Making yourself at home in Trinidad is easy for the Interhash 2020!

Interhash 2020

We are happy to announce that the Trinidad Hilton Hotel has come on board as the Official Hash hotel for the Interhash 2020.

Pre bookings for rooms flew off the shelf, as we announced our Pre booking Hash Special last week, with 183 rooms being reserved under 2 hours, as hard core hashers rushed to make sure they got in on the hotel deals and be in middle of the action at the Hash Hotel.

Don't get all bent out of shape so quickly thinking you've lost your chance at the Hub Hotel, because another 116 rooms will be made available to you at special hash rates in April when the International booking machine goes in to action.

Keeping you all close and cozy.

We have also been working closely with hotels within minutes walk from the Hilton, which we would be launching on our website. Look out for deals from the Hotel Normandie, The Chancellor Hotel, the Kapok Hotel, the Cascadia Hotel and others as these rooms become available.

Register now at www.Interhashtrinidad2020.com

Pic of the Savannah taken from the Hilton hotel

Mismanagement has zoned the accommodation regions and would be unveiling these hotels, guests houses and Airbnb options in Zone 1, closest to the Hotel Hub, in the St Ann's/ Cascade area.

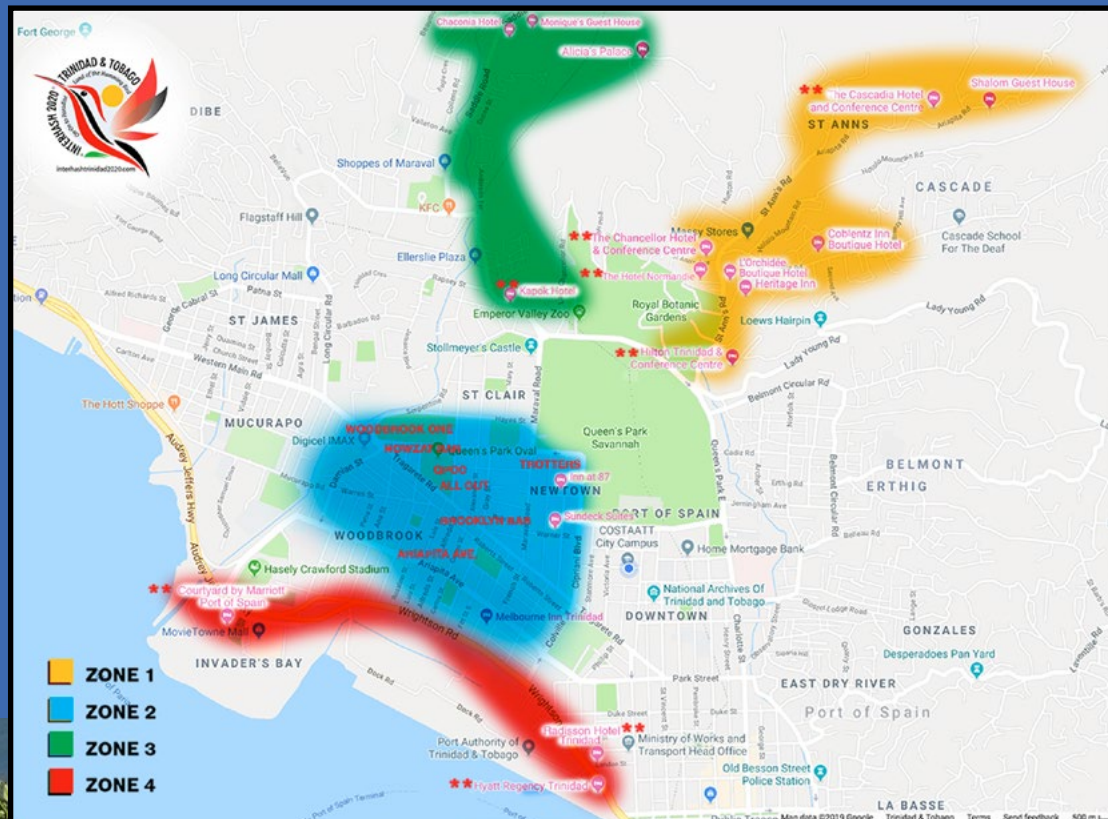

Zone 1: The St Ann's and Cascade area. - North of the Queens Park Savannah- Historical Living minutes walk away from the Hash Hotel

Home to the famous Pelican Inn/ Pub, where all who attended the InterAmericas here years ago spent many a drunken night. Sadly this Pub icon, which meant so much to us is no longer there and has been replaced by a hotel. St Ann's and Cascade are primarily residential areas that sit in the foothills of the sprawling; northern range, making them perfect for smaller comfortable and affordable hotels. The areas become more commercial as they get closer to the Queens Park Savannah. There you can find small businesses supporting the residents and the Tourism sector, with groceries, bars, restaurants, the Queens Hall, where many a local concert or play has been staged, as well as many historical buildings and sites, including the Prime Ministers House, the Emperor Valley Zoo, the Botanical Gardens, and the Presidents Grounds where many an exciting rugby game has been played.

Zone 2: The St Clair, Woodbrook and Ariapita Ave- West of the Queens Park Savannah – Guest House Living amid the Bars and Restaurants.

St Clair, is an upscale residential area, hosting some of the most beautiful historic homes and parks, including the Stollmeyer Castle and the Magnificent Seven.

Just behind these stately buildings, spread the Woodbrook and Newtown areas. Historically very quaint residential areas with the classic Trinidadian George Brown houses, they have become home to blocks of bars, restaurants and smaller guests houses littered along the famous Ariapita Ave. Local pubs and Sports bars, restaurants and other notable sites can be found in this area, including sprawling Sports Bars like Trotters and All Out which are the largest, located near the Famous Queens Park Cricket Club. Small local bars or 'Rumshops' such as Howzat Bar, just across the road from the cricket Club and the Brooklyn Bar are guaranteed spots for hashers during your stay here. Standing tall and high above all is One Woodbrook Place residential towers, where many can sign up for Airbnb and live high above some of the most popular bars and restaurants below, minutes walk away from all things Hash.

Zone 3: Saddle Road and Maraval Valley. -West of the Queens Park Savannah- Stay along the famous Saddle Road that leads you to some of our famous beaches, in small comfortable hotels close to our Moka Golf Club, Country Club, many malls and restaurants. Monique's Guest House and others all scattered on the main saddle road would keep you in the mix Zone 4: City living. -Three of our larger hotels are listed in here, the Hyatt Regency, the Marriot Courtyard and the Radisson Hotel, all minutes walk in to the City of Port of Spain and its Waterfront and Parliament buildings. Situated on one of the city's main thoroughfares, these hotels afford you the buzz of the city while keeping you minutes away by taxi from all things Hash. The Marriott Courtyard sits in the middle of Movietown , where many bars, casinos, restaurants, cinemas etc. can be found.

Stay tuned as we roll out these deals for you over the next few weeks , then we will unveil a few Airline surprises.

What? You haven't picked your Pre Lube option yet?

Check out our options on our website Interhashtrinidad2020.com its all there for you!

Editor's Notes

We tiptoe into summer, a time when HHH events seem to sprout up all around, ready to blossom and bloom. The Mijas H3 turns 30 and promises a grand celebration for hashers who travel to Spain this May. World Interhash is less than a year away as the event heads to the Caribbean Island nation of Trinidad and Tobago in April 2020.

Speaking of the Caribbean, our ambassador at large, Quick Drawers, packed his finest crimson dress and headed to Barbados with a dozen Mount Vernon H3 friends, all in the name of charity. Never one to let the grass grow under his feet, QD was off to the Northern Marianas the following month to report on the Saipan H3. For WWII history buffs, Saipan deserves a spot on your bucket list.

