Editor's Notes

*One night in late November,
As close as I remember
As I made my way back home from Monday's hash.*

*My feet began to stutter,
So I laid down in the gutter,
And a pig came up and laid down by my side.*

*I was feeling rather high,
When a lady passing by was heard to say...*

*"You can tell a man who boozes
By the company he chooses",
And the pig got up and slowly walked away.*

As 2017 comes to a close, and the cooler corners of Hashdom feel a chill, there is no good reason to halt your hashing. You can be as happy as a hog with your favorite holiday grog, and the good company of your Hash brothers and sisters.

If you've not yet hashed with the Blue Hens this might be a good time to give them a try. After all, they've been around for twenty-five years, and they're still going strong. If you enjoyed InterAm in Phoenix, what do you think about an InterAm cruise in the Bahamas? While cruise ships are known for fine cuisine, when was the last time you feasted on a platter of Hag-gis? Come to La Union, Philippines the first week of December for some Scottish Games, Hash & Haggis, and plenty of San Miguel Beer. And don't forget to wear your kilt.

She sells sea shells down by the sea shore, but has she hashed in the Seychelles? Head Mistress reports on her recent visit to this island paradise.

The First World President of Hashdom was recently proclaimed by Aussies celebrating 50 years of hashing down under. We hope to see Darwin Don, 94 years young, at Interhash Fiji next year.

Be sure to send in your nominations for The Best HHH Events of 2018 for publication in our next edition. We hope to see you at some of these events.

25 Years of Hashing with the Blue Hen H3

by Fuk Stik - GM Emeritus, Blue Hen H3

HASHING IN AMERICA

Whether you've realized it or not, if you've been hashing in the United States in the last 20 years, you've probably stumbled across the Blue Hen hash, or at least one of its influences. Maybe it was a circle at a hash in Las Vegas (or Portland or Washington DC), where the RA's mother hash was the BH4. Perhaps they showed up at your weekend hash, naked except for blue feather boas. No matter where you look, the Blue Hens seem to pop up everywhere. It's hard to imagine that it all started off as a bunch of 18 or 20 year olds who all attended university together.

CONTENTS

Twenty-five years ago this month, Tom "Fuk Stik" Tarka showed up at the University of Delaware for his first year as an engineering student and found that not only was the nearest hash about an hour away, but there wasn't a single kennel in Delaware.

Tom had arrived from the Ridgefield H3 in Connecticut, where the local kennel was made up of a mix of ex-pats and locals who worked at a research and development think tank. The woody terrain and green spaces made for great trail runs mixed in with the occasional shiggy-fest through swamps and brambles. That, combined with the antics and singing of RA John "Tunneller" Lovell, along with regular interlopers from the nearby New York H3 - led by Ian Cumming, Skull, Bushwacker, Tub Slut, and others - laid the foundation of what was to become Delaware's first kennel: the Blue Hen Hash House Harriers.

The Blue Hens got off to a strong - and what would be emblematic - start on October 24th, 1992 for the inaugural run. A pack of 20 was in attendance, with some locals, but a strong presence from local kennels such as Baltimore Annapolis, Philadelphia, as well as both Ridgefield H3 and New York H3. Ten minutes before the start, a torrential downpour washed away most of the marks: the resultant trail was a bit of a cluster f*ck, which was made up for by an epic circle by a waterfall and an excellent party. Little did anyone know that these would become the hallmarks of the Blue Hen Hash: shiggy, great singing, and always a fun party.

In the early years, recruiting proved challenging as most of the members weren't yet of legal drinking age. However, word of mouth and the strong personality of the hash resulted in a strong, core group, even if pack sizes were on the small side of 8-15. Through luck, the stubbornness only 18 and 20 year olds can have, and a lot of laughter (both at and amongst themselves), the hash persisted, showing up en masse at InterAmerica hashes, local hash campout weekends, and random other places. It was usually the singing repertoire that left an impression, but it was also an ability to be amusingly charming, in the way your really smart, younger cousin is when she gets really drunk: you find yourself wondering how they ended up being this way at such a young age.

We must've been doing something right as the folks who started out as Blue Hens - whether they hashed with us for a year or a decade - moved on to become the religious advisors and grand masters of kennels across the country: Las Vegas, Denver, Washington DC, Portland, Pittsburgh, San Diego, and even Dublin. It's hard to imagine that 25 years ago, a bunch of college students managed to find the best shiggy in Delaware, week after week, only to end up invading cities like St. Louis for a weekend (because it was "Halfway" between Delaware and Colorado), or running some of the largest circles in the country, but... here we are: "Older, Not Wiser" and still causing trouble after all these years.

COCO CAY

HASHING IN THE CARIBBEAN

to feature a hasher-filled cruise ship!!

After enjoying a wonderful weekend of trails, beer, and terrific hospitality in Phoenix for InterAm 2017, a few half-minds actually remembered to cast their votes for the venue for 2019. It was a close call between perennial entrants Rumson (New Jersey) and the bid to host InterAm 2019 on a cruise ship. In the end, the cruise won out, and the committee would now like to invite one and all to join us on The Hash Boat in October, 2019.

