Editor's Notes

They say that all good things must come to an end and now is the time for Harrier Magazine to say goodbye. Asia-Pacific Harrier made its debut at Goa Interhash in September 2002 and has published continuously since that time. The print magazine moved beyond the Asia-Pacific region and became Harrier Magazine in 2009. A digital edition started in 2012 and will continue publication until the end of 2019.

I would like to thank all of our readers, contributors and events that have supported the magazine during these years. Special thanks to Ajarn Keemao whose On the Ice column was a favourite among our readers, as were the Adventures of Hash Boy by Nut & Honey and Whack. Guest writers who attended HHH events and shared their stories were an important part of every edition of the magazine. Regional correspondents, Head Mistress in Africa, Yark Sucker in Europe, CIA, Quick Drawers, and many others broadened the magazine's coverage to include content from all over the world.

Special thanks to Jimmy Wilkins, who did a fantastic job with the graphics in every edition of Harrier Magazine for the past ten years.

EUROPE

UK Nash Hash, 23-26 August

One Week after Eurohash, the Scottish Hash consortium will be hosting the UK Nash Hash.

It will be held in the heart of the Scottish Borders approximately an hour south of Edinburgh. Caledonia Hashers have come together to provide a value for money weekend at The Border Union Agricultural Showground in Kelso.

There could be a Bash on Friday. Otherwise, be ready for the pub crawl on Friday night. Perhaps you might find a wee bit of whisky? There will be a full schedule of trails on Saturday and Sunday, as well as a hangover trail on Monday. Enjoy the trails through the beautiful green rolling hills and castles of Southern Scotland.

German Nash Hash, 30 August-1 September

Two weeks after Eurohash, GNH is hosted in the beautiful city that once actually ruled Great Britain, where people are so poor they can't afford a dialect, and that has the equivalent of New York City's Central Park within its city borders: Hannover.

On this weekend, the Hannover Hash House Harriers will be celebrating their 35th anniversary. H4 was founded in 1984 and has been going strong ever since, running every second and last Sunday of the month. They will be celebrating in proper hash style in the heart of Hannover, close to the beautiful Maschsee. They have secured accommodation and a great party location just a few tumbles from the city lake.

There will be runs accommodating each type of hasher, be it a ballbreaker that will leave you wishing you had packed more blister band aids or a walker trail that could qualify as a swim due to the amount of beer you have, and of course, anything in between.

Make sure to grab one of the last remaining regos and register on the website: www.gnh2019.hannoverhash.de. H4 is looking forward to welcoming you all in Hannover, and on the Sunday sending you all home with a Hannover hang-over!

The Munich Oktoberfest Hash, 27-29 September

The 27th Annual Oktoberfest Hash Weekend will be held from the 27th - 29th September 2019 in Munich, Germany. It all starts on Friday night as the hashers gather somewhere in Munich for a trail and circle. Hashers greet old friends whilst drinking a Weizen beer or a Helles The circle is lit by many small fire torches, and the down downs are given just as the sun sets. Afterwards, a traditional Bavarian dinner is served. Many hashers retire early, because just like a Bavarian Farmer, the hashers will need to wake up early on Saturday morning.

At 9:15 on Saturday morning, the sleepy hashers all gather on the S-bahn platform for a train into the Bavarian countryside, the foothills of the Alps. Upon leaving the train, one can sense the chill in the air and feel the dampness from the dew on the ground. Waiting at the beer van is Speedo Gonzales, the famous Munich H3 Biermeister, dressed in his fabulous leather Lederhosen, handing sleepy, thirsty hashers a glorious cold Bavarian beer. To add a festive note to the hash, many hashers are wearing their Hash Dirndls made of old hash T-shirts and felt running Lederhosen. This unique hash gear is made lovingly by Boo who rarely misses an Oktoberfest weekend.

Normally the running trail is 12-14 km with 2 beer stops. Afterwards, Speedo taps the wooden keg, and lunch is served. After everyone has returned, the circle begins. Munich H3 has a long tradition of top notch Religious Advisors, who have long, yet entertaining circles, AC/DC being the most Infamous. After the circle winds down, hashers change into the more traditional dirndls and Lederhosen and dash off to the Oktoberfest. As the S-bahn approaches Munich, more people enter the train and anticipation builds for the big event. The hashers make their way through the crowd to the Armbrustschützenszelt, where Munich H3 reserves their tables. The hashers all receive coupons for a half Chicken and 2 Mass. Note that a Mass is a 1 litre beer, since in Bavaria, size matters. If 2 litres of beer are not enough, one can also try the Williamsschapps at a small kiosk in a dark corner of the fest tent. The aroma of baked chicken dominates one's sense of smell. The Schlager music is blaring and there is dancing on the benches.

On Sunday morning at 11:00, the hangover trail begins. The drink stop is traditionally Prosecco and Orange Juice. After the run, there is another amazing lunch spread and another monster circle. When there is no more to say, some of the crowd will return to the fest for a quiet evening, at least relative to Saturday, of dancing on the benches and toasting to the good life with fellow hashers. www.munich-h3.com

The Belgian Nash Hash, and 30th Anniversary Weekend, 05-07 June 2020

To celebrate the 30th anniversary, BMPH3 will host the Belgian Nash Hash at the Castle on the Domaine Mozet, an hour south of Brussels.

www.mozet.be

The GM, Rack of Lamb, will lovingly greet Hashers on Friday evening at registration. TEAM BEER, led by Rumble Foreskin, will be serving 30 different glorious Belgian Beers, one for each year of the BMPH3. Before drinking a 10% ABV Belgian Beer, hashers will first need to make their way through the Hogwortesque Maze du Chateau to find their shabby chic dormitory rooms. The Friday night of Belgian Nash Hash traditionally features a Pub Crawl, yet as the Castle is in the middle of nowhere, this year, there will be the Fabulous Domaine Crawl around the picnic tables of the grassy Domaine, each table having a different hashy theme. Drink stops will include Men's BBQ & Beer Emporium, the DIVA Bubbly Boudoir and the ever tropical Opie Cocktail Safari. Now, the challenge remains to work one's way through the castle maze and find one's bed.

On Saturday morning bright and early, after a breakfast croissant, the Ball Breakers will follow Pink Panther and Sugar Tits for a 25-30 km trail through the gorgeous and hilly Meuse River Valley, the same area as the Brussels Beer Odyssey Ball Breaker trail was held in 2014.

Of course, our little hash icon, Higgins, will bring his bag of tricks into the circle and give a few Down Downs. Featured in the circle are our fabulously dressed Beer Wenches and our infamous BMPH3 Hush Hush girls who are dressed to kill and armed with Belgian Jenever.

