

On On

The History Magazine of the Hash House Harriers

Issue 3

March 2020

Published at the end of the month

With a bit of a Thailand theme!

News

Interhash postponed until 2021 much more about this next month

Bangladesh

The opening of a new road bridge has allowed the hash easier access to countryside runs on the other side the Turag River. Webfart and Warm & Fluffy showed the potential with a brilliant countryside run to celebrate the 10th anniversary of their wedding hash. However, the dreaded Dhaka traffic has not gone away and many hashers found the return trip an ordeal. Later that week the men's hash threw their Monday night run open to the ladies for the Gispert Memorial Run. They were rewarded with a turn out of 50 hashers including VIP visitor Hazukashii who is undertaking a hash world tour.

Lebanon

GBH - Greater Beirut Hash - continue to run with packs of 15-20. There are a few foreigners, but the majority are now locals. The GM suggested that one reason they are not increasing numbers is competition from numerous hiking groups. The Snow Hash still takes place annually, with a ski in the morning and a run in the afternoon.

Warm and Fluffy with husband Webfart.

Bangladesh

A second mention this week for Warm and Fluffy – a central figure on the Dhaka Mixed Hash (and a former GM) – who won the Dhaka Half Marathon for the second consecutive year with a time of around 1.45. Just behind her was Chicken Legs, a remarkable run for a man in the veteran (over 65) stage of his running career! About ten hashers joined the 1000 runners for a three lap race around one of the city's numerous lakes. Hash respect to you all.

Rwanda

Met a couple of hashers from Kigali who informed me the hash is doing well as the country itself booms. They run every Saturday, with a smaller group meeting for a jog on Sunday. Packs average between 20 and 40, with a large percentage of locals. Hash fees are kept low – around three dollars for the run and 3 drink coupons. Runs can be in town or the surrounding countryside.

UAE

The Desert H3 AGM and Handover Run saw the committee remain largely unchanged. To general relief Compressed Fart will continue as GM, 'its my 9th or 10th year, I can't remember.' CF has won universal respect for his performance in this role. The 'Most Runs Award' passed from Breaking Wind – the lazy barstard actually took a couple of weeks leave this year – to one of the local runners, Little Mo. Little Mo is a magnificent hasher who we will feature in a future issue. March 9th

Egypt

Cairo H3 will be heading into the desert for their Re-hydration run. Think short jogs between numerous themed drink stops. The event was started when the Nile was declared so polluted they had to abandon the annual Raft Race. I believe they are now on the 39th edition. The idea has been copied by the UAE hashes .

CF - continuing as GM of Desert H3

China

Kunming H3 and Chengong H3 hoped to go ahead with the planed Hash over the Tombsweeping Festival (Qingming) 'The program is aimed at showing off our city — Kunming after all offers excellent scenery, clean air and great food'. However, as many people will no longer get a three day weekend they are thinking of a reduced 2-day event.

Poland

Warsaw H3 are doing well at the moment and have recently staged their Szczyrk Ski Hash. According to their Facebook page this was a, 'Fantastic weekend! Although the weather wasn't the best for skiing we got in a couple of good days, had 2 'runs' and 3 circles. Plenty of beer was drunk, much food consumed and many songs sung!'

Spain

Indalo H3 marked International Women's Day with a 7 km run in and around the village of Sopalmo. (This is the southern coast of Spain). The theme, 'wear pink or dress to impress', was enthusiastically adopted by the pack. "I ran in a dress that usually sees the inside of a nightclub rather than a running trail", Helen Llewellyn told the local Euro Weekly News. They look a fun group.

HASH FOLLOW-UP

More about those FRB's

As a teenager Maya Yamouchi (formally Maya Myers) regularly joined her father on Bicester H3 hashes. She built on this elite training (!) to finish 6th in the 2008 Olympic Marathon and 2nd in the London Marathon in 2009. Her best time of 2:23:12 is the second fastest ever by a British woman. Thanks to Iain Belton

I mentioned in my article on FRB's that I thought Ron Hill (Commonwealth and European marathon champion) had hashed and Matthew Kleinosky was able to confirm this.

Ron visited Cairo around 1992 as a sponsored runner in the Cairo Marathon, although on this occasion he probably ran in the 10K event. Several members of the Cairo Hash had ran that morning and they invited Ron to the afternoon's hash.