Currently, the cruise will be a 5-day, 4-night sailing on Royal Caribbean from Port Canaveral on Florida's east coast. The ship is planning to set sail on October 14, 2019 and head (who said head?) to Nassau, Bahamas for two days of trails (including a Ball-Buster) and hashing frivolity and then on to Coco Cay - a private island - for sun, fun, snorkeling, hangover hash, volleyball, more hash games, bid presentations (New Orleans H3?), and the Mr/Ms Interam contest.

CONTENTS

The cruise will feature 24-hour dining, unlimited drinks (yes, including the alcoholic variety), entertainment, a beer mile on board, a Rocky Horror deck party, and several choices of trails in Nassau. And once we fill the ship, a clothing-optional pool and beach. The cost of the cruise includes all the above, plus giveaways, your cabin (based on dual occupancy), all port fees, taxes, and gratuities.

Prices start at $799 per person. For details on pricing, payment deadlines, itinerary, registration, and more, please visit the web page at www.iah2019.com.

Also, look for HashBoat Interamericas 2019 on Facebook. Register soon, as this cruise will sell out quickly. Some cabin categories are already sold out. Registrations are fully transferrable, and you only need to put down a $300 per cabin ($150 per person) deposit to hold your spot. The sooner you book, the better cabin you get in your category.

HAGGIS BASH

by Laces

HASHING IN THE PHILIPPINES

La Union Haggis Bash occurs at that time of year when we are all getting into party mood – we are on the slippery slope to Christmas. This year it takes place on Saturday 2nd December. It is the premier La Union hash event, normally attracting over 100 hashers from all over; from within the country, Angeles and Subic mainly, and overseas – we get a few Aussie Ockers and usually some expats from Thailand.

It is a unique event, starting with a hash run, and followed by the 'highland games' which incorporates such fantastic field sports as the sack race, tug of war, plank walk, tossing the caper, egg and spoon race and 'wanging the wellie'. The emphasis is more on mirth than might. The events culminate in the pie eating contest in which pies and scotch eggs are eaten, washed down with San Miguel and whisky – last year donated by L'escargot, our solitary French hash-er. And the day would not be complete without our Scottish piper, who will be there in the person of Deviant from Angeles hash.

CONTENTS

Once the games are concluded, the merriment continues with the hash circle. Then we adjourn to nearby Tropical Gardens where our Swiss host will have a buffet ready to put hairs on your chest. You may be satiated already with haggis and scotch eggs available during the games, as well as beer and whisky. Saliva inducing!

The hash bash is the brainchild of Honeydew (Jake Gordon) the indomitable Scot, who has time to be a main organizer of the event as well as manage his mango farm in nearby Pangasinan province. And this year it appears he had another bumper export crop. Thanks to his persuasive skills he cajoles many parties and individual hashers into sponsoring the haggis bash, which is why the registration remains at a very reasonable price.

On the preceding night, on Friday 1st Dec, there is the Full Moon Hash, starting at 7pm in Butterfly Bar and proceeding to other salubrious places during the course of the evening. Men only – harriettes meanwhile can go to the simbahan (church). If you have time on your hands (and what retiree hasn't?) you could come to La Union a week earlier and attend the famous Chili Cook-off at Bal Hai Resort on Saturday 25th. You can feast on the chili dishes as well as enjoy the swimsuit beauty contest around the pool afterwards. And still have enough energy to attend our hash the following day – the only time we have it on a Sunday.

Hashing in the Seychelles

HASHING IN AFRICA

by Julia Stanton

It's not very often that I take a plane to go to the hash but in early September I found myself doing just that to discover what the Seychelles had to offer in terms of hashing before I hit the beach for some R+R. Fortunately the hash was meeting 9km north from the airport in one of the suburbs of the tiny capital city (more like a small town of Victoria) so we took a taxi straight from the airport to the meeting point - a car park of an international school where a group of 30 were gathering and recognizable as the Seychelles Hash House Harriers.

CONTENTS

The Seychelles chapter of HHH was started in April 1986 by Britons John Purvis and Edward Tarkowski and Malaysian Albert Leong and has run once a fortnight since its inception. Today, only Ms Marie-Thérèse Purvis, out of the original Seychelles hash run, is still running with the local chapter, but the Harriers continue to attract the same diverse cross section of Seychelles society as ever. With members aged from five to 74 and everything in between, all levels of ability are catered for and while everyone sets out on the same three to five-kilometre course the degree of competitiveness is far from uniform. In order to prevent the over-zealous from finishing too far ahead, the volunteers, who set the trail the day before, are careful to include one or two dead-ends forcing the leaders to turn back, so that run, walk or scramble the gap from first to last is never too great. A loosely regulated group, presided over by the Mismanagement Committee, the only thing that the HHH are serious about is protecting the environment that they run through and take every precaution not to harm it with their activity. They permit no littering and no damage to the forests in which they run.