After a BBQ, the party will commence in the grand ball room. It is only fitting that the theme of a weekend in a castle would be Disney. One wonders which Princesses and Beasts will appear. Dancing will continue late into the night. Sunday features hare of the dog cocktails, yet another trail though the amazing countryside, and of course, another crazy circle. www.bmph3.com

Caribbean Hashing in Grenada

by QuickDrawers

CONTENTS

The Grenada Hash starts meeting up on Saturdays at 3:30 PM; but, the Hash start, with announcements by the GM and Hare of the day, does not occur until 4PM. This hash group is reportedly the largest hash in the Caribbean with sometimes close to 300 hashers out on a hash. On April 13th, I estimated the turnout to be closer to 150.

The start point for this hash was in the northeastern area of the island. Since I am doing estimates, I'd venture less than 10% of Grenada is actually flat. The remainder is obviously mountainous in appearance. A main tourist area is on the southeastern area of Grenada, around Grand Anse Beach. The journey by Hash arranged, pick-up Van service, from SE to NE Grenada, along windy roadways, up, down and thru the countryside over less than a 20-mile distance took 1.5 hrs. It was an interesting ride and one which provided a good opportunity to see a lot of the island.

The hare for the day was "Robbie" and trail started in the River Sallee area. There were both runner and walker trails which branched off from each other on several occasions. A small village area greeted the hashers shortly after they headed out an up-hill trail. It continued a gradual climb thru a wooded area on a wide sticky muddy path until it came out high above the nearby coastline. On downhill from there ended up with hashers strolling along the coastline in soft sand and plentiful wet/drying sea grass along the beach. Passing some grazing cattle, a narrow trail then branched off thru thicker jungle type vegetation, crossing two small streams and back uphill once again. Exiting out onto a paved road got the pack back into the vicinity of the start with a final downhill section and a bit more shoe clinging mud with some occasional grassy areas.

Once, On In at the finish, Hashers proceeded to purchase their favorite Carib or Stag beer (3 for $12EC = $4.50) and verbally rehash the trail among themselves, which we know always happens. Hot catered food (barbecued pork or ¼ Chicken) was available for purchase ($12 EC = $4.50) and as the pork had sold out rather quickly I enjoyed the really good barbecued chicken and its accompanying potato salad.

The GH3 website, grenadash.com is up to date and includes their hash schedule info along with each future runs Venue location. The POC for getting transportation from your hotel to each hash is - Kelly Henry. He is very responsive and reliable and he can be reached at 406-4328. The reasonable cost of this friendly door to hash venue service and back is well worth not having to worry about drinking and driving or even just driving back to your hotel after dark, on Grenada's windy roads.

Thanks again to the Grenada Hash and the Hare "Robbie" for a well-marked and scenic hash trail.

PAN AFRICA HASH 2019

by Julia Stanton

CONTENTS

FREETOWN, SIERRA LEONE

This year's Pan Africa hash was held in Freetown, the capital of Sierra Leone finally after its original plan to host in 2015. Unfortunately this had to be postponed due to the Ebola outbreak and therefore this was an event (especially those who had registered six years ago in Ghana) had been waiting for. The event was from 31st May – 2nd May and around 250 hashers attended with hashers from Nigeria making up the largest group of international hashers. There were also many hashers from Europe with the furthest flung being the Solomon Islands.

WHAT WAS GREAT ABOUT THE EVENT?

- In general, a lot of fun was had by all with new contacts and friendships being made across the African continent.
- The way the disorganising committee were able to deal with all the complicated last minute issues affecting the planned run sites. Due to political demonstrations in the city on Friday afternoon and the fact that one of the opposition parties' wears red, the Red Dress Run through the city had to be cancelled at the last minute. An alternative run was held along Lumley beach just outside the venue instead with no red dresses but with 2 beers stops it was a lot of fun. Both Saturday and Sunday's plans also had to be changed at the last minute due to no approval of the run permits but they went well with long and short hilly run options plus a trail for the walkers.
- Health and safety was well looked after with a team and ambulance from Red Cross accompanying the hashers. Fortunately they did not have to deal with any major issues.
- Spacious venue in the grounds of Radisson Blu which was one of the hash hotels at discounted prices. It was a great place to meet up from 12.00pm onwards with other hashers and also served as the registration and On On venue. Everything that hashers needed was there. Security was good.
- Beer from Sierra Leone Brewery was free flowing and never seemed to run out. There were also plenty of soft drinks and some wine too.
- The live band played well. There were some hash acts and skits from songs to dancing.
- Buffet dinners were varied every night and there was plenty of it – in fact it was sometimes hard to stop the servers putting too much food on the plate.
- Luxury porta-loos were provided that always had toilet paper and soap and remained quite clean.
- Goody bag as well as the hash shirts contained essentials for every eventuality - condoms, painkillers and re-hydration salts.

WHAT COULD HAVE BEEN BETTER?

- Website and payments – there were a few registration and payment issues due to the website not being professionally set up. Existing pre-payments were not acknowledged at first which sent a wave of panic amongst the hashers. In the end, payments were abandoned and registration was done on trust.
- Communication pre and during the event. Communication before the event was slow. During the event, there could have been an updated whiteboard/ sheet of paper with the latest news at the front of the venue to reflect the ever changing schedule.
- Start the runs earlier to allow hashers to refresh themselves before the evening activities.
- For some the music was too loud, so there could have been a quiet area for hashers who were more into chatting.
- No pre or post-lubes organised outside Freetown although a city tour for hashers was organised at the last minute and the Thursday Boys Hash from Lagos organised a run on Thursday night.
- Provide something more substantial for lunch other than sweet snack food.

OVERALL

In my opinion, an amazing event Freetown Hash House Harriers! Thanks to Hashpirin, Chairman of the Local Organising Committee, GM Honey Tumba, Always Up Never Down for the trails and all the other members of the PAH Disorganising Committee. You did a great job!

PAN AFRICA 2021

Kampala H3 won the bid to host Pan Africa 2021 and already started registering eager hashers at the event. Further details, dates and a website will be out soon for those who want to join the fun. Watch this space!

The Hash House Harriers consisted of only one club now called the Mother Hash until 1962. In May 1962 a second club called the Hash House Harriers Singapore was founded and this club is now referred to as the Father Hash. As we all know this was just the beginning and the Hash spread very quickly all over the world. Singapore in 1962 was part of Malaysia and was a very different place than the Singapore of today. Since 1962 the population has grown 337% and the country has gone from being a poor third world country to being one of the richest countries in the world. Today the entire island is developed with many high rise buildings and other infrastructure. Also there are no mountains or other barriers to halt the economic growth.

