Why Zhangjiajie?

We believe China is the best choice due to its beautiful people, culture, cuisine and not to forget its landscapes. We have chosen Zhang Jia Jie for its breathtaking scenery, an amazing view while hashing in the land of avatar. A MUST GO event that is fully supported by the Chinese Tourism Minister/Board/Government.

Zhangjiajie, a city in the northwest of China's Hunan province, is home to the famed Wulingyuan Scenic Area. This protected zone encompasses thousands of jagged quartzite sandstone columns, many of which rise over 200m, as well as caves filled with stalactites and stalagmites. Wulingyuan also encompasses forests, rivers, waterfalls and 2 large natural land bridges, as well as endangered plant and animal species. - Wikipedia

INTERHASH TRINIDAD 2020

Sad Cows, Old Farts, Ball Breakers, Bra and Pants and the Red Dress run are all part of the Hashing lingo that 'Trinis' are gonna have to get used to, because its coming in 2020.

Although the Sad Cow, the Founders run, and even maybe an 'InterBash' are not officially part of the Interhash lineup, they all will be part of the total Interhash Trinidad experience. Hash kennels from across the globe have asked to join the fun. The Bra and Pants have made it on to the official Saturday itinerary, as they will be hosting their run at the Ricks Micro- Brewery on the Malabar Farms in Arima, alongside the 12 other run trails the Trini hares have chosen.

Beautiful, challenging trials have been chosen and 10 of them have already had their initial reccee. Trini teams are hard at work out there in the countryside every second Saturday putting things in place. The Bimbos have chosen the medium to easy run skirting the Chagaramas Golf Course and up into the foothills of the Nature Reserve there. The Cage Shakers have chosen the North Eastern Coastal Village of Rampanalgas, running through the rain forest, pass a waterfall and ending on the waters edge. The Big Dicks challenge you through the Arena Forest Reserve, a lush forested area populated with more wildlife than you can imagine. Natures best. The Rum Jumbies have gone to Central Trinidad for their trail in the Village of Piparo. As the excitement builds each team is challenging the others to create better runs.

With 9 months to go, 75 countries have already registered for the Interhash 2020. Mismanagement have been hard at work to ensure a seamless experience.

One innovative step is the launch of the Interhash Trinidad 2020 App in July, which has already been downloaded in 14 languages. Thank God for technology, now you misfits can have all the information needed at your finger tips, if you remember where you left your phone. GPS locations of runs, hotels, bars, restaurants, the Hash Hub and more, allow you to find out exactly where you are at all times and where to find those who have drifted off to one bar or the other. Don't waste time looking aimlessly for them just download the App from the Apple Store or Google Play sites and its easy.

The App gives you pop up reminders of bus and event schedules, the latest new bulletins, lost and found notices and even a DROP TAXI link, Pre Lube choices, as well as Tour operator information, for the adventurous who want to go out on the less beaten paths.

So what now? You've registered already, if not, time to get yourself sorted. The hotels are recording fantastic bookings and Caribbean Airlines have come on board as the Official Airline, offering you special Hash Prices. Checkout out official Website , use the Hash Code –Hash20 for the specials to explore the rest of the Caribbean islands. If you have already booked and missed the Caribbean Airline Hash Special, send us your Booking Reference and you will be eligible to win a CAL prize.

Party Start – The Red Dress Run.

Trinidad is known as Party Central of the Caribbean. No other island comes close, does it better, longer and harder. Ok you perv, stay calm its just an expression. Dubbed the Carnival of Hashes, Mismanagement is determined to give you the Trini Carnival experience. The adventure begins with the Red Dress Run, which kicks off at the Hub at St Mary's Ground and ends at the Hadco Phase 2 Pan Groove Panyard. Get your first taste of Carnival with one of Trinidad's most popular Steelbands, coupled with the taste of Trini street food. Over 800 of you have already signed up for the Red Dress run with a cap of 1200. Don't think the locals are ready for the sight of you all in dresses dancing to the sound of Steelband. That's going to make the front page of the papers for sure.

Jouvert Run - Don't over do it because your bus for the Jouvert run leaves the hub at 4.30am!

Yes. 4.30am! You have a few hours rest and its time to go again. You wanted a Carnival experience, well that's how we do it over here. Don't worry breakfast would be served before the run starts at 5.30 am as the sun rises in the cool Chagaramas Valley. Experience the jungle as it wakes up. The birds, insects and much more. Don't be surprised to hear the local Red Howler Monkeys howling in the trees above as they feed.

As you run along the trails get ready for beers stops, wet paint and a few other surprises. The trail ends in the Saaman Park, under the sprawling Saaman Tree with another beer stop. Its not over yet though. The music truck strikes up and its time to 'chip' your way down the street to Soca music to Macqueripe Bay for the Breakfast Party till 10.30am. Don't miss this run. PS. You would be given Jouvert t-shirts to wear for this. Don't wear your favourite pants. They will never be the same again.

Exhausted yet? Don't worry. You should be back at the hotel by 11.30 am. Time to wash off all that paint. The hotels will guide you to the designated place for that. You can't jump in to bed covered in paint. Hit the showers and straight to bed. You have 6 hours sleep. Then its off to another 6 hours of more partying at the Official party from 6pm to midnight.

6pm Wake up! Time to go. What? Feels like you just went to bed. Slacker, this is the Interhash Trinidad, no time to waste here. What about food? Get off your bed, get dressed and out the door there is food at the Hub. The party start! Its time to see how 'Trinis' party. Walk in to our Caribbean Village, we have a full line up of entertainment for you. Beer Boats, Wine Stops, Rum Shops, Food Courts, Cool Zones, VIP deck and lots more. It's the first Official night!! You will make it don't worry, just let the music guide you.

Saturday morning, eat a hearty breakfast, its going to be a fun day. Buses leave the hub between 9-10am. Back to the hub, get your vote in for the 2022, check your App which buses are designated to each run, that's if you can open your bloodshot eyes. If you need help there are the best Trini volunteers there to help you out. Find the bus you need to take you to the run you have selected and off you go. Its On On. A choice of 12 runs nationwide should have you covered.