The trail that day went inland up a very steep hill. The island has lots of very dramatic steep hills and the main reason why the hash is a walking group. 'It's far too steep to run here' said one local hasher. We walked up through the narrow streets past many houses perched on the hill observing local suburban life. Some of the houses were only accessible by foot. Finally we entered a cool forest with lush vegetation and beautiful coloured birds of different species. The main aim was to reach Rochon dam, the first one built on the island. Beautiful views of Victoria Port and surrounding islands could be seen as we carried on climbing. The weather was a mix of sunshine, clouds and light rain. We then descended back down through a different route back to the On in. Then 'comes the all-important cold drink and long chat that reinvigorates tired legs and makes it all seem worthwhile.'

Seychelles Hash House Harriers are a back to basics hash. There are no hash names, circles, songs and charges. One hasher told me that 'we are the tamesh hash in Africa'. However there is the most essential ingredient that makes up any hash, cold beer/drinks. There's a few announcements by the long standing GM Ms Marie-Thérèse Purvis. Then hashers chat and socialise with drinks and snacks before making their way home.

Like any Hash group the group is sociable and welcoming making sure that we had a lift to our hotel on the beach over the other side of the island.

Seychelles Hash House Harriers runs fortnightly on a Saturday afternoon. Details of the meeting point are always advertised on their Facebook page a few days before. <https://www.facebook.com/groups/246200008781226/>

WORLD PRESIDENT NAMED AT 50 GOLDEN YEARS OF HASHING DOWNUNDER

By TicToc, Sydney Posh H3

In a moving ceremony in Sydney in September 2017, delegates unanimously proclaimed Darwin Don (Grenville) the first World President of All Hashdom.

Darwin Don, who is an active 94 years old was honored for his continuous fight for truth, justice and safe sex; for his mentoring of so many younger Hashers [ie all other Hashers-Ed], recognising that there is no opportunity they cannot embrace and no dream they cannot make real. The newly anointed World President of The Hash demonstrated this truth through his own amazing story, his own compelling example and irrepressible spirit. His Excellency was presented with the accolade of the World Hashdom Medal of Distinction, by the newly-elected 50th President of Sydney Posh Hash, Brock 'Maximus Minimus' Bowen with the exhortation that he give an unwavering promise to go forth, in pursuit of a sounder, a freer, and a safer world for all.

With World President of All Hashdom, Darwin Don (Sydney Posh H3) right, are TicToc (Sydney Posh H3) and Captain Knockers (Sydney Harriettes) after the ceremony elevating Darwin Don to the newly-proclaimed exalted position.

SYDNEY HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

A few quiet beers with...

DARWIN DON

Famed for his paratrooper exploits in most wars since 1923, a Joe called Gypo 'chuted' into the Hash in Darwin in 1975, morphing quickly into superhero Darwin Don. Statistics show (he commanded the Bureau) that the Don has forever spread the legs of happiness throughout the Hashing world. He continues to fight for truth, justice and safe sex (just ask his young platonic bride and aide-de-camp, Capt Knockers).

When did you first discover the Hash?

I was sent to help in Darwin when Cyclone Tracy devastated the city, Christmas '74. A lovely Avis hostess diverted my lustful interest to rent-a-hostess by suggesting r*nnng with the Hash.

What led to your Hash handle?

I was always known as Gypo. Though I came from Italian stock, I was the only one of my family NOT born in Egypt. Returning from Darwin, I found Sydney Hash through Sparks, and the Posh powerbrokers came up with my new audacious and alliterative name.

What are some highlights of your Hash history?

The first InterHash in Hong Kong in 1978. Traveling with the Sydney mob I saw how much fun it was with an international group. It wasn't long before I expanded my horizons to include other Asian and African Nash- and InterHashes.

Is Darwin Don the original Crocodile Dundee?

Hey! I'm better looking than Crocodile Mick Dundee, and my weapon is bigger too!

What has been your most Hashifying experience?

Being President of the POSH. Oh, and also Hashing the rarefied air of Addis Ababa, Ethiopia prelewd before Bali InterHash.

You've Hashed in many places and made many friends? Stand-outs?

Loved r*nnng with Vietnam Hashes; the OnOns are hilarious and include dancing! Also Zululand H3 is a must for me.

Where next are you travelling?

Latest trip this year is to Hash in Perth then South Africa, a wedding in Scotland (no, not mine), London ... and back in time for 50 Golden Years in Oz celebrations.

You were once voted the Sexiest Hasher Alive on a Red Dress R*n? WTF?

I did have a gorgeous skimpy little outfit in Chiang Mai, Kuching, Perth, Bali, Brussels, KL, Hobart—they say that "clothes make the Red Dress man"—don't they?

Have you entertained Hash troops? Describe.

Many times. At Ballarat Nash Hash this year, Pizza asked me to support his singing effort by ringing a bell behind him on cue. Thinking this needed a bit of beefing up I started stripping behind him. The great response from the 700-Hasher crowd Pizza took to be applause for him. They told him later that he was only the supporting act!