As a result the Hash clubs have a very difficult time finding appropriate places to make trails. To make matters worse the government has imposed very strict rules as to how the hash clubs may mark trails. The clubs may not use powder, tree tags or shredded paper and are pretty much limited to chalk and toilet paper which must be removed by noon the next day. The clubs also must request permission to lay trails over public land. In spite of all these problems there are still several hash clubs that draw quite a few hashers every week. I ran with the Lion City Hash which runs every week on Friday at 6pm and this article is about that club. Lion City and H3 Singapore (Father Hash) are the biggest clubs in Singapore. Lion City is a mixed hash and H3 Singapore men only. Both hash clubs are adults only. On the day that I ran with the Lion City there were 57 in attendance. I also did an out station run about a year ago with Kampong Hash.

The good thing about Singapore is that there is a very good metro rail system that covers the entire island. A visitor can take a train to some station near just about any hash site. I walked from the MRT to the hash site with the GM of the club. The pictures tell the whole story about the 7 km. trail. Generally speaking the trail was a perfect runner's course and most of the hashers ran the trail in about one hour. After the run there was some time for socializing and a circle. At about 8:30 most of the hashers walked to a nearby restaurant for dinner and more beer drinking. So if you are in Singapore be sure to run with the various hash clubs. I recommend Lion City H3.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

by Howard McKay aka "Dances with Dogs".

In 1983 I visited Vancouver from Hong Kong and looked up the local hash chapter. I had already been hashing with the Hong Kong Hash House Harriers for four years and I was taken by surprise when the Vancouver hashers asked me, "What's your hash name."

The Hong Kong Hash, founded in 1970 (soon to celebrate 50 years), was one of the first 20 or so chapters in the World and, like most of the early groups it was men-only and followed the original Mother hash model quite closely. For example, there were no 'ball buster' trails, simply the 'one hour of non-competitive exercise for purpose of working up a thirst for beer drinking'.

The Hong Kong Hash did not have 'hash names' as de rigeur, which seems to be the popular requirement today. I think I can safely say that there are still fellows I know in H4 who, 40 years later still have no 'hash name'. I guess one could say that the system followed the old public-school model where most were referred to by their surname whilst a few had nicknames. In some cases, on H4, some fellows wanted a pseudonym so that if the wife or some prudish friend should read the weekly trash, their identity would be protected. For this some simply reversed their surnames and one of those was Bob Leonard, known as "Drainoil" who until recently was one of the few remaining folks who have attended every Interhash since the 1978 event in Hong Kong."

History, Humour and Hell-raising from the Hash House Harriers.

Unauthorised by Stu 'The Colonel' Lloyd, creator of best-selling "Hardship Posting" series. Foreword by 'Tumbling' Bill Panton

Of the original Hash office bearers circa 1938, some had 'names' some did not. Gispert was simply "G". "Torch" Bennet was so named because of his red hair. "Horse" Thompson was apparently so named because of some physical attribute. Cecil Lee remained Cecil Lee. Others were E.J.Galvin and H.M.Doig. I had the pleasure of having a few beers with Horse Thompson in the Hong Kong cricket club many years ago.

In the Hong Kong hash it usually took some special event to spawn a name, such as when Hugh Turner called "On On", mistaking some white desiccated dog shit for a blob of flour. Thereafter he was known as "Dog Turd Turner".

At the Vancouver circle in 1983 I was given a name but I did not transport that back to Hong Kong and I had a further 5 years as "McKay" until I was bitten on the arm by a dog whilst on trail. The movie "Dances with Wolves" was in the cinemas at that time, hence the moniker "Dances with Dogs".

Still a member of H4 I founded the Wanchai Hash in Hong Kong in 1988 and WH3 joined the mainstream with hash names being given after only a few months of regular attendance. One exception to this was a fellow who was named "Road Kill" on his first run. He was running downhill at high speed when he fell over and was bloodied and grazed from head to foot.

Today we meet and hear of folks with a myriad of names, some just plain vulgar and some highly amusing. There is also much duplication and one wonders how many "Flaming Arseholes" there are World Wide. In Angeles Hash in the Philippines we have "Titanic Dickhead". He is an interesting fellow, a member of the Guinness family whose Grandmother was the famous Nancy Mitford, who married Oswald Mosely in Berlin at a wedding attended by Adolf Hitler.

Talking of vulgar names, a Hong Kong South Side hasher was called "Pig fucker" but we thought that as a little OTT for the mixed Wanchai hash so on Sundays he became "Pork Romeo".

As I have travelled around, I have some across some hash names that are indeed interesting and amusing. In Hong Kong on the Royal South Side Hash there is “Smegma”. This is the medical term for the ‘cheese’ that forms under a male foreskin (if you have one). In Los Angeles some years ago I met the only black fellow on the hash who was called “Dark Tan y’un”, a word play on the Alexander Dumas character. In Angeles City in the Philippines we have “Blazing Wallet”, a Japanese fellow who has a trick wallet that spews flame when he opens it. We called his girlfriend “Blazing Pussy” but she was not too impressed with that.

In Angeles City we have worked out that it is better not to give the girls ‘bad’ names as they will often not show up again. We almost let them pick their own hash name. One very slim and very pretty Filipina I christened “Racing Snake”, a name she was not too enamored with until I explained it to her.

One day ACH3 were enjoying drinks at the bucket when a native family came towards us, driving a small white calf. The calf took a look at the hash and put the brakes on. The family pushed and tugged but it would not move. We all stood back to give it a wide path and we remained silent but still it would not move. A relatively new hasher, an ex-dairy farmer from UK, went behind the calf and twisted its tail. It then trotted off quietly and through our group with him walking behind it. “That’s something all farmers know,” he told us. He became “Bum Steer”. Some months later his girlfriend was chased by a much larger cow with sharp horns and she became “Raging Cow”.

One long term Angeles Hasher has the name “Induces Menstruation”. The story is that he liked to ‘bar fine’ young girls from the bars but had great difficulty because he was very ugly. They always told him, “No, I can’t go with you as I have my monthly period”.

Finally, I will leave you with the name of our long-term Angeles Hash, GM, the name of “Saput”. This is Tagalog for someone who has not been circumcised. Like me, he is a complete prick.

Bill Panton A True Hash Hero

CROC NASH HASH AUSTRALIA

by Robin Kumar

3 muskeeters or die hard hashers from Nadi (SDC, Red Dick, Lord Shiva) were joined by Major from Mareeba and Taliban from Sydney (Bushrangers). The 3 of us were earlier farewelled at Nadi Airport on Thursday 2nd May by Hospital Hash mob who ran/walked all the way from Hotel Martintar as you see in the photos.

We rested overnight at Brisbane Airport before catching the early morning flight to Cairns. Major was on hand to pick the 4 of us from Cairns Airport (Taliban flew in from Sydney on time) and drove us round first a quick tour of Cairns City before heading off to Port Douglas.

