the bright orange Hash Stash is not popular with the longer serving members of the Pack. However, times are changing in Cuba with closer ties to the US, a formal visit from President Obama and a softening of the 50 year embargo on cigars and rum. The future of Hashing in Cuba is also looking bright.

Negotiations are currently underway with China and a team of experienced Hash advisors is expected to deploy from Hong Kong to Cuba on the 14th April 2017 to set up the first ever Hash on Cuban territory, The Havana Hash House Harriers. The Hong Kong advisors will be drawn from the Royal South Side, Wanchai, Free China and Babes Hashes and will be representative of some of the most dedicated yet least able Hashers in Asia.

The 1st run of the Havana Hash is scheduled for the evening of the 15th April in Old Havana and will follow the route, well trodden by Ernest Hemingway between his favourite daiquiri and mojito bars. Any local or visiting Hashers are welcome to join. For more details contact Haggis via Harrier Magazine.

HASH la VICTORIA SIEMPRE!

Hanoi Hash Celebrates 25 Years of Mud, Sweat and Beers

by Reed Ramlow

The Hanoi Hash House Harriers celebrated their 25th “anniversary” with a weekend event from October 28-31 that attracted over 100 hashers, including from hash kennels in Phoenix, Copenhagen, Gold Coast Australia, merry England, iniquitous Pattaya, Manila, and Saigon.

The Olympian-sized event kicked-off with a beer fest at a sports bar near Hoan Kiem Lake and ended with a pub crawl in the Old Quarter of Hanoi. The next day, intrepid runners set off on a 15k ballbuster in the treacherous hills outside Hanoi, while the majority did a regular run and walk, replete with obligatory beer stops and a circle that honored old time returnees from past Hanoi Hash kennels, including the founding father, Testicles, who came in from Oz.

CONTENTS

Other old time stalwarts included Flashman, who dove into his old Hanoi warehouse to bestow upon the Hash the cheesiest 70's style vintage shorts known to Hash-kind.

The celebrating hashers enjoyed a whole spit-roasted pig and an assortment of Vietnamese specialties with free-flowing beer at the on at a new beer garden specially designed for the event. The Sunday morning hangover run featured an inspired tequila stop at the renowned Salt n' Lime restaurant owned by Cunt Stained Whiner, a Hanoi hasher in bad standing. Afterwards, hashers were treated to copious amounts of "gas beer" and fatty pork at the circle and classical "bia hoi" near West Lake in north Hanoi.

CONTENTS

The event ended with a Monday Halloween Pussy Hash run in the night where we hashed in costume and scared the shit out of some of the locals, though most thought it was good fun. After telling the visitors to fuck-off, we brought the proceedings to a merciful end, so that we could continue hashing in our usual inept way without trying to impress visiting wankers. We had so much fun though we might dream up another event soon, and yes, visitors always welcome in Hanoi, a wonderful place to hash!

2017 PHILIPPINE NASH HASH IN CEBU

MAY 19TH TO 21ST

2017

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN ON LINE

Click the Nash Hash logo at <http://www.cebuhash.org/index.php>

Cebu Hash is close to 20 years old and is based in and around Cebu City (approximately half way up or down on the east coast of Cebu Island).

Cebu is a long thin island with a narrow coastal plain along each coast with a multitude of steep-sided hills running south to north along its central spine. For Hashers, this means that much of the flat land is built up or fenced in. This leaves the hilly interior for most of our Runs. Browse our website at <http://cebuhash.org/index.php> to see the sort of places we regularly Hash.

Transporting a large numbers to some of our better run sites is not feasible. Therefore the main runs on the Saturday will all start and finish at the Kan Irag Nature Park close to halfway across the trans-central highway near to Ayala Heights. (Latitude 10°23'51.87"N and longitude 123°52'1.07"E on Google Earth).

Friday afternoon hikes and walks will be nearer the City. Sunday recovery runs will be on the coastal plane north of Cebu City.

Cebu City itself has many upmarket (expensive) hotels and a wide variety of lower cost (but OK) places to stay at. Those located along Gov Quenco Avenue and A.S. Fortuna Street are the best placed for access to our pick up point. We do not recommend staying on Mactan Island (Lapu Lapu) over a Hash weekend.

There are also a handful of large (expensive) beach resorts scattered around the island. Unfortunately, the more economical resorts are not very large. By the way, there is not a large red-light bar district as such in Cebu.

The 2017 Philippine Nash Hash over May 19TH to 21ST

Follow the links on <http://cebuhash.org/index.php>

BASIC OUTLINE PROGRAM – (Subject to change and more might be added)

Friday 19TH there will be an afternoon arduous hills hike trail just outside the city proper. This will overlap a short scenic waterfall walk for the less active Hashers. In early evening there will be a meet and greet party at the SandTrap pub (with free beer) to confirm registrations, etc..

For evening fun, a bar crawl run is being arranged (on a pay your way basis).

Saturday 20TH is the main run day and après circle party at Maria Luisa New Club House overlooking Cebu City.

A short walkers trail, a slightly longer one, and a 12km minimum ball buster. Open air circles leading on to gallons of beer with grub and entertainment till around midnight.

Sunday 21ST will see a late morning set of recovery runs (one short + one long). These will be within sight of the sea and will start and finish at a sub-division club house with a swimming pool.