As that rare breed of Hasher, a nonagenarian, do you have any original parts?

Eh? I've only got knee replacements. Probably wouldn't have needed those except for the rigors of regular swimming. Not from Hashing, of course.

What advice would you offer to younger Hashers—those approaching middle age?

Remember it's not the years in your life, it's the life in your years that count.

More than 300 Hashers participated in the 50 Golden Years events staged by Australia's longest-established, continuously-active Hash club, Sydney "Posh" H3, whose first R*n was on September 18, 1967 orchestrated by Mike 'The Little General' Miall and Phil 'The Ruptured Duck' Riddell. Hashers from some 55 International and Australian clubs explored six different highlights surrounding Sydney: The Posh (Manly), Sydney South Harbour Larrikins (Observatory Hill, Sydney City), Sydney Harriettes (Seaforth), Sydney Thirsty (Rushcutters Bay) and Botany Bay Convicts (Cronulla Beach). A veritable Noah's ark Sydney Posh Harbour R*n/cruise/R*n from Hunters Hill Sailing Club climaxed the week, at which the World President's lovely muse Captain Knockers burst from a huge anniversary cake to the strains of the Triumphal March from Aida and those of six burly Hashers.

Since too much Hashing is never enough, delegates then flew to Tasmania to celebrate 50 Golden Years of Hobart Hashing (which first pounded round Mount Wellington on October 2, 1967 led by Chris 'The Lord' Eden [any truth that Jim 'Bimbo' Edens is The Lord's love grandchild?] and Fred 'God's Father' Whitaker). Exactly 50 years on the Hash horde headed from the Derwent Sailing Squadron to Ridgeway to re-enact the original challenging trail—OnOnTicToc

Fiji Update

Recently our special Sunday Edition attracted 22 people (17 adults and 5 children), a record number, that helped set up one of the Interhash Tracks for Bula Interhash 2018. This run in Momi, next to the Momi Gun Site National Heritage, will have a long run option making it more than 12 km.

Short, medium, and long runs are now mapped and completed and we are in the process of ironing out the rest.

The Interhash committee continues to meet weekly to execute one of the best Interhash events ever!

At our recent Fiji Nash Hash, we launched Interhash 2018 and the Chief Guest was American Ambassador HE Madam Judith Cefkin.

EMU BREXITS!

A large Emu has been spotted at large in woods near Cambridge and the discovery has Brexiters up in arms! Woods, normally home to good strong British animals such as foxes and badgers, are becoming over saturated with foreign looking birds.

Since the dawn of time traditional British animals have roamed the countryside without the fear of coming into contact with anything that can't trace it's British heritage back for ten generations.

Brave Brexitier Barry Paul said: It's a disgrace! I mean what is an emu? An ostrich with an attitude problem that's what it is. You don't see proper British animals mooching around on two legs pretending to be people do you? Course not. Our animals know their place, on all fours, belly on the ground. Dirty foreign animals fleeing into our woods and mucking things up for the rest of us. I mean who does this "emu" think he is? Does he think he's better than me?

The emu wasn't available for comment but we imagine he was non plussed about the whole event.

PRESIDENT TRUMP DOESN'T KNOW HE'S THE PRESIDENT OF THE U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS

Is President Donald Trump aware residents of the U.S. Virgin Islands are, in fact, Americans? It's unclear.

In a speech Friday, Trump said he'd recently "met with the president of the Virgin Islands" to discuss the recent hurricanes that have devastated Texas, Florida, Puerto Rico and the island.

But Trump could not have spoken to the "president of the Virgin Islands" because, of course, he is the president of the U.S. Virgin Islands, whose residents are U.S. citizens.....from our political stringer in Mexico

AT LAST!
A PHONE YOU CAN'T LOSE OR BREAK

They said it couldn't be done, but a Brighton company has invented a new type of telephone that you can never lose and is almost impossible to break.

The phone is attached to a wall by a sturdy cable and is designed to be placed on a table in the hallway so that you always know where it is.

This clever position also allows you to have a conversation in private without the whole house having to listen.

And it means you will no longer be forced to sound like a pompous idiot by speaking loudly on a phone on a train or in the pub.

Despite its many hi-tech advantages, the phone is considerably cheaper than other devices available in the shops, and the manufacturers claim it will never need expensive upgrades.

Stephen Smith, managing director of Back to the Future Ltd, of Felixstowe, said: "This new device has everything, even a clock. You need only dial what we are calling the Speaking Clock to have a human voice tell you the exact time."

The telephone comes in a range of vibrant colours, so long as it's black. It never loses its signal and, amazingly, never even needs charging up. Furthermore, you can drop it time and again and it will never break.

"We believe this is a game changer for every household or business in the country," Mr Smith said.

He added that a further benefit was the telephone came with just one ring tone – two bell-like rings – which meant there could never be any confusion when it rang.

The telephone is packed with neat design features, including a clever rotary dial that you move with your index finger in order to ring another number. "This is very tactile," Mr Smith explained, "and our test groups loved it. Part of the fun is dialing the number nine, for example, then waiting a second or two as you watch the dial return to the start."

