News

New Zealand

Look what happens when your Prime Minister knows what she is doing! Hashing continues to return to normal with another round of delayed AGM's.

Geri's AGM was on Tuesday 23rd June – Incoming GM Knockers, RA Snapper

Christchurch AGPU was Saturday 27th June – New GM is Ding a ling.

Nelson AGPU was on 4th July with an American theme. Shaggus is the 2020 GM.

Egypt

Cairo H3 are up and running again. The pack are not meeting in town, which would attract attention, and those joining Run 2104 were instructed to gather at the entrance to Lower Wadi Degla.

Bangladesh

The Dhaka Mixed Hash Covid-19 runs took on a slightly different format with runners invited to gather outside the American Club if they wished to run in a small pack. About nine, including three virgins, took up the offer. Other hashers run solo later in the day. The following week was a country side run in which the pack set off four at a time.

Geli has become the first mixed hasher to reach 1100 runs.

Netherlands

The magazine received this report: Hash House Harriers North Sealand started on June 20, 1998. Founded by Niels-erik Nielsen, Louis Kjærgaard and Henning Meyer, as a subdivision of Hash House Harriers Singapore. They didn't realize that the Hash House Harriers were already in Denmark with the CopenhagenH3. The Hash House Harriers North Sealand logo is the same as Singapore, just mirrored, therefore our name is also mirrored. We are native to North Sealand with runs mostly in the forests around Helsingør. We run every Monday at 18:00. The route is usually a Danish mile.

Malaysia

The star newspaper carried an article on Gurdial Singh. 'An avid hiker for the last 30 years, Gurdial and his Hash House Harriers friends have created hundreds of trails up to the popular Penang Hill'.

These new trails were for the Hash and not for reg-

From The Penguin. I am saddened to announce the death of Jacques de Steur (Stir Stick) who first hashed with Jakarta Hash on Run No 135 on 15 October 1973 and during his time there he was a busy man holding the following positions:

1978/79	Master of Musique
1979	Joint Master
1979/80	Hash Master (YWHMH) (Your Worthy Hash Master Himself)
1980/81	Master of Musique
1987/88	Master of Musique
1988/89	Joint Master
1989/90	YWHMH
1990/91	Religious Adviser

Jakarta Hash was a Men Only Hash and in the late 70s/early 80s was probably one of the biggest hashes in the world with more than 100 hashers turning up weekly (weakly?). This of course was an attraction to the single girls of Jakarta who would turn up looking for an athletic boyfriend/husband but because they would not stop talking in the circle Stir Stick suggested in his most polite English accent (Stir Stick was Dutch) that the women should f-off and form their own Hash. "If you don't know how to do it then we'll show you." With that the Harriettes gathered a week later on a Wednesday afternoon in 1977 and Jacques with a few of his mates from the hash got the girls started and the Pussy Hash is still going to this day.

Jacques was a wonderful Master of Musique with a huge repertoire of Hash songs in his memory, second to none, all in his second language. Jakarta Hash was a great singing hash and Jacques, together with his Dutch friend Ad de Leeuw and Americans Len Funk and Peter Gardiner, could keep a circle in song for several hours until the beer ran out. One of the 'rules' of JH3 was that the circle should always last longer than the run.

Jacques also participated in the Jakarta Krankers, which started in 1992 comprising a small group of hashers who would spend a Sunday morning cycling in various locations in the plains and the mountains around Jakarta and latterly in other locations overseas mainly around Australia/Asia.

Jacques had a great sense of humour and would do anything to have a laugh in the circle. On his last run in Jakarta before returning to Holland he had a t-shirt made for the hashers on which was written "I have NOT done 651 runs with JH3 but my missus thinks that I have"
On On Stir Stick. RIP Jacques

Nic Tinworth was a good hasher and even more famous for his promoting of trail running in Hong Kong. Nic founded a trail race company, RaceBase, in 2015. "For Tinworth, the most important aspect of the sport was the community and his love of the comradeship in trail running was reflected in the races he organised."

Long time hashdog, Guinness died in his 17th year. He hashed with BH3 for over ten years and was well known for various antics; running past streams of hashers catching their legs with the biggest branch he could find, swimming any and every river or canal, and rolling in anything disgusting. Regular Bicester hashers will recall how he could always be relied on to show the pack the right way.

Dutch hasher Hans Flamingo Butt Plug van den Eijnden has passed away. The first run from Hans was run 1725 in March 2017 and he joined 20 runs with the PH3. 'Hans was a cheerful person always ready to help and with a very good heart for Thai people. Hans went back to Holland at the end of last year for surgery. Unfortunately the recovery did not go well. Hans was just retired and looking forward to go back to Thailand again but now for much longer time. But very sadly this was not possible anymore...'

