Editor's Notes

*There's so much time to make up everywhere you turn
Time we have wasted on the way.
So much water moving underneath the bridge
Let the water come and carry us away.*

Where were you in 2002 when Michael Jackson was named Artist of the Century at the American Music Awards? How about when Tiger Woods won his second consecutive Masters Golf Tournament? And where were you standing when two bombs exploded near a popular Bali nightclub killing 202 and injuring 209 bystanders in what was described as the worst act of terrorism in Indonesia's history?

Meanwhile, in beautiful downtown Bangkok, a much younger editor-in-chief was up to his armpits in alligators, creating the first edition of Asia-Pacific Harrier Magazine. Several weeks later he boarded a flight to Goa with a few hundred copies of the first edition hot off the press.

Interhash XX in Goa was the brainchild of Eric 'Digit' McGaw, of the Hyderabad H3. Coordinated by an international committee with more hashing experience than any previous HHH event, it adopted the motto 'Hashing by Hashers for Hashers'.

Fast-forward 15 years to 2017... a team of dedicated correspondents and contributors from all over the globe join forces to publish Harrier Magazine every month. Hash superstars like Hash Boy now grace each edition, along with On the Ice, and regional features from around the world.

The Evolution of Harrier Magazine 2002-2017

Milestones

- 2002: Asia-Pacific Harrier launched at Goa Interhash in September 2002.
- 2005: In January 2005 we went global; this was the first time International Edition was on the Harrier Magazine cover.
- 2009: Harrier Magazine founder Jim Edens met photographer Jimmy Wilkins in Vientiane, Laos. Jimmy moved on from a contributing photographer to become the Graphic Designer for Harrier Magazine.
- 2009: October Asia-Pacific was dropped from the magazine title. We became Harrier Magazine International Edition, better describing the global content of the publication.
- 2012: The Digital Edition officially became a monthly stand-alone publication in August 2012. We announced it in the July-September 2012 quarterly print edition.
- 2012: The cover boy for the 10th

Anniversary edition was a now famous image of a hasher who clearly did not believe what he saw before him at a big hash event. Was it the Grim Reaper, or perhaps a long lost love he'd been dodging for years?

- 2017: The October-December 2017 edition marks 15 years of Harrier Magazine.

IN THIS EDITION:

Fiji calls with the latest updates on Interhash 2018. Where or what is Lautoka, and why do we need to know? And why are local Fijians seeing red even before Interhash 2018 officially gets underway this coming May? If Interhash Fiji is in your sights, you owe it to yourself to read this. You've been warned!

Who let the Dogs Out, where they are reportedly chased, beaten with clubs, and eaten in a futile attempt to clean up the streets of Shanghai? Every dog has his day, and this time the DOGS took over the streets with an astonishing afternoon that the authorities and other eyewitnesses could hardly believe.

Hashing in Anchorage with the Bear Bottom Hash....

Roving correspondent Quick Drawers heads north to Alaska for a fun filled adventure with the "Bear Bottom Hash" in Anchorage. Skillful Short Cutters (SSCs) appear to have an advantage over Front Running Bastards (FRBs) at this challenging hash in America's Last Frontier. Grizzly Adams and his pet bear may have run with this hash in the early years, but the current group consists of some of the brightest half-minds in all of Anchortown. If you're heading that way it is always wise to check your calendar to ensure that you don't arrive in the dead of winter.

Speaking of wintertime HHH events, why not head to German Nash Hash for the Hashmare Before Christmas in Hamburg and Luneburg next month? Don't let the frigid weather scare you away. The exceptional German brews and Gluwein will warm the body and soul the entire weekend. If German pubs are your idea of heaven you will enjoy this venue with one of the highest pub densities in the world.

Hashing in Togo & Benin, West Africa... The drums are sounding as our trusty correspondent Head Mistress travels to Togo and Benin to unveil an amazing oasis of hash activity in West Africa. These hashers really know how to run, drink, dance, and stagger on for the entire weekend. Boom Boom Boom until dawn... and there were also some drums.

Inter Mekong Hash 2017 in Laos... Named "Small HHH event of the Year" by Harrier Magazine, this event is shaping up to be a winner this year! Vientiane, the long forgotten capital on the banks of the Mekong River is indeed changing, but not as fast as its larger neighbors in Thailand, Myanmar and China. Most of the action will take place within walking distance of Namphu Fountain and the Mekong River. If you don't like Beerlao you are advised to stay home.

Hash Boy University offers new hope for the uneducated masses. On the Ice reveals the unique perspectives of Ajarn Keemao as seen from the bottom of a gin bottle. And a hasher called Flasher proposes an active retirement community where hashers can grow older without growing up.

I LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU ON TRAIL SOON,

Letter to the Editor

Over the years I have heard many Hashers complaining about getting old and how they will spend their time when retired and asking is there a Hash Retirement Community anywhere!!

As I am now in my early 70's, still fit and like to run or walk and drink a few beers, I am asking myself the same question.

All my research has shown there is no place where senior Hashers can live together in a community where they can run or walk and drink cold beer and have a good laugh.

In Vietiane a few years ago myself and another Hasher came across an old building down by the river that we both thought could be converted into nice apartments just for senior Hashers, however the building was not available for lease!

The Community would have to be reasonably close to an airport, good transport and medical facilities and of course several drinking establishments!

Suitable countries that spring to mind are Thailand, Philippines and Malaysia which all have good retirement visa programs however, there are other suitable countries.