Back to the Future is now in advanced talks with British Telecom to have their devices installed in every home. The company hopes BT will then introduce a big book each year which lists everyone's phone number – and in case you forget your own number, there is a little piece of paper in the middle of the dial so you can note it down.

A HOLE IN ONE

It was a fine summers day at 'St Andrews' when a man runs into the golf club house and yells help, is there a doctor in the club?

The doctor says here I am, what seems to be the trouble?

The man says a woman has been hit by a golf ball.

The doctor asks whereabouts did she get hit??

The man replies between the the 1st and 2nd hole...

The doctor replies 'Oh my God'. it doesn't leave much room for a band-aid does it???

THE TRASH HEALTH and SPORTS PAGE

The world famous entrepreneur, marathon runner, golf master and basketball star, Kim Jong Un, has today opened the first fish and chip shop in North Korea.

The chippy, named FISSION CHIPS, after the rogue state's illegal nuclear weapons programme is located on the corner of Kim Jong Un Boulevard and Kim Jong Un Street in the fashionable Kim Jong Un Quarter of Pyongyang.

Mr Jong Un is a long time fan of all fried food and is understood to have visited several hundred fish and chips shops in the North of England between 1993 and 2000 while he was a student in Switzerland.

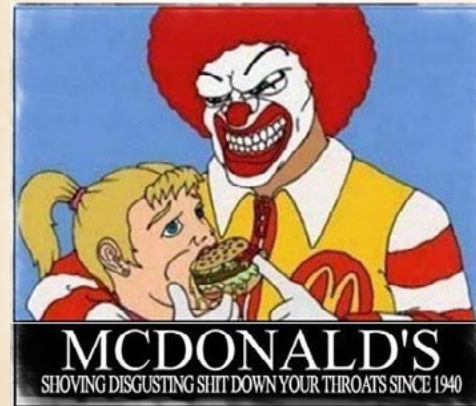

A press release from the North Korean news service heralded the launch of the latest exercise.

"Supreme Leader Kim Jong Un invented fish and chips in 1994 and bequeathed the recipe to the people of Lancashire as an act of benevolence and international cooperation."

The restaurant will feature a range of battered classics including Icelandic Cod, Nordic Hake and Imperialist Dog.

According to the Korean Central News Agency of the DPRK the endeavour was awarded five AA Rosettes and seven Michelin Stars over the course of their first day of trading.

Experts say that life expectancy in Wolverhampton has soared after the McDonalds on Dudley Street was closed on Monday and Tuesday due to strike action. Queues formed just after the school busses arrived in the City and by 11am the population were already looking healthier.

Over 3000 people lingered outside in the hope of a Sausage and Egg McMuffin, but were forced to survive off fresh fruit and from passers-by. Survivors talked of volunteers handing out Sunny Delight and Embassy Regals but even that could not prevent a massive upturn in general well-being. Customer health was also hit with the "double whammy" of not being late for school and work. With hundreds of kids actually making it to the PE lesson some of them met the Games teachers for the very first time.

"It's not all good news" said one expert. "Wolverhampton is facing a potential pensions time-bomb – we could be looking at literally dozens of locals making it to pension age if these strikes continue. There is a possibility that a Post Office may have to open in the region for them to be able to collect them as well – its madness!" he continued.

Whilst the Fordhouses Chippy was happy to step into the breach by delivering Battered Chips, Donner Kebab Pizzas and a Batter-Your-Own-Chocolate-Bar service, others pointed to a simpler solution – There are 8 other McDonalds in the city and they could always go to one of those.

However, as one local, Wayne Haskins told us, "walking....that would be to much an effort"....

The Islamic State has claimed responsibility for Scotland's disastrous exit from the World Cup, it has emerged.

A statement published by the group's Amaq propaganda agency said it was behind manager Gordon Strachan's dismal team selection and tactics.

Scotland needed to beat lowly Slovenia to make the play-offs – and be in with a shot of reaching the World Cup finals in Russia next summer.

But despite scoring first, the bottling Scots ended up drawing 2-2, meaning they will have to settle back and watch England play their three WC games and bore everyone rigid instead.. IS is quick to claim responsibility for disasters across the world, and tonight's football implosion was no different.

Security experts said they doubted Isis was really behind Scotland's defeat, but the cruel statement was intended to be an integral part of its phsycological warfare against the west. Scotland watched in growing horror as its team failed to rise to the occasion – the country has now failed to reach the World Cup finals since 1998.

A Scottish FA insider said: "Anyone who supports Scotland really should not have expected anything different. "We only have ourselves to blame – Islamic State can bugger off!"

Meanwhile, England were confirmed as Group F winners, winning 1-0 away at Lithuania to make it 26 points from a possible 30.

"We have to cling on to our memories," a Scottish football fan said, "like Archie Gemmill's goal against Holland at the 1978 World Cup."

Football fans in Scotland will now be cheering on Ireland in the hope they can reach the World Cup instead.