FEES

ONLY PHILIPPINE PESO PAYMENTS
ACCEPTED

To cover all the costs and ensure plentiful beer supplies, we have set the event fee at Peso 4,500 per person to be paid via PayPal (including major credit cards) through the links on our website. The final cut off date is 20TH April 2017.

For those able to pay in cash in Cebu there will be a discount – Peso 4,000 in cash payable to Dribbles Weekly no later than 28TH February 2017. NOTE – cash payments must be in Philippine bank notes direct to our Hash Cash (Dribbles Weekly) and handed over here in Cebu BEFORE the 28/2/17 cut off date.

This is based on a limit of +/- 150 Hashers.

NB – Regardless of payment method, everyone must complete the online rego form so that we know T-shirt sizes and other preferences. Separate forms for each Hasher.

KOREA

- A REFRESHING HASHING EXPERIENCE

Hanyang Hash House Harriers & Harriettes (H5) of Korea is proud to offer itself as host of Pan Asia Hash 2017. The fact that there has never been any large scale hashing event in Korea means that, for most of the prospective participants, this Pan Asia will be a very refreshing hashing experience indeed.

We specifically chose Sokcho City as the event venue: on the fringe of this city is the world-renowned Seorak Mountain National Park which, for many Korean soap opera aficionados, has often been the surreal backdrop. The proposed dates are similarly selected, for late October ushers in the most spectacular autumnal colours, best highlighted by the rainbow hues of the maples.

Participants will get to savour the K-food phenomenon that has been taking the gastronomic world literally by storm. Be enamored by the extensive spread of Korean delights - the quintessential Ginseng Chicken Soup; the omnipresent mouth-watering beef, lamb, and pork barbecues; the huge varieties of fresh – and often live - seafood eaten either raw/sashimi-style, or prepared in dozens of off-secret recipes unbeknownst to other parts of the world. All these, and more, washed down with world famous brands of beers, or with the uniquely Korean soju and makgoeli.

The time is ripe for a refreshing change of scenery, of style, of food and beverage, and of a completely new hashing experience. We are a new troupe of organizers, backed by the provincial government, and supported by experience from the Motherland of hashing.

Give your affirmation for a refreshing change!

KOREA - THE VENUE OF CHOICE

- ACCESSIBLE – round trip as low as USD200-250 from most SE Asian cities
- AFFORDABLE – conveniently located rooms could be had for as little as USD35-40
- ASTHETIC – be enchanted by autumn at its full fall colours
- VIRGINAL – hash in assuredly hitherto never-before-hashed territory
- GOVERNMENT-BACKED – the provincial government is enthusiastically supportive
- GASTRONOMIC – pamper your sensory glands with inimitable K-flavours
- INTOXICATING – infuse yourself with the full range of uniquely Korean beverages
- COMFORTABLE – experience hashing in low-humidity at temperatures in the mid-teens
- ENTERTAINING - revel in live K-pop performances and cultural shows
- PERFECTION – enjoy the Koreans' relentless strive for perfection!

Frontera's Sizzling Fajitas

It was 1973 in Houston, Texas on Navigation street where a young tejanita named Hina first popularized the famous Tex-Mex dish now known as "fajitas".

We pay homage to Mama Hina everyday by making our fajitas the traditional way. Marinated overnight in Frontera's proprietary blend of authentic Tex-Mex spices and served sizzling hot with a stack of fresh house-made tortillas.

Real Tex-Mex only at Frontera.

Laguna Phuket Marathon 2017

2017 marks the 12th edition of Laguna Phuket Marathon organized by Go Adventure Asia. The event will be held over two days, the 3rd and 4th of June 2017. The 2 Km, 5 Km and 10.5 Km races will take place on Saturday afternoon, 3rd of June, whereas the half marathon and marathon will be on Sunday morning, 4th of June.

The Laguna Phuket Marathon attracts participants from all across the globe. In 2016 there were around 6,000 runners from more than 60 nationalities represented. Just like in previous years, the race starts and finishes at beautiful Laguna Phuket. Runners follow the course out of Laguna and then head north through local villages, pineapple and rubber plantations. It is a fun and family oriented affair in conjunction with the Laguna Phuket Foundation, which supports educational and social development of local communities, marine and natural environmental conservation.

All races categories are timed.

The 19th Annual Amari Watergate Bangkok Charity Midnight Run

Amari Watergate Bangkok will be hold The 19th Annual Amari Watergate Bangkok Charity Midnight Run on Saturday, 21 January 2017. This is the only race in Bangkok to be held at midnight, offering runners a unique experience of running under the fabulous atmosphere of Bangkok at night.

Each year, the race brings together people from across the globe, with last year's run raising an incredible 4 million THB. This year, the race proceeds will go to three major charities, the Chalerm Prakiat HRH Princess Sirindhorn School in Lamphoon province and Baht for a Better Life, an Amari CSR project dedicated to offering educational opportunities for underprivileged children in Bangkok and rural areas.

The race gives competitors a choice to choose between two distances: 6k and a half marathon length of 12k, taking place on Phetchburi Road in the heart of the city. Runners of all ages and nationalities come together for this special event. Last year, 6,000 runners came to compete. The starting and finishing points are located at Amari Watergate. There will be police and security crew present to guard the entire race route. Entry is 800 THB for both distance.