Lush Rain Forests, windy coastal runs, flat plains and river crossings are all on offer. 2 hours of Circle drinks! Have fun, take pics, added them to the Instagram Gallery with #Interhash2020. Then back to the Hub. Ready for more action?

4-5pm and you should be back at base camp. Be smart. Go back to the hotel or stay and have a few drinks? Buses make round trips for the hotels from the hub between 4-6pm. Saturday night and the feeling is right. Here we go again. This night we have some special appearances planned. Cant tell you or we would have to 'K' you. It's a full night of Entertainment and exceptional food. Pace yourself tonight, you have a full day tomorrow.

Sunday, you still alive? What's the plan today? There still 8 trail options open to you. You joining the Old Farts? Sure feels that way. Go ahead we wont tell anyone. You gave it your best. You Old Fart! You can chill out at the Hub if your body aches, or go explore the island bars or beaches or what ever blows your skirt up. The buses leave at 10am today, 8 more runs to conquer, all closer to the Hub.

Don't over do it, tonight is the biggest night of all, the full Carnival experience. Promise you have not been to a better fete. Its going to be epic. Check your goodie bags for the special gifts for tonight. Don't leave them behind.

By now you have learned our lingo starting with the Jouvert, Fete, Carib, Ste-ups, Liming, Doubles, Roti, Paleau, Soca and winin' but you are not going to find out what they mean here, wait till you land on the island for that.

Looking forward to the Trini bacchanal! Oh that's another word you have to use there. On on to TT 2020.

SAINT PATRICK'S DAY HASH

by Quick Drawers

The Zagreb Hash typically hashes at 11 AM on Saturdays; however, on special occasions, such as St. Paddy's Day, exceptions are made. This themed hash brought out a dozen regular members of the hash, along with attendance by visiting hashers "Choo Choo" from Bavaria and myself.

The many sidewalk café's and other establishments in the immediate vicinity of Zagreb's main square - Jelacic Square, provided the location, for our Friday evening initial meeting with Zagreb's long-term contact "Antibiotics". Info was shared pertaining to their groups 40+ year history, their sponsorship of the mostly semi-annual "Dalmatian Hash", a 7-day Cruise hash along Croatia's popular scenic coastline, an including specifics for the following days hash.

"Antibiotics" had made arrangements for us to get a ride, with "Chief Ironhat" as a means of insuring we actually arrived at the start and prevented us from having any drinking and driving issues, which was greatly appreciated. While Friday was a nice sunny day to do some initial tourist activities, Saturday changed course and provided a steady light rain the entire day. The countryside trail hared by "Little Big Man" and "Too Fuckin' Short" circled around a good sized nearby lake, providing a good workout for the runners and of course very soggy muddy ground for the days few walkers: "Sir John Shooter" – Zagreb's senior member continuing to hash since Zagreb's 3rd hash, "Free Fucgs", "Choo Choo" and myself. "Sir John" wisely led this small group into a cozy lakeside Pub where we sampled more of Zagreb's good beers, while continuing our enjoyable conversation. Heading back out and returning to the starting point, rain continued to fall.

RUNNERS AND WALKERS STARTING OUT ON THE SOGGY LAKESIDE TRAIL

CAFE LINED STREET SCENE NEAR THE MAIN SQUARE

SEVERAL WALKERS MILLING AROUND AT AN EARLY CHECK

Upon reaching the ON IN hash Bistro, we found the hares had graciously arranged to provide everyone with a bountiful traditional Croatian dinner meal, accompanied with more very good beer choices. As the St. Paddy's day hash festivities reluctantly drew to a close, everyone expressed their thanks to the Hares and encouraged them to host a similar hash in the near future!

One unique aspect of the current Zagreb hash is that each current member is a local. The group warmly welcomes all visiting hashers and hopes to be augmented by resident expats in the near future.

Email and phone contact info for this friendly hash can of course be found on Haz's gototheshash.net site.

Their main hash page is www.zagrebhash.com as well as reaching them via Facebook at www.facebook.com/groups/1057978007592892. I thoroughly enjoyed hashing with the Zagreb Hash and I know you will also.

Taipei's China H3

Celebrating 25 Years of

in the Pyrenees

by Christian Schulz

CONTENTS

It started in the early 90's when a group of sporty and fun loving expats living and working in Taipei regularly met to enjoy running with the 'China Hash House Harriers' along the scenic mountain trails in Taiwan. The motivation: 'Compensate the many long office hours with healthy outdoor activity followed by camaraderie and consuming lots of cold beer'.

From that, and a common interest in mountain biking, came the idea organizing a week of off-road biking somewhere outside the island in the region.

Kicking off with Sulawesi in 1993, a tradition was begun of a regular annual week of cycling in different Asian countries. This included, amongst others, a helicopter drop off in the snow in the Jomsom, Mustang area of Nepal in 1997 followed by cycling up the Kali Gandaki gorge to the Muktinath monastery and ending up along the lake in Pokara. 1998's ride led through Thailand's Chiang Dao National Park area. In 1999 and 2000, it involved the first-ever organized mountain bike groups cycling the Kingdom of Bhutan. 2002 saw speedy long-tail boats taking the group up the Mekong River and them following the Chinese border on Laos's jungle trails. In 2006 the African continent was approached the first time with the team spinning the pedals in the very mountainous Kingdom of Lesotho, while in 2007 Tanzania was explored. Costa Rica, in 2013, was the only location in the Americas so far.

A WARM UP DOWN-HILL IN THE DESERT OF BARDENAS REALES DE NAVARRA

On the last evening of each trip, proposals for the destination in the following year are heard and voted on. Volunteers usually step forward to offer to explore the preferred location and report early in the year on the outcome. If judged 'doable', the date, depending mainly on the most suitable weather conditions, is finalized in March and the announcement made. Strict rules apply as to who of the 30+ names on the list (boys only, because boys behave different when girls are around) may join as logistics generally only allow a maximum of 24 participants. Seniority (number of previous rides) as well as the earliest commitment documented with a transfer of nonrefundable fees are the criteria.