I know there are several cities and towns that have several Hash runs and many Hashers live there, mostly with their local girlfriends and wives but are spread out far and wide but my idea is to have a localized community where Hashers live close to each other, can watch out for each other and go hashing together....I'm not thinking about an "Old Folks Home" situation but a community of like minded Hashers!!

If anyone is interested in being involved, has any ideas etc in such a venture contact me at: retireh3@gmx.com

I can update everyone via the Editors letter in the Harrier Magazine or start a Facebook page.

We have finalized some details for the Red Dress Run from Lautoka Club and I would like to announce some exciting news.

The rooftop will be the venue for the entertainment and on on, and we had a meeting with the President of the Club (Raben Bhan Singh) to give us the green light.

Seen here are pictures of the event and run/walk that initially attracted a decent sized crowd. More people joined in later. As you can see, the backdrop is the Pacific Ocean.

The track is now also set for the Red Dress Run. There will be two SCB's with two drink or beer stops. The Red Dress Run will start at 1 pm. We expect it to finish by 3 pm followed by the on-on and entertainment. The registration price for this is US$65.00 and we hope to save 50% or so for charity which will be the Nadi Hospital renovation works.

The rego gives you a T shirt, beer holders, sulu (Fijian kilt), towel, beer mugs and all you can drink and eat, plus Hollywood/Bollywood/Fijian entertainment.

This Red Dress Run will be different from all others in the past. You'll be seeing the historic second city of Fiji that is closely linked to the Sugar Industry, the backbone of Fiji's economy for close to 100 years. The track takes you through the history of the Sugar Industry - Lautoka harbor, the largest Sugar Mill in the South Pacific, past a world famous distillery, Gimit Centre (a monument for indentured plantation workers brought from India), Lautoka Hospital (second largest in Fiji) where Hospital Hash was born on a Thursday, then past the Police Station, finally through the streets of the City to be welcomed by the people of Lautoka and back home.

Buses from Nadi will pick up the registered Red Dress Charity runners from 11:30 am for the ride to Lautoka City which is approximately an hour's drive, then back home after the merry making. Hopefully we can get back by 10 pm!

Entertainment will be at its best ever, as a prelude to Interhash 2018 opening the next day. Rest assured you won't be disappointed.

On On to the best Red Dress Run ever!

Who Let the DOGS Out?

HASHING IN CHINA

The Distinguished Overseas Gentlemen of Shanghai (DOGS) Hash, or the disgusting old geezers of sleaze as some call it, is Mainland China's oldest men only hash and quite possibly the only one. It was the brainchild of a couple of old Hong Kong Royal South Side Hashers who found themselves living in Shanghai and unwilling to give up their Thursday men only Hash.

The DOGS first ran on 29 August 2009 and has run every Thursday since. Well not quite. The DOGS have 1 strictly enforced rule of, No Harriettes! So when one of the DOGS brought his better half on a run recently, the Hash went ahead but it was never counted as a DOGS run, because in the collective memory of the DOGS it never happened. They have some other basic rules, just as strictly enforced. The run starts at 7pm, circle at 8:30pm, bash at 9pm and the OnOn at 10pm. Unlike other hashes everyone gets named on their first run with their own DOGS name which of course has a doggy theme. Some notable ones are, Long Leash Bitch, Dog Shit, No Dogs Allowed, Flippa Bitch, Corgi Sperm, Gayhound, Dogzilla, Dingo, Three Dogs Sucking and Labra Whore.

Just like man's best friend, sometimes the DOGS can be misbehaved and need their noses smacked with a rolled up newspaper. There are many stories of misconduct, like the hasher who woke up on a bench the day after a DOGS run, no phone, wallet gone and in a right state. His better half had called several of the DOGS, 5 of whom swore to her that he was asleep in their spare rooms. Or the DOG who was on his way to propose to his long term girlfriend on Chinese Valentine's day but decided to stop by the Circle on the way, only to be made Beer Bitch. He crawled home with his tail between his legs at silly o'clock to find himself relegated to the dog pound and never spoken to again.

The DOGS do have some things to be proud of though. Particularly being the joint founders along with the Royal South Side Hash of the Rusty Man Challenge, now run at every All China Nash Hash. They are also infamous for breaking into and running around Angeles City Air Force base on their 2nd ever away tour. They influenced the lady hashers of Shanghai to found the ladies only POSH Hash some say through pure jealousy.

The DOGS 1st away tour was to Shekou in China. It was at this event that the DOGS kilts made their appearance and to this day the DOGS are perhaps the only kilted Hash in the World. On this tour the DOGS were joined by select members of the Royal South Side and Shekou Hashes. The Pack managed to drink 2 kegs of special DOGS brew, all the beer in the Snake Pit Hash bar and most of the bottles from every convenience store in a 2km radius. The closing Circle was on the roof top of the Snake Pit and lasted 5 hours in 40c temperatures. One DOG fell over and broke his head, which was duly mended with vinegar and brown paper by the religious Advisor. Half the pack missed the Sunday run and their flights home. The DOGS Hash is not for the faint hearted!

Despite being responsible for the end of several relationships and what were very promising careers, the DOGS are still going strong after 8 years. So if you find yourself in Shanghai on a Thursday with nothing better to do you can "Go to the DOGS!"

Lueneburg

German Nash Hash 2017

Organized by Hamburg Hash House Harriers, the only H7 in the world. We will start the weekend with a Red Dress Run in Hamburg downtown on November 09th 2017.

The German Nash Hash will then be celebrated in Lunenburg, a cozy small old town with one of the highest pub densities world wide.