Online application is available at <http://www.gotorace.com/events/category/running/> from now until 20 January 2017, after which all applications should be made directly to the hotel by calling +66 (0)2 653 9000 ext. 69.

Q: Where can I view my current subscription term so that I know when my subscription ends?

A: To view your current subscription term and renewal subscriptions sign on at www.harriermagazine.com/subscriptions/ and click on the "My Subscriptions" link.

All subscriptions will be displayed.

Q: I moved a while ago and asked the postal service to have my mail forwarded to my new address yet I still have not received any magazines. When can I expect to receive my copies?

A: If your mailing address has changed please take a minute to email your new address to customerservice@harriermagazine.com. This will ensure that you receive your next issue in a timely manner or at all. A magazine is in a mail classification that is not always forwarded to the new address by the postal service. Unforwardable mail is usually either returned to the sender or discarded.

The Hash Darwin Awards

Old Chaz, the chap on the right, in one of his sober moments, put forward the notion of “survival of the fittest”, a concept that implies that the removal from the gene pool (usually by death) of its weaker members, thereby strengthens the survival chances of the remainder. However, here at OTI, we do not encourage the extermination of the less able, the feeble, or the intellectually challenged. Rather, we encourage them to become hashers! Further, this column aims to be a forum where the moronic misdeeds of hashers might be chronicled in pursuit of that noblest of pastimes, namely, having cheap laughs at other people’s expense. With that in mind, I offer the following:

WRITE ON, WRITE OFF

Charles Darwin

The few, the happy few, who constitute the regular readers of this column, know that it is ostensibly about the various “hilarious” misdeeds committed by hashers on or off trail. The idea being that said hashers would send details about said “hilarious” happenings to me and I would simply compile them here for the entertainment and edification of all.

Naturally, of course, that doesn’t happen. In fact the only regular correspondence I do receive is the dreaded quarterly email from the publisher, sent from some exotic clime where he is sipping craft beers at some hash event your subscription money pays for. This email is always couched in friendly tones, and who couldn’t afford to sound amicable when writing from such an environment? Moreover the content of the message is always the same: could I write an OT column by Sunday midnight? Never one to do as I’m told, I always push the deadline boat as far from shore as possible. Thus it is that, at the ungodly hour of 9am on a Monday, I find myself at my desk, in front of my laptop, with a large Lao coffee healthily laced with brandy, and only my talent for company, turning out yet another literary masterpiece for you.

Speaking of literature, it is one of the topics I often turn to in this column. This is largely because, in the absence of reader contributions, I am left to muse on topics that interest me, and these extend principally to literature and drink. Leaving aside drink for a moment, as my wife would no doubt like me to do for a much longer period, the biggest recent event in literature has to be the awarding of the Nobel Prize in that field to Bob Dylan. This has drawn criticism from some but not from me, a hardcore Dylan fan from my teenage years – and those were in the 80’s when Bob was not exactly doing his best work, “Desire” excepted. Indeed, in response to that hoary old challenge about what books and music one would take to a hypothetical desert island, I reckon Dylan’s complete discography and the complete works of Graham Greene would see me through.

*TWO HANDS TWO BEERS, TWO FEET TWO HARRIER SOCKS, KING NEVILLE SITTING

It is interesting to note that in Dylan's acceptance speech at the Nobel Ceremony, which naturally he didn't attend because he's too cool for things like that, he pondered whether his work was deserving of the title of literature, much less being worthy of winning a prize in it. This is at least one area where Uncle Bob and I have a similar view. Scribblings such as these columns I turn out for you wouldn't even qualify for the Nobel Prize in Shiterature were such a thing to exist.

However, if a Nobel is beyond me, there are always more modest accolades I can aim for. One is the Bulwer-Lytton Fiction Prize. Ever heard of it? I thought not. While the annual prize may be obscure, the man after whom it is named may be a little less so, just a little. Edward Bulwer-Lytton (1803-1873) was a minor Victorian novelist whose best known work is "The Last Days of Pompeii" (1834). And while I'm sure you've never read it, you've probably seen one of the numerous movie adaptations made over the years. Well, Bulwer-Lytton has become something of a cult figure in literary circles since he is considered a master of prolix, ungainly and generally bad writing. His most famous, and much parodied, sentence is the opening line to his 1830 novel, Paul Clifford: "It was a dark and stormy night; the rain fell in torrents — except at occasional intervals, when it was checked by a violent gust of wind which swept up the streets (for it is in London that our scene lies), rattling along the housetops, and fiercely agitating the scanty flame of the lamps that struggled against the darkness".

Yep, firstly, you know it (at least the first part) and, secondly, you can see it's not good. So much so that there exists the annual contest I mentioned where one is challenged to write as bad an opening sentence as possible for a novel and submit it. Here's one of my favourite entries (which won a special prize) from the 2016 contest: "After his seventh shot of Jack Daniels, Billy reflected that only a certain kind of man, a Roman Catholic priest, born under the sign of Gemini, whose loved one had been run down by a bus full of inebriated Lazio supporters on a glorious Sunday morning in early April outside a provincial church whose bells were ringing Bach's Tocatta and Fugue in B minor, would truly be able to understand the abyss of despair in which he was drowning". Now that takes talent.

As ever amongst the lumpenproletariat at most hash runs when the topic of conversation rises above football and whores, the question is shouted, "What's this got to do with the Hash?"