After almost a quarter of a century, predominantly covering the slopes in the Himalayans and the hills in Asia, the 25th anniversary ride was meant to be special one and the first time to Europe, exploring Spain's Basque Country of the Pyrenees under the slogan 'Making Basque Great Again'. The Basque country as it stands today is known as 'The Autonomous Unified Basque Country', consisting of the North and South Provinces. The North is controlled by the French and the South by the Spanish. Initially a little reserved towards foreigners, the locals are very proud of their identity and have their own Basque national flag. Basques have fought for their land, their culture, and their pride. Their traditions are alive and flourishing today. The widely spoken Basque language is a language with no known linguistic relatives as it is unrelated to any of the other languages of Europe.

ON SINGLE TRACKS THROUGH AUTUMN-COLOURED OAK TREE FORESTS

Like on all the earlier rides the basic concept was simple: a daily good workout in beautiful surroundings, trying to avoid roads by preferably cycling single trails; simple accommodation and reasonable food. However, there is no compromise on the amber beverage: 'enough chilled beer for everybody every evening!' Attention to detailed logistics therefore is an absolute requirement. During the daily Hash Circle the day is reflected and Down Downs are granted to achievers, fu*#ups and other memorable events.

Only a few members of the original group presently still live in Taiwan since some have returned to their home countries, mainly the US, or have found new opportunities in China or the Asian region. Thus flights carrying the bikes touched down in the northern Spanish city of Bilbao from all over the world. In order to get acclimatized and check the equipment, a 'warm up ride' in the little known desert of 'Bardenas Reales de Navarra' was staged before getting into the mountains and onto the Basque highlands.

While altitude this time was no issue, the steep gradients still did require endurance (on the up) and technical skills (on the down). Usually starting in the morning on dirt roads up a valley, trails soon led into the lush woods mainly following single tracks through autumn-coloured oak tree forests. Living in the tropics for so many years and being accustomed to an almost continuous sight of 'green nature' made experiencing the autumn season even more special for some. Above the tree line, open grasslands covered the slopes where healthy looking sheep, cattle, and horses were feeding on the juicy and nutritious highland grass. Alpine flowers added bright, colourful spots. Breathing the clean fresh air, no longer a given in many of Asia's cities, felt good.

A SERIOUS 2 HOUR PUSH UP TO THE SPAIN/ FRANCE BORDER

THE 'WAY OF ST. JAMES' - SHARING THE TRAIL WITH PILGRIMS

On day 4 of the trip, a long valley ended at a very steep, grass-covered slope which was not rideable, requiring an ascent by serous pushing of the bikes uphill for almost 2 hours. Reaching the top of the ridge we were surprised by a low 2-wire fence indicating the Spanish/French border. After lifting the bikes over and enjoying the far view towards the French peaks, we enjoyed a long, bumpy downhill finally ending up at an asphalt road only to start a steep serpentine uphill to the Col de Larrau (one of the passes on the 2007 Tour de France) and returning back onto Spanish territory again. Weather can change fast from calm and sparkling sunshine to heavy wind and horizontal rain. However, we were lucky most of the time as we got caught in the misty rain only once. The overall pleasant fall temperatures and the low humidity contributed to the enjoyment of the daily rides. The favorable climatic conditions, however, did not ease the pressure on some softer body part caused by the extended hours in the saddle.

While the majority of the rides followed animal trails, we also came across some well-marked and popular walking trails with numerous enthusiastic trekkers. These were pilgrims on the 'Way of St. James', a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It leads from France through northern Spain to Santiago de Compostela over almost 1050 kilometers and thus is part of the 'First Cultural Route of Europe'. Many of the small villages we passed boasted churches and monasteries dating back many centuries. One is Roncesvalles, which offers a special daily pilgrim's mass. In addition, it is a symbolic place, whose fame crossed all Europe in the Middle Ages due, above all, to the songs about the deeds of the figure of Charlemagne and his nephew Roldan in the epic battle of Roncesvalles.

Cobblestone pavements in the narrow alleys of the villages were lined with rustic houses decorated with beautiful flowers in front of their windows. Compared to earlier trips where simple homestays, dormitories, or tents hosted the group, this time cozy family guesthouses provided comfortable shelter during the nights. While the food on the previous rides was meant primarily to provide the required energy to compensate for the daily calorie consumption, this time we felt really spoilt by local delicacies: Freshly brewed coffee with warm croissants for breakfast, baguettes with cured ham and air dried salami and fruit for lunch, tapas and olives, fresh salad, vegetables, and meat rounded off with tasty cheese accompanied by local wine made up dinner. The bottom line: Spanish food is a great treat with absolutely no danger of 'Delhi Belly', which in the lesser developed parts of the globe, is not an abnormal experience during similar adventures in earlier years.

Although the rides were a challenge, no bike breakdown was recorded. Even the number of punctures was below average. Most importantly, besides a few minor bruises caused by some spectacular stunts 'over the handle bars' no serious accident occurred.

ONIN - CHEERS GREG AND PETER

UPHILL AGAIN...

The final day was a stunningly beautiful ride on the cliffs above the Atlantic. The far view into the Bay of Biscay with the white sands of the distant French city of Biarritz in the North, the contours of the Pyrenees towards the north east, and the dark blue waters with white crests washing the coast of northern Spain below us was overwhelming. Ending up in the old historic part of 'San Juan', a small fishing village outside San Sebastian, where the waiting beer was cold and plentiful, was like a 'grand finale'. While enjoying the local amber brew 'Keler' all reflected on another memorable week of physical workout and enjoyment in a very scenic, diversified, and interesting part of the world; celebrating unique brotherly friendship. ON ON to more foreign shores in the upcoming years!