Hashmare Before Christmas will be the motto of the hash. Like in the past years we expect a warm November with beautiful sunsets in the surrounding forests during the runs. But we hope for shitty weather, cold, icy snowy rains to enjoy the runs even more and to warm up with Gluehwein afterwards.

The venue will be one house for all of us, with enough space for circles, bonfire, party room and sleeping accommodation for the wimps. Curfew time for Ballbreakers is when the moon rises.

All details and registration can be unwrapped best before Xmas at <http://www.gnh2017.org>

German Nash Hash 2017 (November 10th - November 12th 2017). Regular price: 210€ all inclusive including Goody-Bag except RDR.

Hashing in Anchorage with the Bear Bottom Hash

by Quick Drawers

The Bear Bottom H3 hashes on a bi-weekly basis (alternating with Anchorage H3) in and around Anchorage, Alaska of course! Their Saturday September 2nd hash started gathering at the welcoming, Timeout Lounge, around 1PM, for their anticipated 1:30 PM start. Unfortunately, the designated primary Hare for the day "Long Story Short Dick" called in with a Short story that work required his presence. The co-hare "Donnie The Retard" was encouraged by the On-Sec "Uncle Bondage, Esq!" to improvise and just do the best he could by himself!

FRB'S PREPARING TO CROSS INTERSECTION

HARE "DONNIE THE RETARD" WITH HIS HASH MARKINGS.

The dozen named hashers and two Virgins, leisurely finished their drinks and then proceeded outside for the normal pre-hash chalk talk conducted by the Religious Advisor “Dr. Penis Venkman”. The B2H3 GM “Fish Food” was not in attendance for this hash since dogs were not allowed into Bars/Restaurants!

This day’s hash was not a hard-running event, as the group had only progressed for approximately 10 minutes when it entered another Bar for its first Beer Stop. No-one complained! It took some time for the group to finish the three pitchers provided and sing Happy Birthday to “Grannies and Trannies, Oh My!” while he enjoyed and shared his chocolate cake with the group.

Back on trail it immediately led across a 25-foot-wide 2-foot-deep creek, which I believe almost everyone avoided with a convenient walk-around. The FRB’s then very quickly encountered three back-to-back Beer stops that required the offending FRB to stop and consume said beverage prior to proceeding. As you can see this again was “Donnie’s” way of insuring he was not to be caught today, by any of the pack. I bet it wasn’t 10 minutes later that the entire pack arrived at a normal Beer Check beside another one of Anchorage’s many creeks.

RUNNERS ON-IN TO THE FINISH

Trail out from this point forced the packs actual runners to cross this creek after failing to find marks in any other possible direction. The three walkers today consisting of “Mr. Gere’s Finger Puppet”, “HiFalutin Pussy” and myself wisely decided to back-track just a bit to a nearby bridge with its nice dry walkway. The next time we saw the rest of the pack they were on the other side of a busy wide multi-lane roadway attempting to solve another check. We continued in our chosen direction for another few blocks and managed to come upon the on-in trail ahead of the runners. Always a much-welcomed event right!

The remaining portion of trail led back into the parking lot of the start location and walkers and runners arrived there within minutes of each other. The Circle was held in the Bars lower level game room area and was of course conducted by the RA. Everyone was recognized and rewarded for one thing or the other, you know how that goes, during the lively and enjoyable circle.

The weather for this Hash could not have been better and showers that seemed to occur on most other days at this time of year were replaced with clear skies, bright sunshine and low 60's temps. What a great day to hash! B2H3 specifics can be found at: <http://b2h3.com>

Many thanks to the Bear Bottom H3 for an enjoyable hashing experience and I would encourage fellow hashers traveling to Anchorage to of course add the Bear Bottom Hash day into their schedule.

Hashing in Togo & Benin West Africa

HASHING IN AFRICA

CONTENTS

This month Julia Stanton aka Head Mistress interviews Yves Poree aka Radish aka White Arrow, GM of the Lome Hash in Togo to find out more about hashing in Togo and how 120 hashers from 6 hashes in 4 countries in West Africa got together to celebrate the 12th anniversary of the Contonou Hash Club in Benin.

So Radish tell me more about the Lome Hash kennel in Togo?

The Lomé, Togo Hash kennel was born in June 1979 when an American navy ship was making a stopover in Lomé. The ship contained some hashers who showed the locals what hashing was all about. Since that day, the hash horn sounds in the streets and neighbourhoods of Lomé, right up to the North of the country, in Karra, Mango and Atakpamé. The Lomé H3 consists of roughly fifty bastards (mal aux culs « pains in the ass ») – so starts our song - of which more than 30 are regular. We welcome all beer lovers and all levels of physical fitness or lack of it. We hash every Saturday around 4 :30 PM and public holidays at 8 :30 AM. Everyone is welcome!

I heard you recently travelled to hash in Benin. Why?

Contonou Hash House Harriers were celebrating their 12th anniversary on 13th August 2017 so a group of 44 Togolese hashers including my daughter, Little Rabbit left Lome at 8am in the morning, arriving in Contonou at 1pm to be welcomed by the hash horn, GM Bobo2 and bottles of beer along with the Lagos hashers who had driven from Nigeria. Then it was back on the road to Djeregbe and our hotel for the night where we meet up with our fellow bastards from Kara (Togo) and Djougou (Benin).

What was the trail like?