The answer is simple. I propose a competition: The AKM Prize for LiHHHterature. Submit to me via email the opening sentence for a Hash write-up of a run, real or imaginary. Submit one sentence only, of any length, and try to make it as bad, tortured, pun-ridden or laboured as you possibly can. (That won't be hard for many of you — well, the puns might). Winners will be announced in this column and there WILL be prizes (which you may expect to be pitiful).

So, over to you. Send your contributions to slater.ian@gmail.com. Any entries offering bribes in the form of sexual favours must be accompanied by a photograph.

I look forward to hearing from you. And now, since it is 9.29am, I'm going back to bed.

On On to the next issue.

WE'LL BE THERE WILL YOU?

OTHER SPORTING NEWS

Nicola Sturgeon refuses to accept result of England vs Scotland match and believes the result was 'wrong' and will fight for it to be overturned. The 3-0 defeat was the wrong result for Scotland, she said, and pledged to do everything in her power to reverse the scoreline no matter how long it takes. Reports indicate she has already made a succession of calls to Senior UEFA and FIFA officials to seek their support in changing the outcome. If she cannot get the result changed by conventional methods, Sturgeon confirmed she has not taken demanding a replay off the table. "I don't believe this result is in the best interest of Scotland, or of football, and it is clear that changing it would be entirely fair," she told reporters at Holyrood. "UEFA's position that the result is binding just because we lost is short-termist and doesn't serve the Scottish people in the way they deserve." Sturgeon went on to say she believed England had stolen literally dozens of goals that were rightfully Scottish, and she would organise a wide-ranging consultation and enquiry to examine all aspects of the result and report on how it can best be changed in Scotland's favour. Meanwhile, today's copy of The National newspaper is reporting that Scotland won 18-0 before burning Wembley to the ground.

Jose Mourinho to motivate players for future Premier and Euro matches by punching them in the face. Manchester United manager Jose Mourinho is to take his confrontational style of management a stage further and prepare all his players for the up-coming Christmas and New Year holiday matches by punching them all squarely in the face. And if that don't work a kick in the groin as a follow up. The news follows Mourinho's criticism of Chris Smalling for not playing with a broken toe and Luke Shaw for having a broken leg and not being 'brave.' "My players are all total bastards," said the grumpy Portuguese, either as some magnificent psychological game that no one but he can understand, or as another stage in what increasingly looks like a total psychotic breakdown. "I despise them for not making the goals I want, but I am Mourinho. I understand players. How to make them play better for me. "I will punch them in the face. All of them. I will continue to punch them all in the face until they score all the goals I want them to. "I am no longer the Special One, I am the Punchy One." Pundits seemed impressed with Mourinho's plans. "The problem with players today is they're soft-arsed, headphone shitters," said Mourinho, angrily. "A punch in the face would do them all the power of good.

Is it a bird? Is it a plane?

A London man was driving home from Christmas shopping when, on a bend, he noticed the car coming the opposite way was hurtling at a great speed and had a huge tree precariously tied to the roof. The tree lifted clean off the roof and flew through the air, striking Mr Fairclough's bonnet and leaving a massive dent. The culprit sped off as quickly as he could and when the police arrived, they said he may as well keep the tree.

SMALL SPANISH WAITER AT PEARLY GATES REPEATEDLY TELLING ST PETER 'I KNOW NOTHING'

MANUEL FAWLTLY TOWERS

St Peter is refusing to let a small Spanish waiter enter the gates of Heaven unless he can explain why he is there. As is custom, St Peter is checking names off the list and asking those in the queue why they should be let into Heaven. However, the small Spanish waiter merely smiled and told St Peter, "I know nothing."

St Peter clarified that he just wanted to know about his life and why he should be allowed in, to which the Spanish waiter cleared his throat and repeated, "I know norrthing."

With the queue growing at an ever expanding rate, as is the norm in 2016, a clearly exasperated St Peter said he just wanted to know a bit about what sort of person he was and why he should be rewarded with a place in Heaven. The water straightened his jacket and with a tap on the side of his nose, explained, "I know norrrthing."

At the time of publication one member of the queue appears to have rectified the situation, by helping the kind-hearted waiter realise the severity of the situation with a swift whack to the back of the head.

Andrew Sachs died in London on November 23, 2016 at the age of 86 remembered by generations not just a great comedian and actor, he was an icon and an all-around inspiration to everyone..Although Andrew Sachs is no longer physically here, his presence is more powerful than ever. He left a void that has yet to be filled.

BRUSSELS SPROUTS TO BE RENAMED

Brussels sprouts to be renamed London sprouts in latest EU vindictive mindles spat. EU commissioners have today warned that Britain will have to change the name of a popular vegetable when it quits the union.

Under international trade rules, Brussels could and would ban the British from describing the brassica as being from Brussels in what is being seen as the opening salvo of a tit-for-tat trade war.

"This shows that leaving the EU is an immediate threat to the Traditional British Christmas Dinner", the remainers have announced to the nation.

"Eating a Brussels sprout is all about stuffing something deeply unpleasant down your throat in a misguided belief you're doing the right thing.

"So the relationship between sprouts and EU membership is clear."

However, the Leave campaign have reacted with fury at the decree, with supremo Boris Johnson calling it a "blisteringly bananas bunch of Brussels baloney."