MAURITIUS H3 CELEBRATES 800 RUNS

by Julia Stanton

At the end of April 2019, Mauritius H3 celebrated their 800th run in style with a weekend of 3 runs over 3 days and an invitation to international hashers with guest hashers from Nairobi, Delhi and Addis Ababa H3.

The event started on Thursday evening with welcome drinks at a local bar followed by dinner at a local lounge in the Grand Braie area in the north of the island. This was an opportunity to be reunited with familiar faces and meet new ones over a few beers and a meal.

CONTENTS

The following afternoon, hashers met up again on the public beach of Grand Baie for the Red dress run which on the programme was supposed to be set by the Nairobi Sunday hash. That turned out not to be the case since the Kenyans couldn't pull it together to set a run and Hot Pants, a Mauritian hasher stepped in at the last minute with a live tour through the backstreets of Grand Baie mainly through narrow lanes where the locals lived but also the Grand market, a shopping street for tourists. On every corner heads were turned with the sight of everyone dressed in red dresses especially the Nairobi male hashers who had on some very sexy numbers. The group were delighted to find two statues welcoming tourists to a local market dressed in red. A drinks stop consisting of the local spiced rum helped to raise spirits even higher. The run concluded back at the beach with ice cool beers and a circle led by the Sunday Nairobi hashers where Kenyan GM 'Arthur' charged the Mauritian GM 'Dodo-Cop' for having less hashers than the overseas hashers.

The Welcome party was hosted by a local hasher known as Snow White in her villa where drinks, snacks and dinner flowed and the visiting hashers got to know the local hashers better. Snow White was one of the original hashers who had helped to build up Mauritius H3 from the early days when it was founded on 14 May 1988 by Charlie 'Bird' Mochan.

The 800th Run on Saturday started early afternoon at Bann Boeuf beach further along the northern coast. In fact it started rather late since the Trail Master, 'Hot Pants' went off to find some ice to cool the beer. The trail started with both the runners and walkers on the same trail but on approaching a boggy patch which would have involved wet and muddy feet, the walkers started to look around for alternatives which they found. Once on trail again, hitting another muddy patch, the walkers again protested and ended up finding their own trail back to the beer. Mauritian hashers evidently don't get their feet wet!

After a hash market where various hash chapters flogged their hash wares from Indian drinking vessels to Masai hash robes, the circle was called and led by Delhi H3 which was a lively event of charges and classic hash songs from the Nairobi hashers which many of the Mauritian hashers had never heard before.

The On On was at Azalee Beach club owned by a Hasher's sister. A good buffet of food was put on and there were plenty of drinks to be had. Dancing went well into the night and several after parties were held by the visiting hashers.

CONTENTS

This meant the hangover run was truly a hangover run for many hashers starting at 10am (which is the normal run start for Mauritius H3) on another beach going further north around the island. (In fact the younger Mauritian hashers only showed up for the after party.) A trail of 10km for the runners (which turned out to be a ball breaker) and 6km for the walkers had been laid. The trail went inland through small bushy trails, into quiet roads and onto small coastal trails. It was indeed the best trail of the weekend. A circle followed led by the hosts who ended up getting upstaged by the Nairobi hashers as more songs were demanded including 'Singing in the Rain' when it wasn't raining which led the heavens to open at the end of the circle and a wet end to a great weekend of hashing in Mauritius.

Mauritius H3 hashes every other Sunday starting at 10am from various spots around the island. The next run location and a sign-up sheet can be found on a well-maintained and updated website <http://www.mhash.com> as well as on Facebook.

A GUAM FULL MOON HASH

2 019 Calendars show the date 20 March, as being a Full Moon event. Based upon that and prior contact with both Agana and Full Moon hash contacts, I made arrangements in early December to join the Guam Full Moon hash on that date. Things in the hash world are like everything, subject to chance and they did.

The Guam Full Moon hash changed the date of their annual Green Dress Hash to Friday March 22nd. It would then immediately precede the Agana Hash's epic #1919 hash bash camping weekend starting on Saturday 23rd. Since my travel arrangements were set, with continuing travel to Saipan on that Friday, I needed an alternate plan.

I volunteered to set an MVH3 style Full Moon Hash on Wednesday the 20th. My primary contact with the Guam Full Moon hash was their RA – “Bloody Cycle”. He was able to spread the word within the Guam hashing community, of this added hashing opportunity. I was obviously very thankful and pleased when a dozen plus dedicated hashers, including “One Eyed Willy”, “Toe Stroker”, “Golden Boy Toy” to recognize a few, came out to hash that evening. Without their Greatly Appreciated support I would have been unable to hash in Guam on this hash trip.

The trail was not the greatest ever of course and because I was using a map of Guam, obtained upon arrival at the airport, as my guide there was none of the Shiggy some Guam hashers excel in. Trail was a simple westerly half moon style trail which started from the hotel I was staying in and ended an hour later at The Tower of London hash friendly Pub. Almost all of trail was on pavement of some sort; but, it did allow some of the regulars, very familiar with the area, to add in an impromptu beer stop in route. Way to go - right!

CONTENTS

FULL MOON CIRCLE ACTIVITIES WITHIN TOWER OF LONDON BAR

“Bloody Cycle” demonstrated his excellent RA skills, in an unoccupied area of the bar, where everyone had an opportunity to be recognized and rewarded for one typical reason or another. As another fine night of hashing comradery grew to a close, I again expressed by sincere Thanks to everyone for representing the welcoming spirit of the various Guam hashes.

"Tumbling" Bill Panton 1927 - 2019

Bill Panton, known more affectionately as 'Tumbling Bill', was first posted from United Kingdom to Kuala Lumpur in 1953 when Malaya (as it was then known) was under British Administration. Along with many other government servants, he was billeted in the bachelor's quarters behind the Selangor Club, known colloquially as the 'Hash House' as a result of the frequent appearance on the menu of 'Corned Beef Hash', a stew of salted beef and potatoes. He was naturally invited to run with the Hash House Harriers, amongst whom was Cecil Lee, one of its original founders. He first ran with 'Mother Hash' in 1954, but subsequently joined as a full member in 1958.