Ron had actually hashed before, to quote from Matthew's email: 'Ron said he had hashed several times over the years on his trips after retiring from national competition'. The hash car was full, so Ron had to crawl into the back of the hatchback. The Olympic veteran accepted two down-downs. Simon Batty also wrote in: 'I remember that Cairo run well. When the name Ron Hill was read out as a visitor I sarcastically shouted "Ron Hill, we've got Ron Hill with us today"'. Little did I realise that it was actually the man!

Hashsats Thailand

Each month we will acknowledge hashers who have recorded the most runs with some of the great hash kennels. Next week we will focus on the UAE.

Bangkok H3

Tiradej Pork Finder	1569
Bob Bullitt	1524
Tony Ambrose	1345
Vichal Senator	1319
Wolfgang von Nivea	1254
Cenghiz Disgusting	1073
Brian H.	1006
Rod Bug	1024
Todd Spinning Dwarf	980
Suphon Suffle	953
Colin Hema Snow	917
Richard Stumbles	902

Source: 2018-2019 Year Book. Correct at June 2019 but only includes hashers still active.

Bangkok Monday

Todd Spinning Dwarf	1101
Frank Noriega	1076
Tim Crash	877
Peter Maverick	809
Andre No No	707
Bob Bullitt	672
Bussanee Id Eat Me	615
John Tinker	611
Ian Ajam Kee Mao	609

From website. Correct up until November 2019. Only includes those who have hashed in the last 12 months

Pattaya Dirt Road

Lewis Papa Whiskey	349
Tom Airhead	329

Bangkok Harriets

Malinee Nibbles	1009
Tim Crash	983
Thitiya Short Shorts	742
Frank Noriega	838
Kim Normal	635
John Tinker	627
Lynda No Meat	572
Neil Weed Eater	556

Source: website. Only includes those who have ran a hash in the 12 months before the April 2019 AGM

Koh Samu H3

Graeme Cockscrew	540
Carmen I'm Cummin	511
Sandra Tubbie Twinkie	471
Rod Strollin Bones	438
Wally Wallace	440
Adele Gromit	437

Source: website. Up to date but only includes active runners

Phuket H3

No Cup	1503
King Klong	1395 (4th GM)
Tiger	1275
Gorgeous	1200 (2nd GM)
Woodpecker	1196
Flying Dickhead	1146 (5th GM)
J.C.	1086
Root	1058
Paper	1012
Gerbil	1012

Pattaya H3

Tom Emperor Airhead	1517
John Lord Chicken F##ker	1171
Jim Sir Spaghetti Head	966
Eric Vietnamese Violator	952
John King Yao Yao	881
Jimmy Sir Really Sadistic Bastard	858
Billy General Kidney Wiper	854
Somreudee Mrs Gead	827
Tor Sir Arse-A-holic	821
Ray Sir Free Willy	802

Source: Pattaya website. Accurate to January 2020

Hash legend Ambrose

Chiang Mai combined hashes

	1	2	3	Total
Superman	1337	20	733	2090
Super Bitch	1191	4	23	1218
Chuck Wao	485	316	365	1166
Square Rooter	541	225	374	1140
Mr Poo	389	327	347	1063
Miss Piggy	1000	0	6	1006

Source: website. All-time totals

Chiang Mai H3 (3)

Superman	733
Liberace	423
Square Rooter	376
Chuck Wao	365
Frozen Dick	347
Mr Poo	347

Source: website. All-time totals

Chiang Mai H4 (2)

His Royal Anus	350
Mr Poo	327
Chuck Wao	317
Bvte Mv Yahoo	293

Source: website. All-time totals

Chiang Mai H3 (1)

Superman	1342
Super bitch	1195
Miss Piggy	1000
Just Cuming	904
Geisha Gash	778
Pamela	764
Head Hacker	659
Wooly Jumper	631
Square Rooter	631

Source: website. All-time totals

Hash legend Noriega

Hash Publications

The Amazing Scrubber
the only hasher to be captured and imprisoned by the Viet-Ming while on holiday!!

Muscat 500th Run Programme, 19

I took a look at the Oman 500th run program and came across a list of their early GM's. My attention as drawn to their first GM, Peter Scrubber Stewart-Richardson who had been

'captured and imprisoned by the Viet-Ming while on holiday'

I presumed that this was a joke – but no. What a remarkable man the first Muscat GM was!