It was fast and urban marked with chalk for both running and walking bastards. Checks were done to the sounds of traditional and upbeat Beninese songs. At independence square, cool beers awaited us to the sounds of traditional drums. The deputy mayor of Porto-Novo was absolutely delighted to welcome 120 hashers from Benin, Togo, Nigeria and Ghana. This was followed by a circle with lots of down downs with the naming of a Contonou Harriett who will be named for evermore as 'Rufine Adore'. With the bottles now empty it was time to head back to the hotel to party until dawn to the sounds of West African musicBoom boom boom until dawn.

CONTENTS

Did you have a hangover run the next day?

Yes of course. After the rooster crowed at 8am, hashers started forming groups (some had never gone to bed) and around 70 hashers followed the trail around the hotel. After the run I had to scream 'Where's the beer? Where's the f beer? The barrels finally arrived for the thirsty hashers and No Mercy, the legendary Lagos hasher started the circle. We then enjoyed a lunch of special dishes from Benin and Togo such as Ademe Dessi, grilled fish, couscous, huge snails, and Gbodessi. Everyone ate, drank and danced until the last drop of beer was finished. This was followed by a GM meeting to review the event and exchange presents with an invitation to meet again in December in Accra, Ghana.

What are your final words on the event?

'What a headache, my body shivers as I dry myself quickly. I got heavily hashed.....But we came for the beer, the party and the friends....' And with this, the Lome hashers take a last beer on the Togolese border before heading home.

French Version

Being part of a hash from Francophone West Africa where French is the lingua franca, Radish writes what he really is trying to say in French.

Hash en pays Vaudou

Le Hash House Harriers de Lomé, TOGO a vu le jour en juin 1979 alors qu'un navire militaire américain faisait escale à Lomé. Depuis ce jour, la trompette de Butterfly, Hare Principal, retentit dans les rues et quartiers de Lomé, jusque dans le Nord du pays, à Kara, Mango et Atakpamé. Nous sommes une cinquantaine de bâtards (Mal aux culs...) – c'est ainsi que commence notre chanson - dont une bonne trentaine de réguliers. Nous accueillons tous les amateurs de bière et adeptes de l'effort physique sans esprit de compétition. Nous hashons tous les samedis à partir de 16h30 et les jours fériés à partir de 8h00 du matin. Soyez les bienvenus.....futurs bâtards !

13 Août 2017, ça y est, le jour J est arrivé, nous voilà partis pour fêter le 12^e anniversaire du Hash Club de Cotonou au Bénin.

Départ Lomé, Togo, 8 heures du matin. 44 hasheurs, dont Little Rabbit, ma petite fille de 11 ans. Distribution des T-Shirts de voyage et arrivée à Cotonou à 13 heures en plein Go-Slow.

Accueil en fanfare, mots de bienvenue de « Bobo 2 », le GM de Cotonou, petite bière rapide et nous voilà repartis dans les véhicules en compagnie des hasheurs de Cotonou et de Lagos (« Monkey Spanker », « No Mercy », Puci Hunter, Gecko on the wall, etc.). Arrivée à Djeregbé à l'hôtel Bymins.

Hash Sun, notre Hash Cash, procède à la répartition des chambres, puis Départ pour Porto Novo, la capitale administrative, historique et spirituelle de la région. Nous y retrouvons les hasheurs de Kara (Togo) et Djougou (Bénin) arrivés la veille. Un tracé nerveux, rapide et urbain et à 2 vitesses (walking and running bastards) nous y attend avec une surprise au détour d'une place, un « Zangbeto » qui rentre au couvent accompagné de son guide.

Des checkpoints fiévreux aux sons de chansons traditionnelles béninoises entraînant. C'est reparti jusqu'à l'arrivée sur la place de l'indépendance de Porto-Novo où nous y attendent ce pourquoi nous sommes là : de bonnes bières fraîches.

La fanfare et les tams tams traditionnels nous indiquent le chemin. Après les remerciements de l'adjoint au maire de Porto-Novo qui se réjouit de la visite de 120 bâtards en provenance du Bénin (Cotonou, Djougou) du Togo (Lomé, Kara), du Nigéria (Lagos) et du Ghana (Accra), car, entre-temps, « Who Me ? », le GM d'Accra Hash nous avait rejoint avec 5 de ses Harriers, le cercle se forme lentement, les down-downs se succèdent les uns après les autres au rythme des piss pots jusqu'au baptême final d'une Harriett de Cotonou « Rufine Adore » par le GM de Lomé.

À compter de ce jour, ce sera son nom de Hash. Les bouteilles finissent de se vider, il est temps de repartir.

Retour à l'hôtel pour une petite douche et la soirée dansante aux rythmes trépидants d'un orchestre local et de chansons typiques de l'Afrique de l'Ouest.... Jusqu'au petit matin.

Le coq chante, les brumes prisonnières dans la tête depuis hier soir finissent de se dissiper. 8 heures pétantes, les courageux ou ceux qui ne se sont pas couchés commencent à se regrouper. Tracé dans les prémisses de l'hôtel Bymins, les hashers arrivent au compte-goutte pour former une petite bande de 70 personnes. Where's the beer ? crie « Radish », le GM du Togo, where's the f..... beer.... Les tonneaux arrivent et tout le monde se précipite assoiffé. Le cercle se forme, No Mercy nous fait un cours de relaxation spécifique hash.