At the Beer Stops

Absolut Run 873 The 'BIGS' Beer Tasting October Fest Hash

This exceptional Beer Tasting Absolut Hash attracted a large number of hashers and produced a great run in the streets and woods of Täby. Being Stockholm and in the later stages of October we half expected the venue to be cold, dark and wet. Fortunately that was not the case. The pack was treated to mild autumn weather and after Big Brothers welcome and lengthy chalk talk the pack set off down the alleyway and onto grassy fields, the FRBs racing ahead. Confusion reigned at the second check until Termite saved the day finding the trail on his bike. Eventually we came till the 'not the first' drink stop in a clearing in the wood with some concoction from Easter Europe. A short distance round the lake found the 'first' drink stop, and finally meeting up with the walkers at the 'second' drink stop. On arriving On Home, the pack was treated to a variety of crisps and Big Mouth's garlic dip! Après circle and food we got down the the serious stuff of 'tasting' the various beers on tap and a good day was had by all, thanks BIGS for a real 'good'un and we all look forward to your next hash outing.....OnOnMaliBog

POST BREXIT BRITAIN FORGES AHEAD WITH ASTONISHING INNOVATIONS LEAVING EU TO GO FLUCK ITSELF

CORDLESS GARDEN HOSE IS BEST SELLER

A company in Dorset is set to make millions of pounds after inventing the world's first cordless garden hose. The clever device ensures gardeners can water any sized garden, because the nozzle can be taken anywhere without the hosepipe running out.

HoseAway ingeniously runs via wireless internet technology, which means there is no need to lug the traditional rubber hose around the garden. And another key benefit is not having to wind and unroll the hose carefully rolling the hose back up afterwards. Householders can even save money because there is now no need for them to install an expensive outside tap. Costing just £19.99, HoseAway has already been featured at the Chelsea Flower Show and on the BBC's popular Gardeners' World programme. The device is made by Dorchester-based Gareth Lewis Waterworks Ltd, and is the result of years of development. Managing Director Arnold Ridley said: "HoseAway uses the latest wireless technology, cleverly allowing anyone to water their garden without the need for a heavy hose. "No longer will gardeners be restricted by the length of their hosepipe, or by the irritation of getting kinks in hoses which result in poor performance. "We have had lots of interest from home and abroad, and the device is already our best-selling product." HoseAway is shortlisted for industry awards, and is available in all good garden centres and stockists.

POWDERED WATER TO CHANGE OUR LIVES FOREVER

A Sussex company has launched a brilliant powdered water product that could revolutionise the way we drink. Instead of lugging heavy bottles of water about, you now only need a small sachet of the special powdered water which weighs hardly anything at all.

Simply add water to the H2-ooH Powder, stir and you'll enjoy a perfect drink of water every time. The remarkable invention is the brainchild of snake oil sellers Monty's Python Liniments Inc, based in Littlehampton, Sussex. Company boss Monty Burns, 59, said they had already received a bulk order for H2-ooH from Japan, and were now looking to expand sales elsewhere. "It's very easy to make tasty water every time, simply by adding water to one small sachet of H2-ooH. It has gone down a storm in our test market in Wales. They'll buy anything there." H2-ooH comes in packets of ten sachets, each capable of making one litre of water. Each pack of ten costs just £7.99 – much cheaper than bottled water. "We see this as a great labour-saving invention," Mr Burns added. "There's just no need to carry around a bottle of water anymore." Monty's Python Liniments is refusing to say what secret ingredients go in to making H2-ooH. "It's a closely-guarded secret," Mr Burns said. "We don't want anyone ripping us off." Mr Paul Eaton, of Trading Standards, said he was aware of the new product and would be looking into it.

EU IS "WHAT HITLER WOULD HAVE WANTED"

A group of EU leaders - the President of the European Commission, the Head of the European Council, and the Grand Poo-bah of Brussels - have released a statement in which they admit that Brexiters have been right all along and that the EU is just a plan to complete what Hitler failed to do over seventy years ago. "The EU has from the beginning been an attempt to conquer Europe," said the statement. "Our attempts at democracy are so poor that it should have been obvious to many of you. How can you have pretend to have true democracy without a technocratic controlled press?"

It continued, "EU leaders' failure to mention the war every single day - unlike the average Brexit voter - should have been a giveaway sign that we were covering up something." The dictators also admitted that the desire to form a European superstate was not driven by efficiency or globalism, but by a pure lust for power. Emperor Schnauser said, "We are Anschluss-ing our neighbours all over again, and it feels glorious!" Brexit campaigner Jeremy Twat could not believe the frank admission by the EU, saying, "It sounds far too believable, as if somebody from the Daily Mail wrote it for them.