Weather was perfect and the drive along the scenic road lasting well over an hour was fascinating. We soon stopped by for a well deserved beers along the way overlooking great tourist attractions. Major played a great host showing us more places of interest before we stepped out to register at the registration pub and office "Hemingways Brewery and Central Hotel."

Major already warned us that they had run out of the t shirts but left only with 2 XL. I thought this was a joke but lo and behold I was given 2 XL instead of L that was ordered and paid for 2 yrs ago. Obviously a disappointment and I don't know what to do with that oversize T shirt. Someone is bound to be lucky so no hash t-shirt as a souvenir that everyone looks forward to. Well that is perhaps hash Aussie style and with only one token for a beer, we went off to find our hotel.

The only good consolation was the super hash bag that can store up to a carton of ice cold beer. Yes almost like an eskee that I have never come across in Hash as a bag.

The 3 of us checked into our hotel “Coral Coast Lodge” a backpacker hotel only a walking distance from the main venue that Major had chosen for us. The hotel was just perfect where as Taliban chose to stay elsewhere in a 6 star hotel and Major with his wife Nisha out of our reach!!

Friday evening was a welcome reception at Port Douglas Sports ground with heaps of beers and fodder, traditional aboriginal welcome dance and a single man music band. The welcome speeches and entertainment was hardly audible (they could have had a better sound system).

We retired early to get set for the runs on Sat. Lord Shiva as usual had other plans for himself but the rest of us, minus Major, opted for medium run Daintree/Miallo run, about an hrs drive further north. This was 5 km run/walk that included the Ball Breaker run but the BB hashers never came anywhere near us.

Basically this run was reminiscent of Lolomolo Interhash run that we had in Fiji , thru cane fields and hills that took us about 90 minutes to finish. Taliban was also with us and he struggled to finish in close to 3 hrs; the hills almost knocked him off !!

There were heaps of icy cold beers of all varieties, plenty of fresh fruits and lunch was mediocre though – hamburgers only. We waited well over 3 hrs for BB’s to turn up before the circles. Some BB’s had to be rescued whose distance was just over 24km.

It was a long day and we finally made ourselves back by 4pm or so, freshened up and back to the main venue for the final nite of camaraderie. Fodder was better choices and beers no shortage of draft and cans plus wines.

Lord Shiva entertained himself alone with TV, beers and fodder and he managed to find a bottle shop that was only a few minutes walk from our hotel. Quite a few hash acts and a live band later. Weather was perfect again but the sound system again could have been better. Majority just had their own thing renewing contacts and fellowships.

The night wasn't all that exciting so we retired early to our rooms, tried to finish all the beers stocked by Lord Shiva before hitting beds. We bid farewell to Major and Taliban who were staying back for another day/nite.

Woke up early the next day and the 3 from Fiji got a bus straight to Cairns; LS and SDC to Brisbane and RD to Sydney.

Adelaide will be the venue for Aussie Nashash 2021 and they'll soon have their website for registration etc.

We'll continue with our plans for South Pacific Hash 2021 in July.

Dili

1000th Celebrations

CONTENTS

by Higgins

On my quest to hash in 100 countries by the end of 2020 I decided to visit Timor-Leste on my way back from New Zealand NH. I didn't know much about this poor country beside a warm recommendation from a former expat hasher about the Dili H3 kennel which conveniently were hosting a long weekend of hashing to celebrate their 1000th run from 14th to 17th March.

Dili, the capital of Timor Leste, is only accessible by air from either Darwin or Denpasar. I chose to hash with the gods first so landed from Bali on the Tuesday already in order to maximise my sightseeing chances during the rainy season. Part of the welcome was a VIP airport pick-up by Pencil Dick, the incoming GM, and a cold can of Bintang - a great start to a great week. G it's hot and humid out there!!

The other 25 visitors arrived on Wednesday and Thursday. All were from various Darwin kennels, Dili being the nearest destination for them, a mere 1h20 flight away. Most of us stayed at Timor Lodge, HQ for the 1000th weekend, managed by Nobody from Nowhere who gave me a very generous unannounced discount upon check-out.

Somewhat startled by the announcement that the event would be sponsored by Heineken I was relieved to discover that Bintang and Tiger would be our best friends for the weekend while also available in any Dili watering hole. Surprisingly I noticed that Tiger comes in smaller 25cl cans while Bintang is the usual 33cl. Upon enquiry it is a marketing trick so that shops can sell Tiger at $1 a piece.

Thursday afternoon an informal meet and greet had been arranged to bring visitors to Cristo Rei, the landmark of Dili, followed by drinks at nearby Caz Bar. This was also the first time we could see the effect of deforestation in the country whereas every time there is a tropical storm it is followed by a landslide of red earth that covers the roads and whatever else it finds on its way down. Luckily the bar was safe but the grass on the front had disappeared and the road was operational again after a week or so of cleaning. Our local guide was Tat That Ass accompanied by Pencil Dick.

Friday was a busy day starting with a trip to Black Rock for lunch and swim. With a bridge under repair and a road partially blocked by rocks due to a tropical storm the week before Mismanagement had to quickly trade a standard bus for multiple large 4x4s in order to reach our destination. Luckily a local hasher had the good idea to check the road the day before so the impact on our schedule was minimum.

The second part of the day would be more colourful since it was Red Dress Run time. Starting from the rooftop of a building on Timor Plaza and going through the local open air market, actually a collection of small basic stalls, it quickly took a bizarre turn. Although done several times over the past years this edition is likely to remain in every participant's memories as one dweller didn't like the show and decided to chase us from his neighbourhood. He started throwing stones at the front of the pack who quickly did a 180° turn and regrouped near a supermarket at what we thought was a safe distance.

However he was ready for more so started to follow the pack carrying a big thick wooden rod and throwing stones again. Luckily he was walking, not running, which gave us enough time to regroup inside the entrance of the supermarket. Once the staff realised what was happening they aimed at closing the iron curtain but it was too late and he shouted to them not to do it. Hashers then scrambled along two shopping alleys, most picking the right one and exiting the supermarket at the other end, while half a dozen of us picked the wrong alley and ended up stuck in the stock with a delivery door that wouldn't open up. Eventually the attacker had enough and went back to his shack, at which point the staff indicated it was safe for us to get out through the back door.

Lead hare 3D then led us to safety away from the crime scene for a regroup and briefing. Discussions ensued to check if everyone had made it but with such a large group - close to 80 I'd say - it was mission impossible. Eventually three courageous hashers decided to flex their muscles and ran back to the supermarket in search of potential victims. They quickly came back with the good news that no hasher were left behind as it also appeared that only two minor injuries were sustained due to tripping up in the scramble.