Malaysia, as it became known after gaining independence from Britain in 1956, began to reduce reliance upon her former colonial advisors and experts and eventually Bill took up an appointment with the World Bank in Washington DC where he founded the DC Hash on 23 May 1972. A spell with the World Bank on a posting in Thailand resulted in his founding the Bangkok Hash House Harriers on 11 June 1977.

Upon retirement in 1992, Bill returned to his former home in Kuala Lumpur with his wife, Raja Aishah, cousin of the late Sultan of Selangor. Unfortunately, Bill was not able to enjoy retirement to the full as his wife passed away shortly after their return. This caused him to focus his mind elsewhere – to the establishment of the Hash Genealogy Project, which he subsequently dedicated to Raja Aishah.

In early 1994, Bill could be seen with a large sheet of white paper laid on a glass topped table on his balcony, with a pencil, ruler and eraser, busy adding new hash chapters to an enormous family tree and constantly rubbing out and adding connecting lines to these chapters.

For the 60th Anniversary of the Hash House Harriers at Interhash 98 in Kuala Lumpur, the first publication of the Hash Family tree was presented to the world. It had been prepared with the assistance of Mike Lyons and his trusty 'Mac', and showed the relationship of some 1,000 Hash chapters to the original 'Mother' Hash in Kuala Lumpur.

At the same time, aware that making these data available for wider consumption would be essential, Bill enlisted the aid of Neil Campbell to adapt the genealogy data to a more friendly format for presentation. Consequently a lengthy roll of 'A0' plotter output was put on display in the Merdeka Stadium at Interhash '98. The display generated considerable interest, and led to a flood of information being received from all over the Hash World. A later copy of this chart is still on display in the 'Hash Room' of the Royal Selangor Club in Kuala Lumpur. The last plotted version of the family tree was displayed at Interhash 2008 in Perth since with more than 2,500 Hash Chapters recorded, it became necessary to commit their details to the internet. A copy of the last printed version sits in a cannister in Kuala Lumpur, awaiting a suitable venue for display!

Another outcome of Interhash '98 was the formation of the 'Hash Heritage Foundation', established to: manage and develop hash archives; hold an exhibition for Interhash '98; and play a key role in rebuilding the Hash House. (The original Hash House was demolished to make way for a road). Bill was a keen promoter of the Heritage Foundation, which received a donation of land from the Malaysian Government on which to reconstruct a 'Hash House'. The picture above shows Bill with an architect's drawing of one proposed structure. Right up to the end, Bill's prime ambition was to see the rebuilding of the Hash House, and a more fitting tribute to his memory could not be made than helping this become a reality.

Memorial runs for Bill have already been held in both Washington DC and Bangkok where donations have been received to this end, and a joint memorial run will be held on 29 September 2019 on the site of the proposed Hash House in Bukit Kiara, Kuala Lumpur. This event is being organised by Mother Hash; Petaling Hash; KL Harriettes; and the Royal Selangor Club Hash, all chapters in which Bill was a member. This will be administered by the Hash Heritage Foundation. An external, independent auditor has been appointed to ensure full accountability, with all details to be published on the website (theshashhouse.org) where further information can also be obtained.

Please contribute to these very worthy causes – both the rebuilding of the Hash House, and the continuing development of the Hash Chapter Family Tree (the 'Genealogy' page of the website) – as a tribute to 'Tumbling' Bill Panton's great achievements in the development and promotion of The Hash worldwide!

And still continue shopping

Scientists baffled as average IQ of North Korea dropped 20% last month

Scientists around the world were struggling to make sense of strange information coming out of North Korea in July after the average IQ of the entire nation dropped by a staggering 20% for a whole hour.

By odd coincidence the dumbing down of North Korea coincided with a one hour visit by dayglo hairspray enthusiast, Donald Trump. "It was really weird." Professor of Idiocy, Dr Strangemitts, of Brighton University told The Hash Trash. "For the first time in history we were able to watch an entire nation become significantly more stupid."

"It was like those turtles or tortoises or whatever who were stuck on the Galapagos Islands without any contact with other turtles or tortoises or whatever and, like evolved differently or whatever. We still haven't worked out how the population of North Korea was measurably more ignorant on just that afternoon, but we think Donald Trump might have something to do with it."

North Koreans are sitting down this month to watch Love Island for the first time in their nation's sorry history.

LOOKING BACK AT THE NEWS

A pack of lions were being demonized on social media this month for killing a man, until a new twist emerged which changed everything. "He had a firearm." The lions, speaking through their attorney, announced they will assert self-defense if prosecuted, as they had a reasonable expectation that their lives were in danger.

"If we hadn't acted decisively, we might not be here now." Their case is reportedly strengthened by corroborating evidence from a witness. "We have an antelope who says she saw everything." More tricky for the lions' defense team will be explaining why they ate the man afterwards. "We'll cross that bridge when we come to it."

Thinking ahead on the topic of poaching Rhino hunters have just been sentenced to 25 years in S Africa. Perhaps they should start by serving their time in the middle of the game reserve – but without the guns this time I mean, should we feed the poachers for 25 years, or feed the lions?

'Lions sue for serious indigestion (poacheritis)'

Prince Charles has confirmed that years of talking to vegetables at Highgrove was the perfect preparation for meeting Donald Trump last month.

There was a lot of speculation about how Prince Charles and Trump would get on given that they have divergent views on matters such as the environment, with Prince Charles thinking that turning into the Earth into an uninhabited toxic desert incapable of supporting life is probably a bad idea.

"Prince Charles had spent quite a lot of time talking to vegetables in the greenhouse at Highgrove House over the years. Obviously he had to dumb things down a little when he talked to Donald Trump, or POTATUS as the Secret Service call him, because his vocabulary isn't as good as your average common garden root vegetable. But as expected he muddled by."