Chichester Hash Run 881 - 22 Oct 2017 Hedge End Heathhouse Lane - Norman Rodaway Playing Fields

Yet again Chichester hash joined forces with another larger group of Sunday insomniacs. This time it was the Hursley HHH. Although it was a little out of our area we were well supported with 20 Chi hasher to their 30. The Ref was first to arrive at 9.45 and with the aid of very good signage all were present at 11 o'clock for the instruction from Kinky of what we should be looking for. Circles for checks and a bar for falsies, simple enough then the mention of a second bar that was too much to take in on a windy exposed playing field. With all the necessities over we were set off around the field to the opposite corner for the first check, then along the path, over the road and into the woods. Luckily the front runners must have been on a carrot diet as the flour was very sparse due to being laid the previous day before the overnight rain and strong winds. Our Panda felt confident in checking out the next check until the trail became "too messy" for her and she veered off to the left "mustn't get her shoes dirty!" The trail continued south past old overgrown remains of buildings and through the shiggy with only the Chi calling on. To quote our late founder "their calling was appalling". Due to the leaves covering the flour we lost the trail and had a unscheduled regroup while a mystified hare tried to puzzle out where he was. Eventually he found the trail down to the river Hamble where we crossed a small bridge and ran nearly half a mile before being called back. The front runners had over ran a very exposed falsie bar that had almost disintegrated. Time for a photo shoot of 4 HERSley lasses before we headed back into the woods (see photos). The trail followed the Hamble north and west for about a mile until we again lost the trail and everyone seemed to be running around in all directions. In and out of woods, up and down roads, around open fields, clockwise and anti-clockwise but nothing could be found. Some started to go back while others, including yours truly, followed a Hursley runner who we thought was on the trail. Unfortunately we didn't realize until too late that he was following the outward trail, so after a few checks marked with arrows pointing in the wrong direction we found ourselves back at the chariots in 1hr. 15mins. The rest of the pack, led by our own Snake Charmer, came in after another 20mins. and for the cost of £5.00 all were rewarded with pies and drink. After the down-downs, including Snake Charmer and Splasher for some minor infringement, the hash-it was awarded to Doctor Blood for using his phone on a run (even though he was 'on call'!). ..... On On ! Old Faithful.

Chichester Hash House Harriers is a smallish group of runners and walkers, hashing in the South West Sussex and South East Hampshire area (of England). We run alternate Sundays throughout the year starting at 11 am prompt. Visitors are always made most welcome, walkers and dogs can generally be accommodated and it's free! We mostly use flour for the trail and follow a loose set of rules that is always open to interpretation. Runs last about 1 hour and a bit. We then retire to a nearby pub!

MAN WHO OPPOSED BREXIT APPEALS FOR UK HELP

Virgin customers asked to dig deep for pensioner's destroyed home Devastated pensioner Richard Branson, whose home was destroyed by Hurricane Irma, has been overwhelmed by Virgin product customers who have agreed to continue to pay over the odds for second rate services so that he can rebuild his modest home in the British Virgin Islands. Richard moved out to the British Virgin Islands several years ago as he was keen to live in a low lying, tropical storm prone area after having spent years enduring a harsh life-style, moving between multi-million-pound residences in hostile locations such as Belgravia and the Cotswolds. Since moving, he has continued to contribute to UK life by off-shoring many call-centre jobs within the Virgin empire, ensuring ex-Virgin customers are continually bombarded with sales letters, and by allegedly ensuring that next to none of his own British originated income is wasted on such nonsense as paying for nurses, firefighters and providing income to the sick and needy, though he insists that his move to the Virgin Islands was nothing to do with dodging paying tax. At the same time showing himself to be a patron of the UK by voting to stay in the EU. A Virgin spokesman confirmed that Branson's private island took a battering and that the repair bill will run in to millions. "Virgin will continue to take part in the privatisation of the NHS as well as provide over-priced media services and rail services to the UK, all so that Richard can rebuild his life back in the Virgin Islands.

We would ask, at this difficult time, that you send your prayers to Richard and, more importantly, make sure that your Direct Debits are made on time." ..... Cofxam

PLAYBOY BUNNIES SURPRISED TO FIND HUGH HEFNER 'STIFFER THAN USUAL'

Notorious Bachelor and soft core pornographer Hugh Hefner was pronounced dead recently at his home, the Playboy Mansion, Los Angeles.

Early reports indicate that the blonde bimbo aficionado had died of natural causes at the age of 91; However, it appears the time of death may have been as long as 7 days ago.

Los Angeles County Coroner Chad Daver said; "Due to the state of decomposition and rigorous mortis, I would venture to say that Mr Hefner had died approximately six to seven days ago; frankly, in a house so active with models, maids and photographers, I really can't understand how the body wasn't identified sooner."

The Playboy Mansion, where Hugh Hefner resided is used as a studio for his popular soft core pornographic magazine and video shoots and is inhabited by several of the Playboy magazine models, known as Play Bunnies; several of which are Mr Hefner's girlfriends and sexual partners.

Some discussion has been raised at how a man with well known sexual appetites and several partners could have laid dead for the better part of a week.

"Hugh always liked to see us in the evenings, after his evening meal and medication.

We attend to him in his room and take care of his needs, if you know what I mean." Said one Playboy bunny.