The largest HHH event this year will surely be Pan Asia Hash in China. The local government has laid out the welcome mat to the thousands of hashers who will journey to Zhangjiajie this November in what will surely be spectacular in size, scenic beauty and Chinese culture.

At the other end of the size spectrum, but always welcome in the world of hashing, is the resurrection of the Bohol H3 in the Central Visayas region of the Philippine Islands. The Bohol H3 meets the last Saturday of each month at the Biergarten Hash Pub on Aloha Beach.

Mekong Indochina Hash is all set for Chiang Mai this November. A week of activities kicks off with the Loy Kratong Festival on November 13th. The Lanna Bush H3 will host a male run on the 14th while the Chiang Mai Bunnies will plan a run for the ladies. For those who prefer mixed company, Thursday is also a regular hash day for the Chiang Mai Happy Hash. Bobo promises another "IMH Full Moon Run" on Monday, the 18th of November. The TDH3 is planning a bus and train rumble from Bangkok for those who want to start partying on November 12th.

Our prolific Africa correspondent, Head Mistress, continues her nonstop adventures across the Dark Continent in search of the Dakar Hash House Harriers in Senegal. This hash chapter is like no other in that there is no marked trail, no circle following the run, and no down downs! Fortunately the group convened at the local bar afterwards for a cold La Gazelee, the favourite lager of Senegal.

Honours and a fond farewell to our Hash Hero, Harry "God Knows" Howell who hashed for 50 years before passing on the Great Hash Trail in the Sky at the age of 85. Harry joined Mother Hash in KL in 1958, and founded the Kuching H3 five years later. He helped spread the Hash Gospel wherever he traveled and will be truly missed by the many who knew him.

Keep on hashing and keep those stories coming in to share with hashers around the world.

I hope to see you on a HHH trail soon.

PAN ASIA 2019

ZHANGJIAJIE, CHINA

by Hu Wei

CONTENTS

Zhangjiajie, a city in the northwest of China's Hunan province, is home to the famed Wulingyuan Scenic Area. This protected zone encompasses thousands of jagged quartzite sandstone columns, many of which rise over 200m, as well as caves filled with stalactites and stalagmites. Wulingyuan also encompasses forests, rivers, waterfalls and 2 large natural land bridges, as well as endangered plant and animal species. - Wikipedia

Attention to all Hashers in Asia!

Zhangjiajie will be hosting the 17th Pan Asia Hash from 07 to 10 November this year, where you all get a chance to dance your Hash booties off! This international sport event will be the largest and most popular in Zhangjiajie's history. It is of great significance to promote the city's tourism consumption, and expand its global reputation and popularity.

Meet and greet PAH2019 Zhangjiajie committees with fully committed and supported Mr OU YANG BIN (Vice Mayor of Zhangjiajie City) and Mr ZENG WEI DONG (Vice Chairman of Zhangjiajie tourism, culture, sports and foreign affairs)

The advisory board of the 17th Pan Asia Hash has officially ended the 4-day tour of inspection in Zhangjiajie. Throughout the tour, the progress of preparation, main catering, hosting hotel, registration point were well inspected and observed.

The local government of Zhangjiajie showered the visiting board with warm welcome and scrumptious local delicacies. The committee members even guaranteed a feast and spree on your taste bud during the 17th Pan Asia Hash!

Zhangjiajie, the land of Avatar, is known for its picturesque scenery. Apart from its natural wonders such as Tianmen Mountain, Baozijie, Heavenward Taoist Temple, Yellow Stone Village, Jingbianxi valley, and Shili Natural Gallery, the advisory board was also astounded by the Yang Opera, Dragon Dance, Guigu Qigong, Zhangtou Puppet, Yongding Opera, and other cultural heritage at national, provincial and municipal level.

PAH 2019 Zhang Jia Jie Committees with Mr QING ZHANG REN (Secretary of Zhangjiajie travel association)

According to reports, Pan Asia Hash 2019 in Zhangjiajie would cater more than 5,000 participants from over 60 countries and regions; this has surpassed the world hash scale. The premise of the HASH fun relates back to fundamentals of hunting. It advocates natural health, unity, positive spirit and endurance. After decades, HASH has outpaced common sport events, and becomes a leisure pursuit with distinctive characteristics and cultural connotation.

Hashing in

by Richard Simpson

Philippines

RESURRECTION RUN #1 & #2
23/24 FEBRUARY 2019

The BH3 has been resurrected by a group of hashers living in Bohol.

There have been a few hashes in Bohol, according to Honourable Hash Historian, Squatta, from Manila H3. The first known runs were organised at Alona Beach, Panglao Island, in 2002, by Junkyard, a resort owner, who had previously hashed at Puerto Galera and founded the Matabungay hash.

In March 2011, Proposition, active Philippine hasher, arranged Philippine Hash Bash #4, attended by about 150 international and local hashers. Making use of new and unexplored hashing territory, the Cebu hash has had many outstation runs in Bohol, commencing in 2014.

With a number of keen hashers now residing in Panglao Island, the Resurrection Run was arranged in February, 2019, as a prelube to the Philippine Nash Hash. Organisers and hares were Cuntstubble Pantless, Check Your Pants, Flo Jo and OJ.

The weekend attracted 41 hashers, coming from Bohol, Cebu Hash, Manila Hash, Phuket, Vietnam and other international hashers, kicking off with Friday drinks and registration at the Biergarten pub in Alona Beach.

Run #1, hared by GM, Cuntstubble Pantless and Check Your Pants, was a jeepney ride to the east end of Panglao Island, where hashers chose between a bloody long, two hour run/walk and mild walk. Enthusiastic runners could join the two, but they didn't, after climbing to the top of Mt. Biking. Great trail and fantastic views. Following the circle it was On On to Alona Beach and a party at Rue de Premier with plenty of cold beer, great bands, cultural show and fire dancing. Terrific.

For those that got up the next morning for Flo Jo's and OJ's recovery Run #2, it was a jeepney ride across the causeway to Bohol Island and up to Mt Banat-i, for a photo op and then down down to the sea, cross the causeway, thru a mangrove swamp, around a cliff and circle by the sea.

What a great way to resurrect BH3 !!!!! And thanks to our major sponsors - the Alturas Group of Companies, operating malls, hospitality venues and resorts in Bohol and the southern Philippines, and, the Department of Tourism.

All hashers were amazed at the friendliness and hospitality of the Boholana's, particularly the kids, welcoming us along the trail with hi fives, photo ops and water.

With a core of about 10/12 local runners, hashes will be held on the last Saturday of the month. Hash pub is Biergarten, Alona Beach. Meet 3pm.

Check out run details on our Facebook page. New runners and visitors welcome. Come and run on a beautiful island, with plenty of unexplored hash sites and lots of cold San Mig.

ON ON to BH3

God Knows

-from 50 Golden Years Commemorative Magazine SYDNEY

A Few Quiet Beers with God Knows

You are probably the longest continuously-serving Hasher in the WORLD!

When did you first discover you could Hash?

Representing a major British publishing house I was posted to several Asian locations in the '50s. Stationed in Kuala Lumpur in 1958 my local watering hole was the famous Selangor Club (The Dog). Several Hashers dragged me to a R*n and I haven't stopped since—slowed, yes, but not stopped.

What led to your Hash handle?

In The Dog one night I was asked my Hash name. "God Knows," I spluttered, over several pints. Have used the name to great effect ever since.

What is the highlight of your Hash history?

Founding Kuching H3 in 1963 while stationed in Borneo.. and I'm delighted to note it is stronger than ever.

How did you find "people like us" to start Kuching H3?

Posted to that fine city for business, I was also an officer in the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, and our first Hash R*nners were largely fellow officer types.

God Knows aka Harry Howell was born in Lincoln UK, February 18, 1934 and died in Sydney, Australia, April 15, 2019 aged 85.