- He was born in London in 1926 but brought up in a castle in Scotland, where he developed a love for the outdoors, and field sports.
- Went to Eton, where he was described as 'very much tougher than he looks, and I am sure it would delight you to see how hard he goes in [at] football ... however much he got squashed he always bounced up smiling'.
- He enlisted in the army during the war but did not reach Germany until 1 May 1945, too late for active service. After that he was posted to Palestine and Greece which were both trouble spots at the time.

He stayed in the army and trained in jungle warfare, being sent to Malaya where he patrolled the Cameron Highlands.

- By now he had picked up his nickname Scrubber. Some say this was because of his luxuriant moustache. (Editor: I am not sure I see the link!) Another version was that he had the habit of shouting "Scrub that one!" when supervising soldiers on the shooting range. In other words, "Do better next time!"
- In 1950 Scrubber was in Vietnam which was still a French colony. Some accounts say he was on an unofficial holiday, but it is more likely he was on an official exchange with the French army. He was not actually captured by the Viet Minh, but a convoy he was travelling with was ambushed and he assisted his hosts in attacking a machine-gun post. The most likely interpretation is that he was in Vietnam in an official capacity, but did not have permission to being travel with the convoy.

- Scrubber was presented with a Croix de Guerre des théâtres d'opérations extérieures, which British army regulations prohibited him from wearing.
- By 1954 he was in Cyprus, which he described as 'dull as ditch-water'. He married Tricia Evans-Lombe, and they had four children. From there it was Libya, Germany, Aden and London by which time he was promoted to Colonel.
- In 1976 the insurgency in Oman saw him take command of the Northern Oman Brigade of the Sultan's Armed Forces (SAF).
- It was in Oman that was elected the first GM of the newly formed Muscat H3, seeing them through their first 150 runs. According to the Yearbook he was 'a peerless leader whose only mistake was to hand things over to Johnnie Johnson.'

- In September 1978 Scrubber returned to England and he left the army 1981. He then had a distinguished second career in charity work, including building schools across Afghanistan.
- Scrubber died in 2012.

Scrubber the Hasher

Unfortunately although a considerable amount has been recorded about Scrubber's military career there is less about his hashing. His appointment as GM in Oman and the line in the programme that he was 'our founding father so to speak' suggests he had some previous hash experience. However, the dates of his postings do not make it clear where this could have occurred.

It is possible he ran with Mother Hash while working in the Cameroun Highlands.

The next opportunity might have been in Germany or with one of the British hashes while based in London? Can anybody help? On on Shakes

Hash Song

Warm Safari is the theme song of the Dar es Salaam Hamna Hash House Harriers. It was adapted by ex-GM Mr. Bean. A similar version might be used in Uganda?

*When I came to Dar from the UK
Scotch and water was my drink
Then I changed to scotch and soda
God almighty, what a drink
(Chorus)*

*Warm Safari, Warm Safari
I can never get enough
(get enough)*

*I can never get enough
Went into a bar in Upanga
Told the barman milk would do
He replied more in sorrow than in anger
Drink the drink that is good for you
(Chorus)*

*S A F and A R I
Safari's the drink for you
On your feet you shallow rotten bastards
Drink to the drink that is good for you
(Chorus)*

*Oogie Oogie Oogie
Oy Oy Oy
Oogie
Oy
Oogie
Oy
Oogie Oogie Oogie
Oy Oy Oy*

April Issue

COVID-19 update

Aussie Nash Hash

A to Z of hashes continues

A paperchase in China - 1929

Country profile - USA

Hashers A to Z

Letter A

A1 & A2

Ray & Jenny Miller

Rotorura H3

Key members of the 1994 Interhash Committee taking charge of transport, food and drinks .

Accidental Tourist

Michael Chevalier

Los Angeles and Long Beach H3.

Born in Los Angeles, Accidental Tourist worked in cinematography and was involved in movie classics such as the "Rocky" movies, "Superman," and "Heartbreak Ridge." A world traveller and a restorer of classic cars, Mike ran in numerous Hash events throughout Southern California and the world. He died on trail in June 2006. On On Accidental Tourist

Abominator

Finn Haldorsen

Bergen H3.