Puis, tout le monde se rassemble pour se diriger vers le lieu du repas final. Là nous attendent encore les spécialités africaines qui font la fierté du Bénin et du Togo. (Adémé dessi, Boma dessi, du poisson braisé, Gbodessi, Nilan dessi, couscous, riz, escargots, et autres pâtes à base de farine de blé et de maïs). Tout le monde mange, chante, boit, danse et les dernières gouttes de bière finissent de couler après que les GM des différents hash présents se sont réunis pour faire le bilan de ces deux jours trop courts et échanger des cadeaux et des adresses avec la promesse de se revoir à Accra en décembre sur invitation de Who Me ?.

« Quel mal de crâne ! Je frissonne en me séchant rapidement. Je me suis fait hashé, que dis-je, douché littéralement après quelques mots déplacés.... » Mais, nous sommes venus pour la bière, la fête et les amis..... Les liens sont tissés, il faut continuer de les entretenir.....

C'est le retour, la route défile, les bruits du vent (pas de clim dans la voiture) finissent pas dissiper les dernières brouillards dans la tête et après avoir passé la frontière à Hilla-Kondji, nous, les hashers de Lomé, prenons une dernière bière à Aneho, ville frontière avant de rentrer au bercail.

Voilà un bref récit d'une formidable aventure d'amitié, de sport et de convivialité entre les peuples et de fantastiques échanges multiculturels dans l'esprit tant aimé du Hash. Si cela vous tente, venez nous rendre visite, en 2019, dans deux ans, nous fêterons nos 30 ans et nous nous ferons une joie de vous accueillir pour vous faire profiter de la formidable hospitalité togolaise.

KOREA

- A REFRESHING HASHING EXPERIENCE

Hanyang Hash House Harriers & Harriettes (H5) of Korea is proud to offer itself as host of Pan Asia Hash 2017. The fact that there has never been any large scale hashing event in Korea means that, for most of the prospective participants, this Pan Asia will be a very refreshing hashing experience indeed.

We specifically chose Sokcho City as the event venue: on the fringe of this city is the world-renowned Seorak Mountain National Park which, for many Korean soap opera aficionados, has often been the surreal backdrop. The proposed dates are similarly selected, for late October ushers in the most spectacular autumnal colours, best highlighted by the rainbow hues of the maples.

Participants will get to savour the K-food phenomenon that has been taking the gastronomic world literally by storm. Be enamored by the extensive spread of Korean delights - the quintessential Ginseng Chicken Soup; the omnipresent mouth-watering beef, lamb, and pork barbecues; the huge varieties of fresh – and often live - seafood eaten either raw/sashimi-style, or prepared in dozens of off-secret recipes unbeknownst to other parts of the world. All these, and more, washed down with world famous brands of beers, or with the uniquely Korean soju and makgoeli.

The time is ripe for a refreshing change of scenery, of style, of food and beverage, and of a completely new hashing experience. We are a new troupe of organizers, backed by the provincial government, and supported by experience from the Motherland of hashing.

Give your affirmation for a refreshing change!

KOREA - THE VENUE OF CHOICE

- ACCESSIBLE – round trip as low as USD200-250 from most SE Asian cities
- AFFORDABLE – conveniently located rooms could be had for as little as USD35-40
- ASTHETIC – be enchanted by autumn at its full fall colours
- VIRGINAL – hash in assuredly hitherto never-before-hashed territory
- GOVERNMENT-BACKED – the provincial government is enthusiastically supportive
- GASTRONOMIC – pamper your sensory glands with inimitable K-flavours
- INTOXICATING – infuse yourself with the full range of uniquely Korean beverages
- COMFORTABLE – experience hashing in low-humidity at temperatures in the mid-teens
- ENTERTAINING - revel in live K-pop performances and cultural shows
- PERFECTION – enjoy the Koreans' relentless strive for perfection!

Give ActiveSport a Miss

The company promotes itself as “ACTIVE SPORT is committed to have excellence service, high quality products for our customers with trust and respect”.

Their words, not mine.

The reality is regrettably somewhat different. Whilst I do appreciate their efforts to make running in Cambodia more popular, they need to very much up their game. I have been to two events organized by them and the organization left a lot to be desired. The most recent event was in Sihanoukville where I overheard many people griping about the organization and a lot of runners actually not turning up for the run.

Last weekend was supposed to be the inaugural event in Preah Vihear, an event that sounded interesting and for which I spent 11 hours to get to Siem Reap.

<http://activesport.com.kh/2017/03/23/preah-vihear-temple-run/>

Just before we were about to leave for the 4-hour drive to Preah Vihear, I asked the Missus to call and confirm the place for the race kit pick-up. The answer was that the event was cancelled and that everybody had been informed. This was a blatant lie as evidenced by comments left on their Facebook page. Obviously, I had already paid the entrance fee as well as the hotel, money down the drain.

That events can get cancelled is fine and understandable, it is the lack of information that upset me. At the time of writing, both their web page and Facebook page do not mention that the event had been cancelled, I would not be surprised if people made the trek up to the north of Cambodia only to find..... nothing.

I would very much like to support any effort to make running more popular in Cambodia but I am afraid I will give this company a wide berth in the future.