LowDownDown

Birth Name: Harry Howell

Hash Name: God Knows

Hashtistics: Joined KL Mother H3 1958

Founded Kuching H3 1963

Joined Sydney Posh 1970

JM 1971; President (GM) SH3 1984, Life Member

You've Hashed in many places and made many friends? Stand-outs?

So many wonderful friends everywhere. In 1962 I r*nn with the very first Singapore Hash, "The Father Hash," on the island, started by Chris Verity, Tommy Voice, and Ian Cumming.

One other, John Gastrell whom I first met in Singapore, and who introduced me to "TinLegs" Bader, by the way, was a great mate and we continued in Sydney with The Posh (he was President in 1977). And, of course, Sydney Posh has been like a family to me for more than 40 years.

What has been your most Hashifying experience?

Probably r*nnng with the Los Angeles H3 up 1200ft, about as high as Gibraltar. Or maybe with Mother H3 in KL. We came upon a hidden Communist terrorist camp. Silently camping all night, we held ourselves close to keep warm! Next morning we found we were just ten minutes from home. After 15 years with my publishing firm, Boustead's I came job-hunting in Sydney. One Monday I Hashed in Sabah, and the next in Sydney..changed career and country, but didn't miss a Hash!

You've entertained Hash troops widely (or is that wildly?) with The Ballad of the Death of Lord Nelson. Has his family sued?

Claiming responsibility for this particular theatre is a Naval Officer on HMS Glasgow. I have continued his mentorship oh, only about 50 times. But not recently. Apparently hosts object to the damage to furniture, crystal, limb and even life upon the climactic conclusion of this act. Do you want to see it?

Of all the songs, anecdotes and gags God Knows so well, what is your favourite?

With a mind like a steal(!) trap, I have been fortunate to capture one or two, it's true. But don't start me "...And the hairs of her dickey di-do hung down to her knees,
One black one, one white one, and one with a little shite on...and one with a little light on to show us the way..."

What advice would you offer to younger Hashers—those approaching middle age?

Show up regularly. Show some commitment, damn it.

--With thanks to Hazukashii and Changi.

Mekong Indo China 2019

Greetings Hashers!

Preparations are well underway for this November's Mekong Indochina in Chiang Mai, so it is about time for an update!

The main event begins on Friday 15th November with a Welcome Party at the base hotel (Duang Tawan Hotel). Book your room early as Chiang Mai tends to get booked up during this period. All events will be organized from the Duang Tawan Hotel.

The main runs will be on Saturday 16th November. Buses will leave at different times during the day to top secret locations for your choice of Ball Breaker, Long, Regular or Walk - with departure times to be announced nearer the time. After the runs, it is of course time for beer & circles, before everyone heads back to the city for our Main Event Dinner and Party.

Assuming you can wake up on Sunday 17th, transport will set off midmorning to take you to our Hangover run, lunch and chilled out afternoon party.

The weekend main event is the central feature of a weeklong hashcation, so why not come early and leave late, enjoying more hashing in and around Chiang Mai? Note: the prelube / postlube events aren't included in the main event fee.

21st MEKONG INDOCHINA HASH
CHIANG MAI
15-17 November 2019

Wednesday 13th November is the main date of the Loy Kratong festival in Chiang Mai. Loy Kratong is one of the 2 key traditional festivals held annually in Thailand, and Chiang Mai is the main venue. Throughout the evening there will be parades through the city, fire lanterns rising into the sky, and traditional floats being released onto the river - an experience not to be missed. We on the hash celebrate it in our own unique way, as a Loy Kateoy hash, so be ready to cross dress, bring your red dresses, and get ready to paint the town red!

The Thinking Drinking Hash (TDH3) are also organizing a Train Rumble leaving Bangkok on 12th November - all the information is in the attached flyer, and if you want to join, you are encouraged to register as soon as possible.

We are looking forward to enjoying a beer with you in November!

Mekong Indochina Hash 2019

Prelube

We are happy to announce that the Thinking Drinking Hash House Harriers (TDH3) will be arranging a special pre-lube hash bus/train and hash trip to the Mekong Indochina Hash in Chiang Mai followed by the TDH3 on Friday 15 November 2019.

The planned activities include:

TDH3 Pre-lube Itinerary (subject to change)

- 11:30: Departure by bus from Bangkok (the departure venue will be announced later) for travel to Bang Pa-In Palace to take in the sites of the sumptuous Palace and related nearby architectural masterpieces.
- 15:00: Depart Bang Pa-In Palace for a short hash run in Ayutthaya's Historical Park.
- 16:00: Arrive and run hash with a start time of circa 16:15 with the circle at approximately 17:30. Beer, water, soft drinks and homemade snacks will be served at the circle. A shower facility may be available (this is not yet guaranteed but will try our best).
- 18:15: A short bus ride to a boat for an On On On dinner cruise along the local Ayutthaya river.
- 20:15: A short bus ride to the train station for a train departure at 21:07 SHARP !!!!.
- 21:07: Our train will be 2nd class sleeping air-conditioned train. The trip is limited to no less than 80 pax and no more than 110 pax. The final confirmation for the trip will be announced when these numbers are confirmed.

13 November:

- 08:40: Train arrives Chiang Mai. Transfer to individual hotels are NOT part of this package.

Cost: The cost is 3,900 Thai Baht and includes: the bus & train rides; beer, soft drink and snacks at the Ayutthaya hash run; the On On On hash cruise dinner; the Palace tour; a TDH3 prelude trip hash shirt; and breakfast on the train (sandwich, tea & coffee).

Registration: Opens 15 March 2019 via <http://tdh3.gotothefhash.net> and closes 15 May 2019. Maximum is 110. As soon as the trip is confirmed (via reaching the minimum of 80 hashers and or 110 hasher), we will contact everyone with instructions on payment. The payment will be due in full by 7 June 2019 (this due date is necessitated by the date the train must be booked).

Important Note:

Everyone is individually responsible to arrive at the bus ride and for their own travel from the Chiang Mai train station to their hotel. The TDH3 will not be responsible of any transfer fees and fees that are charged to the TDH3 will be charged back to those responsible.

Note: Possible separate Special Train Ride Option for travel to Mekong Indochina Hash.

- For those who cannot make the Pre-lube hash trip but still want to party and travel up to Chiang Mai with other hashers, we are also looking at the possibility of arranging travel for others, via the same 2nd class air-condition sleeping train from Bangkok to Chiang Mai. This train leaves Bangkok on Tuesday 12 November at 19:35 with an eta in Chiang Mai on Wednesday 13 November at 08:40. If arranged, the cost will be approx. Thai Baht 2,700.-/pax. This will be a special train car where hashers will be able to drink on board; thus why the cost would be more than the normal rate. This rate would include the sleeping bunk, beer, drink, and breakfast.

If interested in this possible hash party train ride please register at <http://tdh3.gotothefhash.net> (register fist, pay later). As soon as the Rumble trip is confirmed (via reaching the minimum of 80 hashers), we will contact everyone with instructions on payment.

The special train car needs to be reserved by 15 June 2019. As of now the goal for this separate special train ride would require a minimum 40 pax, but if more people show interest this number can be increased, but must be full of 40 each car.

The Barbados H3 held their Red Dress Run on Saturday February 16th, to of course enjoy their weekly hash and to raise money for the less fortunate homeless that were on the island. Some of the 120+ hashers attired in their favorite red dress were visiting hashers from the Mount Vernon H3, northern Virginia.

Barbados H3 Red Dress Run 2019

by Quick Drawers

Hashers assembled between 3 - 3:30 PM in the parking lot of the former Old Caribbean Pepperpot, in the St. Lawrence Gap region of Barbados. This is one of the islands many prime tourist areas along with its "Platinum" beaches. Walkers and runner's trails split off at the very beginning with numerous members carrying appropriately labeled tin cans, identifying the specific charity which they would be asking folks they passed, for donations in any amount. Both trails were approximately one hour in duration and ended back where they began.