Several kilometers later we had a very refreshing beer stop inside the safe remains of a church that didn't survive the troubles of 1999.

Once the trail was over we had a quick circle on the rooftop before heading by bus to hash-friendly nearby Nautilus Bar and Waterfront Restaurant for some Thai food and more beer before retiring to our HQ in anticipation of the next day. As far as I remember we probably didn't close the bar at Timor Lodge although I might be wrong on that one...

Saturday was earmarked as the big day for the actual 1000th run with a leisurely early afternoon start so participants could use the swimming pool and check/polish the bar (there is a pun in there). We had a choice of 4 trails: a Ballbreaker (20 km) on white paper hared by Chase My Sausage, a long walk on orange paper hared by Tat That Ass, a regular run on white flour hared by outgoing GM Nuts On and last but not least a regular walk on blue paper hared by 3D. Taking into account the hot and humid weather, surrounding hills and my unfit state I went for the safety of the regular walk which had been dubbed, and duly delivered, as the only flat trail. After about 30 minutes we reached the safe haven of the beer stop with enough cold Tiger to rehydrate and fuel everyone till the circle back at Timor Lodge. Ballbreakers were not too happy due to the lack of water (forgotten behind) so I traded my personal warm water for more cold beer - a good deal I believe.

The long circle was fun and lively, using the hash banner as a huge beer mat on which misdemeanours would kneel to receive and consume their down down. An oddity on Dili H3 icing was brought courtesy of the Darwin hashers, many having attended the previous 900th celebrations. Eventually enough charges were awarded for the GM to deem it was time to end the circle so hashers could freshen up and put a dry shirt on for the evening.

Once again the hash bus was summoned and drove us to Oceanview Beach Restaurant & Resort. A nice buffet immediately attracted our attention and for a short while the place was quiet, hashers replacing the lost calories of the day and stuffing themselves in anticipation of yet more beer. We were entertained to the tune of a swinging hash band led by 2Shits before a DJ took over. Despite a nice evening with the cooling breeze from the ocean many hashers took the option of the first bus back at 10pm after a heavy day under the sun. Rumour has it that beer tokens were left behind - what a shame! ;-)

Sunday came way too early as the token hangover trail departed Timor Lodge at 10am for a leisurely walk under the guidance of Tat That Ass. It was short and to the point, followed by breakfast and gin tonic. The circle started under supervision of the new Mismanagement featuring incoming GM Pencil Dick trying to th*nk on his feet while nursing a hangover so no surprise things were slower today. To celebrate St Patrick's Day down down were of course green and plentiful. Eventually proceedings came to an end and the circle was closed. But that was not the end of the celebrations...

With the combination of a sunny day, a swimming pool and cold beer available for purchase there was no reason to stop the partying so we didn't. One harriette of Irish origins dispensed drams of Jameson from a strategically placed shot-glass. A handful of hashers even tested the water for a drunk game of volleyball as we were trying to drink the bar dry. Around 3pm locals started to leave while the visiting team continued the hammering.

In order to wrap a great weekend many decided to follow local advice and join the St Patrick's Day dinner and party at the Nautilus. It was a pleasant, quieter evening, even with the absence of the black stuff.

Monday we all left Dili with smiles on our face and a liver needing rest.

Great job by the Dili H3 Organising Committee for a brilliant event, you guys rock!

BORNEO

Borneo, a giant, rugged island in Southeast Asia's Malay Archipelago, is shared by the Malaysian states of Sabah and Sarawak, Indonesian Kalimantan and the tiny nation of Brunei. It's known for its beaches and ancient, biodiverse rainforest, home to wildlife including orangutans and clouded leopards. In Sabah is 4,095m-tall Mount Kinabalu, the island's highest peak, and, offshore, the famed dive site Sipadan Island.

The Newly Self-Crowned
Metropolitan Hashing Capital of the World!

HEAR YE, HEAR YE ALL HASHERS OF THE WORLD !!!!

With the 30 April 2019 successful launching of the latest Bangkok, Thailand based hash group, this being the new “Bangkok Angkaan Horny Hares H3” (aka BAHHHHH or Crazy Hash), Bangkok, Thailand can now proudly claim to have the dubious Hash honor of being the only known city/single metropolitan area in the world with hashes designated to fall on each of the seven days of the week, be they weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly hashes, etc. This also includes multiple hashes assigned to two of these days. Although this hash author’s memory suggests that historically there may have been other cities to try and lay claim to already having had this dubious honor, more often than not those claims of a “hash every day of the week” actually encompassed areas including multiple cities with overlapping metropolitan areas. These could include such multi-metro areas as the San Francisco - Oakland and Silicon Valley areas back in the 90s or the larger Baltimore to DC to Quantico, Virginia area present day. In addition, there are likewise other Asian hashing icon cities such as Kuala Lumpur, Singapore, Tokyo and Manila, to name a few, who may have come close to this honor but to this author’s recollection they never reached the full seven hashes - seven days a week plateau (and even if they ever did so in the past, they don’t hold that honor now!!)

Thus to hashers of the world, Bangkok hashers proudly invite hashers one and all to visit Bangkok to experience this hashing metro mecca and if you are lucky enough to arrive at the right time of the month, your visit could include the ability to partake in the hashing glory of seven different hashes over seven days!

On On to Bangkok, iboibo!!

Bangkok Metropolitan Hashes Effective April 2019:

- Saturday: Bangkok Hash House Harriers (H3) (est. 1977)
 Bangkok Bush Hash (est. 2017)
 Bangkok Hash House Bikers (est. 1992)
- Sunday: Siam Sunday H3 (est. 1997)
- Monday: Bangkok Monday H3 (est. 1982)
- Tuesday: Bangkok Angkaan Horny Hares H3 (est. 2019)
- Wednesday: Bangkok Harriettes H3 (est. 1982)
- Thursday: Bangkok Thursday H3 (est. 2012)
- Friday: Bangkok Full Moon H3 (est. ??)

Note: There is also the monthly Friday Nonthaburi H3 which although officially started just outside of the Bangkok metro area, and although it tends to hash in Vientiane, Laos as much as Bangkok, Thailand, it does frequently still hold its hashes in metro Bangkok and thus likewise earns a note of honor in this local membership group and to this ever growing Bangkok hashing mecca!!

The Hash Darwin Awards

Old Chaz, the chap on the right, in one of his sober moments, put forward the notion of 'survival of the fittest', a concept that implies that the removal from the gene pool (usually by death) of its weaker members, thereby strengthens the survival chances of the remainder. However, here at OTI, we do not encourage the extermination of the less able, the feeble, or the intellectually challenged. Rather, we encourage them to become hashers! Further, this column aims to be a forum where the moronic misdeeds of hashers might be chronicled in pursuit of that noblest of pastimes, namely, having cheap laughs at other people's expense. With that in mind, I offer the following should, perhaps, have been clearer. I meant one case per column not one case over the history of time.