The Hash Darwin Awards

Old Chaz, the chap on the right, in one of his sober moments, put forward the notion of "survival of the fittest", a concept that implies that the removal from the gene pool (usually by death) of its weaker members, thereby strengthens the survival chances of the remainder. However, here at OTI, we do not encourage the extermination of the less able, the feeble, or the intellectually challenged. Rather, we encourage them to become hashers! Further, this column aims to be a forum where the moronic misdeeds of hashers might be chronicled in pursuit of that noblest of pastimes, namely, having cheap laughs at other people's expense. With that in mind, I offer the following:

Charles Darwin

Fifteen years is a long time. As Bob Dylan said, "Lot of water under the bridge. Lot of other stuff too". Uncle Bob also said, "don't look back" and in that he was generally right, after all as Andrew Marvell wrote:

But at my back I always hear
Time's wingèd chariot hurrying near;
And yonder all before us lie
Deserts of vast eternity

Indeed. Who wants to risk a glance to see how close that chariot is to knocking him down? Better to keep the eyes resolutely forward. However, in this instance, I am obliged to peek over my shoulder at the behest of the editor of this rag who informs me that this issue marks the fifteenth anniversary of whatever this magazine is called now. It seems that it was October 2002 when Bimbo convinced me, whilst I was under the influence, no doubt, to pen a column for his signature contribution to the world of publishing. And of course, like a fool, I agreed.

So fifteen years later, rather surprisingly, the editor, the magazine, and I are all still here. In my own case, a rough and conservative estimate suggests that I have consumed about 20,000 bottles of beer and 800 bottles of gin in that time, of which I would hazard to guess that the editor has paid for about 15 of each – poor recompense for providing the only content separating marathon timetables and ads for dive bars in The Philippines, don't you think?

Nevertheless, a milestone (or millstone) like this one does give pause for reflection. What did the world look like back in 2002 when I made the fateful decision to board this ship of fools?

In the US, George W. Bush was President, and most of the World felt America could do no worse. How innocent those days seem now. In the UK Tony Blair was Prime Minister and today he walks freely amongst decent human beings. I should be surprised but somehow even the tide of alcohol hasn't washed the cynicism away. In Russia, Vladimir Putin was President. And today...

ARSHOLEO ON THE ICE IN PHUKET

Turning to the hopefully cheerier topic of popular entertainment, the number one hit single in the UK in October 2002 was The Ketchup Song by Las Ketchup. I honestly have no idea who that group is or what that song sounds like and, given what I'm to receive for writing this column, I'm not about to look it up on YouTube. One of you out there must remember it. Let me know if it was as crap as it sounds. In the US, the number one hit blasting the airwaves was Dilemma by Nelly (featuring Kelly Rowland). Fortunately I am in no dilemma about whether I should acquaint myself with either the song or the artist or even waste time pondering why they should "feature" the androgynously named Mr./Mrs./Miss/Ms Rowland. I do note that Tom Waits released Blood Money that year which was probably what I was listening to when not listening to the classic rock being played by the band at Five Star on Soi Cowboy in Bangkok, who are still performing to this day, as it happens, and are well worth checking out if you find yourself in that part of the World. Buy me a drink if you see me there.

Turning to the cinema, 2002 saw the release of such gems as: Star Wars Episode II: Attack of the Clones, Men in Black II, Analyze That, Spy Kids 2: The Island of Lost Dreams, Stuart Little 2 and Blade II. If anyone tells you today that Hollywood is a bloated corporate shitfest bereft of new ideas endlessly recycling junk that sold in the past and that they hope will sell again to brain-dead teenagers and libertarian thirty-somethings who live in their mothers' basements, direct them to 2002 and point out that even then the rot had well and truly settled in.

In the hashing world, 2002 saw the Interhash in Goa which, I'm told was a fun event. I didn't attend and, indeed, I have never attended any Interhash event (perhaps I should get a T-shirt similar to the ones they give out to the sagging, flaccid dinosaurs who have attended every such event?). I have a strong aversion to crowds, particularly crowds made up of people who must have some kind of hash logo on every item of their clothing and can recount faithfully every hash they have ever attended everywhere in the world. I would be tempted to ask them if they record their bowel movements so faithfully but I'm rather afraid that I know the answer.

No the biggest Hash crowds I can stomach are the ones at the much more intimate and friendly Indochina Mekong Hash (IMH) events, normally 250-300. The IMH in 2002 was a banner event, held in and around Chiang Mai in Northern Thailand. I had cycled there from Chiang Rai (about 400km distant) and celebrated by being drunk for three days. During such time I was wonderfully taken care of by Pom "Snowflake", then GM of the Chiang Mai Bunny Hash. Snowflake made sure I was provided with a local "guide" to see that I got home each evening and that there was a breakfast and a cold beer waiting for me at the Hash Bar each morning. I believe there were also some trails. What more could one ask for?

Sadly, Snowflake, like so many other hash friends I've made over the years, is no longer with us. We have the opportunity, however, to raise a glass to all of them this year at IMH2017 which will be held in my home city of Vientiane, Laos. So if you see me there, stop and say g'day and we can share a beer and reminisce about trails and hashers long past. For, while those deserts of vast eternity await us all, Andrew Marvell also noted that, "though we cannot make our Sun stand still, yet we'll make him run"!

Fitting words for hashers to live by. On On to IMH2017 and beyond.

VISITING EUROPE POST BREXIT

The EU is to adopt 'points-based' system for British holidaymakers. British holidaymakers will be allowed into the EU based on points awarded according to how fat and annoying they are, it has been confirmed.

Points will also be deducted for the precise shade of cherry-pink people go after 48 hours in the blazing hot sun with no sunscreen.

The EU is to introduce the system in response to British proposals of a 'pointsbased' immigration system that would prevent people entering the country to do antisocial things like work and spend their money.