Hashers purchased drink tickets, 3 for $5 USD or $10 BD, which they could use for the beverage of their choice, i.e. beer or a Rum drink. After a good hour of cold drinks and lively conversation the RA attired in British royal fashion with flowing white wig and regal robe commenced the start of their traditional circle. Most hashers being recognized and rewarded for whatever reason, received their rewards while they were in the kneeling position.

The 10 visiting MVH3 hashers were of course in due course and expressed they're thanks to all BH3 members, for their very welcoming hospitality and a very enjoyable hash. Circle concluded as darkness began and hashers headed off to exchange their Red Dresses for other attire, in which to continue their Saturday night party activities.

Current information for BH3 is readily available at barbadoshash.com and includes contact info for their entire committee along with directions for their upcoming weekly hash. The Barbados Hash was started in November 1984 and this year in November they will be celebrating 35 years of hashing in Barbados. The number of hashers that run each weekend has grown over the years. Another one of Barbados hashes is the Moon Over Barbados H3, which hashes monthly and their info is available at barbadoshash.com/mobh3/.

Thanks again BH3 for an enjoyable hash and we hope to see you all again at the Trinidad World Interhash 2020.

Saipan is the largest of the Northern Mariana Islands, a U.S. commonwealth in the Western Pacific. It's characterized by sandy shores and mountainous landscapes, and has several championship golf courses. Its highest point is 1,555-ft. Mt. Tapochau, a limestone peak at the island's center. Close to the northern tip, Japanese memorials mark Banzai Cliff and Suicide Cliff, sites from the 1944 Battle of Saipan. - Wikipedia

Saturday evening hashing in Saipan is highly recommended. On 24 March (and the remainder of their summer schedule) the Saipan Hash meets at 4 PM in Garapan, at the corner of Beach Road and Garapan Street, in the Bank of Guam parking lot. During the remainder of the year, the meet time is 3:30 PM. So, if you always show up before 3:30 PM you can't go wrong. Once everyone signs in and Hash Cash is collected, by "Mutt", members are then collectively transported to the designated starting point.

PACK ON DOWN TOWARDS THE BEACH AND A NEARBY WWII LARGE BUNKER

Hashing in Saipan

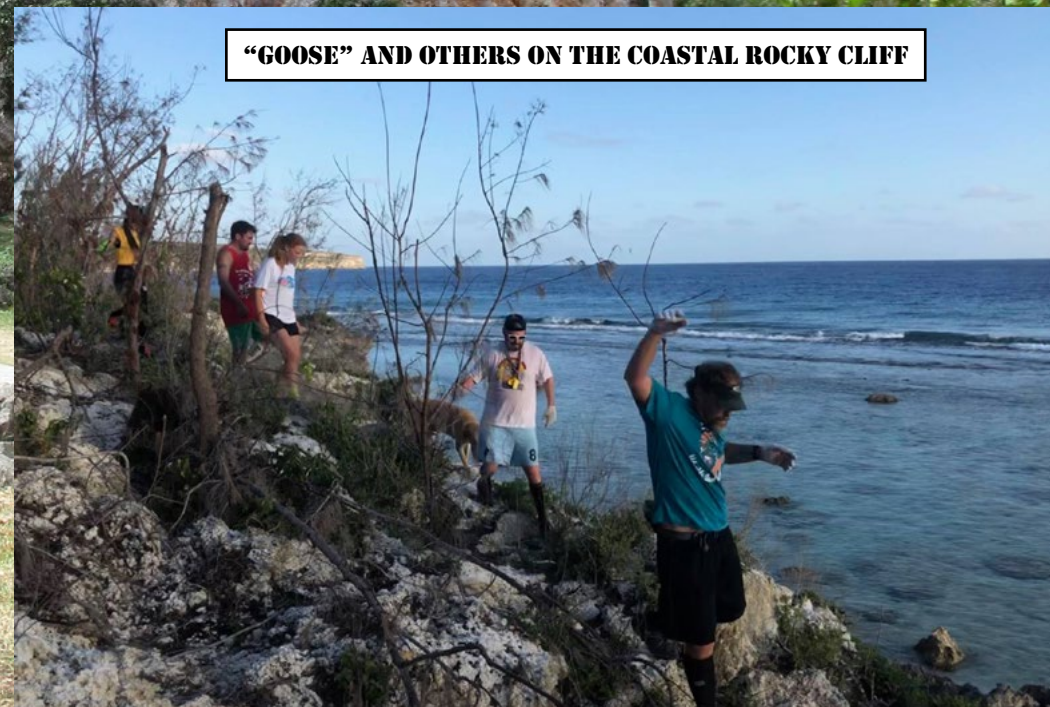

by Quick Drawers

The starting point for this Saturday hash was on the southern coast of Saipan, at Obyan Beach. The Hares, "Panty Bandit" and "Mental Preparation H", departure from this point was approximately 5 PM while the pack of 22 hashers waited their traditional 10 minutes prior to giving chase, on this live hared trail, marked with flour and pink strips of tape. With the exception of 3-4 walking hashers, most of the pack and 6 dogs ran the true runners trail. Trail went in an east to westerly direction along the beach and over nearby cliffs and thru hardy ground vegetation, passing Ladder Beach where several "Flyers" = short cutters, thought the trail may end and had gotten ahead of "Panty Bandit" marking this portion of trail. Trail continued westerly, passing a long narrow golf course, and ultimately ended just prior to reaching Agingan Point. At about the 6:30 PM sunset time, approximately half of the pack had reached the beachside pavilion ending point. Several others finished in the approaching darkness and the remaining few, with a couple dogs, were met at Ladder Beach by the Hare with his pickup truck.

CONTENTS

The weekly small bon-fire was started and later on, at approximately 8 PM, traditional Circle commenced. The Hares were the first to address the assembled hashers with their remarks on today's trail. Each hasher followed with their comments and unique perspectives and their personal down-down. A frequent topic was the packs inability to find white flour on dry white coral along the beach portions of trail. Some of the pack suggested the hares could have used longer strips of pink tape to mark the passing shrubbery and strongly protested that the 2-inch strips they saw, did not equal 8 inches, which the hares claimed they used!

The friendly entertaining circle concluded around 10 PM, at about the same time as the plentiful cold beer, soda and snacks (prepared and organized by "Mutt" on a weekly basis) was itself winding down. It's worth mentioning, the hare for the December 10, 1984 inaugural Saipan H3 run, "Cecil B. DeMilks" and her husband "Rajneesh", were in attendance for this hash. That's excellent!

"OBI ON ONE" AND OTHERS, ON DOWN THEN ON UP

TWO OF SH3'S SHORT CUTTING "FLYERS"

SH3 ONGOING CIRCLE ACTIVITIES

The best method currently for obtaining the latest info on SH3 activities is thru their Saipan Hash House Harriers Facebook page. (Haz's gototheshash.net, South Pacific link, leads to a data base that has not been updated since 2007! The same applies to RA's half-mind.com, South Pacific link).

Saipan is only a short 30-minute flight from Guam so if your travels get you to Guam in the future, I highly recommend a Hash visit to the laid-back island of Saipan with its picturesque uncrowded beaches, abundant WWII history and its fine group of hashers.

Hashing in Senegal with Dakar Hash House Harriers

Africa

CONTENTS

Tracking down the Dakar Hash House Harriers in Senegal was not an easy task since they do not have an active website. The last active posts on their dead Facebook page were from 2017 and none of my other West African hash contacts have any contacts. So the question was did they still exist or had they died a natural death from a lack of keen mismanagement to carry on? All I knew that the Dakar Hash House Harriers was founded in 1983 by Charlie Offredi and Roger Bowie and that they used to be very active in the 1980s and 1990s.