Larry Stinky Pussy Footmother Fker Sienkiewicz went On On to hash with Gispert in Hash Heaven on May 2nd. He first hashed on New Year's Day in the late 80's in Jakarta while visiting a friend in the oil business there. He then helped start the Do It In the Swamp H3 in Lafayette, Louisiana, and hashed there until the hash dissolved. He hashed in New Orleans H3 and Houston H3 when he lived there. He enjoyed attending many Interhashes, beginning with Orlando Interhash 1994, World Interhash at the Motherhash in Kuala Lumpur in 1998, several other Americas Interhashes, Invihashionals, Eurohash, and World Interhashes along the way. His last Interhash was Portland Interhash 2015. He is survived by the love of his life, Aida 'Rain Bitch' Sulzbach, currently of Houston H3.

Wessex H3 have drawn my attention to the life and passing of Alan Stanley Reynolds, also known as God-father or Gates. Gates had over 2000 R*ns with the Wessex Hash and was a veteran of Inter Hashes and Marathons, including six London Marathons. He attended his first IH in Bali 1988. Gates was a gentleman with plenty of antidotes, humour and love of life in general. He was a bit of a 'Steptoe & Son' who was once found a five bar gate on a run and carried it back to the Après for four miles. Gates died peacefully at home with his family all around, and will be sorely missed in the hashing fraternity. Memories of an old friend who will be missed not only for his wisdom, antidotes and humour but for his love of life and hashing.

ular hikers, 'who could lose their way if they were not familiar with the paths'. He is often the first man called on in emergencies. "It's not difficult to find missing hikers if one knows the hill well. Over the years, my friends and I have helped to bring down around 12 people who lost their way." Gurdial has also written the book 'Nature Trails of Penang Island'.

Thailand

Hashing has returned to Pattaya. 'A brief, emergency committee meeting resulted in the unanimous decision to resume hashing, with our next run, #1882 on Monday 6th July. Social distancing and other restrictions will be in place, but this should not dilute your enjoyment of the occasion.'

World News

Hazukashii has just sent around his latest list of up coming (and postponed) hash events. There was some very interesting news from the USA! All hashers should get themselves on to his mailing list: gototheshash@gmail.com

DILDO DAN - the most arrested hasher in hash history - has been so impressed with the magazine that he decided to learn to write just to send in this report on the Paris 1000th. This goes into the record book (along with Inter-Gulf) as one of the last events to be staged before Covid-19 brought the world to a halt.

Paris H3's 1,000th run - March 5th to 9th.

"YOU CAN NOT BE SERIOUS!" shouted John McEnroe famously on the 22nd of June 1981, in his famous ill-tempered Wimbledon tantrum with the umpire. Later that same day, with Thatcher, Reagan & Mitterrand in power, a band of 9 men met in the Tabac de la Murette in Paris to plot and plan. Their worries were not the threat of an impending Cold War, but a simpler, more basic need. A lack of running and drinking - for these men were Donald Creed, Harry Leece, Godfrey Santer, McNiven, Loek Boonekamp, Richard Lamb, Brian Nason, James and Jose Gonzalez-Ruis and they were the founding fathers of the Paris Hash.

One week later on the 29th of June 1981 Paris Hash House Harriers ran Run No 1 from Park Ranelagh in the 16th Arr. 999 runs later and the 1,000th Weekend was here attended by over 160 hashers from Germany, UK, Canada, USA, Italy, Slovakia, Qatar, Japan, India, Netherlands, Uganda, Bangladesh, Sweden, Ireland, Greece and the Ivory Coast. The guest of honour was Don Creed, aka Don On On who was the only founder to make it to the 1,000th run. A true gentleman and it was a great honour to meet him.

The weekend began with Thursday Night Drinking Practice which was followed by Friday lunchtime beers to warm up for the Pub Crawl. The Pub Crawlers were split into different packs to tackle 3 bars around the Montmartre / Sacré Cœur area which also included a photo op. outside the Moulin Rouge and a sex-shop stop to buy your Eiffel Tower dildo. No the author, Dildo, did not buy one, but one was presented to the daily Hash Shit in the circle.

Front Cover

Dirty Squealer as the Runaway Bride, her intended, Stalker and the chief bridesmaid Runaway Jane.

The circle was a cold meet-and-greet affair in the dark before a large quantity of beer was consumed. At this early stage of the Pandemic, there was a social distance / no touching / no sharing drinking receptacles policy – which was then ignored for the rest of the weekend.