Describing the new system as 'fair and proportionate', the European Commission gave several examples of how the new holiday system will work, including 'Dave', an unemployed but curiously well-off used car dealer from Basildon and his 14-year-old son Nick who tries to smoke weed on the Ryanair flight to Marbella will get 'Nul points' and have to go on holiday to Margate instead.

Meanwhile, James and Jocasta, a pair of brand managers from Hemel Hempstead, and their three children Oliver, Amelia and Freddy, will get a hundred points and be allowed in to buy as much roquefort and La Cadence Cadigan as they like.

Points will be awarded on a number of criteria, including knowing the name of the capital city of the country you're visiting, being able to speak any of the language, and whether visitors think it's acceptable for a drink to be blue.

The system has been criticised by many on this side of the channel, who insist that points-based systems are only supposed to apply to other people and not them.

WHY BEER IS BETTER THAN COFFEE

Watchdog recalls coffee which gives drinkers an erection lasting for hours Rob Waugh Yahoo News UK21 July 2017

A new instant coffee could be an awkward choice to sip at your desk in the office – as it offers an instant erection lasting for hours. That's going to be tough to explain away if you're suddenly called to a meeting.

Watchdogs in America have recalled a supposedly 'herbal' coffee – 'New of Kopi Jantan Tradisional Natural Herbs Coffee' – because it secretly contained a drug very similar to Viagra. The coffee includes desmethyl carbodenafil, a chemical similar to the active ingredient in Viagra, but is not listed on the packaging, says the FDA.

Oddly, it's not the first case of a coffee secretly containing ingredients which give drinkers an erection. Last year, the FDA recalled another coffee, called 'Stiff Bull', which claimed to offer natural male enhancement – but secretly contained a Viagra-style drug. The Malaysian company has now withdrawn 'Kopi Jantan' from sale.

The FDA said, 'These undeclared ingredient may interact with nitrates found in some prescription drugs, such as nitroglycerin, and may lower blood pressure to dangerous levels. Men with diabetes, high blood pressure, high cholesterol, or heart disease often take nitrates. In addition, people who have an allergy or severe sensitivity to milk run the risk of serious or life threatening allergic reaction if they consume this product.'

TEA IS ALSO AN EVIL SUBSTANCE

Tea is much more dangerous than beer. Please avoid drinking Tea!

I discovered this last night. I'd drunk 14 beers up until 3am at the pub, while my wife was just drinking tea at home.

You should have seen how angry and violent she was when I got home. I was peaceful, silent and headed to bed as she shouted at me, all night long and even into the next morning. Please please Ladies, if you can't handle your tea, just don't drink it!

CHELTENHAM AND COTSWOLD HASH HOUSE HARRIERS RUN #: 2354 - SAT 9TH SEPT 2017

'THE THUNDERBALLBREAKER'

This was a special run set by that fiendish masterminds of hashing Robbo, Red Devil, Doctor 'M' Foster & Hub Caps

Guaranteed to break the balls of the toughest agents this was a much looked forward to outing and rumours of 10 miles, old wounds playing up and failed missions were everywhere. A happy and enthusiastic band of runners and walkers arrived at the allotted rendezvous (Great Malvern Station) around 10.15 on Saturday morning ready to receive our orders for the mission ahead. Scotty Riley being an old hand already had his weapon out and was brandishing it with gay abandon, 'shooting' at anything that moved and even those that didn't.

Our 'Agents Pack' included passport, train ticket and a sketch of the target route, our new identity was included and we were to reveal ourselves once in safe company. Ballbreaker himself stood up and briefed all assembled on what lay ahead. This was an important mission and only C2H3's finest had been selected for the mission, running at our own risk was a familiar call but this time meant more to us all. Once briefed we set off for platform two at the toilet free station, agents assembled cross legged waiting the train to arrive and wondering how long they would have to wait for their pre-mission wee, Ludo Evans a specialist welsh sheep spotter who had been brought in to ensure no sheep were abused on the mission took to doing pull ups on the station ironwork to take his mind off of his impending bladder explosion.....

Rusty Sindle & Ludo Evans joined forces to hunt down the missing station toilets and were soon rewarded by a suitable bush that provided ample cover for those agents in need. "Ah" was to be heard by those on the other side of the bush The 10.45 Muckraker Express arrived precisely on time and we all jumped onboard in an orderly fashion to prevent being noticed, we were on our way.

After a brief trip we alighted at Colwall station and here we took further instructions from Master Spy Dinky Holder, soon we were off in an enthusiastic bunch that was soon to get strung out as we traversed the infamous Malvern Mountain Range. Weather was threatening to break and we all carried or wore our wet weather gear just in case. We headed out toward Colwall and Colwall Green following a route that none of us had really expected, most expected to follow familiar routes up over the Malverns but this was to be different. A short bit of town and tarmac to begin with but soon we were out in open countryside, fields first off and an encounter with a horse but turning left back toward what would become Upper Wyche.

We came very close to camping fields for 'BusFest' on a particularly long false and I almost got separated when I looked up and all had disappeared in an instant. But via woods and open fields we started the rise to Upper Wyche on the ridge itself and eventually to an assignation with Dinky & Co at a bus stop where water, sweeties and toilets were available before we continued with the mission, at this point I handed out small jelly babies to ensure the happy band were carrying enough sugar to take them onward, all agents had made it through to the secret assignation and we were doing well. At a shop nearby I was tempted to purchase a postcard to send off signed 'From A Malvern Bus Stop With Love' but I knew that the enemy may get wind of such careless action and I refrained.