"Talking to Trump was very similar to talking to a plum tomato, while it doesn't really understand what you're saying it might respond to your tone of voice. It's scientifically unproven that's the case with Donald, but Charles's plums are looking pretty good this year so it was worth a shot."

Donald Trump said he looked forward to seeing Charles and hoped he would include Purple Rain in his set.

UNDERGROUND RUN # 1294

More often than not the many uninspired hares continue to lay trails in the monotonous streets of the centre of Stockholm. So we applaud the Hares, Miz MoneyPenny & Nobby the Hash Elf for travelling a mere 7 Km from town to lay a trail round the splendid Lake Judarn with the old Russian Wall and a Gin & Tonic stop by and by a smaller village pond.

Instead of pictures of runners we show instead the beauty of this area hopefully to inspire others to follow suit. It does not take much to leave the boring City streets to find true Hash trails.....OnOnMaliBog

THE 10th ANUL NORRTÄLJE RUN

THE RECYCLED (RE) RUN

STOCKHOLM ABSOLUT HASH # 826
 Once again our fun loving Hare 'Sloe Cwinne' invited us rough and seedy Stockholm Hashers to invade his old wooden house in the old fishing village of Norrtälje some 65 Km north of Stockholm. We arrived with several others on the big DD bus from Stockholm to find quite a big crowd already awaiting with more late kummers to come. After a lengthy rapport consisting mainly of lies about being quite flat, we scaled a very steep hill eventually leading the pack into the old town with it's quaint narrow streets and decorated old houses and the many bridges over the Norrtäljeån. The Sun came out in force as we run passed the local Hospice and a fountain where we could splash ourselves with some cool waters. Enough of the easy bits from here on the trail started to get just a tiny bit rough as we had to amount a steep earthen hill then over the motorway leading to the first drink stop.

Not quite sure what this was but it was comprised of alcohol, some green leaves and a couple of caterpillars for substance. Next we were led in a merry chaise through the woods and bracken down and around Lake Vigelsjö till Lommarbadet and the long awaited Swim and Blue Num stop. A most welcome distraction in the sweltering weather. Being less than 1 Km back to the On-Home the majority chose to walk the remaining distance saving their energies for the forthkummin' down-downs and the partaking of the alcohol thereof including Little Ingrid for running the latest Marathon.. And there was plenty more of that including myself, Clever Dick Red Horse and Pink pony for wearing (as instructions) our old torn and tatty recycled hash attire. Good food and plenty of fine ales contributed to a good Hash Day which we have the pleasure of thanking our host. Looking forward to next year.....OnOnMaliBog

RIGA

ROVERS
HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

What do you do when visiting a city without a Hash, you make one.

So on Sunday the 21st July Red Horse, Pink Pony, Spike and myself took the old Soviet luxury high speed commuter train from Riga to Jurmala. Keep ticket handy as each coach has a ticket inspector who will want to stamp your ticket. Be careful getting on and off the trains. The platforms are at ground level so you have to climb up a steep ladder to get into the carriage. No handicapped excess there in the worker's paradise.

It seemed that half of Riga was visiting the 35 Km beach at Jurmala as the temperature that day rose to plus 30 degrees Celcius as we were packed in like sardines for the 35 min journey.

Arriving at Marjori station on the fully packed train our first visit was to see St George Then along Jomas iela, the pedestrian street with the multitude of old wooden houses

Forward to Dzintaru Forest Park with a quick climb up the observation tower

Passing the Tarzan park, but here we kept our feet firmly on the ground.

Having found a disused track we came upon two desolate Soviet workers luxury hotels now being slowly taken over by the surrounding nature.

Another path led us to the white densely packed sandy beach where we cooled ourselves with a long dip in the blue Baltic

Followed by a beer or two

BORN ON THE 4th OF JULY

Bad News Georgie

Those damned insurgents have taken over all our airfields in the North American Colonies

---onon---

Criminally stupid Donald Trump has been mocked after praising the US Army which "took over the airports" during the revolutionary war in the 1700s.

The president made the remarks during his "Salute to America" speech as the US marked the anniversary of the day the Declaration of Independence was signed in 1776.

The president told the crowd: "In June of 1775, the continental congress created a unified army out of the revolutionary forces encamped around Boston and New York, and named after the great George Washington commander-in-chief.

*As usual the Yanks can't get anything right
Here we have a bunch of loonies cheering on the Red Coats*

Or are they British POW's forced the play in the band

"Our army manned the air, it rammed the ramparts, it took over the airports, it did everything it had to do, and at Fort McHenry, under the rockets' red glare, it had nothing but victory."

We at the Hash Trash are glad President Trump finally pointed out that the control of the airports was key to success during the revolution. Historians have been ignoring this for centuries. A mother wrote: "Watching Trump's speech, my son turns to me and said 'did he say airports?' Does he think they had airports in the 1700s?" My son is 11!"

It was not the only historical inaccuracy during this section of Mr Trump's speech, as he also suggested the battle of Fort McHenry took place during the American Revolutionary War between 1775-1783 when it actually occurred in 1812.

Air travel did not occur in the US until the early 20th century, with the Wright Brothers celebrated for flying the first plane in 1903 but how was he to know that?

Trump gets controversial Independence Day gift from the Hash Trash

To celebrate Independence Day we at the Hash Trash dispatched a box of British Infantry Regiment model soldiers and an Airfix kit of the Avro 504 to the White House. The boxes feature the fearsome Brits who single-handedly took on the enemy in the American War of Independence and the famed airplane that also took part in that struggle. It was our brave actions that enabled America to be free of evil foreign oppression.

Now, Mr Trump can play with the toy Brit soldiers on his desk in the Oval Office to his little heart's delight. He can re-enact key battles from the war, made famous by the glorious British red coats and the taking over of all the British airfields.

Sharing a passion for models, though Mr Trump prefers those to be two-legged and female but this is a good way to start. We are sure Mr Trump will love these toy soldiers, a wonderful reminder from Britain about how we managed to win the war for America and its people.

Mr Trump revealed recently how he liked to make his own models – of cardboard golf clubs.