The 1,000th run on Saturday was a 13km run around the parks of Vincennes set by The Anarchist, Maybe Baby and Up My Arse, (runners) and Digger Dogger and OsammaBeen Hashing looking after the walkers. Notable sights on trail being a statue of Beethoven, the IndoChina garden and some people with pointy ears.

One notable story from the circle was EZLay getting up to go to the toilet in the middle of the night after the pub crawl. He had a choice of 2 doors and chose the right one, went through it only for the door to close behind him with a louder than normal « snick ». EZLay to turned around and found the door was locked ... and he was stood naked in the hotel corridor.

After 10 minutes banging quietly on the door for Jezebel to let him in, he decided to run naked down 6 flights of stairs to the hotel reception. Bursting through the door with 1 hand over his knackers the concierge was so surprised he dropped what he was carrying and shouted out « Sacre Bleu » at the top of his voice.

In the evening there was a Stripe-Tease themed party on a boat. Most people decided to adopt the Breton stripe shirt and beret, thankfully without the string of onions.

EZLay would have loved a bicycle for his costume though ... he had to run 5km back from the hotel to the boat at 3am as Jezebel have left her handbag there.

There is a reason why nobody holds Red Dress Runs in March in Northern Europe. It is bloody freezing. Paris did not disappoint. A cold and wet day Sunday indeed, so most hashers had to cover up except for the quick flash at the photo opportunities.

An A to B run taking us through Jardin des Plantes (imaginative name) to the Amphitheatre for some Roman sword play, a song stop at the Pantheon, into the Jardin de Luxembourg for a pee and drink stop, before dodging the traditional French past-time of strikers being tear gassed, The Louvre and a second drink stop where the Special Boat Police came ashore to investigate.

The run finished by the Eiffel Tower in time for the heavens to open and drench the picnic. A nearby bandstand provided the setting for the circle and picnic, much to the delight of the vagrants who were sleeping there who managed to get a meal on the hash.

A great weekend and hats off to the Organising Committee with a special mention to The Anarchist and Slack.

Hashers A to Z

Letter B

Blow Hard

Asaf Boke

Ankara H3

Asif and wife Twinkle Toes have been central members of Ankara H3 for many years. Both have enjoyed distinguished non-hash careers, Blow Hard as an architect and artist. He is best known as hashhorn and leader of Father Abraham.

Bob Funny Name for A Girl

Bob Spencer

Baku H3

Most recently running with Baku (Azerbaijan) having previously hashed in Port Harcourt and Kuwait. He was hash cash in Kuwait and set up the KSHHH mail list. This was also where he was given his name.

Boner

Ron Haywood

Melbourne H3

Has been running on the Melbourne Hash scene since 1981, with Western Suburbs H3 his home Hash. He was GM in 1993 and has been on the committee 'on and off' for much of the last ten years. He is also a familiar face on the Lakeside H3 and Melbourne Ladies H3, reaching a lifetime total of 987 runs by April 2005.

Bonkers

Colin Cracknell

Blowhard - Ankara H3

Boob a Lube

Trained as an engineer and then went to work for the European Union. His postings included Sudan, Zimbabwe and Tanzania. In Zimbabwe he was instrumental in establishing the Zim-Zam Hash and he finished his working (and possibly hashing career) as RA of Dar es Salaam. In Dar his EU mansion was venue to many a wild hash party. Wife Delia has supported him through his working and hash career. His brother Pete the Pilot was corrupted into hash ways while visiting in Khartoum and is now a distinguished hasher in his own right.

Boob a Lube

KC Marshment

Asian Hash Veteran

Now settled into the Thailand hash scene after a hash career that started in 1988 and included Korea, Hawaii, Thailand, Singapore and the Philippines. Was GM of the Yongsan Kimchi H3 in Seoul, Korea. Aloha H3 in Honolulu, Hawaii and founder and ex GM of the Makati Metro Manila H3 in Manila, Philippines.

Boof

Craig Robertson

Hamersley H3

Has recorded 1,800 plus runs with Hamersley H3. Was GM 2009/10.

Boomer

Gavin Graham

Hobart H3

Passed 1000 runs with Hobart in 1999

Boots

Victor Bursa

Casuarina H3

Has a 1000 runs plus with the Casuarina H3.

Boskett, Dave

Bangkok H3

Was on Bangkok H3 first run and continued to turn out with them for several years. He set the 6th run and was On Sec and Joint Master. Was also on the committee of the British Club, who gave him a farewell dinner in February 1981.