Was introduced to Hashing in Indonesia by his father-in-law (the legendary Balloon Balls) and went on to found both Newcastle and Bergen Hashes. For several years he topped the Bergen all-time run list, being the first to 333 and 666 runs before being overtaken by Foggy Glasses who now leads him 1205 to 1314.

Ace

Howard Smythe

Port Moresby H3/Perth H3.

Veteran hasher who joined Port Moresby H3 around the end of 1980. He later joined Perth H3 and was their Joint Master in 1988. Cardiff was his 8th Interhash and he has been a regular at Pan-Asian since 1987. The PNG yearbook actually lists him as Ace-Ankles.

Acko

Craig Atkins

Hamersley H3

Achieved 1000 plus runs with Hamersley H3, where he served as GM in 1991.

Adams, William

Mother Hash

*Hash legends AhPisto (above)
Abominator (left)*

Was On-sec of Mother Hash in 1953 and Joint Master in 1955. When not hashing he was noted for his long jungle hikes. Bill was killed on active service in Sabah. On On Bill

African Mule

Jimmy Leggett

Petaling H3

Started Hashing in Indonesia with Soroako H3 'many decades ago' and has been around the Asian Hash scene ever since. Was GM of Petaling H3 in 2004.

Again

Estienne Amdt

Jo'burg H3

Was co-founder and long serving GM of Jo'burg H3.

AhPisto

Ian Browning

Creek H3

An Australian and long term veteran of the Dubai hash scene. At the time of writing he had 1179 runs with the Creek (placing him second in the all-time chart) and 830 with the Desert. Has avoided being GM of either hash due to work commitments but has been the Creek Hash Cash for many years. Makes a habit of wearing a Creek t-shirt in Desert circles.

AIDS

Adrian White

Perth H3

Has been running with Perth H3 since 1978 and was Joint Master in 1997, On-Sec in 2000 and finally GM in 2002. Completed 21 Years Hashing with Perth H3 in 1997. His hobbies include vintage motorcycles. The name comes from his work as a funeral director.

Airhead

Tom Drago

Pattaya H3 /Dirt Road H3

In 1976 Airhead had his first and last “real” job overseas, working on a road project in Saudi. He then gravitated to Pattaya, where he has been a long-term member of Pattaya H3. He was the first to reach 500 runs and also clocked up 300 plus runs with the Dirt Road H3, which ranks him second in their all-time table. A noted Religious Advisor who favours ice. For several years he was involved with the Wild Elephant Pub, ‘the second home of the Pattaya Hash’.

AKU

Alfred-Kurt Zuber

World hasher

A Hash veteran who started running in Esfahan, Iran in the days when the Shah of Iran was still the Shah of Iran. After a short break in Taipei, AKU returned to the Middle East, spending the next seven years in Iraq. After running with Baghdad H3 and Babylon H3, his work as a project manager and railway engineer took him to the more remote area of Baiji where he founded the Ashur H3. Returning to Germany in 1987, he was joint founder of Frankfurt H3. Within a year AKU was back overseas, hashing in Dar es Salaam from 1988-1993 and Korea from 1996 to 2001.

Alum, John

Brunei H3

On April 28th 1979 John Alum entered Hash legend when awarded the world’s very first Hashit for a particularly poor run with Brunei H3.

Ambler, Jim

Kinakoto Balu

Co-founder and hare on the first run of the Kota Kinabalu H3.

Amblin, Anna and Geoff

Surrey H3/Nassau H3

Were active members of Surrey H3 when posted to Bahamas on an 18-month water project. On arrival they founded Nassau H3.

Ambrose

Tony Erswell

Bangkok H3

Veteran hasher who joined Bangkok H3 on Run 8. Now on 1300 plus runs with them. Still remembered for a trail in 1986, when he arranged a boat to take the pack across a river to the start off the run. When no boat turned up the pack asked, ‘please tell us you didn’t pay the boatman in advance?’

Amnesia

Iain Belton

Bicester H3

Has hashed with Bicester H3 since 1976, holding all the mismanagement positions at least once, and ‘at various times, cocking them all up!’ An important Hash historian, he hunted down Gispert’s birth certificate and exposed the Bordighera hoax.