From this point we dropped downward across the road and via alley ways and devious falsies toward our second rendezvous, this was a long slow decent via some dark woods and we had to put up with a bit of rain for a minute or two but it was soon gone and we descended fast now toward our goal, a walled fortress at the foot of the Malvern hills!

The Lake house is a big place surrounded by a long wall, the owner being called Adrian has had a carved stone sign built into the wall which reads 'Adrians Wall', a man with a sense of humour no doubt. This is also home to 'Lakehouse Brewery' and where we met Dinky & Co for well received vittles, we tarried here for a reasonable time no doubt because of the lovely beers on offer but perhaps a little too long as when we set off again my muscles had forgotten what to do and I was stiff again, hard work but we drove on to complete our mission across the green and along a few tarmac pavements to our destination 'The Morgan'. Mission accomplished, all agents set about cleaning up and some debriefing inside the fine hostelry.

All agents carried out their duties and completed the mission brilliantly and some even excelled themselves, Scotty, Pickle, Prince & Wendy must have had one helluva breakfast as they were running like the devil throughout, hats off to you boys, respect!!!

All in all this was a great mission, Dinky, 'M', Bonnie & Hammy are to be congratulated on putting on a truly spiffing outing which was thoroughly enjoyed by all, the terrain was very well thought out and not what anyone had expected, a brilliant job and a big thank you from me. We covered just on 10 miles overall and in 2hrs 20 minutes, we climbed just under 1000 feet of elevation and all agents survived so Dinky you will have to try harder next time as we will all have to 'Die Another Day'On On Gizmo

THE LATEST NEWS FROM TINSEL LAND

RULES ARE RULES

The Good news: It was a normal day in Sharon Springs, Kansas, when a Union Pacific crew boarded a loaded coal train for the long trek to Salina.

The Bad news: Just a few miles into the trip a wheel bearing became overheated and melted, letting a metal support drop down and grind on the rail, creating white hot molten metal droppings spewing down to the rail.

The Good news: A very alert crew noticed smoke about halfway back in the train and immediately stopped the train in compliance with the Governmental Regulations.

The Bad news: The train stopped with the hot wheel over a wooden bridge with creosote ties and trusses.

When crew tried to explain to higher-ups they needed to move the train, they were instructed not to move the train because Federal Regulations prohibit moving the train when a part is defective.

Well okee-dokey then, and the pictures tell the rest.

As always the Government knows what is best for us.

REMEMBER, RULES ARE RULES!

Don't ever let common sense get in the way of a GOVERNMENT REGULATION.

American Football fans have been warned off cricket as they might find it too exciting this morning.

Doctors are concerned that fans of Gridiron might find cricket 'too thrilling' and suffer heart attacks from the nerve-shreddingly fast paced game.

Cricket, the only sport with a tea-break, is regarded as too dangerously fast-moving and adrenaline-fuelled for people who watched last night's Super Bowl.

Although spectators are known to doze off during test cricket, medical experts have warned this might cause undue stress to people enthralled by a game whose highlight was a performance by Coldplay.

In order to prevent Denver Broncos fans being overwhelmed by the comparatively lightning-quick play, cricket authorities are planning several changes to the rules including taking advert breaks between every ball, and asking players to walk rather than run when they get a hit.

In other sports news, Manchester United have pledged to make their playing style slower and less interesting in a bid to attract fans away from the NFL.

While Rugby Union are to introduce natural breaks before every scrum and restrict ball passing to once in every hour. Reports from the United States indicate that the Super Bowl halftime show has just entered its second day.

STRÖMLING PÅ SUDHRALYUSTRÅ

The dominant themes of Swedish history are the creation of Swedish hegemony up to 1660 and the challenges to the rival Baltic States presented by the wholesale use of the fermented herring. A common myth tells that the dish originated with Swedish sailors in the 16th century. The story goes that they only had half the amount of salt needed to keep their fish fresh, so it began to rot. The sailors came across some Finnish islanders and decided to con them by selling them the rotten fish. The Finns bought it and the sailors left. A year later, the Swedish sailors returned to the island and the locals, having enjoyed the fish asked if they had any more. The sailors decided to try it themselves, liked it and decided to make more of it.

This conveniently leads us to the island of South Ljusterö on the Stockholm archipelago to savor the tastes of this culinary delight on the Absolut Hash. Silly Con Feet or as he was known for the day: Smelly Con Feet, invited us to his country house for the 5th Anul Fermented Fish Hash and remarkably about 20 odd, and I mean odd in a peculiar way, arrived for the run and the après stinky fish. There would have been more but the Waxholm Ferry Company decided to cancel the one ferry at the last moment so those who managed to find the replacement eventually took another boat and disembarked at a different landing.

Fortunately the Hare managed to change the trail at the last minute.

The run itself turned out to be very good in the virgin wooded countryside with plenty of on-backs and false trails to contend with. In the middle of all this was a small lake where beer was served after a refreshing swim in the warmish waters. A league or two saw us at the circle, which must have been picked out by the hare as a stunning contrast to the rest of the trail on the islands only rubble field.

The après saw us back at the summer house where eventually the smelly fish cans were opened and served to those of us with a strong composition while the rest of us wisely kept at a distance and devoured the lesser revolting bottled pickled herrings all washed down with cans of beer and aquavit.

As the evening drew on we retired into the house, mainly to escape the lingering smell of stinky fish and the mossies to see us sitting around the table drinking more and bullshitting as only hashers can do.

Most of us stayed the night and were treated to a good wholesome breakfast before we left for the big city. Thank you Smelly Con Feet for a good run and après Hash.