Boy Blunder

Bahrain

Started hashing in Bahrain around 1986, where his parents 'Long March' and 'Short March' were hashers. He was originally named 'Mummy's Boy.' He was one of the few Bahrain hashers to run with both groups during the period of animosity following the founding of the Black Hash. Rediscovered hashing in London, where he became GM of West London H3 and was on the Eurohash committee.

Boweltrowl

Richard Holmes

Creek H3

A veteran of the Dubai hash scene primarily with the men's only Creek Hash for whom he has clocked up a record 1400 runs. Hashing less these days but turns up for the occasional run and the big occasions.

Brewer, The

Charlie Tucker

Edinburgh H3

A Scottish hash legend, having clocked up over 2000 runs with Edinburgh H3 and TNT H3. Has also laid more runs than any other Edinburgh Hasher. Created and manages the Edinburgh website. His hash name was given when he brewed 30 gallons of 6 different beers (as well as Slowe Gin for the Harriets) for a hash New Year party.

Brig, The

Ray Thornton

Bichester/Dhekelia

Ray Thornton was a high-ranking military officer and one of the great founders of modern hashing. He was introduced to hashing in Singapore in 1962 and over the next few years his military career took him to many of the world's trouble spots. In Borneo he co-founded Kuching H3 and then moved to Cyprus, helping to found Dhekelia H3 as the first Hash in Europe. Back in England he founded the Commando Forces H3, believing this to be the first Hash on British soil, although in fact Mountain Rescue had just beaten him to it. Although the Commando Hash faded out, 'The Brig' went on to found Bichester H3, now one of the strongest of the UK Hashes.

Brigadier, The

John Breen

Hong Kong

A former HKH4 GM. The hash year book described him as "A warm, kind, gentle soul to his friends (both), if also a loud-mouthed Irish xxxx to the rest of humanity. Banned from Ireland (which says it all, really)."

Brinsden, Jim

Bangkok H3

Set the first Bangkok hash way back in 1974.

Bristow, Alan and Joan

Jordan/Kuwait H3

Hash veterans of the Middle East. Contributed to the early days of hashing in Jordan and then moved to Kuwait where Alan was an early GM.

Bromfiets, Lord

Peter Rijnvis

The Hague H3

Recorded a record 1270 runs with The Hague where he was the GM from 2006-2009.

Bromley, Peter

Mother Hash

On Sec 1972 and Joint Master the following year

Brechin, Graeme

Hong Kong

Hong Kong H4 GM 2007/08. Described in their hash magazine as 'Our own Dear Leader who with his bouffant perm, boyish botox-enhanced looks, tailored running suits and elevated plimsolls is justly held as a living god throughout North Korea.'

Browneye

Ian Brown

Casuarina H3

Has 1000 runs plus with Casuarina H3.

Browneye

David Ives

Indonesian hashes

After a military career that saw him reach the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, Browneye went into development work. He became a senior member of the Asian Hashing community, running with distinction in Borneo, Colombo, Jakarta and Dili, East Timor and serving as a member of the Goa InterHash committee. David will always be linked with Indonesia, where he run with every kennel and was co-founder of TGIF H3. While in Indonesia his son, Duncan, was involved in a serious car accident. 'It was largely due to his fathers energy and love that Duncan made as much of a recovery as he did.' Father and son retired to Geraldine, on the South Island of New Zealand.

Browneye had a love for beer, whisky, cigars and sport and was always willing to give his time to talk or to help new hares set trails.

David Ives died in January 2007. On On Browneye

Brownsugar

Rhona Imre

Ankara H3

A long serving member of the Ankara H3. In 2009 she became the first Ankara hasher to be voted GM for the second time. She now saves most of her energy for the circle and late night partying.

Brutus

Jim Ingram

Perth H3

Joined Perth on their 181st run and achieved 21 years of hashing with them in 1994.

Bubbles

Andreas Christiansen

Bergen and Drifters H3

A maths teacher in real life. Runs with Bergen and is a regular traveller around the European hash scene. Was rushed to hospital on the Hole in the Ice Run in 2004 (a Norwegian who didn't realise snow was slippery) and then managed to break further bones falling at EuroHash 2007.

Richard Polly Hadfield sent in these up dates from last month's profiles:

'Bloopers' brother used to hash with Dublin HHH, named BD (short for Bloody Dogs - his favourite expression whenever somebody decided to bring an unleashed dog on the run!!).