Anapurna

Megan Magee

Bangladesh Mixed, Taipa Macau H3

In a short hash career Anapurna has been GM of both the Dhaka Mixed Hash and Macau H3. A Canadian and a teacher, she also arranged and fought in the first ever female boxing bout to be staged in Macau. Gained her name on an away trip to Nepal where her silhouette was thought to resemble the distant mountain range.

Hash legend Anapurna

Who did I miss? What information should I have added?

Updates and suggestions to:
hawthornpublishing@gmail.com
To be continued next month with the rest of the letter A

On On A History of the Hash House Harriers

Kindle version scheduled to be released on April 7th

Print version to be available shortly!

Hash Classic

The Creek Nimitz Run
June 8th 1993
Jebel Ali Port

This Creek run is one of the all time classics. The USS Nimitz, a giant aircraft carrier, would be returning to town and there was hopes that the Creek boys might be allowed aboard. Although the hares had boasted they had influence, some of the pack was doubtful that it would actually happen.

- On the day however the pack gathered in the docks where they were greeted by two of the crew, Barney Two-Wire Scott and Bob In-The Butt-Bob Wiedman who were keen hashers. A senior officer, Commander Muir, was also involved.
- Hashers were warned to be extra careful when running on the flight deck, their guide adding 'that was the top with the planes on it.'
- The route up through the ship was marked by yellow arrows, and armed marines 'each 6-6' stood at every level to make sure the hashers stayed on the trail. Note: AhPisto has a slightly different memory, believing 'the group used the aircraft elevator to access the flight deck.'
- On the flight deck the hashers posed for a photo with an F-14, then it was back through the cargo bay and out to a well positioned beer stop.
- 'The septic hares' (septic tank – Yank) 'then left it to their CH3 counterparts to lead the second part of the run around the streets of the port.'
- The circle was of mega length and it seems that some of the ship crew joined in as 'the helmet' (the weekly hashit) went to Commander Muir and rating Powerpuke Pruitt.
- This was the 10th run for Ian Browning, who therefore received his name. His surname of Browning was linked with Bisto gravy powder and the famous "Ah Bisto" advertisement. Hence AhPisto. (See this week's A to Z of Hashers)
- The final comment of the Hash trash was aimed at the Desert H3, 'DH3 - eat your heart out you wankers.'

Hash Classic

The grave of Tim Magic Hughes

Bangkok Protestant Cemetery, Chao Phraya River

Country Profiles

The Golden Age of Thai Hashing 1977-1986

It is possible that a Bangkok hash was active around 1969, but this attempt failed (most likely due to the heavy Monday night traffic). Hashing in Thailand therefore officially dates to 11th June 1977 when Bill Panton, just returned to Asia from a spell in Washington, founded Bangkok H3.

Possibly foreseeing the problem with traffic, Bill decided that Saturday would be a more suitable day. Numbers started around twenty and rose rapidly, so that after only the third run the decision was taken to meet weekly. Thailand, with cheap beer and food, great countryside and a 'social life' to fit every taste was always going to prove fertile ground. As one senior hasher wrote, 'hashing fits Thailand as well as Thailand fits hashing'.

Run 112th was noted for the virgin run of Timothy Magic Hughes. It did not appear a promising start. Bill Panton later described Tim as a 'slow moving, somewhat overweight, perspiring and heavy breathing newcomer, who appeared to be close to giving up.' Instead of giving up, Tim would go on to make a unique contribution to modern hashing.

Tim Hughes was born in Staffordshire, England in 1944. A talented musician, he played with Bern Elliot and the Fenmen, a group that had a top ten hit in 1963 with their version of the Beatles song 'Money'. Tim then enjoyed a successful career in business, moving to Bangkok in 1969, where he became Managing Director of Ford Motor Company. He wasted his first decade in Thailand by not hashing, but within three years of his Bangkok H3 debut had been appointed GM of the kennel.

In 1981 Bangkok Hashers headed north to Chiang Mai to celebrate their 200th run, where they invited local expatriates to join them. It was such a great weekend that it inspired Charlie Radar Graham to found Chiang Mai H3. Thailand's fourth biggest city has a very laid back feel and is the centre of the trekking industry, so there were exciting options for trails and the hash prospered. The same year saw Songkhla H3 (Motto: You're only young once, but you can stay immature forever!) being founded in the far south of the country.