WHAT A LONG STRANGE TRIP IT'S BEEN

In fact, to be fair, I have had my share of beers and pizzas bought for me by Bimbo out of subscribers and advertisers funds, including, once and famously, a case of gin. Like Lord Copper, the publisher of fictional Daily Beast in Evelyn Waugh's novel, "Scoop", he is quite happy to see his writers well-provisioned provided he doesn't actually have to pay for it himself.

In any event, Bimbo kept the magazine afloat somehow and I kept writing for it, missing only a handful of editions, due to being drunk or terminally hungover or some such. That would put my total at over 60 pieces written. I should go back and read some but my attitude to that largely mirrors Noel Coward's when he was asked about television, "My dear chap, television is for appearing on – not looking at".

Of course, the ostensible purpose of the column was soon abandoned and I went on to write about, effectively, whatever I wanted, often with an underlying theme not visible to me until I got to the end of the 1000 words demanded. I can't deny that it was, on occasion, pleasurable and, I hope, has provided a modicum of pleasure to the half-dozen or so people who read the column each time.

Well, we have reached the end of the line. Print publishing and magazines have taken a beating over the last couple of decades and even a very niche one such as this is no exception. Indeed, it seems highly typical of Bimbo's Quixotic attitude that he chose to start a print magazine right at the time the industry was being terminally buffered about by the forces of change. Thus Late September 2002 was a long while ago. In the UK, Tony Blair was Prime Minister and still robustly lying to the World about WMDs in Iraq, while in the US, George W. Bush was routinely being called the worst President of all time. How much better he must feel about himself today. If you were listening to popular music, Pink was topping the charts in Britain and Nelly was No. 1 across the pond. It was apparently a good year for artists with only one name. Hell, Prince was still alive.

In the hashing world, the Goa Interhash was on and attendees had their initial look at the first incarnation of this magazine, The Asia-Pacific Harrier, as it then was. Over the ensuing years, the magazine has had name changes; changes in format, adding a digital edition; and changes in content, i.e., less of it. One constant throughout the last 17 years, though, has been the man behind the folding table at Hash events pushing subscriptions, usually accompanied by a couple of nubile women from whatever country he happened to be at the time, the one-and-only Bimbo himself.

Actually, there have been a few other constants, one of them being this column. Some time before the first edition went to print, Bimbo approached me and asked if I would write a column under the heading of "On The Ice", devoted to stupid things hashers had done on, after, or before running the trail. Being almost certainly drunk at the time, I accepted. I cannot remember the reasons why now, although I do recall the matter of compensation coming up and I suggested to Bimbo that "a case of beer" would be good enough payment. I it is that this will be the last issue of whatever this magazine is called now, and, along with it, this the last OTI column. In some ways, I shall miss it but I'm sure that's a feeling that will pass after a large gin or two.

I would like to close this last column with the final part of Tennyson's poem "Ulysses", since, to me, it has always marked how the ending of one thing offers the hope and promise of a new thing beginning. This magazine will cease to be published but I suspect we'll see Bimbo around for a while yet. The hash goes on and I hope to see some of you on it. In the meantime,

"There lies the port; the vessel puffs her sail:
There gloom the dark, broad seas. My mariners,
Souls that have toil'd, and wrought, and thought with me—
That ever with a frolic welcome took
The thunder and the sunshine, and opposed
Free hearts, free foreheads—you and I are old;
Old age hath yet his honour and his toil;
Death closes all: but something ere the end,
Some work of noble note, may yet be done,
Not unbecoming men that strove with Gods.
The lights begin to twinkle from the rocks:
The long day wanes: the slow moon climbs: the deep Moans round with many voices. Come, my friends,
'Tis not too late to seek a newer world.
Push off, and sitting well in order smite
The sounding furrows; for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths
Of all the western stars, until I die.
It may be that the gulfs will wash us down:
It may be we shall touch the Happy Isles,
And see the great Achilles, whom we knew.
Tho' much is taken, much abides; and tho'
We are not now that strength which in old days
Moved earth and heaven, that which we are, we are;
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."

A DRINKING CLUB WITH A RUNNING PROBLEM

FIFA WOMEN'S WORLD CUP IN FRANCE

What a difference it is to watch the girls playing, very little arguing with the ref, no withering on the pitch in performing agony as in the men's game or falling down hoping to be awarded a free kick or penalty and when the girls do go down (no pun meant) they're up again, brushing themselves off and ready to play again. Much more sporting and entertaining than the men's game.

From the 7th June to the Final on the 7th July. So get the beers in and settle down to watch some good footballing.

Three Stockholm Hashers did well on the hot 2019 Kungsholmen gRunt, on the 10km, 2 Swedes Kummin' beat his previous time. Pink Pony run a personal best in 1 hour 4 mins blasting her previous time of 1.23...!! Later Duracell came 5th in the Half Marathon watched on on by Blind Pew (Nick) and daughter Lara.

Didn't they do well??
 ---onon---

Meanwhile Red Horse and Myself were helping out at the finish. Last year when packing up the people at the Erdinger Beer tent said take as much as you like, unfortunately I was om my bike and did not have room.

However this year I came prepared with my old trade bike and managed to load 6 cartoons of beer thinking they were 6 packs only to realize later they were 12 packs.

So now we have 72 bottles of Alcohol free beer to use at the hash for those who can't drink real beer. Tastes quite good as well, tastes even better when it's free..

 Although probably from the pub, so you'll possibly get away with it.

The first of May and that it was time for the 12th Stockholm Hash Marathon.

As usual the course was split up into 5km legs Starting from Kallhäll Station to Täby.

Kallhäll to Jakobsberg Station was arranged by John Cleese thro' mostly wooded countryside followed by Pirate OTQ who was responsible for the next 5 Kms thro' forest and fields to Barkarby Station.

Sir MaliBog and Pink Pony took over for the next 10 kms with a small wooden plank over the muddy creek followed by a muddy shoe jump over same creek with a halfway stop at Eggeby Farm, the only drink stop not adjacent to public transport, then continuing to Hallonberg Station further thro' the woods and the old military range.

It was now Four Pack's turn for the next 5 kms around the lakes to Ulriksdals Station then continuing over the two bridges to Danderyd Hospital Station another 5 kms on on..

Meatballs took over from here for a 5 km trail up the line to Enerbyberg which was then left to Big Brother to finish the final 5 Km to the On Inn at Casa Bigs in Täby.

Then to complete the full Marathon and as it was a Wednesday a rather shortish Underground trail had to be partaken, although' by now there were a considerable walking crew helped along by a coupe of drink stops, all very hospitable we must say.