'Blitzkreig, Wilmar, and I used to run together in Kuala Belait HHH in Brunei. He and I used to take part in amateur dramatics as well as hashing and I can testify that he's a talented musician. '

The original sources

The oldest existing Hash trash

One Hash Trash has survived from the 117 pre-war hashes, that for the 100th run. This was reprinted in a Bangkok Yearbook, both as a difficult to read copy of the original and a transcript.

Unfortunately the trash did not give a report on the previous week's run, which might have provided considerable information. It could, for example, have thrown up names of previously unrecorded pre-war hashers.

It did confirm the names of three already well documented hashers, Ross and Hay, who are noted as being the joint-masters, and Bennett who joined Hay as hare for the big occasion.

Of the limited information provided by the documents, the most important is the date of Friday, 15th August 1941.

This gives an excellent starting point for tracing back the history of hashing. If we count back 100 weeks we get to the first hash taking place on either or Friday 15th September 1939 or Monday 11th.

However, there is a general agreement that the hash started almost a year earlier than that, most likely around September 1938. This is an issue we will look at in a future issue.

What can we learn from the 100th hash sheet?

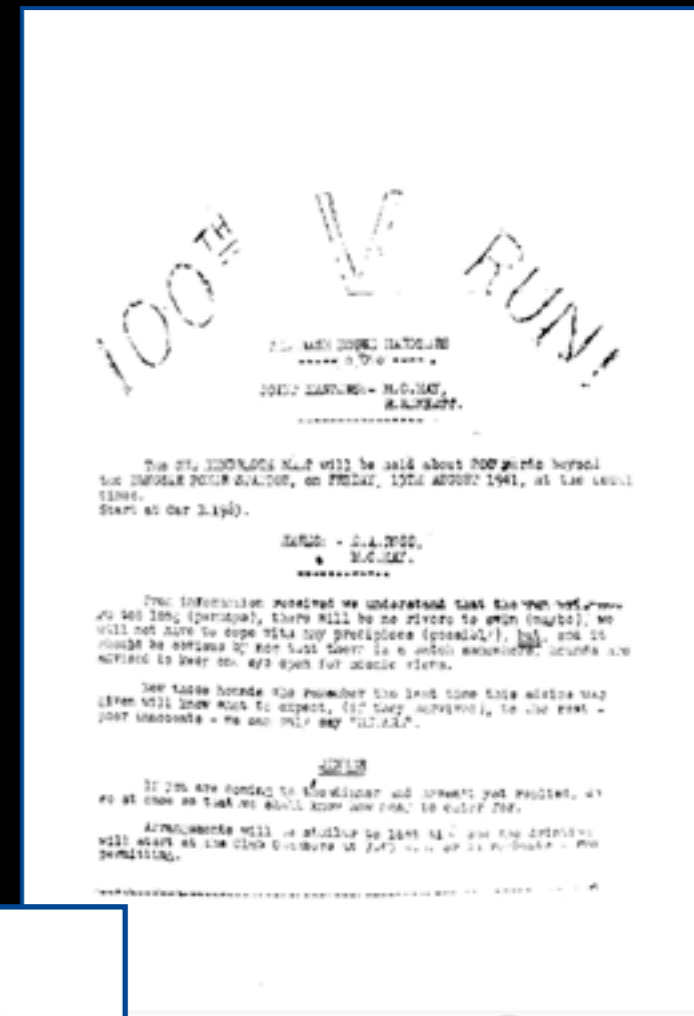

- The 100th Run took place on 15th August 1941, which was a Friday. This is clear evidence that, at least at this stage, the hash was meeting on a Friday rather than a Monday. (Something we discussed in the last issue).
- Dinner on this occasion was back at The Chambers (as to be expected). It was interesting that reservations were expected. We are left wondering if that was a regular requirement – suggesting a reasonable size pack – or just for the 100th.
- The sarcastic reference to what the run would not be:
 - too long
 - involve a river swim
 - take the pack along tracks with dangerous drops

Is a very good indication of exactly what a typical pre-war hash run would have consist of!

1000 plus runners update

Alan Holden I stopped counting when I left Kuwait in 2001 with over 750 runs. Got to be at least 1500 by now.

1000 plus runners update

I am ANAL. I keep a record of my hash runs. 31 countries and 1,550 hash runs to 18th March which is when we had the last hash in Qatar!!

Jim Darbyshire Haven't got an "official" count, but a quick very conservative estimate with several different Hashes plus various guesting, Interhashes and special runs/weekends puts me above 1200 from my very first, and only, Baghdad run back in 1982 - Dingbat, Duncan, was probably on that one too!!! Pirelli - As of today, from my approximate records which I have kept up worldwide, my combined totals stand at 1910 runs worldwide made up of Glasgow 1003, Worldwide 907, mainly Hong Kong, Singapore, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Bahrain and Brunei.