Hashing next spread to the beach resort of Pattaya, where Hans and Molly Kirgis (both Bangkok hashers) founded Pattaya H3 with the encouragement and support of Tim Hughes and other members of the Bangkok Hash fraternity. Their first run attracted twelve participants, and in these early days they offered a monthly run that was virtually an away weekend for Bangkok hashers. The growth of this new kennel owed a lot to the arrival of two hash veterans, Jack The Phantom Walker and Frank Whorator Benfield, while another important influence was Bill Jones, an American of Vietnam War vintage, who had never returned to the USA.

Pattaya H3 was soon attracting packs of 60-70 and from Run 21 onwards met weekly. The surrounding forest was still wild, with hashers occasionally catching a glimpse of elephants. Only a few weeks after their founding, and with the encouragement and vision of Tim Hughes, Pattaya won the bid to stage the 1986 Interhash.

Pattaya, we should note, is also famous for the Dirt Road H3, which to its fans is about brilliant runs, long circles, ice and wild partying. To their critics, Dirt Road is merely an opportunity to hang out with the whores. Both versions probably hold elements of truth!

And of course there was the legendary Thinking Drinking Hash. Thai hashers traditionally took the train up to Hua Hin to celebrate the Queen's Birthday Weekend. One night in 1991, as the train rolled through the dark, Hymen Hacker and Tinker discussed the idea of doing this regularly, but without the run to spoil the fun. The circle would be held in the train coming up, leaving the whole weekend free for drinking and shagging. It would be 'The Thinking Drinking Hash' with those attending expected to be able to master at least one, and preferably both of those skills. Wichanee Imelda Charutas and Bill Blobs Hobbs arranged the first Thinking Drinking away trip a couple of months later and Thinking Drinking trails became regular – indeed legendary - features at Interhash and other big occasions.

It was at the height of this exciting period that Interhash returned to Thailand, with Bangkok and Pattaya organizing the 1986 event. Tim Magic Hughes served as chairman and Frank Whorator Benfield, the Pattaya H3 GM, was his Deputy and Stage Master. This was the largest gathering so far, breaking the 2000 barrier (2143 attended). Several UK hashes, including Surrey, Wessex, Berks and East Grinstead were surprised to find they were all flying out on the same plane, which led to a memorable flight.

Thailand was still an emerging economy so there was little hope of sponsorship, meaning an initial fee of US$ 80 and rising. Communication was by mail (or unreliable telex) and local hashers remember Magic driving to the Post Office, having struggled to push the numerous sacks of letters into his tiny Ford Laser.

For many people the fun started in Bangkok, with groups of hashers to be found in every Go-Go bar of Pattaya. At the appointed hour the hash multitude climbed aboard their buses for a police escort to Pattaya. Registration and the official opening was at the Grand Palace Hotel, where the food reflected a rural Thai village theme. Magic was brought into the arena by an elephant that immediately vacated both bladder and bowels! Kickboxing and Lam Morrison's (no relation to Van Morrison) Deep Purple renditions entertained the flock, along with a transvestite-dancing troupe who awed and confused many a hasher.

Hares from Bangkok and Pattaya set 22 runs, taking hashers to the north and south of Pattaya, with all the runs finishing at the Ocean Marina Beach. Pattaya was in the middle of a drought so much of the countryside was not at its best. There was also a problem when the water arrived in giant tankers, not little plastic bottles! Much depended on the runners. Trail Number 5 was considered a failure on the first day but declared a great run on the second day – the ability of the pack to understand a false trail was the deciding point. Similarly the A-to-B beach run brought complaints about the length, but this only doubled the number wanting to run it the following day. After the run Jakarta H3 demonstrated their singing circle, a concept enthusiastically adopted by Pattaya H3 and others.

Monday morning saw a fleet of buses return the majority of runners to Bangkok, although some 600 stayed on for Pattaya's Monday run. This report, from the visiting Jakarta men, summaries it all rather nicely: 'The criticisms of this fiasco abound; there was too much beer, too many women, not enough sleep, too long runs.'

The Bangkok Hash Week

Monday	Bangkok Monday Hash
Tuesday
Wednesday	Harriettes
Thursday	Thursday Hash
Friday	Full moon
Saturday	Bangkok H3 and Bush hash
Sunday	Siam Sunday

Hash House Harriers
Pattaya, Thailand