Describing sprouts as being as British as fish and chips, Spag Bol and chicken Korma, Johnson went on to paint a picture of a post-Brexit future where children could eat sprouts whenever they wanted unencumbered by Eurocrat red tape. Johnson spoke of a post-Brexit future where happy children in short trousers would skip to the corner shop and buy a bag of sprouts for a shiny ha'penny before eagerly devouring them on a sun-kissed, grassy hillside far from the horrors of Bongo-Bongo EU land.

Meanwhile, the Dutch government have announced plans to restrict British access to orange carrots in the event of Brexit, claiming that if the British want to see in the dark, they can eat rabbits.

In a related article, the family planning Association have warned the birthrate may go up as the French have put forward a motion that we can't use French letters.

But on the other hand, 'no pun intended' the froggies will not be able to use a "capote anglaise" or "English hood" as it's called in froggieland...Anyway the first modern condoms were "invented" by an English surgeon named John.

CHRISTMAS PUDDINGS FROM SPACE

A Christmas plumb pudding laced with cider and ale has "returned safely from space", organisers have said. SentIntoSpace said it landed in Low Bentham, North Yorkshire about 50 miles from where it was launched, at about 13:30 GMT on Thursday.

"It was in decent shape, apart from the fact the holly came off when it landed and it had broken into two pieces," said Dan Blaney of the Sheffield firm.

Tracking software revealed the Christmas Plumb Pudding was attached to a weather balloon climbed to 29,500m (97,000ft). It had been launched about two-and-a-half hours earlier from Roby Mill in Wigan, Greater Manchester before landing near the Lancashire-North Yorkshire border.

SentIntoSpace, who also attached a video camera to the box containing the Pudding and tracking device, wanted to find out whether "space travel" affects the molecular structure of Christmas Puddings - not to mention how they taste.

Mr Blaney said: "I have contemplated eating a bit of it after all the results from the laboratory are complete."

St Helens-based Ultimate Purveyors were commissioned to make the pudding.

The Christmas pudding was launched to promote the World Christmas Pudding Eating Championships in Wigan on 22 December following the success of the previous year when a box of mince pies were sent into space and returned undamaged.

HASH # 106-1ST DECEMBER 1991
25 LONG HASHY YEARS AGO

When we arrived, I saw several Hashers who I hadn't seen for some time. Which is always a good excuse, so I had a quick hug and kiss with Maria, and then because Tony looked so sad I gave him one on the cheek too.

Next in line stood Double Diamond, but there I drew the line. I mean his beard would have got right up my nose, wouldn't it? Know what I mean John???

Then I noticed Monica and Mark all the way from Paris.

The life in Paris was obviously agreeing with her as Monica had certainly put on weight and looked quite rounded. Mind you she couldn't care less, in fact she was really pleased about it all. We can expect the sound of a tiny hashers feet in January.

In the corner, I aspired a stunning young lady with a beautiful face, deep brown eyes and the cheekiest grin you could imagine. It was the first time I had seen Elaine since her Dad had a Hash in September.

We were two even groups of walkers and runners when we set off to find our way back to Malibog's flat.

The pack consisted of eight Hashers, the hare and a dog. And we were all pleasantly surprised when we found out that Malibog had been merciful to us and has set a short run. Well so he said.

We started pf carefully as there was ice underfoot. We boldly went where no hash had been before. Namely crossing the unknown and hostile territory over the new junction behind Norra Station. It was slow going as while we could see Malibog's puffs of flour clearly on the ground we often missed his little yellow arrows chalked onto lamp-posts and trees.

The Fontainebleau Flyer or Paris Express, in other words Mark, in his haste often missed these arrows and sped past in completely the wrong direction. This enabled us other Hashers to get in front again. Tony trying to be clever and a smart arse short cutted and found the new trail.

We emerged out of Hagaparken and diced with death as we followed the trail directly across the E4. Malibog had to find the nearest crossing as his dog, remembering her training, wasn't stupid enough to be led across a busy road.

Nearly home we came across a rather bedraggled bearded Christmas tree seller who turned out to be our very own Noslo. Sorry lads I can't cone on the Hash, I must earn my crust. As none of us has any money we couldn't buy any trees but we did stop the dog from pissing on the trees. So, after a beautifully judged run we all ended back at Malibog's place.

Ever wonder what our life might have been like if I hadn't testified against the mob & gone into this crazy witness protection program?

THE BERSERKERS FULL MOON HASH #17

RE-HASHED FROM 20 YEARS AGO - HARE TERMITE

Origin of the Phrase 'To Go Berserk' After a demented Norse warrior, Berserker who wore only a bearskin in battle.

I think even Berserker would have put on more than his usual bearskin on this night minus 19 degrees Centigrade, the lowest record temperature for a Hash in Stockholm meant that only those old contemptibles Oily Spanner, Malibog, Termite and the equally crazy Marmite turned out for this one.