Hash Legend

Jim Raper

The founder of one of England's oldest surviving hashes.

Possibly the only GM to be featured on Police Five.

Probably the only hasher to sneak into England while there was an arrest warrant for him - attend his mother's funeral, stay on to hash and then flee the country again!

The one and only - Jim Raper!

In 1953, a 26-year-old Jim Raper 'turned his back on England's dark satanic mills' and relocated to Singapore. Using contacts from school, and a natural gift for wheeling and dealing, he made his name in local business circles. He also acquired a taste for Anchor beer and beautiful Chinese girls.

He regularly featured in Singapore papers, particularly as a controversial director of 'Salvage Engineers Ltd'.

In 1962, Ian Cumming, ex-Mother Hasher, established Singapore H3. Jim was quick to join and became an enthusiastic hasher.

Around late 1974, Jim returned to England. He purchased a historic manor house and there was also a flat in a posh area of London and a yacht on the Mediterranean.

He missed hashing, so founded Surrey H3. Jim placed an ad in the personal columns of The Times and set the first trail. Four turned up, but there were also a dozen visitors from Westcombe H3. Jim was made On Sec, Scribe and Joint Master.

A Singapore clone proved impossible and Monday nights had to give way to weekend runs and the girls would not be kept away. Surrey H3 prospered and during these early days Jim was the driving force behind the kennel, paying most of the expenses out of his own pocket or, quoting from the Surrey Hash Trash, 'possibly somebody else's'.

Hash parties at his house were legendary, 'we were surrounded by a barbecue, heated swimming pool with an island, sqwaking parrots in cages, rare orchids growing in flower beds around the pool.'

Some dubious business deals caught up with Jim and members of Surrey H3 claim they tuned into Police Five one evening to see their GM featured.

Then came the famous court case where 'Mr. Jim Raper, whose whereabouts are a mystery, was yesterday given the maximum sentence of two years jail for contempt of court'. One newspaper headline read: 'Raper prefers a Healthier Run'. This, however, referred not to hashing, but to Jim having signed up for that year's London Marathon. He was 60 years of age at this point.

Jim is believed to have lived in Monte Carlo for the next three years but by 1988 had 'disappeared'. Surrey hashers claim he returned to England (over the Irish border) to attend his mother's funeral and stayed on to run a hash the next day.

There was a short spell in Bangkok, where one hash trash notes that Jim went straight from jail to the hash in the Hotel Oriental limousine

By 1992 Jim, now 65, found a safe refuge - and a new hash - in the Philippines.

He cleverly avoided detention by taking a new hash name, The Jolly (w)rapper

There are numerous stories from the Philippines where Jim was extremely popular on the hash. Once Jim - now 70 plus - both set the trail and insisted on also running it. He became terribly dehydrated and tumbled over. 'Fellow hounds eventually prohibited him from carrying on on on, bundled him into a tricycle and ordered him on home'.

The Hash Story

How Africa's Interhash Got started - by Garfield

I and Michael Mother Michael Fotheringham founded the Africa Interhash back in 1998. I had just returned from the Cyprus Interhash. I was having a beer with Michael and lamented that Africa was the only continent that didn't have a regional Hash event. After a few more pints and a bit of conversation he said we could do it and that he had access to buses and printing equipment through his job at the Ethiopian Electoral Commission. We presented the idea to the Addis H3, got their concurrence and we were off.

It was a three day event as I recall with 128 attendees. We started on Friday afternoon with a trip out to the Badele Brewery outside of town. Most of the attendees following Mike's and my lead passed on the brewery tour and went straight to the beer hall. Our first run was on Saturday up on Entoto, the 10,200-foot mountain range that overlooks Addis. Stunning views from the 800-foot cliff face that we traversed on a very narrow goat path. Luckily no one fell but it was a sight with the whole pack hugging the cliff face and only a few brave souls taking in the beautiful scenery. The only injury was me. While pulling a keg from the Land Rover for the bear stop, I tripped and impaled my leg on a log. A quick trip to the U.S. Embassy doctor for a quick patch up and I was back for the On On no worse for wear. A dinner dance at a local hall filled Saturday evening with a few skits and to have been a special run, as Jim would be the first nonagenarianism, to run a Manila trail.

The famous Surrey mansion

However the Jolly (w)rapper died on 1st April 2017. A dodgy business man, a great hasher and quite a character. On On Jim!

the consumption of lot of Badele Brewery's finest.