Remarkably no one was hurt on the way and a couple of lost runners soon found their ways to the various stop thankful for the maps given out on line beforehand.

At the circle there were a number of new comers and a couple of first time marathoners who completed the whole course including Dirty Lobster. Pink Pony was called up for completing 35 kms having only run 10 kms previously a number of times. Pizzas arrived and of course a great deal of beer and wine was consumed, heavy work these hash marathons believe me, but you don't have to believe me, just turn up next year for the 13th Hash Marathon. You will enjoy, there is no requirement to run the whole Marathon course, just take a break at any of the stops on the way, jump on and jump of so as to say.

CLAUDIA SCHIFFER BATHES IN ADNAMS BEER TO KEEP YOUNG

Supermodel Claudia Schiffer bathes in Adnams beer to keep her skin beautiful, the Hash Trash can reveal.

The 45-year-old German star, who lives in a mansion near Bury St Edmunds in Suffolk, fills her bathtub with Southwold Bitter at least once a week believing it keeps her skin young-looking, and also gives her famous blonde hair a brilliant shine. And if she has endured a particularly stressful week she will use Adnams' stronger Broadside beer for a stronger effect. A pal said: "Everyone always asks Claudia how she manages to look so young. Well, this is her secret and she's been doing it for years."

"She is very careful not to drink any of the beer while enjoying a soak because that could be dangerous." Adnams is famously brewed in the Suffolk seaside town of Southwold.

Men and women across Suffolk and beyond swear by its mystical powers when drinking it in pubs like the Greyhound in Ipswich. Landlord Dan Lightfoot admitted: "But this is the first time we have heard of anyone taking a bath in it."

Meanwhile, a spokesman for the Suffolk Gazette said: "Our Editor did try repeatedly asking Claudia if he could visit and take a photograph of her in the bath. The police have been in touch."

HASTINGS HASHER CAUGHT IN BELGIUM BEER SMUGGLING RING

A farmer has been caught setting up an elaborate operation to smuggle Belgium Premium Beer into Britain after Brexit.

Maurice Piper, a Hasher and potato farmer outside Hastings in Sussex, devised a cunning plan to beat new customs regulations and pipe the delicious Belgium Beers under the sea. Cops raided the farm and found enough stashed piping to reach Calais. Paperwork found in the farmhouse confirmed officers had smashed a multi-million pound smuggling operation. Sussex Police worked closely with Customs and Excise on so-called Operation Cognac after an initial tip-off from the pipe wholesalers, who became suspicious about the amount of pipe Piper purchased.

Customs' chief investigator for East Sussex, Lorraine Fisher, 34, said: "We were expecting a rise in smuggling operations after Brexit."

"Mr Piper's operation, which had been in the planning for months, has now been mashed." A spokesman for Sussex Police said: "England would have been flooded with contraband beer, costing the country a small fortune in lost duties."

"We acknowledge there may be some difficulty getting goods across from Belgium after Brexit, but we advise people not to set up their own smuggling networks."

"This is not the 18th century."

Stockholm Woman Has Gin Glass Surgically Removed From Hand

A groundbreaking new surgical procedure has successfully removed a large round gin glass from the hand of one Stockholm woman, allowing her to post selfies of something other than her with a pint of gin, tonic and ice in her hand.

Connie Fingersson had become hopelessly fused to the glass over the last year, resulting in every photo of her across her social media platforms looking almost exactly the same.

With the glass usually full of needlessly expensive gin, needlessly expensive tonic, needlessly expensive ice and a curl of lime peel which was somehow more expensive per ounce than platinum, Connie was forced to bring the glass with her to birthday parties, work nights out, 21sts, weddings and christenings, until doctors managed to free her from her affliction.

We made a series of incisions around the skin where it met the glass said Dr. Raymond Keane, surgical expert and part-time gin drinker. And from there we were able to minimise damage to the hand, while removing the glass intact. It was tricky, and took several hours... she literally fused to the damn thing. Just check out her Instagram if you don't believe me. Every picture, she's putting on a brave face, but the glass is there always. She even has up to 230 pictures of her trying to enjoy a night in watching TV with her dog, and there's the massive glass of gin front and center. Poor soul, it must have been hell. Connie is said to be recovering after her operation, and has vowed to stick to shots in future as the glass is much more discreet if it gets stuck to her hand again.

THE FACES OF HALLSTAHAMMAR

Foremost we would like to acknowledge Double Decker and Mad Swede who have laboured tirelessly over the last two years to make Interscandi Halstahammar the triumph it turned out to be. Not forgetting the considerable help they received from members of the Stockholm, Göthenburg, Leksand and last but not least the West Aros Hashes who's combined help was undeniable....

Hashers arriving from afar collected their goodies on the Friday and then sat for a quick lunch followed by numerous beers and crafting with old friends. Come evening a good dinner was served with more beers and wines after which MaliBog announced the Full Moon trail was to start at 10pm, this did not attract anyone until John Cleese shouted lets walk it, so that they did with beers in hand. There's more than one way to kill a horse they say.

Saturday morning everyone decided to have a bit of a lay in to breakfast time with the dreaded exception of Bouncer and Angle from the Brighton Hash skedaddling of Örebro to do the park Run at 9.30 am, a mere 80 Km away.

There were a number of trails to decide on, The Ballbreaker at 18 Km, and long, medium and short trails with a walkers trail for the walking wounded.

Somehow in this remarkable confusion the hares had managed to get all the different groups to assemble at the main drink stop adjacent to one of the locks, really amazing. And people thought going to the Moon was challenging.

Finally after rambling the many picturesque and scenic trails following the canals and rivers, crossing the many locks and weirs of this old industrial and metal manufacturing area we all managed to find our ways back for the copious circle where humorous down downs were given far too many for me to commit to memory, must have been the abundant beers on tap clouding what was left of my mind.

There was a slender break after the circle closed where some took showers while other partook of recreational beers or both, thereafter we all dressed up in our Hash refinery, and we all know what Hasher have the audacity to dress in, would make even the circus clowns look shabby. Dinner and drinks were to be served at the 'Folkets Hus' which was a mere 2 Km trek so of we proceeded in a sort of a dis-orderliness to where a scrumptious Hash gourmet banquet was served and need I mention, more beers and wines and more beers. And the Band played on on.

Finally the festivities were over with hashers falling asleep on chairs so the long trek home begun, some walked in the moonlight, other took taxis, some were stopped by the local fuzz wondering who this throng of degenerates were in this otherwise peaceful haven of Sweden.