In a related story it has emerged that Donald Trump is poised to sell Alaska back to the Russians in order to fund his Mexican wall.

The US President sees Alaska as surplus to requirements now that America has plundered most of its natural resources. America bought Alaska from the Russian Empire in 1867 for $7.2 million. Since then they have taken all of the gold and most of the oil and gas.

A small church in Sussex had a very attractive big-busted organist named Susan, and her breasts were so large that they bounced and jiggled while she played the organ. Unfortunately, she distracted the male part of the congregation considerably. The very proper church ladies were appalled. They said something had to be done about this or they would have to get another organist.

So one of the ladies approached Susan very discreetly about the problem, & told her to mash up some green persimmons & rub them on her nipples and all over her breasts, which should cause them to shrink in size, but warned her not to taste any of the green persimmons, because they are so sour they will make your mouth pucker up & you won't be able to talk properly for a while.

The voluptuous organist reluctantly agreed to try it. The following Sunday morning the minister walked up to the pulpit and said, "Dew to thircumsthanthis bewond my contwol, will not hab a thermon tewday."

MUM KNICKED FOR ABUSING FB

In a related story a 24-year-old mum from Sussex who is living her best life was arrested and charged today after she uploaded a selfie to Facebook and forgot to add bunny ears, a nose and a variety of other wanky modifications.

Michelle Garridge will appear in front of magistrates at Brighton District Court next week where she will face charges of communicating reality and posting with intent to inform.

Police said, 'A female has now been released on bail after her unedited face and shoulders were posted to Facebook.'

'It would appear that the image was visible for around nine minutes before it was removed, and it would have been seen by 67 people.'

'This factor will be included in sentencing - she can expect to receive around ten years.'

'We would like to remind the general public that animal filters are there for a reason - why the hell wouldn't you want your descendants to look back in a hundred years' time and think that you were brought up in a branch of Pets At Home.'

Michelle's mum Esso said, 'When she first posted the photo, I just looked at it and thought, 'Who the hell is that?''

'She didn't even have the slightly enlarged eyes that apparently turn anyone into an instant '10.'

In another development, a leading researcher has revealed that anyone who fancies a girl based upon a modified animal face picture is actually fUcked in the head.

Dr Irving Schmerling of the University Of East Sussex said, 'You're basically saying that you want to shag an animal, you sick bastard.'

THE ABSOLUT AGPU COVENTION IN STOCKHOLM THIS SEPTEMBER

Stockholm Hashers have begun arriving for their annual SAGPU next month on the Island of Svartsjö.

Attendees will be expected to discuss important issues of the day, including the county's best walls to piss on and new, exciting ways to drink beer through a straw.

The AGPU doesn't start until Saturday 7 September but already 14 daft Hashers from across Stockholm have arrived.

Organisers insist they are not early but have simply turned up late for last year's event.

Chief RA, 2 Swedes Kummin' both said: "Most Hashers get hopelessly lost trying to find the venue and some have taken a year to get here. "But it will be worth it. We have a packed program of events, including a sports event.

"However, last year's 15 kilometre sprint won't be repeated - four hashers are still missing." Local fermented herring farmer Sven Stinksson is allowing the hashers to use a barn for thier convention on his land this year on the island of Svartsjö. "They're quite harmless. I'm told there are more daft hashers in Stockholm than ever before, so it should be a good year for them."

The news comes three months after five visiting hashers never returned to their native countries after attending Interscandi in the remote village of Halstahammar.

DENMARK COUNTEROFFERS BY OFFERING TO BUY PUERTO RICO

Denmark has responded to Donald Trump's offer to buy Greenland with a suggestion they buy Puerto Rico instead, as 'he's not taking very good care of it'.

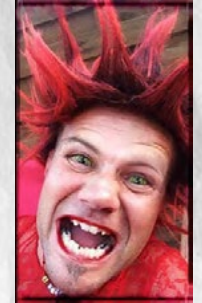

Puerto Rico is an unincorporated territory of the USA, in a similar relationship to that enjoyed by Greenland and Denmark - but Danes point out that Greenlanders enjoy a far higher standard of living than Puerto Ricans.

Sources inside Denmark also suggested it would be 'unthinkable' not to help their fellows after a natural disaster in the way the United States did after hurricanes Irma and Maria.

"We can see many ways this is in everyone's interest," said Danish government spokesman Simon Williamssen. "Per capita gdp in Puerto Rico is barely half that of Denmark, so we'd expect to see a dramatic and immediate improvement in living standards once the deal is done.

"And thanks to our socialised healthcare people in Denmark live longer than Puerto Ricans as part of the United States, so they'd have longer lives to enjoy their increased wealth once we take over."

Donald Trump is understood to be considering the offer, having privately described Puerto Rico as a 'shithole'.

MALIBOG'S 76th BARFDAY RUN

Back at the Pilot Pub in Skarpnäck, one time a Swedish Aerodrome now a pleasant suburb the trail took the pack directly into the nearby woods and forests and paths of the Nacka Nature Reserve Over Brotorps Canal following a gravel path delving into the woods to the shores of Lake Älta.

Eventually crossing the canal again then following a long wooden path walk over the bull-rushes by the side of the lake.

More forest trails doubling back to cross the main road into the Flaten Woods leading to the Vodka and Bitter Lemon stop by the outdoor baths where a number of sweaty hashers cooled themselves off with a dip while others went mushroom picking.

More wooded paths led back home and the circle the highlight being the naming of just Eva now in hash eternity to be called Sweet Melons.

THE 2nd ANUL HASH BASH TRIHASHLON

The Bash Fab Four on leaving Märsta after some slight brake repairs and saddle adjustments and pumping of tyres headed north via Oden Sala Church to our first rest stop to look and admire the 'Grateful Dead'

Continuing to Långhundra having a quick beer and drink stop at an old school house where the owners kindly showed us around, including their old Viking burial ground in the back.