Oily kept threatening to short cut if the trail was too long. Trouble was he never really knew where he was until we ran through the grounds of Långbro Nuthouse, and by that time we were on the way back- 8 Kilometres, 10 cheques and 60 minutes later we arrived back. The temperature was now minus 20 C. So a cold beer. A long sauna and a steaming plate of mushroom and leek soup made it seem worthwhile. Any volunteers to hare the next Full Moon?.....Termite

VEGETARIANS NO LONGER ALLOWED TO EAT £5 NOTES

Vegetarian's Christmas meals in jeopardy. Vegetarians surviving solely on a diet of old £5 notes will no longer be able to survive after it was revealed the new fiver contains small amounts of tallow, derived from animal waste products. Filled almost entirely with plastic polymers, vegetarians are often given a rough ride by unfair comments akin to this one. Vegetarian Simon Williams, said, "This is disgraceful. As usual, we are a small minority who have not been given a second thought during this whole reinvention of the fiver business. "I assure you there are units maybe even ten, of us out there - Vegetarians who subsist entirely by eating paper money.

Now we'll have to move to tenners instead, seeing our Christmas food bills literally increase 100%. "The price of food will rocket as we'll have to start sourcing twenties and finally fifties. Thought eating fifties isn't that big a deal as no-one will break them anyway." Williams continued, "As millions of new five pound notes enter circulation, our food source is literally being taken away from us and we are getting hungrier and hungrier. "I've even heard stories of like-minded individuals wolfing down euros in desperation, and even they're getting more and more expensive by the day. "They probably won't even be available once this Brexit mess is sorted out."

ON MY THURD DRINK OF CHRISTMAS

I was down at our local pub have a couple of pre-Christmas beers the other night and I met the local Catholic priest who had just popped in to give the last rights to the bitter. The Landlady was just about to give me her usual then her husband walked in and that paid for that. It was a bit of an eventful evening actually. At one point, there was total panic and the whole pub had to be evacuated after a tip-off that someone had planted a Justin Bieber record on the juke box.

Which somehow reminds me about the two Scotsmen on a Christmas holiday in Italy and naturally the chaps are after a good time. They've both drawn a blank looking for street walkers in Rome and one night they end up in this little bar near the Vatican. Where one of them carefully consults his Italian phrase-book. 'Hey you, Wop face, gee us two pints o' draft Tartan.' Whereupon the barman replies, 'Sorry, we no sella thesa draft Tartan. So our two Scotsmen reconsider and one of them says, 'Well when in Rome we shou'doo what the Romans do. I got a wee idea, tell us what that chappie the Pope drinks and we'll have some o' that,' So the barman says, 'Ah si, His Holiness the Pope, he is very fond of the crème de menthe.'

So the Scotsmen says, ' Right, in that case give us two pints o' draft crème de menthe.' So to cut a long story short they spend the next night putting away tankards of crème de menthe and the next morning wake up with an almighty hangover. The first Scotsman delicately eases himself up from under the table, double glazed eyes, head like the inside of a telephone exchange and turns to his friend and says, 'Ahh Jeez, if that's the stuff the Pope drinks no wonder they always carry him round in a fooking chair Anyway, I got chatting to the priest, who is actually a big improvement on the old priest who left recently under rather embarrassing circumstances. He was not only defrocked but had his earrings and Channel handbag confiscated. This new priest had a much more commercial approach. He was the one who introduced the drive-in confessional box, and his latest gimmick, the Senior Citizen Super Saver. If you're over sixty-five you can sin anywhere in the UK at weekends for only five Hail Marys.

Note: This offer does not include the EU

Anyway, we were chatting and he told me about this Jesuit priest who one day decides to go on a missionary expedition to darkest Africa, and he is a bit jittery in case it turns out to be a bit dangerous, so he prays to God. He says 'Look as a devout Christian I am a firm believer in life after death, I support Donald Trump, but if it's all the same to you I'd rather not get killed because I'm not sure how it will affect my social life.'

To which God replies 'Don't worry already' seems like he can never get over his Jewish inheritance, 'I will look after you. All I ask is that you trust me, no matter what happens, trust me and I will look after you' So off goes our intrepid priest and a month later there he was trekking across Africa to his mission station on the back of this donkey. And just as they were starting to climb up the mountainside, all of a sudden there was this mighty avalanche and the priest goes hurtling down the mountain again and ends up clinging precariously by his finger nails to a wafer-thin precipice, while down below in the swirling waters there is this monstrous crocodile snapping away. Now don't ask me why a crocodile was taking photographs, I don't know, perhaps it was a Japanese tourist.

Now at this point a small single seater aeroplane happens to be passing overhead and the pilot looks down and says 'Excuse me sir, I can't help noticing that you are clinging precariously by your finger nails to a wafer-thin precipice, is everything all right? Remembering what he has been told, the priest steels himself and bravely replies 'Yes, I have put my trust in God and He will protect me.' And the plane flies away. Later on, some natives are paddling up river in a boat and one of them stops and asks if he needs any help, and again the priest replies 'No, I have put my trust in God and He will protect me.' And they paddle away down river. An hour later a helicopter whirls overhead and naturally the chap inside learns out and calls down and asks the priest if he is in trouble, once again the priest, still sustained by his faith replies, replies 'No, I have put my trust in God and He will look after me.' At which point he fall of the ledge and is eaten by the crocodile. The next thing he knows he's walking around Heaven and he meets God. 'This is terrible,' he says. 'You said if I put my faith in you you'd look after me. What went wrong?' And God replies. 'Well I don't quite know, I sent a plane, a boat and a helicopter for you...'

The BH7 # 2005 21st November 2016
The Spotted Dog at Angmering

Before we continue with the frantic antics of this run we will go back in time one week to the Marquis of Granby after the annual foray into Sompting.