After getting no answer from Facebook Messenger, I then sent a message to someone who was regularly posting in 2017 and to my surprise, an answer came back from a hasher called Train Bleu that the Dakar hash met every week on Saturdays outside the Olympique Club at 5.30pm.

So the following Saturday, I made my way to the famous Olympique club which was not far from my office on the Corniche, the seafront. Outside the club, there were around ten friendly people and a few of them were wearing the Dakar Hash shirt with the club's logo on it of the "car rapide", the brightly painted local minibuses. After a quick debate about which way they would go, the group split into runners and walkers and off they went. There was no trail, it was just a group run and walk along Dakar's famous seafront which was full of others exercising along the path by the sea or in the huge open-air gym but very pleasant.

CONTENTS

After about an hour, the group rejoined where it was decided to go to Mermoz Bar for a drink which was a short drive away. So I hopped in a car with my new Senegalese hashing friends to enjoy a cold La Gazelle at a local bar. So no typical hash traditions like a marked trail, a circle or down downs and after one drink at the On On bar everyone left for home.

Since my first visit to Dakar last October, I've joined the group twice again on follow-up work visits to Dakar but always find the same small group of hashers, the same run/walk from the Olympique club followed by a drink in the same bar. However, it's a good chance to get out and meet local people and a break from work.

On the second occasion, I met the GM of the Hash, Nameless Nomad who has been The Grand Master for years. He told me these days he thinks people are not so interested in hashing since there are many other things to do. However after observing all the people out exercising, the expat community and the enthusiasm for practicing English, if the club made more of an effort to advertise a live active presence in Dakar, they may find themselves picking up new members to bring some new life back into the club.

To find out more about Dakar H3 and the latest run information, please contact GM Nameless Nomad on WhatsApp +221 775693929

Venue: We are happy to announce that we could win the Radisson Blu (Mammy Yoko) 4-Star hotel as a major sponsor of the event. We signed an agreement for the venue free of charge and discounted room rates.

Sponsors: The traditional sponsor of the FH3 is the Sierra Leone Brewery (a subsidiary of Heineken) which locally brews Star Beer, Mützig and Guinness. They live up to our expectations and will supply ample quantities of our staple food. It can be consumed bottled, canned or as draught; plans are under way to provide intravenous drips for the needy.

Other major and some smaller companies have expressed interest to sponsor the event. Negotiations are ongoing.

Runs: Freetown has lovely beaches and steep hills, so runs will be flat and hilly. Be prepared for some tough running (ambulances are on stand-by).

Visas: We are currently in negotiations with immigration to facilitate visas on arrival for PAH and will update you on this. Visa can also be obtained online, which is reliable and convenient but comes with an extra fee (www.visitsierraleone.com).

Travel: There are several international carriers servicing Freetown: KLM/ Air France, Brussels, Kenya Airways, Royal Air Maroc, Asky, Air Cote d'Ivoire, Air Peace, Mauritania Airlines (not sure all of them can be recommended; maybe you pack an extra parachute with some of them). Once you reach Lungi International Airport you have to cross over to Freetown by Speedboat. There are two providers (Sea Coach and Sea Bird) and they are both reliable. You will have to check-in the luggage and collect the luggage at the other side. Tickets are 40 USD or SLL 320.000 one way; this includes the bus transfer from the Airport to the nearby boat terminal; so come with some $-cash. We are currently negotiating for a reduced rate for the Hashers. Transfer from the Boat terminal in Freetown to the hotel will be arranged by the PAH and/or the hotel.

NO. 47

DON'T DRINK TOMORROW.
WHAT YOU CAN DRINK TODAY.

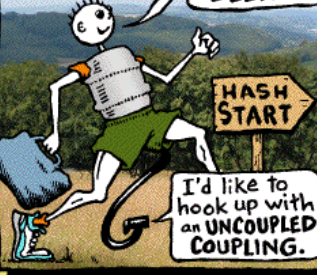

I'm visiting the BOOKAKEE HASH... haven't hashed with them in a while.

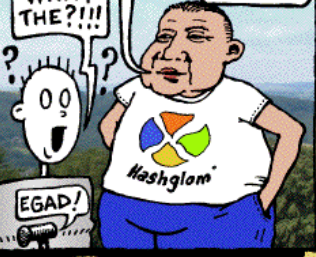

They have a CUTE JOCKEYBOX!

I'm looking forward to seeing Some old friends with whom I've shared many HOT TRAILS & COLD BEERS!

I'd like to hook up with an UNCOUPLED COUPLING.

This HASH & its' assets are now part of the HASHGLOM® Corp. The hareline is frozen, and will be reviewed on a RUN BY RUN BASIS!

WHAT THE?!!!

EGAD!

Future trails will be checked for SAFETY & LENGTH. We don't want any NASTY LAWSUITS. I'll get to the NEW WAIVERS later...

Don't look at me.

Refreshments will be provided exclusively by our HASHGLOM® Brewery & Services. AS of today, we will be known as the "HASHGLOM® HASH HOUSE HARRIERS OF BOOKAKEE."

Rolls right off the TONGUE.

Going forward, all hashwear can be purchased through a HASHGLOM® approved haberdasher, to insure a proper and consistent amount of HASHFULNESS.

GREAT DESIGN!
Very Creative...NOT!!

I won't be personally attending many of your runs. So, I'd like to introduce your new fun-lovin' HASHGLOM® MISMANAGEMENT COMMITTEE!

WE'RE LOOKING FORWARD TO HASHING WITH EACH & EVERY ONE OF YOU.

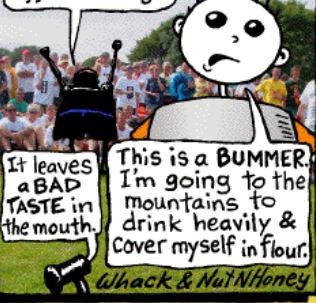

Hash fees will be raised. But you will also notice a substantial rise in both CONSISTENCY & QUALITY!..

Ahh.. Fuck it. I'm outta here.

I smell sulphur.

...that's the HASHGLOM® way! Now let's learn the Official Song.

It leaves a BAD TASTE in the mouth.

This is a BUMMER. I'm going to the mountains to drink heavily & Cover myself in flour.

ALL GREAT MOVEMENTS BEGIN UNDERGROUND

Ikon of the Decade that Shook Britain

The Hop Gardens Of Kent

Even in the Sixties for many East London area families it was their only holiday. The working and living conditions would have today's 'elf and safety police up in arms. But as one picker recalls, it's almost impossible to find anyone who didn't love hop-picking in the fields of Kent.

There were songs, laughs and happy days galore as one Canning Town, who went from the age of nine months to nine years recalls. But it wasn't Strawberry Fields Forever for her. It was the hop fields, and all that entailed.

For many youngsters, the entire six weeks school holiday was spent in the fields. As our own Sir Clever Dick recalls.

I remember those days. Quite an adventure when I was 11 to 14 Hop-Picking. Families from the East-end were piled into lorries with a little furniture and driven down to the Hop Fields in Kent.

I remember Marden, Chislehurst etc. That's where I learned to snare rabbits and then cook them in an earth oven. We got paid as well, not much but it was a kind of holiday in the countryside away from smoky London. Used to help transport the hops to the Kilns to dry the hops.

They were called Oast Houses.....On-on! Clever Hop Picker!

The year commemorates 50 years since the last year of the Swinging Sixties

Our mums used to cut chicken, chop eggs and spread butter on bread on the same cutting board with the same knife and no bleach, but we didn't seem to get food poisoning.. Our school sandwiches were wrapped in wax paper in a brown paper bag, not in ice pack coolers, but I can't remember getting e.Coli. Almost all of us would have rather gone swimming in the lake or at the beach instead of a pristine pool (talk about boring), no beach closures then.