We had one last trail to do on the Sunday, 'The Hangover Run' which lived up to it's name organised by VD Viking and Ingrid Larsen with a longish, shortish and walkers trail supplemented by two drinks stops and another marvellous view of the lake where some brave fools decided to take a dip altho' being told beforehand not to do so because of canal reparations and came out covered in filth.

A hearty thanks to everyone involved in making this Interscandi work and it's on on to Tallinn for Interscandi 2021...OnOnMaliBog

THE MONTH OF JUNE

June has been a rather exciting month starting with the Chunderground Hash on the 5th June with the 2½ Km trail with the options of completing just one or all four with a beer stop at the start/finish a total of 10km doing all four. Next day we had Swedish National Day run on the 6th June where there was a lot of cross dressing and almost everyone wore blue and yellow of yellow and blue. Several Drink Stops in the centre of town whereas we managed to confuse and delight the ordinary citizens and bedazzle the tourists on this hot sunny day. A large and lengthy circle was organized in a hill in one of Stockholm parks. Later on Saturday 15th June is was the Mites to send everyone adrift the forests of Sergletorp where the hashers had to compete with the mosquitoes for breathing space, deep in the forest a drink stop was found and for those wishing to escape the mossies a dip in the tepid water of the lake was most welcome. Later yet another drink stop this time on a hillock away from most of the mossies. A short run and we were at the Termite Hive where beers food and a sauna were all available. Following Wednesday it's time again for the Anul Jazz in June BYP BBQ run. A short run of less than 6 km but with fences to climb, derelict buildings to cross and other obstacles with a DS leading to the new footbridge, now officially opened after the Hash run across. Possibly the Mother of all 'DS' stops on the BBQ Run. 'D' meaning Beer and Southern Comfort Whiskey with Blood Orange.... 'S' meaning Sill (Baltic Herring) in a selection of Wasabi/Horse Radish, Mustard and White sauces. Added Chilli Spiced Cheese with Leksand's Hardbread Runners, Walkers and a Swimmers trails all meeting at the BBQ at the Maison Cheval Rouge, great time had by the 30 odd hashers, and I mean odd, good weather and good food and drinks, what more can you ask?

The Anul SPOR&DIC Midsummer Run again in Haga Park organized by Ingrid Larsen & VD Viking who designated Sprintosaurus as the hare who laid a looong trail of 2km which took us up to the top of the hill, and when we were up we were up, and when we came down, we were down but when we were only halfway down we were neither up or down down down and when down the pack finds itself on the wrong side of the a security sign which is to stop people entering but with the Hash we have to somehow escape

The Absolut Hash Sussex BH7 Reunion Tour (Brighton & Hove Haywards Heath Hassocks Hash House Harriers) Run #1356 - 2004-06-14 - A Blast from The Past - 15 Years Ago

First on the scene, for this warm July evening run at The Crabtree, a pub on the outskirts of Lower Beeding deep in the heart of the West Sussex Weald, were Banker and Malibog who somehow managed to arrive 30 minix early.

The Brightonians started to arrive some 15 minix later and duly evolved into quite a large and varied pack including one dog.

Go-days were made all round as the visitors introduced themselves to this pack of rather uncouth and unruly hooligans.

A choral moan went up as the hare arrived, he having a renown for laying long hard runs. A few words about the run which nobody really listened to, a few shoe laces tightened, the dog watered and they were ready to leave.

The run started by heading straight out the end of the car park and down the hill, after being told by the Hare. Simple really. So why did two of the local hashers hurtle off in the opposite direction like demented fools? Did they know something the rest of the pack didn't one wonders.

The road part did not last long however as a quick left led the pack onto a narrow path overgrown on one side with the jagged leaves covered with stinging hairs of the nettle plant and to the other the evergreen prickly holly shrub, both seemingly competing to sting or tear the legs of the passing hashers. Even worse was to come but for the moment the pack was to be seen trying to skip hop and jump over the protruding branches and stems of the stinging leaves

With great relief the pack soon headed out into an open meadow inhabited by a large heard of Merinors who gave the hashers a sly look and a wide berth possible trying to see if there where any Kiwis lurking in the back of the pack.

Banker spent a large part of his time extolling the delights of the Sussex countryside and in doing so managed to lose himself at least twice during the first half of the run. Meanwhile MaliBog spent most of his time looking at the ground about three yards in front trying not to trip up on the many tree-roots criss-crossing the trail.

Banker and Malibog did however come together in good Stockholm style by finding the trail from a very difficult check with a mark tucked neatly away nestling behind an old brown barn.

So away they went whistles blowing, on-oning followed by the grateful pack only to miss a mark further down the trail, shooting of to the left (the trail going to the right) and after about 300 yards reaching a complete dead end. Thus undoing any respect the locals might have gained for the two hardy visitors from Stockholm.

The run consisted of a lot of down hills and a load of fucking up hills with one or two flattish bits thrown in to completely stuff up the pack

The next check in the middle of a dark foreboding wood had the pack running around in ever-larger and larger circles. Fortunately a couple of Brighton hashers, who always seemed to get it more-or-less right and after nearly every check always seemed to be in front of the other runners going in roughly the same direction, found the correct trail although by this time most of the pack were well spread out over large areas of the West Sussex countryside. At one point the main pack were on a narrow lane and the others in a field running parallel, unfortunately they couldn't hook up owing to a 15 foot high 5 foot wide bracken hedge-row and were forced to make a half kilometre detour.

At last they came to what they call a main road in Sussex (just enough room for two Land Rovers to pass each other) and were informed by those who pretend to know that they were in the middle of nowhere and miles from Crabtree's amber fluids. Waiting slightly for the lost runners to arrive the pack entered a farm lane minutes after a heard of Jerseys had past along and it was our pleasure to plow through the piles of wet dung left in their wake. ...

It was hot and it was sticky and the pack was hot and the pack was sticky and the two Stockholm ex-pats asked. "My God what happened to the Beer Stop", nothing happened to it, there just wasn't one they were politely informed.

Well it could only get better they thought as the pack entered a corn field and somehow managed to wake the occupants of a wasp nest, a sting here and a sting there and, hastening the pace, they entered into a rather pleasant wooded common. This last part of the run seemed to be easy which lulled the pack into a false sense of security - you crafty bastard hare - and it was not long before the pack was once again split into three separate groups heading out in three entirely opposite directions.

Fortunately the pack found itself again and the last part was made easier by the fact that the last 1/2 mile was downhill and along a nice even concrete road.

The pack had probably forgotten all about the rest of the trail by the time they ran into the car park, the only thing on their minds being the pints of ale ready to be ably consumed at the visitors end of Crabtree's public bar.

A Good Run with the hare forgiven and the ales and beers begotten.....On-On Women Don't Fart...

They do however shoot tiny puffs of glitter, that sound like a unicorn's laughter and smell like rainbows.