Various Down downs were given in the circle. Pondweed was lambasted for not supplying the much-publicised super moon due to the cloud cover, while co-hare, Ride-itBaby somehow managed to get lost with a map, undoing her earlier short-cut to take Lily the Pink on an extended return and Wiggly seems to be lost again. Highlight of the circle was Bouncer announcing the next run with first the bad news, MaliBog was to be the co-hare, which was followed by a collective groan knowing they were in for a long difficult sod of a run, climbing fences and avoiding pot-holes, and secondly the good news, Malibog has a hernia and a buggered knee, this being followed by collective jubilation knowing that he wouldn't be capable of anything real drastic.

How nice is it to have friends who care about one's injuries and lesions?

So on with the run.

Despite only getting to run with us once or twice a year, Sir MaliBog regularly manages to squeeze in a haring. Rejecting first choice, the 6 bells at Lyminster, due to lack of territory and the distance, this year saw a return trip to Angmering village for a cheeky little route reversal of the trail from 4 years back from the Lamb, albeit in the dark of winter.

Pretty severe weather hampered the trail setting, as well as a mischievous hernia, so the visitor set the walkers route, who finding himself wandering through a farm-yard drive way was questioned by the farmer what he was doing there. On being told the farmer replied that he did not want the pack running through his farm-yard as he had enough shit on the drive way anyway. Meanwhile Bouncer was left to mark the main trail through the muddy fields and ponds near Poling eventually meeting up with Malibog on a mud laden lane leading to a footbridge over Black Ditch and the Golf Course.

.....By the way, did anyone mention it was pissing down?

On to the evening. Not many braved the rain, which in the finest hash tradition stopped before the off anyway, but the trail, marked with a sawdust/ flour mix held up well as we cut across the fields and overflowing ponds to Poling before returning across the golf courses, via a couple of fish hooks, to a sip stop managed by the wounded MaliBog and Red Sausage (Red Horse) with beer courtesy of On-Don at the Worthing Rugby Club.

Here they sat up a welcoming table with the cask of beer, plastic mugs and four cartons of scones, unfortunately a squall of rain hit them, tossing the beer on the ground, (it survived), and dampening half of the scones.

Sadly many missed the Harveys & scones and returned on the out trail when they ran through an arrow (which should really have been a hold check!), although Keeps It Up did continue past the pub to reverse the correct in-trail back to the sip, where Angel was bemused to see Bouncer necking the beer despite claiming to be on the wagon, justifying it using some alcohol leakage factor! At the pub we learned that Prince Crashpian had lost the out-trail, the walkers had lost it completely (returning on the walkers out trail after taking the runners start and missing the sip!), while Chopper and co had lost the pub! With renovation going on, we found ourselves shunted through piles of furniture to a back room, which at least, given the pubs refusal to contribute, gave us the opportunity to use up the sip beer for down downs, which were conducted by Mudlark. The hares duly downed, Pirate was called for running in Jesus creepers along with Wiggy who'd interrupted with some witticism. Visitor from London H3, Killed Kenny, had gone above and beyond the call of duty by cycling all the way from Brighton, while Bouncer was elected stand-in numpty for fishhook cruelty catching Mudlark twice, even though Psychlepath had refused to return. Another great hash!...Bouncer PS On leaving the Pub, Angel noticed the remaining two soggy cartons of uneaten scones and said, 'I'll take them home for my boys, they luv'em'.

One wonders what they usually get fed on if soggy scones are a culinary highlight.

BUTTOCK TATTOO TERROR LANDS ROTHERHAM PAIR IN HOSPITAL

A furious row has broken out between a local tattoo artist and his client after what started out as a routine inking session, left both of them requiring emergency hospital treatment.

Vintage film fan and part time plus size model Tracey Munter (23), had visited the Ink It Good Tattoo Emporium on Wellgate last week to have the finishing touches applied to a double buttock representation of the chariot race scene from the iconic 1959 film, Ben Hur. Tattooist Jason Burns takes up the story. "It was a big job in more ways than one," he told us "I'd just lit a roll up and was finishing off a centurions helmet. It's delicate, close up work. Next thing is, I sense a slight ripple in her buttock cleavage area just around Charlton Heston's whip, and a hissing sound – more of a whoosh than a rasp – and before I know what's happening, there's a flame shooting from her arse up to my roll-up and my beards gone up like an Aussie bush fire."

Jason says he rushed to the studio sink to quell the flames, only to turn round and see Tracey frantically fanning her buttock area with a damp towel. The flames had travelled down the gas cloud and set fire to her thong which was smoking like a cheap firework. "To be honest", said Jason, "I didn't even realise she was wearing one. You'd need a sodding mining licence and a torch to find out for sure. She could have had a complete wardrobe in there and I'd have been none the wiser."

A very popular Harriette from the Stockholm Hash went to her doctor and found out that she was pregnant. The doctor says, "I know that you are not married! Do you know who the father of this baby is?" She thought and then asked, "Doc, if you ate a can of Baked Beans, would you know which bean made you fart?"