We all took PE. And risked permanent injury with a pair of Dunlop plimsols instead of having cross-training athletic shoes with air cushion soles and built in light reflectors that cost as much as a small car. I can't recall any injuries but they must have happened because they tell us how much safer we are now.

We got the cane for doing something wrong at school, they used to call it discipline yet we all grew up to accept the rules and to honour & respect those older than us. We had 50 kids in our class and we all learned to read and write, do maths and spell almost all the words needed to write a grammatically correct letter..... FUNNY THAT!!

We all said prayers in school irrespective of our religion, sang the national anthem and no one got upset.

Staying in detention after school caught all sorts of negative attention we wish we hadn't got.

I thought that I was supposed to accomplish something before I was allowed to be proud of myself. I just can't recall how bored we were without computers, Play Station, Nintendo, X-box or 270 digital TV cable stations. We weren't!!

Oh yeah ... And where was the antibiotics and sterilisation kit when I got that bee sting? I could have been killed! We played "King of the Hill" on piles of gravel left on vacant building sites and when we got hurt, mum pulled out the 2/6p bottle of iodine and then we got our backside spanked. Now it's a trip to the emergency room, followed by a 10 day dose of antibiotics and then mum calls the lawyer to sue the contractor for leaving a horribly vicious pile of gravel where it was such a threat.

To top it off, not a single person I knew had ever been told that they were from a dysfunctional family. How could we possibly have known that?

We never needed to get into group therapy and/or anger management classes. We were obviously so duped by so many societal ills, that we didn't even notice that the entire country wasn't taking Prozac! How did we ever survive?

Love to all of us who shared this era.

And to all who didn't, sorry for what you missed.

Thanx Meatballs and Mustard Lips for "Maybe spring soon" in Stocksund and Djursholm. It was hilly, springlike, scenic and had a nice DS with warming genuine Glühwein with seaview. Veet -- the Men's Hair Removal Gel Creme A Brighton Hashers Customers Reviuw (from hell)

After having been told my danglies looked like an elderly Rastafarian hanging out of my tatty hash shorts I decided to take the plunge and buy some of this as previous shaving attempts had only been mildly successful and I nearly put my back out trying to reach the more difficult bits.

Being a bit of a romantic I thought I would do the deed on the missus's birthday as a bit of a treat. I ordered it well in advance and working in the North sea I considered myself a bit above some of the characters writing the previous reviews and wrote them off as soft office types...oh my fellow sufferers how wrong I was.

I waited until the other half was tucked up in bed and after giving some vague hints about a special surprise I went down to the bathroom. Initially all went well and I applied the gel and stood waiting for something to happen. I didn't have long to wait.

At first there was a gentle warmth which in a matter of seconds was replaced by an intense burning and a feeling I can only describe as like being given a barbed wire wedge by two people intent on hitting the ceiling with my head.

Religion hadn't featured much in my life until that night but I suddenly became willing to convert to any religion to stop the violent burning around the turd tunnel and what seemed like the destruction of the meat and two veg.

Struggling to not bite through my bottom lip I tried to wash the gel of in the sink and only succeeded in blocking the plughole with a mat of hair. Through the haze of tears I struggled out of the bathroom across the hall into the kitchen by this time walking was not really possible and I crawled the final yard to the fridge in the hope of some form of cold relief.

I yanked the freezer drawer out and found a tub of ice cream, tore the lid of and positioned it under me. The relief was fantastic but only temporary as it melted fairly quickly and the fiery stabbing soon returned.

Due to the shape of the ice cream tub I hadn't managed to give the starfish any treatment and I groped around in the draw for something else as I was sure my vision was going to fail fairly soon.

I grabbed a bag of what I later found out was frozen sprouts and tore it open trying to be quiet as I did so. I took a handful of them and tried in vain to clench some between the cheeks of my arse.

This was not doing the trick as some of the gel had found it's way up the chutney channel and it felt like the space shuttle was running it's engines behind me. This was probably and hopefully the only time in my life I was going to wish there was a gay snowman in the kitchen which should give you some idea of the depths I was willing to sink to in order to ease the pain.

The only solution my pain crazed mind could come up with was to gently ease one of the sprouts where no veg had gone before.

Unfortunately, alerted by the strange grunts coming from the kitchen the other half chose that moment to come and investigate and was greeted by the sight of me, arse in the air, strawberry ice cream dripping from my bell end pushing a sprout up my arse while muttering..." Ooooh that feels good "

Understandingly this was a shock to her and she let out a scream and as I hadn't heard her come in it caused an involuntary spasm of shock in myself which resulted in the sprout being ejected at quite some speed in her direction.

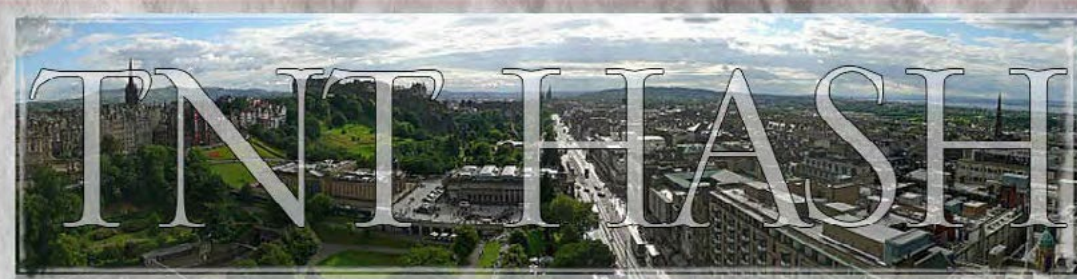

I can understand that having a sprout farted against your leg at 11 at night in the kitchen probably wasn't the special surprise she was expecting and having to explain to the kids the next day what the strange hollow in the ice cream was didn't improve my status...

So to sum it up Veet removes hair, dignity and self respect.

In the future I'm just gonna let it all hang out.....OnOnAnon

Footnote: For obvious reasons the above Hasher wishes to remain anonymous which we at the Trash respect However, nothing is sacred on the Hash, so for the price of a beer I will willingly give you his name

After an enjoyable morning stroll along the Water of Leith to Dean Village and a quick lunch we headed out towards Abby Mount and The Regent Pub, venue for the Edinburgh TNT Hash. (The 'New Town Hash' not for their explosive quality) Unfortunately Spike had a bit of tummy troubles for eating too much Haggis Burger and turned about for home which left Pink Pony and myself to find our way over Carlton Hill to the On Inn. Traditionally a gay pub, the Regent is welcoming to all including dogs and Hashers. Friendly and unpretentious, it's known as one of the best Hash Pubs in Edinburgh. The kind of place where you could strike up a conversation with a complete stranger or equally sit happily alone with a book and a pint. Drinks are as down-to-earth as the surroundings, with a choice of eight house wines and a couple of guest ales always on tap.

Here we met up with well-known Stockholm Hasher 'Tone Deaf' and about 50 or so odd Hashers, odd being the operative word. After the obligatory late kummers had arrived we were directed to the chalk talk outside in the drizzling rain.

On On was called and it was not long before hashers were spread out along London Road and Hillside Terrace finding a check on Blenheim Terrace where two or three decided to take the Royal Terrace back to the warm comfort of the pub.

We others, now generally confused slit up into several groups in and out and up and down of Carlton Hill, Pink and myself followed Tone Deaf thinking a local should find his way round, how many times have you heard that and got odorously lost. Anyway we did meet up with some other at the top of Jacobs Ladder and down we went on a series of steep stone slippery flags to dump us by the tunnel under the railway lines.