An unintended on back at Tuna then through the country lanes passing an old red windmill and another drink stop to arrive at On Inn after a duration 3 hours for a distance of 38 km.

THE 2nd ANUL UBBY HASH TRIHASHLON

Having the Fab Four Bashers arriving in good time we were soon gathering for the running part of the TriHashLon but then a shout went up to announce Four Pack managed to get lost on the way trying to get directions from her North Korean GPS sending her to a Yokal Hot Rod café

Ramblin' Hare With his Bag of Beers and Gin & Tonics

After a worrying 40 mins with visions of Four Pack hot Roding with the local farmer boys in her little cab she finally arrived so we could get this show on the road but not before Ramin' had warned us about the Giant Moose, Wild Pigs and the resident Grass Snake that had terrorized Red Horse last year. After the lies we soon entered into the scrubby bush and scratching plants that eventually led the pack to the slippery rocks on the far shore of the lake for the swim bit.

THE 2nd ANUL HASH BASH TRIHASHLON

Sunday we assembled for the return trip this time via Gottsunda and Arlanda. A duration 3.45 mins and a distance of almost 40 km, this included a lengthy stop for refreshments and to remove the bugs from our eyes at Gottsunda petrol station Very easy going as it was hot at 25C and with the sun blaring in your eyes and more flying bugs for the whole distance did not make it any easier.

Well back at Märsta from where we started the previous day we indulged in a well-earned rest and refreshments, and removing even more bugs before boarding the train back to town.

However Pink Pony decided the distance was not enough so continued by bike from Märsta for another 47 km to Stockholm.

Arriving home in quick time on her racing bike for a total of 87 km., not quite the 100 she wanted. So after a brief rest she jumped back on her bike and added a further 13 km around Haga Park to bring her total up to a grand 100 km for the day.

They say that craziness runs in the family, I'm entitled to agree.....OnOn MaliBog

The swim across the 4 lake was accomplished with out any being gobbled up by Ramblin's pet Salties, generous helpings of Gin & T's where handed out to make the mossies giddy and beers to wash it all down, followed by the circle whereas everyone received a DD whether they earned it or not then we all tucked into the luvly grub lovingly made by Fog Horn and Bad Pitt. Those few that stayed the night were treated to a good breakfast whereas we departed, two in a car and four on bikes to continue their odyssey exploring Roslagen on two wheels

COLLEGE PROFESSOR ASSAULTS TRUMP SUPPORTER

A college professor in the US has come under fire from leading figures in the Republican Party after he allegedly assaulted a number of completely innocent Trump supporters during a visit to the Middle East. The alleged incident took place on the roof of a Trump tank during a camping trip to the desert outside of Alexandretta earlier this year.

“We were just minding our own business looking for religious artefacts in the desert when this professor came riding up on his horse looking for trouble.” A slightly wounded Trump supporter told The Rochdale Herald.

“There I was minding my own business manning the machine gun turret on the roof of our tank when he started throwing rocks at us.”

“Gave me the shock of my life. I heard him mutter something under his breath about how he ‘hates those guys’ before he jumped onto the roof and punched me on the nose. I have rights you know. More rights than black people and Jews certainly.”

“You can’t go around judging people by the hats they wear or the Swastikas on their arms. Everybody knows you judge people by the colour of their skin. It’s chaos otherwise.”

Professor Jones of Marshall College Connecticut was not available for comment.

AUSTRALIAN BATSMEN TAKING NO RISKS FACING ENGLAND

Australia’s cricket team has revealed it will take no chances when facing the fearsome fast bowling from England’s Jofra Archer.

Batsmen will wear full-body armour to protect them from the type of short ball that struck skipper Steve Smith on the neck in the Second Test at Lords. He batted on but missed the final day’s play with delayed concussion.

Analysts say Archer strikes a batsman in the body or head once every ten overs or so.

Luckily, nobody has been seriously hurt but the latest blow to Smith, who has thankfully made a full recovery and might still play in the Headingly Test, has raised concerns over batsman safety.

DONALD TRUMP ANNOUNCES PLANS TO BUY NARNIA FROM MIDDLE EARTH

Bouncing back from the disappointment of not being able to buy Greenland, President of America, King of Israel, Chosen one, and very stable genius Donald Trump has announced a plan to buy the magical land of Narnia from Middle Earth.

“It’s something we’re looking into, you know,” explained the ‘President’ in a completely not mad kind of way.

“I know they’ve had some problems there with an almighty battle between Aslan and the wicked Snow Queen, but the thing you’ve got to remember is there were very fine people on both sides there.”

It is thought that Trump is possibly concerned about America’s lack of presence in any magical realms, and having Narnia as a 51st state could give the US a foothold in the region leading to trading opportunities for magic beans, unicorns and glassware infused with the souls of enemies.

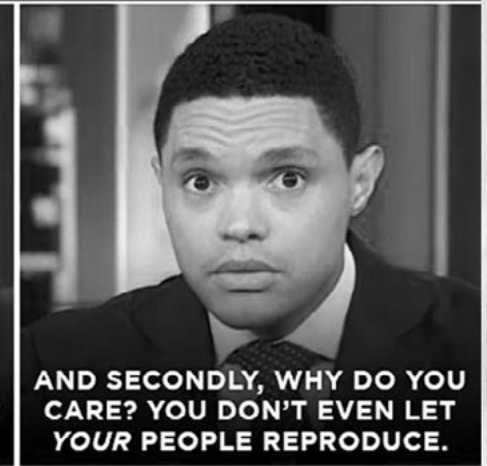

“I like Narnia, it’s a fine place. Lots of fauns,” continued the President.

“And fauns love me, they do. They love me over there. You know I met with Mr Tumnus and he said ‘gee Mr Trump, Aslan’s okay. But, if you were leader then it would really make Narnia great again’.

“That’s what I want to do, folks. Make Narnia great again.” Middle-Earth has yet to respond to Mr Trump’s plans because it is fictional and doesn’t exist. Narnia, on the other hand, told the President to ‘shit off’.