---onon---

An Avon Lady was delivering products in a high-rise and was riding in the elevator. Suddenly, she had the powerful urge to fart. Since no one was in the elevator, she let it go – and it was a doozy. Of course, the elevator then stopped at the next floor, so she quickly used some Avon Pine-Scented Spray to cover up the smell. A Brighton Hasher entered the elevator and immediately made a face. "Holy cow! What's that smell?" "I don't know, sir" replied the operator. "I don't smell anything. What does it smell like to you?" "Like someone crapped a Christmas tree."

Jason and Tracey were taken to Rotherham District Hospital accident and emergency department where they were treated for minor burns and shock. Both are adamant that the other is to blame.

"I'm furious" said Jason, "I've got a face like a mangle- ridden dog and my left eyebrow's not there any more. I don't know about Ben Hur – Gone With The Wind's more like it. You don't just let rip in someone's face like that. It's dangerous." But Tracey remains both angry and unrepentant; "I'm still in agony," she said, "And Charlton Heston looks more like Sidney bloody Poitier now. Jason shouldn't have had a fag on the go, and there's no way I'd guff on purpose. He'd had me up on his bench on all fours for nearly an hour. I can only put up with that for so long before nature takes its course.

My Kev knows that. I give him my five second warning and I'd have done the same for Jason, but I didn't get chance – it just crept out." Ted Walters from the South Yorkshire Fire and Rescue service wasn't surprised when we told him what had happened "People just don't appreciate the dangers..." he told us, "We get called out to more flatulence ignition incidents than kitchen fires these days, now people have moved over to oven chips. We have a slogan 'Flame 'n fart – keep 'em apart'. Anyone engaging in an arse inking scenario would do well to bear that in mind in future."

A woman's fart during an operation started a fire that resulted in her suffering serious burns.

Japanese media reported that the patient, in her 30s, was having a form of laser surgery on her cervix at the Tokyo Medical University Hospital.

But the woman let one rip during the op – with the fart believed to have ignited the laser.

The resulting fire left her with serious burns to much of her body, including her waist and legs. The incident happened in the hospital's Shinjuku Ward in April, but the details have only emerged recently following an investigation into the flames.

A committee of experts examined the case and released a report about the incident. Their findings showed that no flammable materials were in the operating theatre during the surgery.

100 or 'HOW DID YOU LIVE FOR SO LONG?'

Copied from the Hash Trash 25 years ago on December 1991

The 100th Hash was run on the 28th September 1991 and this report was written on the 10th November and published in the Trash on the 7th December. None of that 'run it, report it, forget it' rubbish for the undersigned. Oh no, 'run it, forget it, report it', that's the way to do it. You'll never achieve Hash Trash immortality by 'telling it as it was'. Stranger-than-fiction is the way to do a successful write-up- Use the same approach to the writing as to the running - willing suspension of disbelief. I know I was on the hundredth Hash, I remember it distinctly. It's just that I don't remember it clearly, (if you know what I mean)

When you run a Hash, some nice person has run ahead and dropped little piles of flour to guide you along (an intense physical experience judging from the flour-caked face of Eagermount after laying the Upplandsgatan Hash trail in November).

When you report a Hash your only guide is the politely blinking cursor on the word-processor telling you not where to go next but simply reminding you that this is as far you have got and challenging you to go in the right direction.

The hundredth Hash attracted a large pack of runners who swept over everything in their path as they surged out of the car-park at Ulriksdals Vårdhus.

Sweeping and surging was in fact as good as it got for several minutes until the fifty or sixty suspenders of disbelief cottoned on to the fact that this was to be a radical trail that set of downhill and not uphill. The Hash turned scenic, s&s'ing through the formal gardens, veering here, swerving there, basically going nowhere. Bad direction but good attitude you could say. Best of all, a shared sense of purpose, look for the trail but don't find it. No whistles either, Malibog had just had a 'man's operation' and although present was non-participating, puffless and silent.

So, there we were, just jogging along quietly, thank you very much, not bothering anyone, minding our own business when Two Pricks and Noslo abruptly beamed down from somewhere unspeakable, uttered the dreaded words

'Chicken or Eagle', and promptly beamed up again (or was it beamed on-on?) Well I mean to say, we are all Eagles at heart, aren't we? 'Nuff said, off we s&s'ed, transformed into Eagles (except one poor sod in tropical gear who was transformed into a MP) only to come crashing through the undergrowth down to the E4 with nowhere else to go but across the motorway. (Or was that for the chickens?) From nowhere a merry band of excited bird-watchers materialized in our midst and headed off to town. 'Way to go' we all cheered and fell in behind them. Truly a magnificent sight, the largest flock of eagles ever spotted in Swede.

From then on it was downhill mentally and uphill physically. Two Pricks soft landed atop a very steep slope and purveyed drink to the survivors who then slithered and careened down down to the road and back to the car-park where a specially-arranged convoy of cheering Hash aficionados in wedding attire cruised past to cheer us up. Very effective, thank you Two Pricks!

The On-On looked for all the world like a party, and a nice one too. Great food, good prices and top-class service. Noslo and Tropical Rick were on the stage briefly but were quickly ushered off when they embarked on a negative analysis of the Hash attendance figures. Much more fun was the performing cat who entertained us for a while before slipping off discretely to her next engagement. Technically a very un-Hashlike evening, little singing, few obscenities band no fist fights. On behalf of all the revellers a warm thanks to everyone involved in the arrangements, a great success.

An evening that will be long remembered, distinctly if not clearly!.....D:I:N:C