We decided there and then to take the easier way along Regent Terrace where Town Deaf played the tour guide pointing out Parliament House where traditionally the Scots have argued with each other on how to beat the Sassenachs and Holyrood House. The seat of the former Scottish Monarchs who spent most of the reigns killing each other, blowing themselves up or one falling off his horse while riding home to screw his teen bride or in the case of Mary Queen of Scots murdering husbands. Quaint lot? So we eventually arrived back at the Regent whereas Tone Deaf and myself embarked on a four pint each spree to celebrate and Pink Pony indulged herself in the yellow veggie curry.

We were both given down-downs being visitors plus several others I can't remember why. The last two down-downs were given to the two fellow owners of the pub in gratitude for a good hash friendly bar. After which they unveiled a large table with a massive amount of free food, really enough to satisfy the hunger pains of the 50 odd hashers. Pink Pony was heard to say, 'If I had known that I would not have ordered the curry' but she dug in anyway. So after a tummy filling plate of cheeses and finger food and 4 pints of Real Ale we decided it was time to head back, so much food was left we were able to take some home for Spike. Fortunately the rain had moved on, or maybe I didn't notice and we walked the two or so kilometres back only getting slightly lost once. All in all a good hash, marvellous hashers and a absolutely great On-Inn... A Regent of a Run.....OnOnMaliBog

Fàilteachaidh do Dhùn Èideann

If you are a Hasher and you like hills and an abundant of good pubs Edinburgh is the place to be. Of course no respecting Hasher visiting Edinburgh would not miss climbing a vast lump of volcanic rock called Arthurs Seat.

Arthur's Seat is the main peak of the group of hills in Edinburgh which form most of Holyrood Park, described by Robert Louis Stevenson as "a hill for magnitude, a mountain in virtue of its bold design".

It is situated just to the east of the city centre, this massive chunk rises above the city to a height of 250.5 m and provides excellent panoramic views of the city and beyond, is relatively easy to climb, and is popular for hillwalking.

Though it can be climbed from almost any direction, the hardest is from the south-west up the seemingly never ending zig-zagging rock steps.

Friday Spike (Christopher) and myself took this route up, Pink Pony (Kathrina) decided to stay at home feeling the effect of celebrating being in Scotland by drinking whisky the night before, a right decision in the circumstance for her.

Eventually reaching the top of these treeds the trail proceeds up a steep grassy slope into some narrow crags and a strenuous final climb to the wind-blown rain drizzling peak where Chris defied danger by being almost blow of for a good photo.

The ascent was quite hard but the decent was much worse as now the rain was causing the rock to become decisively more slippery so we took what we thought was the longer but easier track downwards. Unfortunately for myself this was not to be as I soon manage to revive by damaged knee occurred when descending a loose rocky hash trail in the pitch dark on a similar volcanic rock in Queensland three years ago. And we all know it is harder to descend a peak than it is to climb. By the time we were nearing the bottom I could hardly walk and with Chris helping we slowly made our way down whereas a Welsh rugby supporter helped to support me down the last difficult decline. Diolch yn fawr iawn, I said to him in his native speak. Now on level Terra Firma I distained Spike's suggestion to take a taxi instead heading for the Royal Mile to meet up with Titan Dick and Laid Bird et al at the Priest Hole Pub, which unfortunately was almost on the top of the hill leading to Edinburgh Castle. Half way skywards my knee came back to haunt me again and this time I realized to take the taxi home was the better judgement.

On the Saturday we arranged to meet a gaggle of local Hashers at the Teuchters Pub to watch the Scotland Rugby match against Wales but on arriving we found but on opening the door all you could see were the backs of the people packed into the pub. We had a quick look into the pub opposite and that was just as packed full to the rafters we decided to walk back home and watch the match there with a couple of Orkney Porters to keep me company.

Later in the day we had arranged to meet with Laid & Titan at the Bailie Bar near by to watch the England Italy match, but here it was the same packed house and I needed to rest my knee so I ambled back home to watch in comfort. We had arranged with Big Mac at the TNT hash to pick us up to drive near Dunfermline where the Edinburgh Hash had a combined run with the local hash. Unfortunately my knee was still pounding away, both Spike and Pink Pony were suffering and it was absolutely pissing down with rain so I did not need much persuasion from them to give it a miss, most unfortunate having come all this way to jog the EH3 but I would not been able to string along anyway.....MaliBog

THE PINK UNDERGROUND HASH. Celebrating Pink Pony's 24th Barfday the pack gathered outside the Asian BBQ to listen to all the truths about the trail being seriously flat with no fences to climb over or struggle under. Which was all lies of course as Pink Pony, (with a little help from her Dad) had managed to find nearly all the rocks, peaks and summits in Solna and a chain link fence and horrible scratching thorn bushes much to the surprise and pleasure of the Hounds.

The Hounds set off up the first rocky hill while the walkers stayed on a more level trail which did not help Sir Clever Dich as within 150 meters he fell needing nine stitches in what was left of his head and missed the On Inn, he would have been safer on the running trail.

Meanwhile the walkers managed to only get lost once and made it to the Drink Stop where MaliBog was waiting with three bottles of Pink Champers and settled in to wait for the runners who we learnt later had been royally caught out on at least two long false trails and on arriving two of them flashed their scratches from jumping over the chain fence instead of scrambling under.

All in all a good strenuous run and we all wish Pink Pony many more Birthdays and all look forward to what you have in store for us on the Marathon Hash Hashie Birthday Pinkie

ABSOLUT RUN # 821

Hares: Fluffy Bunny & Pirate Of The Queeribbean

On a bright and sunny Easter day we band of Hashers met at the Bromma Sauna Club to follow our illustrious Hares on a trail that had a collection of hills, windmills, lakes, a community allotment where groups of people sitting in the sun drinking beer and vodka wondered what we fools were doing when we could also have beer drinking beer (a valid argument), a couple of main roads to dodge the traffic, a school and the local Archery Club's forested parklands. Providence was with us as the toxochelyids were not out loosening their shafts this holy day or this throng of Hashers by chance would have more arrows to contend with than normal.

On reaching the lake we found an awaited drink stop on the boat landing with an array of 'Pirate Rum' and Swedish 'OP Andersson' Akvavit and other drinkable fluids. Digesting this we carried on round the lake and under the road bridge, this time we did not have to dodge the traffic past the Tramway to the Easter Bunny stop where more drinks and a search for Easter eggs full with sweets and candies which were eventually located. Well back at the On Inn where the usual Down Downs were given to everyone at the circle, beers were on hand and later taken into the hot bastu (Sauna) followed by Thai Food. A well planned run, thank you Hares.....OnOnMaliBog

Starting from the Thai Boat, a highly pretentious snobbish restaurant hawking overpriced crap Thai beer and chicken curries concocted from very dubious imported Thai chickens and then forcing you to use your plastic as they don't accept cash, must be a joke yes? No! Apparently the run was much better on this sunny spring eve on the southern island of Stockholm along the old harbour trails and parks heading towards the Danvikstull bridge where on the other side the trail stepped down under the bridge along a narrow ledge by the canal to a dead end where the only way out was to climb the rocks with an aid of a length of rope. Followed by running along the canal side over another bridge which eventually bought them to the sign of the ferry.

Underground Hash # 1283

From here the trail went nautical (hello sailor) and on waiting for the ferry the pack was entertained by the beer/drink stop which Sir Clever was happy to comply with as seen by his photo below. Eventually the ferry/boat arrived and all embarked into the tub for the long oceanic voyage across the vast inland waterway arriving about seven and half minutes later not far from the On Inn.....OnOnRed Pony

JESUS PLAYS FOR MAN CITY IN HIS SPARE TIME

JESUS OF NAZARETH REJECTS WILL OF PEOPLE AND REFUSES TO DIE

On 23 June 33AD, the lawful Government represented by Pontius Pilate asked the people whether Jesus of Nazareth should be released or die. Asked to put a cross in a box to decide whether he should be put on a cross and then in a box, the vote was clear.