Sunday's recovery run was at the International Livestock Research Station, again outside Addis. They were kind enough to provide up with the station's club house which was located on a bluff overlooking a beautiful crater lake. Just prior to the run, the Hash Masters present met and David Muchane, the GM of the Nairobi H3, volunteered to host the next run in a year's time. At that time, the Africa Interhash was held each year and only changed to ever other year after the fourth Interhash hosted by Cape Town.

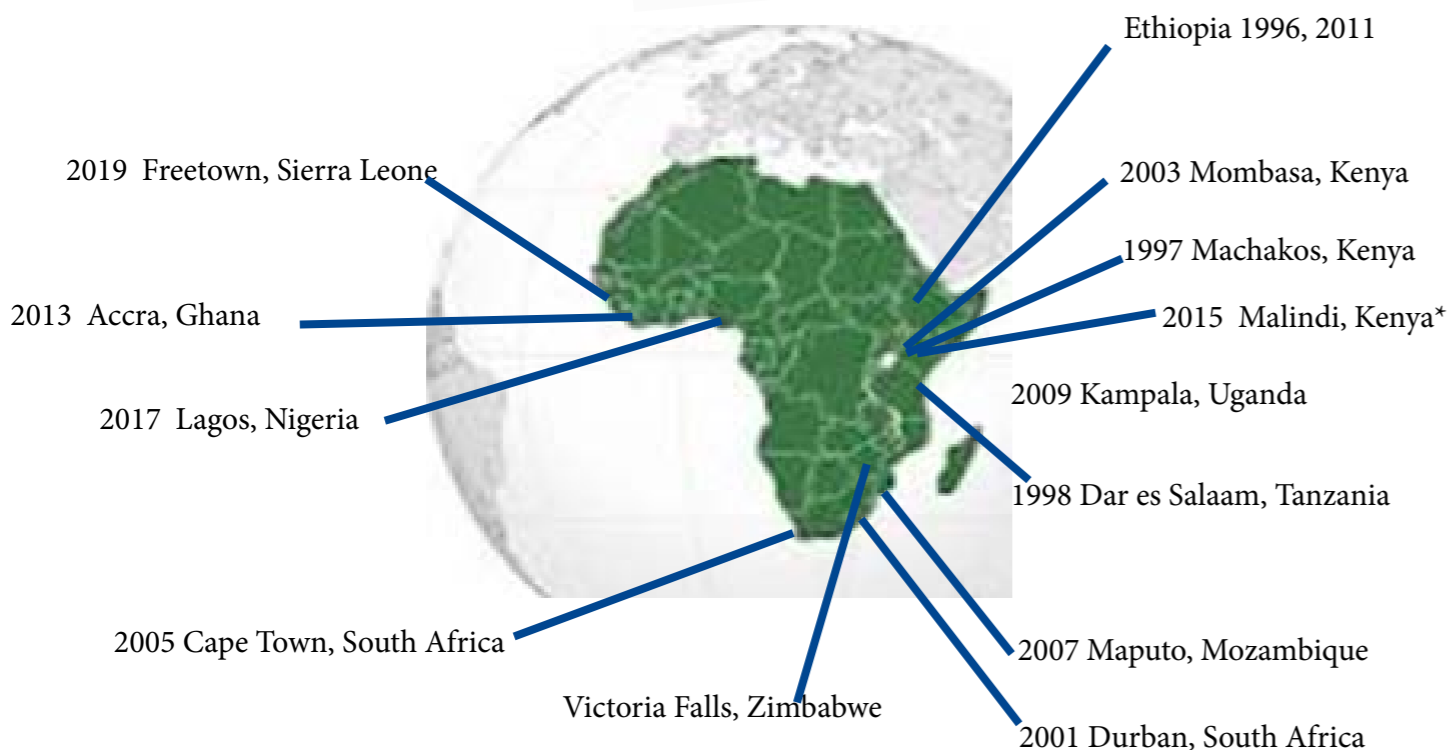

All went well with the trail climbing out of the crater and across the dry pan above. All I can recall was it was hotter than hell with temperatures running close to 100F. When the pack returned, all that they could see was a beautiful lake with inviting cool water. So, it was off with the kit and into the lake. The On On was held at the club house with Down Downs provided by an enterprising Hasher. She had learned of a wedding that had been cancelled for some reason, stopped off on her way to the event and procured the wedding party's full supply of tege. That is a fermented honey beverage, much like mead and potent as hell. Soon no one was thinking about the run through hell with their bellies full of liquid pain killer and a killer hangover yet to come.