"Usually he's popped a Viagra and ready for us around 7 o'clock, so when we went into his room each night and saw him lay on the bed stiff with a grin on his face, we didn't suspect anything was out of the ordinary." When asked about the lack of response, cold skin and smell of decomposition, the model, who wishes to remain nameless stated

"He was 91 years old, he was always cold, couldn't really put any effort in and smelt that way since 2007."

Playboy founder Hugh Hefner's funeral will feature well-thumbed order of service sheets that stick together, it has emerged.

The soft porn mogul kicked the bucket aged 91 at the Los Angeles Playboy mansion he shared with his full-bosomed voluptuous 31-year-old curvaceous wife, Crystal.

Millions of men worldwide used his trailblazing Playboy magazine to "entertain themselves" in the days before internet porn was just a click away.

His dying wish was that his order of service will have a novel feature.

A business associate explained: "We couldn't very well include photos of bare-breasted lovelies in Hugh's order of service. Not in the House of God.

"So to make the funeral as realistic as possible, Hugh requested that specialist printers in Soho, London make the order of service pages stick together.

"This was Hugh's cheeky wish, and it should bring back many happy memories for those who loved his work."

Hefner began publishing Playboy from his kitchen in 1953. It fast became the largest-selling men's magazine in the world.

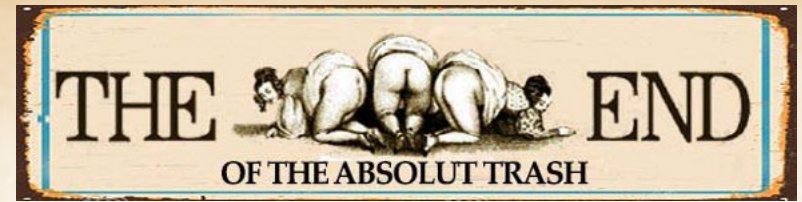

Millions of copies a month flew off the top shelf at the peak of its popularity.

The magazine made him a millionaire and he went on to forge an empire that included casinos and nightclubs.

He was famous for his hedonistic behaviour, dating and marrying Playboy models, throwing decadent parties at the luxurious Playboy mansion.

He claimed to have slept with more than 1,000 women, and credited the impotence drug Viagra with maintaining his libido.

Family friend Jim Ben said: "I can't wait for the funeral – it will bring back many happy memories to see the sticky order of service pages.".....Playboy©

DONALD TRUMP IS DISAPPEARING UP HIS OWN ARSE

American scientists confirmed last night that US President, Donald Trump, is close to completely disappearing up his own arse.

Professor Steven Sigmoid of the US Institute for Sphinctral Studies told The Rochdale Herald "Donald Trump is suffering from a rare condition known as Verbal Crapulence. The more he congratulates himself, pats himself on the back or brags about his supposed greatness the worse his condition gets. He is in real danger of completely losing himself up his own ass, which could be fatal."

The White House have been so concerned about the President's condition that they sought advice from top experts with a view to halting the advance of this terrible disease. An insider told us "We are very worried. The President has been spouting a lot of shite about himself recently which seems to have accelerated his condition. Due to his size, he is classed as a small planet and we have therefore had to hand over all monitoring of the President to NASA."

At the NASA Space Centre in Houston, Texas, top scientists confirmed the current status. "We have attached space sensors to the President to monitor the progress of this disease. A week ago the President's head started to tilt downwards as he made a speech which revolved around how awesome he was. Hours later his spine showed sign of substantial curvature and he had developed a stoop.

Over the next few days his neck began to curve forward and his head started moving towards his crotch area. Over the last few hours his condition has become more pronounced. The NASA scientist continued "Last night the President's head passed his perineum, or Biffins Bridge as it's more commonly known. This is the area between his scrotum and his ring piece and was really the last chance we had to stall the head before it entered the body. We fitted the President with an emergency collar to try and stop his fat head advancing further, but at 20.00 last night he entered his own sphincter and his noggin is now firmly stuck up his anal canal. The President's spine is now so curved that he looks like a massive Danish pastry."

In the last few minutes NASA have confirmed that they have launched an internal probe, injected into Mr Trump's bloodstream and manned by miniature scientists, like in that film Fantastic Voyage.

The hope is that the probe will move down through POTUS, traversing along his colon, eventually entering his rectum sometime tomorrow. A large piston will then be deployed to push the President's head back out of his arsehole. The intention is to manage the operation without dislodging his toupe but this may not be possible.

If successful it's expected the President will have to undergo emergency spinal surgery to correct the severe curvature and he will then be sent on a course somewhere to teach the giant orange Twitter shitgibbon how to stop being such a pretentious, narcissistic, tit.

A BUNCH OF STOCKHOLM HASHERS FELL OUT OF THE PUB AND CRAMMED INTO THEIR CAR. "YOU DRIVE TERMITE, YOU'RE TOO PISSED TO SING!"

NO STEALING!

All material, unless otherwise stated, is copyright of the Absolut Trash (2017).

Our lawyers are watching you!

Although probably from the pub, so you'll possibly get away with it.