"Leave! Leave him up on a cross to die!"

The public had spoken. But Pilate asked them once more, whether they would like clemency. "Which one do you want me to release to you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" "BA Baracus! I pity the fool!" They shouted, for they believed him a member of a crack commando unit sent to prison by a military court for a crime he did not commit.

And so, the middle eastern looking leffie was sentenced to death, for they hated him even more than the black man (at that particular moment in history). For the people were very cross. And 52% of them had spoken.

And lo, although he had been encouraged by the thief next to him to always look on the bright side of life, Jesus did appear to die. Or at least come very close to dying.

Contemporary accounts vary. Some disciples said he should not die unless he could be sure of a Union with the Lord, as was Custom. Others said No Deal was necessary, so as to ensure complete crucifixion. But in the end, Jesus rejected the will of the people. For He is Risen.

PETA free thousands of battery farmed Jesuses forced into tiny cages for their chocolate eggs

Religious rights activists launched coordinated raids around the world and have successfully freed tens of thousands of battery farmed Jesuses from cages in barns. The Jesuses who are farmed for the chocolate eggs they lay have been forced to live in cramped cages in which they couldn't stand.

"These poor little Jesuses have been living in horrible conditions, all so that we can eat cheap chocolate eggs at Easter." Olivia Flowerpower from PETA told The Rochdale Herald.

"If you understood the conditions that these little Jesuses had been living in so that you could eat cheap chocolate eggs you'd immediately switch to free range confectionary."

"These Jesuses are often laying as many three or four chocolate eggs a day and never get to see daylight."

"We know the true meaning of Easter is something to do with rabbits and chocolate eggs, but you shouldn't forget the plight of barn reared Jesuses when you're choosing what kind of egg to buy."

God refused to put out Notre Dame fire until he gets 100,000 likes = 100,000 prayers

The 14th century cathedral has already lost one of its spires and a large section of roof in the blaze after a fire broke out around 18:00 this evening.

Hundreds of thousands of Catholics around the world are already giving their thoughts and prayers in hopes of stopping the raging fire in Notre Dame Cathedral.

Recently the Pope gave a statement "The Lord, Our Father, will not halt the flames until he has received 100,000 prayers in the form of Facebook likes and until #Pray4NotreDame is the number one trending hashtag on twitter."

The Pope also suggested all believers to add the Papal sanctioned Cathedral banner to their profile pictures.

Good Friday wasn't one of my best Fridays admits Jesus

Jesus H Christ has taken to social media in support of Tesco saying that, despite claims by religious extremists Good Friday was actually a pretty crap Friday.

"I don't know why people keep calling it Good Friday." Jesus told The Herald during a Skype interview. "It genuinely doesn't even make my top ten."

Jesus was, if you believe this kind of nonsense, betrayed, kidnapped, tortured and crucified on Good Friday.

"Genuinely does that sound like a good Friday to you? If anything it should be called Bloody Awful Friday. I was feeling pretty bloody forsaken all day to be honest."

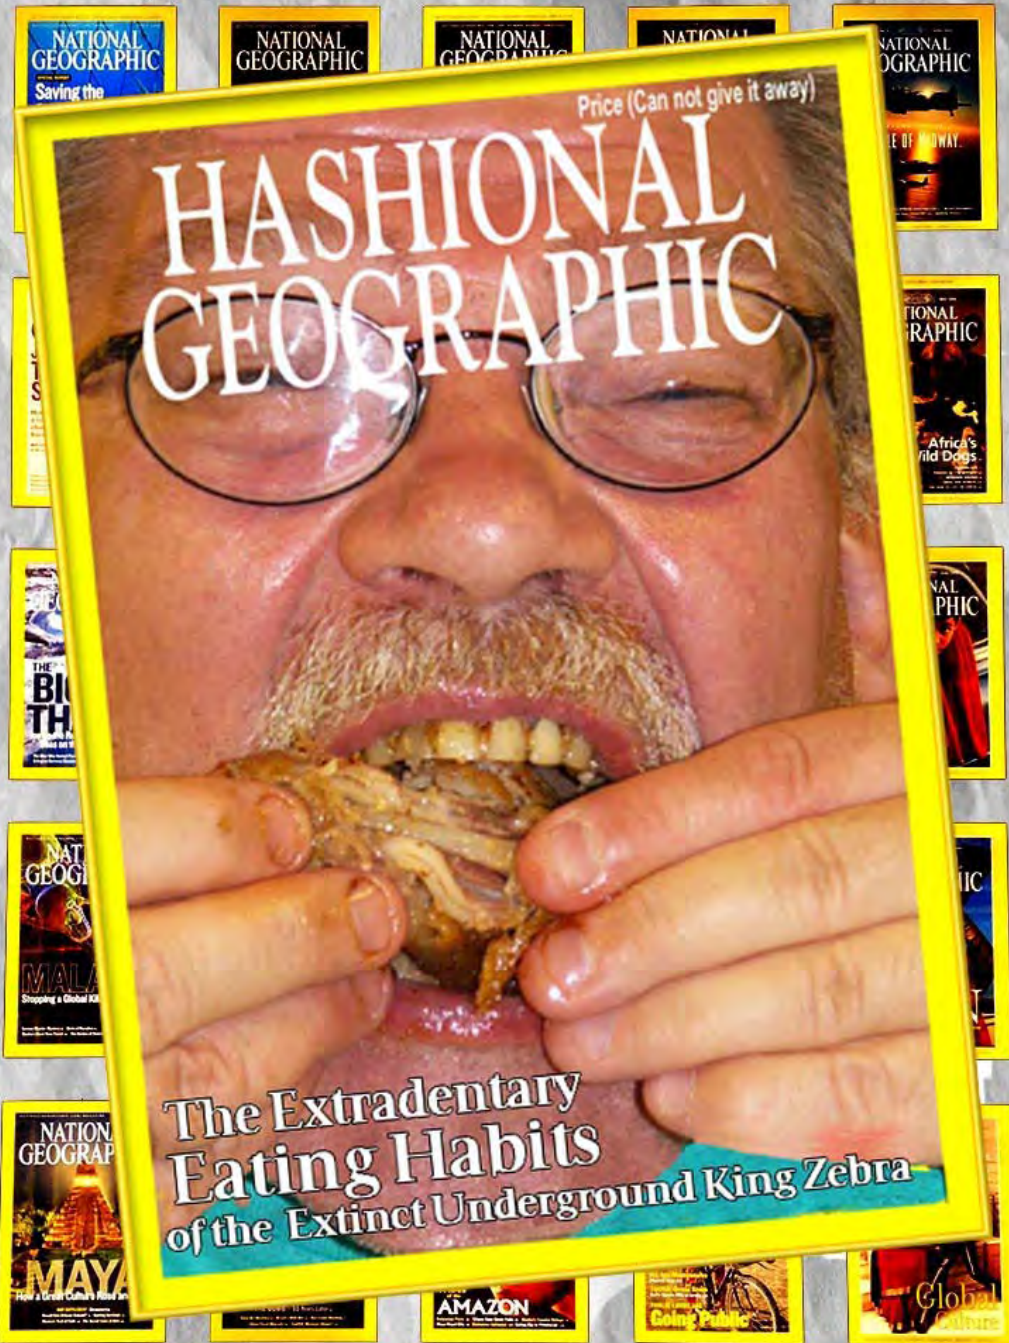

Tesco are facing a backlash from unforgiving Christian crackpots after running an alcohol advert saying "Good Friday just got better."

"I honestly don't know what all the fuss is about. Anything to improve Bloody Awful Friday. After all every little helps." Amen to that.

Why do you keep screaming my Dad's name every night