With the weekend over and the next Interhash set we bid ado to our drunk fellow Hashers and went home to sleep off the tege.

About a week or two later, Michael was contacted by one of the participants who had contacted bilharzia. A quick call to the research station director revealed that the lake many had skinny dipped in was full of the little worms that carried the disease. We had to contact all of the attendees, inform them of the problem and recommended that they seek medical attention if they came down with symptoms. A sad ending to what was a great Hash weekend.

Country Profiles

How hashing came to Vietnam

Back in the early days of the 1980's foreigners in Vietnam faced considerable restrictions. Magic believed that a Hanoi Hash might have been active around 1983, but the kennel upset the authorities and was banned 'for being a traffic danger'.

The first Vietnam hash that we know of with any certainty is Bai Bang H3, which was started in 1984 by a small group of Swedes working at a paper mill in the countryside.

To understand this story we need to look at the special relationship between Sweden and Vietnam. Sweden offered the country so much support during the Vietnam War that, even today, Swedish citizens can breeze through immigration without a visa. Not surprisingly Sweden was one of the first investors in the country and the workers at the paper mill were well looked after. For the small handful of foreigners based in Hanoi, an invitation to Bai Bang gave the opportunity to escape power cuts and empty shops, and enjoy a weekend of imported beers, good food, sauna and hashing.

In January 1987, Bloody Ha Noi, a Swede based in Hanoi, offered to set a run in the city. Knowing the event would probably attract police attention he laid the trail late in the afternoon, with long stretches set live. Even so, 'the next day I had a visit from two very polite policeman. They filled in some forms and that was it.' However, the city was clearly not ready for a hash yet.

When two members of the vibrant Beijing kennel, Grevil Grovel Sharp and Jacqueline Goldilocks Gouclh, moved on to Vietnam they joined a couple of friends for drinks, a session that ended with the founding of Ho Chi Minh H3. The first trail was set in August, 1990, from the BP Staff House. It is uncertain exactly how many turned up, but they consumed 15 crates of beer and the party lasted until three in the morning.

In those days, life was far from easy. A hasheet of 1992 suggested that 'we always seem to see unexploded ordinance around the area. While it is hashing etiquette to call out 'hole' or 'barbed wire'... we should also frequently call out 'bomb' so hashers won't step on one while running by.'

In addition, the authorities were not used to foreigners running around the countryside and there were numerous 'arrests'. The first recorded incident was in August 1992, when the pack was 'held for over an hour until the Captain got through to someone important on a Hasher's mobile phone.'

The following year a drunken farmer 'possibly a secret policeman' fired three shots and 'arrested' the pack. It ended 'after an exchange of cigarettes and pocket change and signing a statement saying the incident never happened'.

Such incidents were more likely to involve the hares rather than the pack, and were generally easily solved with the payment of a small bribe/gift/fine. The following quote describes the atmosphere perfectly:

New Year's Eve Hash 2000: 2 hares arrested (and face) 6 hours of brutal interrogation:

"We are officers of the Vietnamese Army, we will not beat you but you must answer our questions:

What is your favourite colour? Do you like to cook? Would you like us to cook for you? Do you find that the harmony of a marriage is enhanced when the wife contributes to family earnings by working outside of the home?"

As was inevitable, the emotionally exhausted and broken hares finally agreed to visit the base commander's home near Hanoi for the next village festival and to go cafe-hopping with some of the officers next time they made a field-trip to HCMC. After Tickler corrected the (hand)-written report of our arrest - and the official photographer was finally located so that we could have a group photo - the terrifying ordeal drew to a close."

The following year, Terry Testicles Taikleas (ex Capital H3) got a hash started in the far more conservative city of Hanoi. In those days, hashers could still enjoy running through streets that were almost free of cars. Such quaint times have passed, but Hanoi remains stuck in a bit of a time warp. Hanoi H3 now offers family runs within an hour of the city. A hash bus leaves from a central meeting point to the run site and the pack usually numbers between 50 and 80. By the 1000th Hanoi Run in 2010 the leading hashers were Rat Walker, a Swede with 550 runs, and his dog Rat.

As Vietnam opened up to the world, there was less hassle from the authorities and the last record of an 'arrest' dates to around 2000. There was also less pressure to bow to political correctness, with the Ho Chi Minh kennel increasingly being referred to as Ho Chi Minh-Saigon H3. Somewhere along the line the Ho Chi Minh bit was dropped, and today T-shirts proudly describe the group as Saigon H3.
